Correllians around the World

by Lady WolfCiara

In this series of articles, we are going to focus on a Correllian Member, and learn a little bit more about the said person. I do hope that this will shine a light to all of those, who are giving of themselves, to the Tradition.

This month, we are going to talk with Lady Silvia or as she really is named: Silvia González, born and raised in Spain, she is 43 years of age. She lives in La Coruña, Spain and is single and live with her parents.

Lady Silvia works in customer service, she says: “I love traveling, the beach, walking in nature, reading and spending time with my loved ones”.

Lady Silvia holds the 3rd Degree Correllian Wicca, and would like to continue learning about wicca, shamanism, etc. She is be beginning her training in the world walker order. In the future she would like to be able to help others and help the Correllian tradition grow.

She does have a favorite divination tool, and it's Tarot. She came across Correllian Tradition, when she was looking for a tradition with which she could learn and grow and that is how she found the Correllian Tradition. Lady Silvia has been with Correllian Tradition, since 2016.

She is a member of Temple Dragón and has studied Reiki Usui (I and II level), Akashic records (3 degrees and master), Correllian Shamanism and also, she is a priestess of the sea.

We thank Lady Silvia for taking time to answer our question for us. Hoping for continued blessings, for her in the Wicca-path and Correllian Tradition, that she is leading.

Witches of British Folklore

The UK has a long history of witchcraft dating back to, sometimes colourful, most times dark and gruesome. From this history the inevitable folk tales and legends are born, told alongside, or even evolving from, true events. In this new series each month I will look at historical events as well as legends that have defined the image of historical witchcraft in the minds of the people of the UK today.

Matthew Hopkins: Witchfinder General

Witchcraft was not made a capital offence in the United Kingdom until 1563, despite the fact that it was considered heresy and was condemned as such by Pope Innocent VIII in 1484. Between 1484 and 1750, approximately 200,000 witches were tortured, burned, or hanged in Western Europe.

Most alleged witches were usually elderly women who were quite poor and/or rather odd looking. Owning a cat was also used as proof of being a witch as people supposed them to be 'familiars'.

Many unfortunate women were sentenced to death and hanged based on this type of evidence after enduring horrific torture. The 'pilnie-winks' (thumb screws) and iron 'caspie-claws' (leg irons heated over a brazier) usually elicited a confession from the alleged witch.

Between 1645 and 1646, East Anglia was gripped by witch fever for 14 terrifying months. The people of these eastern counties were staunchly Puritan and rabidly anti-Catholic, and they were easily swayed by bigoted preachers whose mission it was to seek out any heresy.

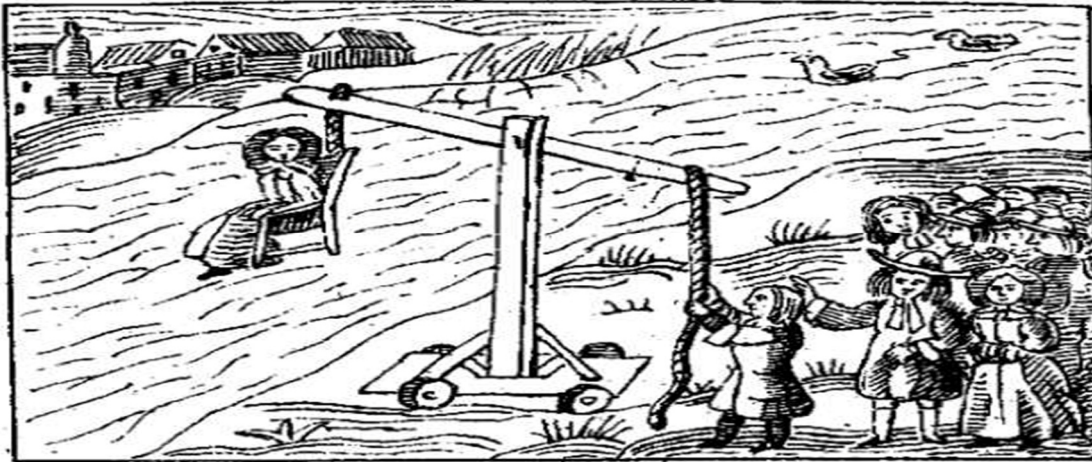

Matthew Hopkins, an unsuccessful lawyer, came to assist in finding heretics. He was dubbed the "Witchfinder General." He executed 68 people in Bury St. Edmunds alone, and 19 people were hanged in Chelmsford in a single day. He left Chelmsford for Norfolk and Suffolk. He was paid between £6 (approximately $8) and £23 (approximately $32) to rid towns of witches. At the time, the daily wage was 2.5p ($0.035).

