Pagan Calendar May 2017

May 1 Beltane (Northern Hemisphere)

The Beltane sabbath is celebrated by Wiccans and Witches throughout the world annually on this date. Beltane (which is also known as May Day, Rood Day, Rudemas, and Walpurgisnacht) is derived from an ancient Druid fire festival celebrating the union of the Goddess and the Horned God.

It also celebrates the rebirth of the Sun, marking the "death" of Winter and the "birth" of Spring. At dawn, morning dew is gathered from grass and wildflowers to be used in mystical potions for good luck. Throughout the day, Nature is celebrated by feasts, games, poetry readings, and clockwise dancing around a brightly decorated Maypole.

In ancient Rome, the deity worshipped on this day was the Spring goddess Maia, whose divine powers encouraged the crops to grow. The month of May is named after her.

On this date in the year 1776, the Order of the Illuminati (an occult sect and secret order dedicated to the study of forbidden books, Tantric mysticism, and ceremonial magic) was founded in Bavaria by Adam Weishaupt.

May 2 On this date, an annual fertility festival featuring a man wearing the costume of a hobbyhorse, a devilish mask, and a pointed hat is held in England and throughout rural regions across Europe.

Ysahodhara, the consort of the great god Buddha, is honored in India with a sacred festival that takes place on this day each year.

May 3 In ancient Rome, an annual women's festival in honor of the earth goddess Bona Dea took place on this date. Sacrifices of sows were made to her in order to promote fertility in women, and the unveiling of sacred objects for only women's eyes to see was included in the celebration of her rites.

May 4 Fairy Day. According to Irish folklore, it is on this day that the mischievous fairy folk emerge from their hiding places. To prevent human children from being stolen by the fairies and replaced by grotesque changelings, an offering of tea and bread must be left on the doorstep for the little people.

For protection against fairies while travelling (especially through heavily wooded areas or open fields), wear your coat inside out. This is said to cause them such great confusion that they are unable to cause any trouble.

May 5 On this date in the year 2000, according to a group called the Lemurian Fellowship, the legendary lost continent of Mu will rise up from the Pacific Ocean.

In various parts of Mexico and Central America, centuries-old rain ceremonies are performed every year on this day by shamanic priests and priestesses of the Old Faith. The ancient goddesses who preside over rain and fertility are honored and invoked with prayers and offerings.

May 6 On this day in the year 1938, the Long Island Church of Aphrodite was established in West Hempsted, New York, by the Reverend Gleb Botkin, a Russian author and son the court physician to the last Czar of Russia.

May 7 On this date (approximately), a festival called the Thargelia was celebrated by the ancient Greeks and Ionians in honor of Apollo, the god of the sun, prophecy, music, medicine, and poetry. The festival was held once a year on the sacred island of Delos, the traditional birthplace of Apollo as well as the goddess Artemis.

May 8 In Cornwall, England, the annual Furry Dance is performed in the streets of Helston on this day in honor of the old Celtic Horned God in the guise of Robin Hood. The festival, which features street dancing and a daylong procession throughout the town for good fortune, is one of the oldest surviving Springtime ceremonies in the world. Theosophists commemorate the death of Madame Helena Petrovna Blavatsky on this day, which they call White Lotus Day.

May 9 An annual rite called the Lemuria was performed on this date in ancient Roman times to appease the restless spirits of the dead (Lemures), who materialized on this day to haunt the homes where they had once lived. The Lemuria was also held on the eleventh and thirteenth of May. As part of the rite, black beans (symbolic of the Underworld) were tossed as offerings to the ghosts and a powerful prayer was recited nine times.

May 10 The sacred marriage of the god Shiva to the goddess Meenakshi is celebrated annually on this date by faithful followers in Madurai, India. Sacred hymns are sung and offerings of incense and white flower petals are made at all temples dedicated to Shiva. Tin Hau, the Chinese goddess of the North Star, is honored annually on this day with a festival in Hong Kong.

May 11 On this date in the year 1659, the Puritans of the Massachusetts Bay Colony banned all celebrations of Christmas in the New World after declaring the event to be a Pagan festival of superstition and "a great dishonour [sic] of God." In England, Christmas festivities had been banned by the Puritans seven years earlier. It wasn't until the year 1660 when Charles II was restored to the throne that the law banning the celebration of Christmas was repealed.

May 12 On this date, the annual Cat Parade is celebrated in Belgium in honor of the furry feline, an animal sacred to the ancient wiccans and often used as a familiar of Witches. Aranya Sashti, a god of the woodlands, is honored in India on this day with an annual festival. He is identified with the Pagan honored deities Pan and Cernunnos.

