Recipe for the Northern Hemisphere Lughnasadh

Chicken & Goat Cheese Pasta

Source: <https://www.awesomeon20> written by Renee

INGREDIENTS

- 1 pound rigatoni
- 1 quart cream
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh rosemary
- 1 clove garlic, crushed and peeled
- 8 ounces goat cheese, chopped into cubes
- 2 cups shredded or chopped cooked chicken
- salt and pepper to taste

INSTRUCTIONS

Put a large pot of water on to boil. Once it's boiling, add plenty of salt, and drop your pasta in, stirring occasionally to make sure it doesn't stick together.

Boil for 10 minutes, then drain and return to the pot.

While your pasta is doing its thing, add the cream to a saucepan over medium low heat.

Add in the rosemary and garlic clove and bring the cream to a simmer. Be careful not to let it boil. Let it simmer for a few minutes to reduce and thicken.

Add in the goat cheese and stir until it melts.

Once your sauce and pasta are both ready, add the sauce and the chicken to the pasta, and toss it all together to combine. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Lemon Garlic Pasta

Source: <https://www.awesomeon20> written by Renee

INGREDIENTS

- 8 ounces spaghetti
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- Zest and juice of 1 lemon
- 1 garlic clove
- ½ cup fresh bread crumbs
- ½ cup chopped parsley
- 2 tablespoons butter
- ¼ teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes
- Salt and pepper to taste
- ¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

INSTRUCTIONS

Fill a large pot with water and place it over high heat. Put the lid on so it will boil faster.

Once you've reached a rapid boil, add a couple fat pinches of salt, then cook your pasta according to the package directions.

Before you drain the pasta, use a coffee cup to remove about half a cup of pasta water in case you need to add moisture to your dish later. Drain the pasta and return it to it's cooking pot.

While you're waiting for your pasta to do its thing, place a skillet over medium low heat and add the olive oil.

While your oil is warming, zest your lemon into the skillet. Next, peel your garlic clove and grate it into the warming oil as well.

Once that becomes fragrant, stir in the bread crumbs. Cook them gently, stirring occasionally, until they become browned and crisp.

Turn off the heat and stir in the chopped parsley. Set aside until your pasta is cooked.

Once you've got your pasta back in the hot pan, add the butter and juice of half a lemon.

Toss everything together until all the pasta is coated in the butter.

Add the red pepper flakes, salt and pepper, and parmesan cheese and toss again.

You may need to add a bit of that reserved pasta water to keep everything moist and bring it all together.

Taste it now to see if you want to add more lemon juice or other seasonings.

Finally, add the bread crumb mixture and toss to combine.

Gemstone Corner: Selenite

By Rev Firefay

This month's stone is the selenite stone known as the "Goddess Stone". It's named after the goddess Selena, daughter of Hyperion and Thea. Selenite is a higher-level healing stone used to open the crown chakra and channel the healing energies of the goddess. This is an excellent stone to use for ritual tools as well as healing wands and also pendulums. Formed from calcium sulfate dihydrate, selenite is a soft stone easy to carve and shape. It is typically found in shades of pearly white but is sometimes a shade of pale orange. A variety of the gypsum mineral, selenite is naturally found all over the world in the form of a slab of stone, a desert rose (shown above in the center) or a gypsum flower (on the left).

For healing purposes, Selenite is used to move energy blockages, brings protection and harmony. It heals on a spiritual level and opens us up to communicate on higher frequencies to receive otherworldly messages. Such a delicate soft stone reminds us to treat one another, as well as nature with benevolence and respect. It is the perfect stone to reunite with the goddess within you. On the physical level, this stone strengthens the skeletal structure and prevents damage to cells. With this stone, you will appear more youthful and feel unburdened as the stone frees you from earthly worry and anxiety. Selenite's healing starts with the heart chakra and works its way to the crown and beyond to the spiritual chakras.