Many of Matthew Hopkins' deduction theories were based on Devils Marks. He mistook a wart, mole, or even a flea bite for a Devils Mark and used his 'jabbing needle' to see if these marks were painless. His 'needle' was a 3 inch long spike that retracted into the spring-loaded handle, causing terrible pain for the unfortunate victim.

There were additional tests for witches. Many were put to the test by being thrown into the river with thumbs tied to opposite big toes. If they sank, they were innocent; if they floated, they were guilty and condemned to certain death.

In 1921, a final reminder of Hopkins' reign of terror was discovered in St. Osyth, Essex. Two female skeletons were discovered in a garden, pinned into unmarked graves and pierced with iron rivets. This was done to ensure that a witch could not return from the dead. During his time as Witchfinder General, Hopkins was in charge of over 300 executions.

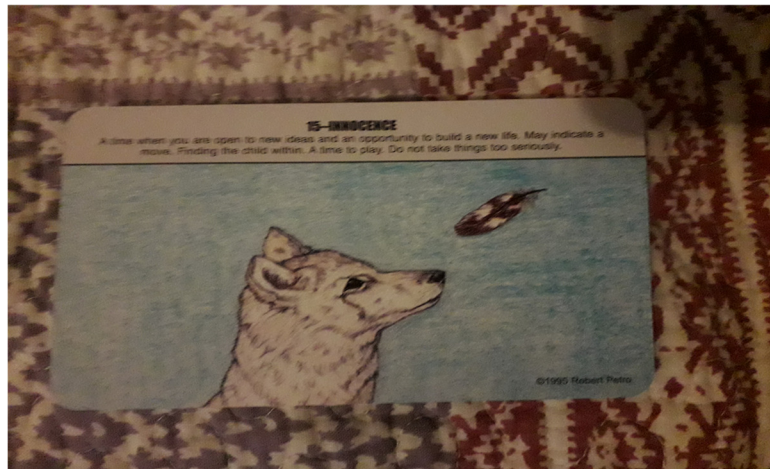

Even after many of the Acts against witchcraft were repealed in 1736, witch hunting continued. An alleged male witch drowned in a pond in Headingham, Essex, in 1863, and the body of an elderly farm labourer was discovered near the village of Meon Hill in Warwickshire in 1945. His throat had been slashed, and his body had been pinned to the ground with a pitchfork. The murder is still unsolved, but the man was rumoured to be a wizard in the area.

Despite the repeal of the acts, it appears that the belief in witchcraft as a source of evil did not die out completely.

Tarot of the Month

by Lady WolfCiara

15 - INNOCENCE

A time when you are open to new ideas and an opportunity to build new life. May indicate a move. Finding the child within. A time to play. Do not take things too seriously.

Prediction for September 2021

For the coming month, when we are having it, on the more positive side than usual. It is following by a childlike mind, and lots and lots of crazy, fun things happening.

Recipe for Mabon - Northern Hemisphere

Parsnip and Apple Soup with Black Lentils

(by Lauren @ laurencariscooks.com)

INGREDIENTS:

Soup

- 2 white onions
- 2 garlic cloves
- 600 g parsnips cut into 1 inch chunks
- 400 g apples cut into 1 inch chunks
- 1 litre vegetable stock
- 1/2 tsp curry powder

Toppings

- cooked black lentils
- sliced spring onion
- parsley
- chilli flakes
- root vegetable crisps

INSTRUCTIONS

Heat 1 tablespoon olive oil in the bottom of a large stockpot. Roughly chop the onion and saute for 3-4 minutes until translucent.

Mince the garlic cloves, add and saute for another 1-2 minutes.

Add the parsnip, apple and curry powder and stir so everything is coated, cook for 1-2 minutes. Then add the vegetable stock and simmer for 30 minutes, until the parsnip is completely soft.

Using a blender or a stick blender, blend the soup until completely smooth.

This soup is very thick as it comes, so if you like your soup a little thinner, add some more vegetable stock until you get the consistency you desire.

Top with the toppings.

Recipe for Ostara - Southern Hemisphere

Spring Sprout Salad with Honey Mustard Dressing

(by Patti Wigington @learnreligions.com)

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 c mung bean sprouts
- 1 c alfalfa sprouts
- 2 c baby spinach
- 2 green onions, chopped
- 1/2 c slivered almonds
- 1/2 c dried cherries or raisins
- fresh dill
- 1 can mandarin oranges (optional)

Dressing

- 1/2 c mayonnaise
- 2 tbsp dijon mustard
- 2 tbsp honey
- a dash of lemon juice

INSTRUCTIONS

To make the salad, place the baby spinach at the bottom of the plate or bowl, and then add the sprouts. Spread them out so they're not all clumped together.

