Spring 2021 Lustration of the Ancestors Report

M. Rev. Don Lewis FP

Greetings everyone!

The Lustration of the Ancestors was held virtually over the weekend of April 30-May 2 Year 21, and as we always do, we have prepared a report for those who could not attend live.

This Lustration was hosted by Correllian First Elder Rt Rev Alyssa Maxon Kemp and Dancers of Shakti Temple and by Arch Priest Rt Rev Ser Phoenix Coffin-Williams and the Temple of Holistic Knowledge. The Order of Paladins handled the technical end of the event under Paladin General Rt Rev Ser Ed Hubbard and Paladin Major Rev Ser Eboni Nash.

This year's Lustration of the Ancestors featured a full slate of presentations offered in English and Spanish and carefully scheduled so as not to conflict so that those who wished could attend them all.

A $25 donation was asked to attend the presentations live in real time, with the proceeds going to CEM Broadcasting through which we bring you Lustration coverage and many other audio and video offerings. Over $1,300 was raised to benefit CEM Broadcasting and we want to thank everyone who attended for supporting this cause, which is so important to our Tradition, and we especially want to thank Lustration hosts Lady Alyssa and Ser Phoenix for setting the event up this way. You can see video coverage of the event at CorrellianLustration.com

This was followed by the Oracle of the Ancestors. This Lustration's Oracle was:

"It gives us joy to see you come together, and we say to you that you shall come together many more times for the future stretches long before you. There will be times in the next year and years beyond when you may question where the roads are going, but we say to you that the roads are going into the New Age, reborn and reshaped for the better. The world around you is disintegrating and will rebuild itself. You, our children, must play a role in that rebuilding. You must not abrogate this role, but rather must fulfill it using all that you have learned and all that you have known, for this is what you have come to do. The work that you do now will shape the world of your future incarnations as well as the future of this life. You may not always understand how this is so, but you will come to see that it is so. Not for nothing have we shared with you the knowledge and the skills that we have done, but for this purpose for which we have labored and for which you have labored, and which is only the opening of this time of transformation. You are the guides and guardians of the New Age. You are not the only people acting in this capacity, but you have come to act in this capacity, and you must do so. You will find you know what needs to be done because the map was made before you were ever born, though this is not to say the doing will be easy. There is much work ahead, much skill required, and the outcome will not always be evident until well after the fact, but we will guide you and stand beside you, and you guide also yourselves for each one of you has come for this role and carries within yourself the knowledge of what must be done. Before you were ever born, we all made a pact to enact this role at this time for the betterment of the Earth. Open your hearts to it, it will come to you when it is needed. Know that there is not one of you who does not have a role to play in building a better, kinder, more just world where the blessings of Spirit will flow more freely, the essence of Spirit manifest more fully than ever before. These are our words to you our children and we give you our love and our admiration for taking on this work with us. We are One Family, hand in hand, carnate and discarnate, living in the World of the Physical and the World of the Spirits -but no wall separates us. We dance the dance of life together. We go forward in this work together. One Family, One People, One Love between our many Hearts. May you be blessed.”

The Wandering Wiccan

Music to Witch School By! By Rev. WinterGhost

I don't know about anyone else, but I always need to have music in the background when working or studying – and doing my Second Degree studies is no exception!

So I thought I would share with you my Top 10 pagan or 'witchy' songs (some by contemporary artists, others more traditional) that are on my Go To playlist when studying! Maybe you'll find a new favourite, too!

1. Donovan: Season of the Witch

Written at the start of the psychedelic pop movement, Season of the Witch, whilst mellow, has an atmosphere of dark foreboding which permeates throughout this song, a story that highlights the paranoia that surrounds the paranormal. If you prefer your music 'moody', this is one for you!

2. Green Crown: Witches' Reel

Probably one of my first 'wiccan' songs that I discovered, Witches Reel by Green Crown, the history of this reel is linked back to the North Berwick Witch Trials in 1591. Francis Hepburn, Earl of Bothwell, was tried for a plot to kill the king, James VI of Scotland. The reel is based on transcripts from the trial. The gentle opening that then builds and builds into a frenzied crescendo, a repetitive melody throughout, fills me with energy. It is reminiscent of energy being built during a ritual and, despite its unpleasant origins, I find it to be refreshing and spirited!

3. Amber Benson: Under Your Spell

OK, I admit it, I am a HUGE fan of Buffy the Vampire Slayer but this beautiful, soulful song taken from the hilarious Once More With Feeling episode would STILL have made it on to this list if I'd discovered it without the help of the TV show! Amber's voice has a sweet, hesitant tone to it which makes the beautiful lyrics soar with a magical quality all of their own – no pun intended! Shiningly, hauntingly simple!

4. Loreena McKennitt: The Mystic's Dream

A pure, crystal voice backed up by a brilliant blend of Gregorian chants, Spanish castanets, Irish Uilleann pipes and Indian tambouras, this song surrounds me with positive vibes and a sense of mystical wonder. It fills my soul with the need to travel and discover ancient cultures. I can't listen to it and not be completely chilled and at peace in the universe.