May 13 On this date in the year 1917, the Goddess in the guise of the Virgin Mary appeared to three peasant children in Fatima, Portugal. The event, which was the first of six divine appearances from May 11 to October 13, drew worldwide attention.

May 14 The Festival of the Midnight Sun is celebrated annually on this date by Pagans in far northern Norway. The festival, which pays homage to the ancient Norse goddess of the sun, begins at sunrise and marks the beginning of ten consecutive weeks without the darkness of night.

May 15 On this date in ancient times, the Romans performed an annual purification rite consisting of the "sacrifices" of twenty-seven straw puppets to the river god of the Tiber.

May 16 On this date in the year 1918, famous Italian spiritualist-medium Eusapia Palladino passed away. She was best remembered for her ability to enter a state of trance and levitate during séances.

May 17 In the Philippines, a Neo-Pagan fertility ritual is celebrated every year on this date by married couples who wish to have children. The rites (dedicated to Santa Clara) continue until the nineteenth of May.

May 18 The Feast of Twins. On this day, festivals honoring twins are held annually in the African republic of Nigeria. It is widely believed among the Yoruba people that all twins are born with abundant magical and supernatural powers.

May 19 On this day in the year 1780, a strange and unexplained darkness draped most of New England, turning daytime into night. Many folks believed that a Salem Witch's curse was responsible for the day of darkness, since no other explanation for the phenomenon has ever been found.

May 20 On this date, a sacred festival called the Plynteria was celebrated annually in ancient Greece. The festival was held in honor of Athena, the goddess of wisdom and battle, and the patroness of the city of Athens (which was named after her), and included the ritual sea cleansing of her statue, followed by prayers in the Parthenon and feasting.

May 21 On this date in the year 1911, Peter Hurkos was born in the Netherlands. He developed astonishing psychic powers after recovering from a coma, and became world-famous for solving crimes through the divinatory art of psychometry. He passed away in Los Angeles on May 25, 1988. On this date in the year 1946, Gwydion Pendderwen was born in Berkeley, California. He was a Celtic bard, a cofounder of the Faery Tradition of Witchcraft, and the founder of a Neo-Pagan networking organization called Nemeton. He died in the Autumn of 1982 as a result of a tragic automobile accident.

May 22 On this date (approximately), the Sun enters the astrological sign of Gemini. Persons born under the sign of the Twins are said to be communicative, curious, charming, and often nervous and fickle. Gemini is an air sign and is ruled by the planet Mercury.

May 23 The Rosalia, a sacred rose festival dedicated to the springtime flower-goddess Flora and the love-goddess Venus, was celebrated annually on this date in ancient Rome.

May 24 On this day, an annual harvest ritual called Sacred Furrow Day was held in Cambodia. As part of the rite, the farmland would be ploughed by members of the royal family in order to appease the ancient gods of the harvest and to ensure the fertility of the land.

The birth of the Greek moon-goddess Artemis (who also presides over hunting and wild beasts) has been celebrated each year on this day since ancient times. As a lunar goddess, she has been an influential archetype for many Witches and worshipers of the contemporary Goddess religion. Artemis is equivalent to the Roman moon-goddess Diana and is identified with Luna, Hecate, and Selene.

May 25 In Europe (especially France), this day is sacred to Saint Sarah of the Gypsies and also to an ancient Triple Goddess who rose from the waters of the ocean.

In ancient Greece, the birthday of Apollo, the twin brother of the goddess Artemis, was celebrated annually on this date.

On this date in the year 1581, famed occultists and alchemist John Dee first realized his natural gift for looking into the future through the art of crystal-gazing. He served for years as the royal astrologer of Queen Elizabeth and had a reputation as a powerful wizard.

May 26 Sacred Well Day. On this day, it is traditional for Pagans and Witches (especially in Ireland and Great Britain) to decorate sacred wells with wreaths and to toss offerings of flowers into the water in honor of the deities and spirits of the well. This custom dates back to the ancient Romans, who celebrated an annual well festival called the Fortinalia, which took place on this day.

May 27 On this day, the Secular Centennial Games were observed in ancient Rome. The goddesses Diana, Prosperina, and the Three Fates were honored in nighttime healing ceremonies.

On this date in the year 1948, Morning Glory Zell was born in Long Beach, California. She is a priestess and vice-president of the Church of All Worlds, and is a practitioner of Celtic Pagan Shamanism.