As a wand, selenite can cleanse the aura and ritual space, cleanse and charge other stones, giving massages, and also to keep sharp focus when directing energy. This stone can also be used to make an athame, a pentacle, a chalice, or libation dish.

Selenite is so soft that it can easily be scratched and must be lightly cleansed with a soft toothbrush, warm water and natural soap if necessary. Take care to thoroughly dry the stone after cleansing and not to leave it to soak in water as it could dissolve in water. To be safe, cleanse selenite with smudging instead. Be sure to wrap the stone in a cloth to protect it if storing it with other crystals that could scratch it. The best way to charge selenite is with moonlight. You may store other crystals near your selenite to keep them charged as selenite is an energy collecting stone.

Reading Corner for July

By Rev Firefay

Greetings brothers and sisters. For this month's reading I'm using a one card drawing for the general world energy of the month of July. The deck used is "The Book of Thoth" by Allister Crowley and Frieda Harris. The question asked, with the help of the goddess Bastet was "What will be the world energy for the month of July of the year 2022?"

The card drawn is the following:

The Prince of Cups, the Aerial aspect of water. Of apparent calm and coolness, the prince of cups is subtle, discrete, secretly violent. He hides an intense passion by leading others to believe he is sensitive to outside influence to better manipulate them. Few people understand him and those that know him, do not trust him. He is without pity and has an intense love for power and wisdom. The Prince of Cups cannot be restrained and does not do well in a routine job.

It seems the month of July will be a rough month for the world. There might not be outright mayhem but there will be subtle and discrete manipulations taking place. The world must understand that trying to confront this negative energy head-on will likely have no effect. The only way to work around things is with wisdom and intelligence. You must learn how the manipulator works and try to outsmart him at his own game. Using suppleness against force is what works best just like in taichi. When fighting an adversary bigger and stronger than oneself, one should not try to use their own force as they will likely be beaten and lose energy. Instead, absorbing the adversary's energy and attacking when they are off balance and vulnerable is best. This does not mean to attack anyone or go to war but it's an example from martial arts. The same principle can be used for anything whether for diplomacy, commerce, negotiations, etc.

We as Correllians must stay optimistic and keep performing our rituals for peace and earth healing. Alone we are powerless but all together we are strong. There are many good people on the earth that believe in the earth and the future. We must not let negative energy overpower us.

Please perform your peace rituals this month. The world needs all of you.

Blessings!

The Temple of Contemplation Formal Shrine

The Temple of Contemplation is now offering a monthly “contemplation” for anyone and everyone who wishes to partake. In both hemispheres we are embarking on a new half of the year. In the Southern Hemisphere, we’re preparing for the long winter months and the anticipation of the light half of the year and in the Northern Hemisphere, the dark half is upon us, which we tend to forget as we are still experiencing the long days of summer and the enthusiasm that the summer seems to bring out in all of us. Either way, we all seem to be thinking ahead of what the summer or winter seasons will bring upon us and it is deemed a time of looking ahead and not looking back. So what forward thinking are you currently experiencing? Are your plans going ahead and are your hopes being met? Are you experiencing anything unexpected or out of the ordinary? What is it that you are seeking for yourself and for others?

If you wish to share your thoughts and contemplations with us and have them published in the next edition of the Correllian Herald, then please feel free to email them to – heraldeditor@gmail.com - we would love to hear from you!

This might be the time of the calendrical new year that you are looking for something new or different to discover so why not become an official member of the Temple of Contemplation? To find out more information or to request to join the Temple of Contemplation please email admin@correlliantradition.co.uk

Also, the Temple of Contemplation holds a monthly online Peace Ritual, as part of the Correllian Global Rolling Peace Prayer, on the second Wednesday of every month. All are welcome to attend to help us send out peace across the globe. The importance of our peace prayer has grown of late, and we continue to send out peace through the Correllian Global Rolling Peace Prayer as well as our monthly online Peace Prayer Ritual. All are welcome to attend and join in our quest for Peace. For more information please go here - Peace Page \(correlliantradition.co.uk\)

We have a brand new shiny io Group and we are currently seeking old members as well as new and additional healers to either join, or re-join, the Distance Healing Network to send out greatly required healing to those out there so desperately in need of healing energies.

