Pagan Calendar October 2017

Legends and Lore for October

October, the tenth month of the current Gregorian calendar and the second month of Autumn's rule, derives its name from octo, the Latin word meaning "eight," as October was the eighth month of the old Roman calendar.

The traditional birthstone amulets of October are opal, rose sapphire, and tourmaline; and the calendula is the month's traditional flower.

October is shared by the astrological signs of Libra the Scales (or Balance) and Scorpio the Scorpion, and is sacred to the following Pagan deities: Cernunnos, Hecate, the Morrigan, Osiris, and the Wiccan Goddess in Her dark aspect as the Crone.

During the month of October, the Great Solar Wheel of the Year is turned to Halloween (Samhain Eve), one of the four Grand Sabbats celebrated each year by Wiccans and modern Witches throughout the world.

October 1 On this date (approximately), hundreds of thousands of Muslims make a pilgrimage to the city of Mecca to kiss and touch the Black Stone (one of the original building blocks of a veiled shrine) and to worship their god Allah. They then drink some water from the nearby sacred Well of Ishmael, and journey up into the hills of Safa and Marwa to recite prayers.

Birthday of Isaac Bonewitz. Druid, magician and witch

October 2 Guiding Spirits Day. On this day, light a white candle on your altar and give thanks to your spirit guide (or guides) for guarding over you and guiding you through your spiritual development. If you wish to communicate with or meet your spirit guide, use a Ouija board or, through prayer, invite the spirit guide to come to you in a dream or in a trance.

Birthday of Timothy Roderick, Wiccan author

October 3 On this date (approximately), a Cementation and Propitiation Festival was once celebrated by the Native American tribe of the Cherokee. The purpose of the festival was to remove the barriers between the Cherokee people and the deities they worshiped.

October 7 In the fifteenth century, peasants in Germany celebrated a week-long festival called the Kermesse. A Pagan icon (or some other sacred object) would be unearthed from its yearlong burial spot and then paraded through the village on top of gaily decorated pole. After a week of feasting, dancing, and games, the villagers would dress up in their mourning attire and rebury the icon in its grave, where it would remain until the next year's Kermesse.

On this date in the year 1909, famous author and Gardnerian Witch Arnold Crowther was born in Kent, England. He was initiated into the Craft in 1960 by Patricia Dawson, whom he later married. He passed away on Beltane-sabbath in the year 1974.

October 8 On this day, an annual good luck festival called Chung Yeung Day (the Festival of High Places) is celebrated in China. Traditionally good omen kites are flown to carry away evil spirits. The festival also commemorates an ancient Chinese scholar named Huan Ching who, upon heeding the warning of a soothsayer, escaped with his family and friends high into the hills and thereby avoided a mysterious plague of death which swept through the village below, killing every living thing in sight.

October 9 Day of Felicitas. A festival celebrating the ancient Roman goddess of luck and good fortune was held annually on this date in many parts of Italy. For many Wiccans and modern witches, it is a time for casting spells and making amulets to attract good luck or to end a streak of bad luck.

October 10 Throughout the country of Brazil, the annual Festival of Light begins on this date. The centuries-old festival, which is celebrated for two consecutive weeks, includes a parade of penance and the lighting of candles, torches, and hearth-fires to symbolically drive away the spirits of darkness who bring evil and misfortune.

October 11 Every year on this date, Witches in the countries of Denmark and Germany honour the Old Lady of the Elder Trees, an ancient Pagan spirit who dwells within and watches over each tree of the elder family. October 17 Once a year on this date, the Japanese Shinto ceremony of Kan-name-Sai (God Tasting Event) takes place. The ancient goddess of the Sun and other imperial ancestors are honoured with an offering of rice from the season's first crop.

October 18 In England, the Great Horned Fair takes place annually on this day to celebrate the wondrous powers of nature and fertility.

Many Pagans and Wiccans (especially of the Gardnerian tradition) perform a special ceremony on this day in honour of Cernunnos, the Horned God of hunting, fertility, and wild animals. He is also the consort of the Goddess, and a symbol of the male principle.

At this time, many priests of Wiccan covens perform a sacred ritual called Drawing Down the Sun.

This day is sacred to Arianrhod, Cardea, Dione, Diti, Gula, Lilith, Maat, Minerva, and Sophia.

October 25 Shoemaker's Day is celebrated annually on this date in honour of Saint Crispin, the patron of shoemakers who was beheaded in the third century A.D. According to legend, a new pair of shoes bought on this day will bring good luck and prosperity to their owner.

October 27 Allan Apple Day. In Cornwall, England, an old Pagan method of love divination is traditionally performed each year on this day. A single gentleman or lady who wishes to see his or her future spouse must sleep with an Allan apple under his or her pillow, then get out of bed before the crack of dawn the next day. The person then waits under a tree for the first person of the opposite sex to walk by. According to the legend, the passer by will be the future marriage mate.

Are you a Correllian or Witch School author?

M. Rev. Don Lewis

Are you a Correllian or Witch School author? I know that we have quite a few of members who have published books over the years, and I am hoping to celebrate our Correllian and Witch School authors at the new Correllian home site.

If you are a Correllian Tradition member or a Witch School member who has one or more published books, I would love to celebrate the wonderful talent we have among us!

CNT 50/50 Auction

Here is how it will work:

The first week of each month you will have the opportunity to add something you wish to sell into the Facebook Group. You will need to post a photo or photos and include a description of the item, including approx. size and whatever best serves to describe the item, including a starting bid and the price to mail to the U.S. (also Canada, Mexico and International) similar to what is offered during the Silent Auctions, if you choose. Likewise, our non-U.S. members can quote prices to mail within their country and or to Canada, Mexico and the U.S. You will have access to the Facebook group prior to the first week of each month to allow you to set things up.