5. Faun: Walpurgisnacht

A German pagan friend got me into this song after telling me all about Walpurgisnacht, which is apparently a celebration that blends the sabbat Beltane with commemoration of St Walpurga where every dresses up and celebrates Halloween-style with bonfires! The song, despite being in German and my not understanding a word of it, evokes a sense of jubilation and excitement that has me tapping my feet, and my pen on the desk, in time to the beat whilst doing my studies! Hopefully I will be able to visit my friend post-pandemic and experience Walpurgisnacht for myself!

6. Lila: We All Come From the Goddess

There are many versions of this chant 'out there', but this particular one by Lindie Lila is far and away my favourite. From the gentle birdsong and drumbeat opening, the pure harmonies are uplifting and hypnotic at the same time before weaving into a soft, dreamlike, lilting finale.

7. Marianne Faithful: The Witches' Song

Covered by Julia Hatfield for the OST of the movie The Craft, the original version by Marianne Faithful is far superior! A gentle ode to sisterhood, the song is full of metaphors for female empowerment and women working together to bring about change. And it's extremely addictive...listen to it once and you will NOT get it out of your head!

8. Hagalaz' Runedance: Wake Skadi

Hagalaz' Runedance is one of the many names of Norwegian pagan folk artist Andrea Nebel. Her music is weaved with Norse mythology, paganism and nature spirituality, and this particular song, about the Norwegian goddess of winter, evokes images of cold, harsh mountains in dark northern lands and is perfect listening for the dark half of the year!

9. Robert Gass: Ancient Mother

As well as being soothing, heartfelt background music, this is also ideal for workings in ritual with its significant focus on the female aspect of Deity. The drum rhythms meld beautifully with the Goddess chant, which in turn weaves seamlessly with the voices in the main, melodious chant...I find myself alternating between one or the other when working without rhyme or reason, just from the sheer enjoyment of such a beautiful piece of music.

10. Erutan: Come, Little Children

The song gives me the chills whilst at the same time charming me with it's beauty! Creepy but mesmerizing, the song was originally entitled Sarah's Theme from the movie Hocus Pocus before being given more lyrics and recorded as a full-on song by Erutan, AKA Kate Covington. The imagery the song evokes, for me, is that of children being lured away into the realm of faeries, lost forever, and the sinister tone is softened by the lilting, tempting promises made if only we were to follow the singer...delicious darkness wrapped in a promise of sparkling lands of eternal sunshine!

So, these are my Top 10 songs for when I am doing my Witch School Studies! The list is by no means exhaustive, and there are many worthy ones that have not been mentioned. I hope you get the chance to check them out and maybe decide they need to be added to your playlist, too! Enjoy!

Correllians around the World

by Lady WolfCiara

In this series of articles, we are going to focus on a Correllian Member, and learn a little bit more about the said person. I do hope that this will shine a light to all of those, who are giving of themselves, to the Tradition.

This month, we are going to talk with WinterGhost or as she really is named: Christine Ann Kass. WinterGhost was born and raised in Nottingham, England, she says that she has always loved winter, her favourite season, and often loved to go off rambling by herself in the woods, or along a river, in winter, early in the morning whilst the mist was rising off the water and the leaves and branches of trees and everywhere was covered in frost. She was always the only one around and laughingly thought to her self that she was like a ghost of winter, and it 'kinda stuck' in her head!

Her students think she is 105 years old and immortal... so she says to us that we will leave it at that! She is currently waiting out the Covid pandemic in London (originally from Nottingham, England). However, she has spent the last 6 years living and working in China, and once the world 'reopens' she intend to head off again, this time to south America. She doesn't feel like she 'lives' in any one place, she has always thought of herself as a nomadic global citizen! It's just her in the family, and she used to have cats before starting her nomadic lifestyle. Unfortunately she does not think subjecting an animal to that kind of lifestyle is fair.

She says the main thing about her is that she loves to learn, so she always, ALWAYS has a book with her no matter where, and always challenges herself to learn new things. To this end she can fly a plane, has a black belt in Karate and can speak Spanish, Chinese, French, German and a little bit of Italian. Travel is her best love, and being outdoors. She also has an obsession for all things paranormal, and has been involved with some excellent investigations with fellow Correllian Rev. Equinox Silvermoon. She works and teaches Content & Language Integrated Learning science topics, in English, to non-English speaking children. She stops there, and say that she won't start on her love for volcanoes and space!

Her travels have exposed her to culturally diverse practices, especially rituals and festivals around animism, buddhism and local traditions within local Asian communities. She love being able to experience these and following the threads to a common link that we all share no matter what we follow. She is also almost at the end of her second degree studies with Witch School, and really enjoys the learning side of those courses so much that she pretty much does any of the extra courses that she can fit in.

She does not have a favourite tool, as such, due to a traveler lifestyle – 'try explaining an atheme to the security at airport check-in'! Besides, given that she has had some spookily accurate prophecy dreams in her time she is going to actually say her favourite divination tool is her own mind, subconscious or otherwise!