You are more than welcome to participate in the weekly rituals if you so wish to. Correllian Mission for Pagans to the Ninth Parliament of the World's Religions

Our primary mission as a duty of the Correllian Tradition is to Promote Representation and Inclusion of Pagan and Wiccan Traditions through participation and attendance at the Parliament, while being proactive in gathering us together.

The Mission is focused on providing support and representation at the Parliament of the World's Religions. Our primary skill of service is the ability to attract and fill the needs of tickets and admissions and supporting those individuals and groups at nearly every level of hospitality.

The Services:

Housing: Provide Housing at high quality and affordable prices. We are looking at sharing all manner of spaces including large homes, great shared spaces, hotels, and to provide a safe space to sleep and wind down.

Transportation: The Mission will include transportation to and from the Parliament Events from your housing through a combination of tools. We will be within 25 minutes of the Parliament Center, which will allow for rapid and efficient people moving.

Food: The Sikhs do the Langar. This is a daily lunchtime event that anyone can take part in. As far as the mission, we will provide breakfast, for every food health variant. This will include additional foods to be able to make bag lunches. We will also include evening foods in order that no one will go hungry.

Scholarships: It is expected that most members can afford all aspects of the Parliament, and through this mission dramatically bring down the costs of attendance. Yet, we have individuals that, no matter what they do, cannot afford this without direct financial assistance. We are actually aware of our overseas members whose local economies cannot provide the dollars needed, and this the mission plans to work on from the very beginning. For the Correllians this will include overseas members from the Philippines, South Africa, and South America. This will be a wonderful opportunity to draw in together our Clergy globally, for a worthy cause, and to assure we are represented in the halls of the Parliament.

Tech Support: We do not yet know all the details of how the Parliament will want to represent themselves online. It is our hope they will accept assistance and allow us to develop social broadcasting services. But we will be developing our ability to support our tech movement towards the 9th Parliament of the World's Religions in Chicago, 14-18 August 2023. It will be the most interactive in history.

So, this is the Correllian Mission.

Chartered Bodies of the Correllian Tradition

Witan Shrines are the first level of the Temple-Making Process. Witan Shrines are created by Charter of the Tradition and may progress to Full Temple status over the course of several years or remain at Witan Shrine status indefinitely.

A list of current Witan Shrines may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/witan-shrines.html>

Proto-Temples are groups which have progressed beyond the status of Shrines and are on their way to becoming Full Temples but have not yet achieved that status.

A list of current Proto-Temples may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/proto-temple.html>

Full Temples of the Correllian Tradition have completed the Temple-Making Process and, if headed by a Third Degree, have representation on the Witan Council. A Full Temple can perform all of the functions of a Temple and may in some cases have multiple branches.

A list of current Temples may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/temple.html>

Formal Shrines are Shrines that are dedicated to specific activities of a limited nature. Formal Shrines may exist as an aspect of a larger group or may stand alone in their own right.

A list of current Formal Shrines may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/formal-shrines.html>

Personal Shrines are an aspect of an individual Correllian member's personal piety and are not bodies of the Tradition as such. Personal Shrines exist wholly at the discretion of the member, however the Tradition does acknowledge them upon request.

A list of current Personal Shrines may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/personal-shrines.html>

Orders are associations within the Tradition dedicated to specific skills, tasks, or interests. This sort of Order is not to be confused with the Meritorious Orders which are awarded in recognition of service.

A list of current Orders may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/orders.html>

Houses of Contemplation are established to facilitate the temporary or permanent practice of the contemplative religious life. Depending upon the rules of the specific House of Contemplation guests may come for spiritual retreats of designated length, or to pursue a life of permanent contemplation in the manner of a Monastery.

A list of current Houses of Contemplation may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/houses-of-contemplation.html>