Sprinkle the top with the chopped green onions, the almonds, raisins, dill, and mandarins if you're using them.

To make the dressing,
combine the mayonnaise, mustard, honey and lemon juice and mix well.
Drizzle over the salad to serve.

Wolfciara's Wiccan World

By Lady WolfCiara

Merry meet my fellow Wiccans and Welcome to my little corner of the Wiccan World.

So have yet another month passed by, and with a summer, that came and went. I feel like it has been enough of summer, until the autumn now comes creeping on to you. Schools have started up again, and no more vacation-people out and about anymore. My month has been good, in my eyed. Both ups and downs. Mostly ups though!

I have taken a little bit more of lessons-test on WitchSchool. I'm down to the last three classes, that I can, when not counting in Dutch and South-Africa versions, as I already have passed all three degrees. Have attended the Online Rituals. As I usually do. They are nice and relaxing in the way a ritual online is. The energy is truly lifting and much energy and healing comes from them.

Even, as it wasn't that many months since I met my boyfriend, I ended up living at my boyfriend's house. We are in our 4th month of being a couple and love to be around each other. I have met his mother and she is a really nice parent and I have also met his father, he is equally nice too. My parents are not alive anymore, so it would be hard to let him meet them. Even though, I surely wanted him to meet them. He has met my 3 brothers, and they are like him, of course, as my four nieces also do, of course. I am lucky, and have to pinch myself, to really understand that I can be this happy...

My birds that I have had, yes, have had, they now have new homes, as I was spending more hours and days with my boyfriend, than I did at home before he came into my life. I was mature enough to see that they were not feeling good, in the decision I made, as he has a cat of 10 years of age and is accustomed to be out and about during the day, and often nights. He cannot move to me, as then I had my free-flying birds in my apartment. I have took a long time, with thinking and debating with myself as I wanted to re-home the birds, 2 Turtle Collar Neck Doves, and 1 Cockatiel. They now live in good homes, and I have some connection to hear how it is going forward for them...

I have continued my WitchSchool mentorship, and have my first 3rd Degree student... It's so big and I love the position and looking forward to see them grow, and learn from the material as I have done. I have also three 1st degree students, that i am looking forward to mentoring, to see them grow spiritually and mentally, in their practice in learning wicca, and the way to live with Wicca, as a whole.

Take care until next time.

Blessed be all of you. Love and light, hugz and blessings.

The Temple of Contemplation Formal Shrine

The Temple of Contemplation is now offering a monthly “contemplation” for anyone and everyone who wishes to partake. In both hemispheres the changing of the Wheel of the Year is well under way. In the Southern Hemisphere, Ostara is fast approaching. Whereas in the Northern Hemisphere the harvests are well underway, and we are busy readying for Mabon and all that it brings us.

Here in the Southern Hemisphere we are looking past the long battle with the long winter months and look towards the coming springtime and the warmth that it will, hopefully, bring us. But in contrast, in the Northern Hemisphere we are well underway enjoying our long Summer days and all the joys that it has to bring to us and now we are beginning to look towards the coming harvests and the Autumn months and what they may bring. Many may now be reflecting on their summer and the joys and experiences that it may have brought to us. Whilst others may be beginning their excitement with the countdown to their long awaited summer break! How quickly it seems that the Wheel turns and the tides change.

To us at the Temple of Contemplation it seems that this is the time of the year that emotions are high either way whether it is the spring and warmth of summer we look longingly towards or the warmth and joy that we look back upon. It may be that you are now preparing to ‘face reality’ and get back into a more normal routine and back to the grind. For others it may be a time for looking towards a fresh new start, new beginnings, a new chapter in your life. Either way, looking forward or looking back seems to be the way of life at the moment – is this something that you agree with? Are you looking forward? Is there a fresh new start on the horizon for you? What are you looking forward to? Is this a time of reflection for you? Maybe it is that time of the year that you do other things or prepare for the up and coming sabbats in a different way.

Ostara and Mabon blessings to you all!

If you wish to share your thoughts and contemplations with us and have them published in the next edition of the Correllian Herald, then please feel free to email them to – heraldeditor@gmail.com - we would love to hear from you!

Also, the Temple of Contemplation holds a monthly online Peace Ritual, as part of the Correllian Global Rolling Peace Prayer, on the second Wednesday of every month. All are welcome to attend to help us send out peace across the globe. For more information please go here - [Peace Page \(correlliantradition.co.uk\)](http://Peace Page (correlliantradition.co.uk))

Identify the Sigil

The Correllian Tradition has many Temples, Shrines, Orders and Groups, but how many of them do you know or know any information about them? Each edition of the Correllian Herald shall feature a brief look at a particular Temple, Shrine, or Order, but first you need to identify which one is to be featured!