Bidders will contact me with their bid, either via email windy0716@aol.com or message me through Facebook and you will be assigned a bidder ID that can be used each month. To protect your identity, I will post bids on your behalf as requested for the duration of each month's auction.

At the conclusion of the auction, bidding ends and the winning bidder will then send the full amount of the winning bid, plus the full mailing fee to the email account of windy0716@aol.com Paypal. Upon verification that the bidder has received the item or service, I will then transfer the monies to the Correllian Nativist Traditions, Paypal account and the other half to the person who placed the item up for auction plus the mailing fee.

If you sell on Etsy or have their own websites, this will give you an opportunity to not only sell your product and help the Tradition, but also is an excellent marketing tool to include your website so bidders can also see your other products.

So take a look around your home for things you no longer want and consider selling them on the CNT 50/50 Auctions Facebook Group:

A SPIRITUAL WAR FOR PEACE

Please join the members of the Contemplation Temple each month for the global rolling peace Prayer.

Please say the Correllian Peace Prayer or one of your own on the 22nd day of each month at 9pm your time.

Join in on the 'Correllian Spiritual War for Peace'

Prayer for Peace

Offer a brief prayer for peace, while imagining the sigil strongly. Meditate on thoughts of peace, love, and healing, focusing these energies into the sigil. As you do this, imagine the spiral circling inward, integrating the energy into the sigil. When you have sent all the energy that you comfortably can, give thanks and allow the image of the sigil to fade. Make sure to clear and release afterward. The Correllian Peace Sigil is connected to the Crystal Web enabling peace energy to spread across the world.

Correllian Peace Prayer

I pray for Peace

I pray for Love

I pray for Stability

I pray that Love may overcome Fear

And I send energy of Love and Peace

For all people of the World

I create it, I accept it, and I receive it

By my will so mote it be!

Blessings Campaign

Join the 'Blessings Campaign!' All Traditions welcome.

This campaign is a great opportunity to work with many Traditions spreading blessings across the land!

Blessings Campaign Facebook Group:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/952892624826309/>

Purpose:

The main message we are presenting to the world is, Pagans are growing in number and spirit across the earth. There are individuals that have never heard there is yet another way among many ways to live and this is just one.

To give offerings to the earth - To imbue blessings to all who read the messages - To inform the world we are here.

Implementing Blessings to the Physical World

Leave a positive message behind where ever we go. Write a message on something organic, i.e. a stone, leaf, shell or rice paper are just a few examples.

Messages:

Our main message is "Pagan Blessings," because it says everything in just two words!

Other suggestions are:

A Pagan just past By

A gift for you from a caring Pagan

Pagans giving to the World

A Pagan gift for you!

A Pagan offering for you!

I offer you Blessings from the Goddess

A Pagan brings this message to you: "You are forever!"

Pagans are here to heal.

Regarding Proselytizing

If someone has a concern about proselytizing; reassure him we are not inviting anyone to be part of anything, if receivers are curious they know how to secure information regarding Paganism.

Who Can Join:

Everyone! This campaign is open to all except trolls or folks selling items or services.

How Do I Join?:

You join by leaving your messages behind where ever you go. Naturally be considerate by where you leave your messages. This is why rice paper is good because it dissolves quickly. Stones are excellent because they are not litter, if left in an appropriate location.

Though not mandatory, you are welcome to join the Blessings' Campaign Group. There you will find many great ideas, plus great people. There are recipes for seed paper, organic paint, and moss art.

Correllian Shaman Training

If you would like to join the next session for Correllian Shaman training, please to join the waiting room here: <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/CorrellianShamanWaitingRoom/> You will be notified when the next session of recruitment for training is due to begin. Training takes 4 months, after which time a $30.00 Initiation fee is submitted to the Tradition - Please make sure you have a working email.

The Givers Zone

The Correllian Nativist Tradition welcomes your financial support!! Your willingness to help in this effort is much appreciated. Your gift, no matter how small will make a difference and provide essential support to the Tradition. Givers understand the benefits gained by both the Giver and receiver. Have a question, contact: Rev. Mike Neal:

Starting a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group

Personal Shrines: Personal Shrines are a personal expression of faith and are wholly the property and responsibility of the individual Correllian who runs them. Personal Shrines are not considered bodies of the Tradition as such, but are a demonstration of personal piety on the part of an individual member of the Tradition. A Personal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Formal Shrines: Formal Shrines are Chartered bodies of the Tradition which exist to fulfil a specific spiritual, educational, or charitable purpose.

A Formal Shrine is basically the same as a Personal Shrine: a private worship centre maintained by an individual Correllian Tradition member of Inner Court. The difference is that a Formal Shrine is dedicated to a specific project, event, or program of a social or charitable nature which the Tradition endorses. A Formal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Witan Shrines: Witan Shrines are the first stage in the Temple-making process. Witan Shrines must fulfil a probationary period of a MINIMUM of one year before being reviewed for Proto-Temple status which is the next stage in the Temple making process.

Correllian Orders: An Order is an association dedicated to the study or practice of a particular subject, such as ecology, healing, music, etc.

Although regarded as an independent body, an Order is formed by a Charter from the Tradition, which may only be granted by the Heads of Tradition through the office of the Chancellor. An Order may be formed around any subject of interest.

Correllian Study Groups: Like Personal Shrines, Study Groups are not formal bodies of the Tradition, but are independent groups run by Correllian members. Study Groups exist to help students of Correllian Wicca join together to help one another in their studies.

For information on how to start a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group or for an application form contact the Witan Herald: witanherald@gmail.com

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Pod Cast

Wiccan blog and pod cast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information, please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate. The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers
