Pagan Calendar June 2017

June 1 Festival of the Oak Nymph. This Pagan celebration honors all hamadryads (female nature spirits who are believed to inhabit oak trees). Decorate a Pagan altar with acorns and wear some oak leaves in your hair. Kiss an oak tree or place a small offering of some kind before it, and the tree nymphs who dwell within it will surely bestow a blessing upon you.

June 2 Shapatu of Ishtar. A Pagan festival dedicated to the goddess Ishtar is celebrated every year on this date. She is the ancient Assyrian and Babylonian deity who presides over love and fertility as well as war. The birth of the god Apollo is also celebrated on this date.

June 3 The Festival of Cataclysmos is celebrated annually on this date on the Mediterranean island of Cyprus. The seaside ritual consists of prayers for the souls of the departed, traditional water games, and a sacred dance.

In Japan, a Buddhist ritual for young girls is performed annually on this date, and is dedicated to the goddesses Befana, Bona Dea, Kuan Yin, Rumina, and Surabhi.

June 4 Whitsunday, an annual Christian festival marking the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the disciples, is celebrated on the seventh Sunday after Easter (which normally falls on or near this date). However, like most Christian holidays, Whitsunday was at one time a Pagan fertility festival. It was celebrated in Europe with a "heathen feast" that marked the death of the spirit of Winter and the birth of the spirit of Summer.

According to English folklore, if a baby comes into the world on Whitsunday, he or she is destined to commit an act of murder or to be murdered.

June 5 On this date in the year 8498 B.C., the legendary island-continent of Atlantis sank beneath the waves of the Atlantic Ocean in a cataclysm believed to have been brought on by the anger of the great god Zeus.

To ensure an abundant harvest, a sacred Corn Dance is held each year at this time at San Ildefonso pueblo in the south western United States. It is dedicated to the Earth Mothers and the nature spirits known as the Rain People.

June 6 On this date (approximately), an annual festival to honor ancestral spirits begins in Nigeria. The festival, which lasts for one week, consists of street dancing, offerings of food and gifts to the Egungun, and ecstatic trance.

In Thrace, an ancient country in the southeastern part of the Balkan Peninsula, a festival called the Bendidia was held each year on this date. It was dedicated to the lunar goddess Bendi.

June 7 The Vestalia, an annual festival in honor of the hearth goddess Vesta, began on this date in ancient Rome. During the eight-day long festival, the shrine of Vesta was opened to married women. After the festival was over, the shrine was once again forbidden to all except the goddess' attendant vestal virgins.

June 8 In many Japanese villages, an ancient rice festival is held annually on this date. Women wearing traditional kimonos recite prayers and light rice-straw fires to honor the god of the rice and to bless the crops.

In China, the Grain in Ear festival is celebrated at this time. The grain gods are honored with old rituals to ensure a harvest of plenty.

June 9 On this date in 1892, Grace Cook (a popular spiritualist medium and founder of the White Eagle Lodge) was born in London, England. Her first psychic vision of Indian Chief White Eagle and other Native American spirits occurred early in her childhood. With the aid of her spirit guide, she authored many books on healing and spiritual growth. She believed that after her death (which occurred on September 3, 1979), her spirit would be reincarnated in Egypt.

June 10 On this date in the year 1692, a woman named Bridget Bishop was hanged on Gallows Hill in Salem, Massachusetts, after being found guilty of the crime of Witchcraft. She was the first person to be publicly executed in the infamous Salem Witch Trials.

June 11 On this date in 1912, spiritualist-medium Ruth Montgomery was born in Princeton, Indiana. Her interest in the world of the occult began in 1956, when she first began attending séances. She has written numerous bestselling occult books and is famous for her gift of communicating with spirit guides through automatic writing.

June 12 Light gold-colored candles on your altar and wear oak leaves in your hair to honor the Greek god Zeus, who is traditionally honored on this day.

In Korea, rice farmers wash their hair in a stream on this day as part of an annual ritual to dispel bad luck and to ensure an abundant crop. This ritual has taken place since ancient times.

June 13 On this date in the year 1884, Gerald Gardner was born in Lancashire, England. Nicknamed King of the Witches, he went on to become a famous and well-respected Wiccan author and the founder of the Gardnerian tradition of the modern Wicca religion. He died on February 12, 1964.

Irish poet and ceremonial magician William Butler Yeats was also born on this date in the year 1865.

June 14 In ancient Rome, the goddess Minerva (patroness of wisdom and the arts, and a deity of battle) was honored annually on this date at her sacred festival, the Lesser Quinquatrus of Minerva.

In India, this is a day sacred to Jagannath, a benevolent incarnation of the god Vishnu. An annual festival in honor of him is celebrated in the city of Puri on the East Coast of India.

June 15 On this date in the year 1648, Margaret Jones of Charlestown, Massachusetts, was executed in Boston for practicing Witchcraft and magical healing. This was the first pre-Salem Witch execution to be officially recorded in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

June 16 Silver Chalice Day. Every year on this date, Wiccan friends and coven members gather together in a circle to rejoice and share a traditional silver chalice of wine (or fruit juice) consecrated in the names of the Goddess and Her consort, the Horned God. Many Pagan hand fastings and Wiccanings are performed by coven priestesses around this time of the month.