May 28 A sacred rite called the Pythian Games was enacted every four years on this date in ancient Greece. The rite honored the slain serpent-goddess Python, and was celebrated in Delphi, the most venerated shrine in all of Greece.

May 29 On this day in ancient times, the god Mars was honored by the farmers of Rome with feasts, prayers, animal sacrifices, and annual rites of purification. The Ambarvalia festival was also celebrated on this day in honor of Ceres, Juno, the Lares, and the Family Goddesses.

May 30 On this date in the year 1431, French heroine and military leader Joan of Arc was burned alive at the stake as punishment for committing the crimes of Witchcraft, heresy, and "being given to the forbidden arts of magic and divination."

May 31 On this day, the annual Triple Blessing of the God Buddha is observed by Theravada Buddhists. To celebrate the god's birth, enlightenment, and passage into nirvana, shrines and houses are decorated with flowers and special prayer flags. Offerings of flowers, incense, and rice are also made. The Triple Blessing often lasts for three consecutive days.

Corr Store

<http://correllian.com/CorrStore.html>

The “Corr” Store, a place to acquire all the core items for members of the Tradition, whether for those of the General Membership or those on the Clergy path. Currently the store has Books, Robes and Sigil patches, and stoles. In the coming months, we expect to add additional core items needed for study and regalia.

The Corr Store is set up with a shopping cart and easy payment using Paypal for all U.S. buyers. Due to the wide range of mailing costs to our International members, you will first need to request a quote prior to purchase, for Books and Robes. The price for Sigil patches includes mailing to Worldwide addresses.

The Corr Store is an extension of the CNT Fundraising Dept. with 100% of the proceeds benefiting the Correllian Nativist Tradition.

Are you a Correllian or Witch School author?

M. Rev. Don Lewis

Are you a Correllian or Witch School author? I know that we have quite a few of members who have published books over the years, and I am hoping to celebrate our Correllian and Witch School authors at the new Correllian home site (about which more soon).

If you are a Correllian Tradition member or a Witch School member who has one or more published books, I would love to feature you on the Authors page when the new site premieres, and celebrate the wonderful talent we have among us!

If you would like to be included, please contact me at DonLewisHP@aol.com with information about your book or books! We would also like to celebrate singers and musicians who have CDs available. We look forward to sharing knowledge of your work with all our members and friends!

CNT 50/50 Auction

Here is how it will work:

The first week of each month you will have the opportunity to add something you wish to sell into the Facebook Group. You will need to post a photo or photos and include a description of the item, including approx. size and whatever best serves to describe the item, including a starting bid and the price to mail to the U.S. (also Canada, Mexico and International) similar to what is offered during the Silent Auctions, if you choose. Likewise, our non-U.S. members can quote prices to mail within their country and or to Canada, Mexico and the U.S. You will have access to the Facebook group prior to the first week of each month to allow you to set things up.

Bidders will contact me with their bid, either via email windy0716@aol.com or message me through Facebook and you will be assigned a bidder ID that can be used each month. To protect your identity, I will post bids on your behalf as requested for the duration of each month's auction.

At the conclusion of the auction, bidding ends and the winning bidder will then send the full amount of the winning bid, plus the full mailing fee to the email account of windy0716@aol.com Paypal. Upon verification that the bidder has received the item or service, I will then transfer the monies to the Correllian Nativist Traditions, Paypal account and the other half to the person who placed the item up for auction plus the mailing fee.

If you sell on Etsy or have their own websites, this will give you an opportunity to not only sell your product and help the Tradition, but also is an excellent marketing tool to include your website so bidders can also see your other products.

So take a look around your home for things you no longer want and consider selling them on the CNT 50/50 Auctions Facebook Group:

A SPIRITUAL WAR FOR PEACE

Please join the members of the Contemplation Temple each month for the global rolling peace Prayer.

Please say the Correllian Peace Prayer or one of your own on the 22nd day of each month at 9pm your time.

Join in on the 'Correllian Spiritual War for Peace'

Prayer for Peace

Offer a brief prayer for peace, while imagining the sigil strongly. Meditate on thoughts of peace, love, and healing, focusing these energies into the sigil. As you do this, imagine the spiral circling inward, integrating the energy into the sigil. When you have sent all the energy that you comfortably can, give thanks and allow the image of the sigil to fade. Make sure to clear and release afterward. The Correllian Peace Sigil is connected to the Crystal Web enabling peace energy to spread across the world.

Correllian Peace Prayer

I pray for Peace
I pray for Love
I pray for Stability
I pray that Love may overcome Fear
And I send energy of Love and Peace
For all people of the World
I create it, I accept it, and I receive it
By my will so mote it be!

If you have participated in the rolling peace prayer each month and would like to add your area to the rolling peace prayer map please email your country and area to:

Blessings Campaign

Join the 'Blessings Campaign!' All Traditions welcome.

This campaign is a great opportunity to work with many Traditions spreading blessings across the land!

Blessings Campaign Facebook Group:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/952892624826309/>

Purpose:

The main message we are presenting to the world is, Pagans are growing in number and spirit across the earth. There are individuals that have never heard there is yet another way among many ways to live and this is just one.

To give offerings to the earth - To imbue blessings to all who read the messages - To inform the world we are here.

Implementing Blessings to the Physical World

Leave a positive message behind where ever we go. Write a message on something organic, i.e. a stone, leaf, shell or rice paper are just a few examples.

Messages:

Our main message is "Pagan Blessings," because it says everything in just two words!

Other suggestions are:

A Pagan just past By

A gift for you from a caring Pagan

Pagans giving to the World

A Pagan gift for you!

A Pagan offering for you!

I offer you Blessings from the Goddess

A Pagan brings this message to you: "You are forever!"

Pagans are here to heal.

Regarding Proselytizing

If someone has a concern about proselytizing; reassure him we are not inviting anyone to be part of anything, if receivers are curious they know how to secure information regarding Paganism.

Who Can Join:

Everyone! This campaign is open to all except trolls or folks selling items or services.

How Do I Join?:

You join by leaving your messages behind where ever you go. Naturally be considerate by where you leave your messages. This is why rice paper is good because it dissolves quickly.

Stones are excellent because they are not litter, if left in an appropriate location.

Though not mandatory, you are welcome to join the Blessings' Campaign Group. There you will find many great ideas, plus great people. There are recipes for seed paper, organic paint, and moss art.

Correllian Shaman Training

If you would like to join the next session for Correllian Shaman training, please to join the waiting room here: <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/CorrellianShamanWaitingRoom/>

You will be notified when the next session of recruitment for training is due to begin. Training takes 4 months, after which time a $30.00 Initiation fee is submitted to the Tradition - Please make sure you have a working email.

The Givers Zone

The Correllian Nativist Tradition welcomes your financial support!! Your willingness to help in this effort is much appreciated. Your gift, no matter how small will make a difference and provide essential support to the Tradition. Givers understand the benefits gained by both the Giver and receiver. Have a question, contact: Rev. Mike Neal: CNTFundRaisingOffice@earthlink.net

Starting a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group

Personal Shrines: Personal Shrines are a personal expression of faith and are wholly the property and responsibility of the individual Correllian who runs them. Personal Shrines are not considered bodies of the Tradition as such, but are a demonstration of personal piety on the part of an individual member of the Tradition. A Personal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Formal Shrines: Formal Shrines are Chartered bodies of the Tradition which exist to fulfil a specific spiritual, educational, or charitable purpose.

A Formal Shrine is basically the same as a Personal Shrine: a private worship centre maintained by an individual Correllian Tradition member of Inner Court. The difference is that a Formal Shrine is dedicated to a specific project, event, or program of a social or charitable nature which the Tradition endorses. A Formal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Witan Shrines: Witan Shrines are the first stage in the Temple-making process. Witan Shrines must fulfil a probationary period of a MINIMUM of one year before being reviewed for Proto-Temple status which is the next stage in the Temple making process.

Correllian Orders: An Order is an association dedicated to the study or practice of a particular subject, such as ecology, healing, music, etc.

Although regarded as an independent body, an Order is formed by a Charter from the Tradition, which may only be granted by the Heads of Tradition through the office of the Chancellor. An Order may be formed around any subject of interest.

Correllian Study Groups: Like Personal Shrines, Study Groups are not formal bodies of the Tradition, but are independent groups run by Correllian members.

Study Groups exist to help students of Correllian Wicca join together to help one another in their studies.

For information on how to start a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group or for an application form contact the Witan Herald: witanherald@gmail.com

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Pod Cast

Wiccan blog and pod cast in Spanish, 13 Lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information, please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: www@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,

The Order of Web Weavers

Order of Peace Weavers

The Order of Peace Weavers was created to provide members of the Correllian Tradition with the means of gathering together to collectively promote the weaving of peace into the fabric of society through meditation, prayer, Reiki, visualization, spell working, ritual, creative writing, intentional art and music, and other positive energy work and light work, with harm to none, and for the highest good of all concerned.

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.

For more information, please find us at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/orderofpeaceweavers/> or contact moonravenx3@yahoo.com.