Well done to all of you who correctly identified the logo of the Temple of Eternal Memorials!

It was a little bit trickier this time and a few of you were a little stumped as it is not often seen and misled by its Egyptian look! Here is what the sigil of the Temple of Eternal Memorials looks like.

The Temple of Eternal Memorials is a multi-faith Temple and is also a War Memorials as well as being a place to honour and worship the Ancestors. For more information about the Temple of Eternal Memorials or to become a member please go to - Eternal Memorial \(eternalmemorials.org\)

Thank you to all those of you who wrote in and sent copies of your coloured logo and below is a new black and white logo of a particular Temple, Shrine or Order for you to identify and colour in. Name what this logo belongs to! What do you know about this group? And can you colour it in correctly?! Answers will be featured in the next edition!

If you have a Temple, Shrine, Order or Group and would like it to be featured here then please email heraldeditor@gmail.com with your logo and brief overview to be featured in the following edition.

The Healing Temple Distance Healing Network.

Due to the demise and closure of the beloved Yahoo Groups, The Healing Temple Distance Healing Network is now having to start again from scratch. We have a brand new shiny io Group and we are currently seeking old members as well as new and additional healers to either join, or re-join, the Distance Healing Network to send out greatly required healing to those out there so desperately in need of healing energies.

You are more than welcome to participate in the weekly rituals if you so wish to. We receive many requests for healing on a weekly basis and would love more participation in sending that much needed healing out; even if it is just by joining our Distance Healing Network and sending out healing when you can.

To join our Distance Healing Network please go to - distancehealingnetwork@groups.io | Home – and request to join or email Lady Anna: anna@thehealingtemple.org

Order of Bards

CALLING ALL BARDS!

The Order of Bards is looking for writers to feature their works in future editions of the Correllian Herald. So, if any members of the Order of Bards, or any budding writers in general would like to have their work, short stories, poems etc featured then please send your writings to – bards@correlliantradition.co.uk

PLEASE NOTE: All writings MUST be original, and you MUST be the author of any works submitted. We cannot publish any plagiarised or copyrighted works.

A huge thank you to all those that have written in – we have chosen a poem for this edition, although the author never let us know who they are!!

Find my Way Home

Find my way home,
Along the road well-travelled
Across the distance shores
Of the lands unknown,
As I find my way home.

Find my way home,
A journey that has no end
Along a path I cannot see
For it is not known of what I seek
As I find my way home.

Find my way home,
An adventure, a place, a land
Somewhere beyond I cannot reach
A far-off world known to me
As I find my way home.

Find my way home
Where is it,
This place that I belong?
No matter how far I roam
As I find my way home.

Anon.

Many thanks to this budding Bard! We hope you shall send us some more of your works in the future!

Chartered Bodies of the Correllian Tradition

Witan Shrines are the first level of the Temple-Making Process. Witan Shrines are created by Charter of the Tradition and may progress to Full Temple status over the course of several years or remain at Witan Shrine status indefinitely.

A list of current Witan Shrines may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/witan-shrines.html>

Proto-Temples are groups which have progressed beyond the status of Shrines and are on their way to becoming Full Temples but have not yet achieved that status.

A list of current Proto-Temples may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/proto-temples.html>

Full Temples of the Correllian Tradition have completed the Temple-Making Process and, if headed by a Third Degree, have representation on the Witan Council. A Full Temple can perform all of the functions of a Temple and may in some cases have multiple branches.

A list of current Temples may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/temples.html>

Formal Shrines are Shrines that are dedicated to specific activities of a limited nature. Formal Shrines may exist as an aspect of a larger group or may stand alone in their own right.

A list of current Formal Shrines may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/formal-shrines.html>

Personal Shrines are an aspect of an individual Correllian member's personal piety and are not bodies of the Tradition as such. Personal Shrines exist wholly at the discretion of the member, however the Tradition does acknowledge them upon request.

A list of current Personal Shrines may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/personal-shrines.html>

Orders are associations within the Tradition dedicated to specific skills, tasks, or interests. This sort of Order is not to be confused with the Meritorious Orders which are awarded in recognition of service.

A list of current Orders may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/orders.html>

Houses of Contemplation are established to facilitate the temporary or permanent practice of the contemplative religious life. Depending upon the rules of the specific House of Contemplation guests may come for spiritual retreats of designated length, or to pursue a life of permanent contemplation in the manner of a Monastery.

A list of current Houses of Contemplation may be found HERE: <http://correllian.weebly.com/houses-of-contemplation.html>