On this date in the year 1881, famous Voodoo Queen Marie Laveau died in her home in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Also on this date, Eurydice (a tree nymph who was transformed into an Underworld goddess after dying from a serpent bite) was honored annually in ancient Greece.

June 18 The annual Dragon Boat-Festival (which at one time was a Pagan summer solstice ritual to appease the dragon gods of the rivers) is celebrated on this date in China in honor of the martyred poet, Qu Yuan. June 20 On this day, Pagans in parts of England celebrate the Day of Cerridwen in honor of the ancient Celtic goddess of fertility. Vervain (the herb most sacred to Cerridwen) is burned in small cauldron pots as an offering to the goddess, green ribbons are tied to trees, and green candles are lit on altars dedicated to her. June 21 On the first day of Summer (which normally occurs on or near this date), the Summer Solstice sabbath is celebrated by Wiccans and Witches throughout the world. Summer Solstice (which is also known as Midsummer, Alban hefin, and Litha) marks the longest day of the year when the Sun is at its zenith. In certain Wiccan traditions, the Summer Solstice symbolizes the end of the reign of the waxing year's Oak-King, who is now replaced by his successor, the Holly-King of the waning year. (The Holly-King will rule until the Winter Solstice.) It is the ideal time for divinations, healing rituals, and the cutting of divining rods and wands. On Midsummer Day, the people of ancient Russia worshiped the fertility goddess Kupala. To ensure female fertility and abundant crops, she was honored with bonfires, sacrifices of cockarels, and special wreaths that were cast into the rivers.

June 22 On this date (approximately), the Sun enters the astrological sign of Cancer. Persons born under the sign of the Crab are said to be family and home-oriented, nurturing, sympathetic, and often very moody. Cancer is a water sign and is ruled by the Moon.

June 23 In parts of Ireland and Great Britain, Pagans celebrate an annual festival on this date called the Day of Cu Chulainn. It is dedicated to the legendary Irish folk hero of the same name and to the ancient Pagan fertility god known as the Green Man. Saint John's Eve. This night is a traditional time for Witches to gather herbs for spells and love potions, for it is believed that the magical properties of plants are at their peak on this mystical night.

Llamas were ritually slaughtered and their entrails were used by priests for divining the future. On this date in the year 1950, Reformed Alexandrian Witch and author Janet Farrar was born in London, England.

June 25 Gay Wiccan Pride Day. This is a time for gay and lesbian Wiccans from around the world to unite and celebrate life, love, and the Goddess. Come out of the proverbial "broom closet" and be proud of who you are!

A centuries-old women's festival is held in India every year on this date in honor of the goddess Parvati.

June 26 According to ancient Icelandic legend, every year at noon on the date, the tip of the shadow of Mount Scartaris points to the secret entrance of "Centre Earth", in which dwell giant humanlike creatures and prehistoric monsters.

Are you a Correllian or Witch School author?

M. Rev. Don Lewis

Are you a Correllian or Witch School author? I know that we have quite a few of members who have published books over the years, and I am hoping to celebrate our Correllian and Witch School authors at the new Correllian home site (about which more soon).

If you are a Correllian Tradition member or a Witch School member who has one or more published books, I would love to feature you on the Authors page when the new site premieres, and celebrate the wonderful talent we have among us!

If you would like to be included, please contact me at DonLewisHP@aol.com with information about your book or books! We would also like to celebrate singers and musicians who have CDs available. We look forward to sharing knowledge of your work with all our members and friends!

CNT 50/50 Auction

Here is how it will work:

The first week of each month you will have the opportunity to add something you wish to sell into the Facebook Group. You will need to post a photo or photos and include a description of the item, including approx. size and whatever best serves to describe the item, including a starting bid and the price to mail to the U.S. (also Canada, Mexico and International) similar to what is offered during the Silent Auctions, if you choose. Likewise, our non-U.S. members can quote prices to mail within their country and or to Canada, Mexico and the U.S. You will have access to the Facebook group prior to the first week of each month to allow you to set things up.

Bidders will contact me with their bid, either via email windy0716@aol.com or message me through Facebook and you will be assigned a bidder ID that can be used each month. To protect your identity, I will post bids on your behalf as requested for the duration of each month's auction.

At the conclusion of the auction, bidding ends and the winning bidder will then send the full amount of the winning bid, plus the full mailing fee to the email account of windy0716@aol.com Paypal. Upon verification that the bidder has received the item or service, I will then transfer the monies to the Correllian Nativist Traditions, Paypal account and the other half to the person who placed the item up for auction plus the mailing fee.

If you sell on Etsy or have their own websites, this will give you an opportunity to not only sell your product and help the Tradition, but also is an excellent marketing tool to include your website so bidders can also see your other products.