She has 'dabbled' without purpose ever since she left home to go to university aged 18 but mostly everything was pretty much the pop-culture idea of magic (think TV shows such as Charmed and Buffy the Vampire Slayer). Then Rev Equinox told her about Witch School. She joined, got hooked on the courses, and found her way to Lady Anna and the Temple of Sedna. Ten years later she is still there, progressing at her own pace through the degrees, a priestess, and a member of what she feel is her true family. Correllian is 'home'.

She has been within Correllian Tradition for about ten years now. Just finishing off her second degree. She has a couple more lessons to do and the final test and project. Lady Anna was her mentor during first degree, and she now consider her a friend as well as Correllian family, it seemed only natural that her path would then follow hers to Sedna. Naturally all of the required courses for the degree studies is taken, but also many of the optional ones such as basics of Voodoo, the Egyptian Pantheon and Dream Discovery. She have no particular 'field' that she prefers, if it looks interesting then she will do it!

We thank WinterGhost for her time in answering our questions for us. Hoping for continued blessings for her on the Wicca-path she is following in the Correllian Tradition.

49 – Mikle á Muckle

Everyday blessings, play, mixed blessings. Lighten up. What is needed here is the benefit of a childlike trusting heart and a childlike wisdom, seeing directly into the true nature of things.

Prediction for June 2021

Tarotdeck

The Faeries Oracle by Brian Froud

Crafting with Bella

I do believe in fairies, I do, I do!

Being a huge fan of fairies, of course one of my projects had to be decorating a fairy house.

I will also be making a fairy landscape with little houses and figurines to let the fairies know that they are most welcome in my garden and when I do, I will share it with you.

For this easy little house, you will need the following:

- A birdhouse (I bought mine very cheap on Aliexpress)
- Pinecones
- Moss
- Paper flowers
- Glitter glue

Glue the moss around the entire bottom half of the house.

Break the pinecones into pieces to layer them from the bottom to the top of the roof.

Glue the flowers on the roof.

Wolfciara's Wiccan World

By Lady WolfCiara

Merry meet my fellow Wiccans and Welcome to my little corner of the Wiccan World.

So have yet another month passed by, and with that we are in June, already and the summer-weather is here, at least here in Sweden. Lots of things has happened and have had a just marvelous month, that was just passing by. I was away to Skansen (Swedish Outdoor Museum) with animals and have old houses, like from yesterday.. 1800th and 1900th centuries as houses and other things related to that time period. I was there with my youngest brother, his two girls – Nylah and Zion – and my boyfriend. We had a marvelous weather when we were there, and felt really tired afterwards, but still energized. Had a hamburger with fries, and a soft icecream when we were at Skansen...

I saw wolves, bears, crocodiles, spiders, monkeys, alligators, turtles, snakes, mooses/elks, seals, ducks, peacocks, rabbits, horses, amongst other animals. It was a long time since I was there, and I got childhd memories, while walking down on memory lane.

I bet it will be many more visits to Zoos now, as the vaccination is ongoing, and with that less restrictions and rules to follow. I have a fun and interesting summer ahead for me, I think.

I have met a new boyfriend and he is into Wicca too, although more Norse tradition, but is interested in what I am, and the Correllianism. So looking forward to letting him learn more about us Correllians, and our community that we have within the Tradition. He is so interested and wants to learn, yesterday. LAUGH LOUDLY... All in good times and will sort itself out in the long run. I will be there and see to that he gets the best education, and yet be the one to support him in his studies. He will probably get an account on WitchSchool, in the near future or so.

This weekend, I will have two of my brothers with their girls – 4 of them in the age of 8-4 years of age – over, and it will be fun, fun, fun, and more fun. Loads of memories to make, and a fun cousins meeting, with a sleep over.

So, I will have organized chaos, at my house, but I do love it, though. It's also a nice time for us siblings to meet up and have a great time together. We have way so much fun time, and always looking forward to the next time we can meet up, again. Every one of us, has different agendas, and the brothers are working during the week, so it's not much time to see one another during the weeks. Maybe some longer time, as we soon will be having vacation-time, which is 4 weeks straight, here in Sweden.

Take care until next time. Blessed be all of you. Love and light, hugz and blessings.

The Temple of Contemplation Formal Shrine

The Temple of Contemplation is now offering a monthly “contemplation” for anyone and everyone who wishes to partake. At this time of the year, we tend to be thinking about the up and coming as well as long anticipated Summer months, but it is easy to forget that not everyone is celebrating Beltane. We at the Temple of Contemplation have been thinking about what people in both hemispheres will be thinking about at this time of the year. From the excitement of summer plans to looking back over the passing of the current wheel of the year are we all either looking forwards or looking back? As continuing year carries on for some of us and the new wheel beginning again for others, what is it that we are asking of ourselves? Or are we asking them of others? Are there other issues or topics that you personally think about or resolve at this changing time of the year?

If you wish to share your thoughts and contemplations with us and have them published in the next edition of the Correllian Herald, then please feel free to email them to – heraldeditor@gmail.com

Blessings and happy contemplating!