So take a look around your home for things you no longer want and consider selling them on the CNT 50/50 Auctions Facebook Group:

A SPIRITUAL WAR FOR PEACE

Please join the members of the Contemplation Temple each month for the global rolling peace Prayer.

Please say the Correllian Peace Prayer or one of your own on the 22nd day of each month at 9pm your time.

Join in on the 'Correllian Spiritual War for Peace'

Prayer for Peace

Offer a brief prayer for peace, while imagining the sigil strongly. Meditate on thoughts of peace, love, and healing, focusing these energies into the sigil. As you do this, imagine the spiral circling inward, integrating the energy into the sigil. When you have sent all the energy that you comfortably can, give thanks and allow the image of the sigil to fade. Make sure to clear and release afterward. The Correllian Peace Sigil is connected to the Crystal Web enabling peace energy to spread across the world.

Correllian Peace Prayer

I pray for Peace
I pray for Love
I pray for Stability
I pray that Love may overcome Fear
And I send energy of Love and Peace
For all people of the World
I create it, I accept it, and I receive it
By my will so mote it be!

If you have participated in the rolling peace prayer each month and would like to add your area to the rolling peace prayer map please email your country and area to:

Blessings Campaign

Join the 'Blessings Campaign!' All Traditions welcome.

This campaign is a great opportunity to work with many Traditions spreading blessings across the land!

Blessings Campaign Facebook Group:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/952892624826309/>

Purpose:

The main message we are presenting to the world is, Pagans are growing in number and spirit across the earth. There are individuals that have never heard there is yet another way among many ways to live and this is just one.

To give offerings to the earth - To imbue blessings to all who read the messages - To inform the world we are here.

Implementing Blessings to the Physical World

Leave a positive message behind where ever we go. Write a message on something organic, i.e. a stone, leaf, shell or rice paper are just a few examples.

Messages:

Our main message is "Pagan Blessings," because it says everything in just two words!

Other suggestions are:

A Pagan just past By

A gift for you from a caring Pagan

Pagans giving to the World

A Pagan gift for you!

A Pagan offering for you!

I offer you Blessings from the Goddess

A Pagan brings this message to you: "You are forever!"

Pagans are here to heal.

Regarding Proselytizing

If someone has a concern about proselytizing; reassure him we are not inviting anyone to be part of anything, if receivers are curious they know how to secure information regarding Paganism.

Who Can Join:

Everyone! This campaign is open to all except trolls or folks selling items or services.

How Do I Join?:

You join by leaving your messages behind where ever you go. Naturally be considerate by where you leave your messages. This is why rice paper is good because it dissolves quickly.

Stones are excellent because they are not litter, if left in an appropriate location.

Though not mandatory, you are welcome to join the Blessings' Campaign Group. There you will find many great ideas, plus great people. There are recipes for seed paper, organic paint, and moss art.

Correllian Shaman Training

If you would like to join the next session for Correllian Shaman training, please to join the waiting room here: <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/CorrellianShamanWaitingRoom/>

You will be notified when the next session of recruitment for training is due to begin. Training takes 4 months, after which time a $30.00 Initiation fee is submitted to the Tradition - Please make sure you have a working email.

The Givers Zone

The Correllian Nativist Tradition welcomes your financial support!! Your willingness to help in this effort is much appreciated. Your gift, no matter how small will make a difference and provide essential support to the Tradition. Givers understand the benefits gained by both the Giver and receiver. Have a question, contact: Rev. Mike Neal: CNTFundRaisingOffice@earthlink.net

Starting a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group

Personal Shrines: Personal Shrines are a personal expression of faith and are wholly the property and responsibility of the individual Correllian who runs them. Personal Shrines are not considered bodies of the Tradition as such, but are a demonstration of personal piety on the part of an individual member of the Tradition. A Personal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Formal Shrines: Formal Shrines are Chartered bodies of the Tradition which exist to fulfil a specific spiritual, educational, or charitable purpose.

A Formal Shrine is basically the same as a Personal Shrine: a private worship centre maintained by an individual Correllian Tradition member of Inner Court. The difference is that a Formal Shrine is dedicated to a specific project, event, or program of a social or charitable nature which the Tradition endorses. A Formal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Witan Shrines: Witan Shrines are the first stage in the Temple-making process. Witan Shrines must fulfil a probationary period of a MINIMUM of one year before being reviewed for Proto-Temple status which is the next stage in the Temple making process.

Correllian Orders: An Order is an association dedicated to the study or practice of a particular subject, such as ecology, healing, music, etc.

Although regarded as an independent body, an Order is formed by a Charter from the Tradition, which may only be granted by the Heads of Tradition through the office of the Chancellor. An Order may be formed around any subject of interest.

Correllian Study Groups: Like Personal Shrines, Study Groups are not formal bodies of the Tradition, but are independent groups run by Correllian members.

Study Groups exist to help students of Correllian Wicca join together to help one another in their studies.

For information on how to start a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group or for an application form contact the Witan Herald: witanherald@gmail.com

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Pod Cast

Wiccan blog and pod cast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: www@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
