Pagan Calendar October 24–30

October 24 On this day, many Wiccans from around the world celebrate the annual Feast of the Spirits of Air. Incense is offered up to the Sylphs (who often take the form of butterflies), and rituals involving dreams and/or the powers of the mind are performed. This day is sacred to Arianrhod, Cardea, Dione, Diti, Gula, Lilith, Maat, Minerva, and Sophia.

October 25 Shoemaker's Day is celebrated annually on this date in honor of Saint Crispin, the patron of shoemakers who was beheaded in the third century A.D. According to legend, a new pair of shoes bought on this day will bring good luck and prosperity to their owner.

October 26 Birthday of the Earth. According to the calculations of a seventeenth century Anglican archbishop, the Earth was created on this date in the year 4004 BC. On this date in the year 1440, Giles de Rais (one of the most notorious necromancers in history) was hanged in France as punishment for practicing black magic and making human sacrifices to the Devil, among other crimes.

October 27 Allan Apple Day. In Cornwall, England, an old Pagan method of love divination is traditionally performed each year on this day. A single gentleman or lady who wishes to see his or her future spouse must sleep with an Allan apple under his or her pillow, then get out of bed before the crack of dawn the next day. The person then waits under a tree for the first person of the opposite sex to walk by. According to the legend, the passerby will be the future marriage mate.

October 28 In ancient times, the Phoenician sun-god Baal of the Heavens was honored annually on or around this date. He presided over nature and fertility, and was associated with Winter rain. Sacred sun-symbolizing bonfires were lit in his honor by his worshipers in Syria. Depicted as a warrior with a horned helmet and spear, he was once worshipped as the principal god on Earth for thousands of years. In ancient Egypt, a series of Autumn ceremonies for the goddess Isis began each year on this date. They lasted for six consecutive days.

October 29 On this date in the year 1939, ceremonial magician and occult author Frater Zarathustra was born in Baltimore, Maryland. Frater founded the Temple of Truth in 1972 and was publisher and editor of the White Light (a magazine of ceremonial magic) from 1973 until it ceased publication in 1990. On this day, the Native American tribe of the Iroquois celebrate their annual Feast of the Dead to honor the souls of departed loved ones.

October 30 Each year on this date, the Angelitos festival is held in Mexico to bless the souls of deceased children and to honor Xipe-Totec (the ancient god of death) and Tonantzin (the Guadalupe goddess of mercy). On this day, write a secret wish on a piece of dried mandrake root. Burn it at the stroke of midnight in a fireproof container and then go outside and cast the ashes to the wind as you say thrice: "Spirits of fire, spirits of air; grant this secret wishing-prayer. Let the ashes of this spell, fix this midnight magic well."

Spell of the Week

Negativity and Stop gossiping spell

Cusp your hands. Visualize a glowing ball in your palms. Whisper or think the following incantation in your mind:

"Selket, Queen of Magic,
Sister of Mother Isis,
Guardian of Osiris,
Protector of the child God Horus,
She who bins the dead,
and fashions Magic.

Great Scorpion Goddess of Egypt,
May foul words no sting me
May misdeeds fly from my day,
May light and enchantment of love surround me,
and dispel all evil from my heart, mind and soul.
This is my will, and with harm to none,
So Mote It Be!"

Cross your chest with your palms, visualizing positive energy entering your heart chakra. Take a deep breath and relax, then snap your fingers three times to break any remaining energy surrounding you. The snapping will also seal the spell.

Light a stick of incense or make a small offering to Selket to represent your gratitude for her assistance.

This should be done in circle if possible or even outside on your property.

A Magical Paradigm for the World Today, Part 2

By Chad Miller

In my 25 years studying magic, I have worked with several different systems and have found that while each has its own flavor all work equally well. It doesn't matter if you are calling upon a Sumerian demon, an Egyptian god, Jesus, Yahweh, or any other being. These archetypal entities are keys to power but not the true power itself. Power is not the name but belief in the name. Since what we believe becomes our reality, the mind has the power to transform our reality in the blink of an eye. As we believe so we become.

Based on the knowledge that these are archetypes in the collective unconscious, we might conclude that gods do not exist – at least not in the normally understood way as anthropomorphic beings. As archetypes, gods are not only keys to true power but also thought-forms which receive energy from their believers. They do not need to exist in order to influence us if we believe in their existence. Time is an illusion so such belief need not be of those today but those of the distant past will suffice. Gods, goddesses, angels, demons, & elemental beings become real, at least subjectively, as we ascribe meaning to the world we perceive around us.

From this perspective, we might view churches and religious orders as the magical organizations they are. Their churches and holy books consecrated in the names of their particular deities, each has a unique cosmology and paradigm which their believers accept as reality. Religious wars are truly mage battles and religious relics magical artifacts.

Magical ingredient of the week: Catnip

internet sources:

wickiwoman.blogspot.com

members.tripod.com

The ruler of this plant is Venus and in magic it is used in its dried form. It is considered to be the cat's favorite drug, but it is also an aphrodisiac. If you add it to love spells, it gives extra energy to them and speeds up the results. Sprinkle some under the bed for a night filled with lust and passion.

Merry Meet fellow Wiccans to my Wiccan World

My week has been so and so, as I have had some aches from my Fibromyalgia. This always comes each autumn when the cold is getting its grip on the weather outdoors. Even though it's not a surprise after each warm summer, it's still hard to cope with each autumn and therefore I always can sense in my body when the autumn is on its way.

I have had a good week besides that one though, as I have been to the dentist and came out with the notice that I didn't have any holes in my teeth's. It was the yearly checkup that one always should go to, and I am not a love of the dentist so I was more than happy about it, actually.

Me and hubby has been out on walks with our dog, and enjoyed the time together. It is a nice way to experience the changes of the season, and also we get to be together as a family and have the dog running loose around us. Our dog loves our walks, and we have also much fun on them. We are meeting other people, and also other dogs. Our dog is very obedient, and he does listen well to our commands. So he goes "heal" or even in a leash when it is needed for, when we are meeting someone we don't know. The other person can be afraid of dogs, or the dog we are meeting not get along with each other.

I have continued to translate the Dragon Reiki Level I Manual to Swedish, and it is a fun and interesting work to do. I do feel that the Dragon Reiki has much resemblance to the 2nd Degree's Spell of the Months "Ride the Dragon" lesson. You learn how to use the Dragon force, and also find your own Dragon. Yet, in Dragon Reiki you also learn 8 new symbols. That isn't taught in "Ride the Dragon" lesson, so it is part new and part old. What I remember of my Dragon from "Ride the Dragon" part is that She is a green/pinkish Fire Dragon. This is according to the Dragon Reiki Manual somewhat wrong, as Fire Dragons are red but I can't find the green in this. The Earth Dragon is somewhat near, but She has told me that She is a Fire Dragon. In the Dragon Reiki there is a Meditation technique to find this out, so I will let you know when I know what it turned out for me. For me it's just intriguing to see what I will find out about all this, and I want to do it after I have translated the Manual. Then I can do it more properly and get the whole picture of it.

My Gaia-ritual went on fine, and the attenders were very pleased with my ritual. They thought it were a beautiful, and also a very soulful ritual that I had written. I had it about an abandoned city, and a movie in black and white in a drive-in movie. We healed the city by sending healing to a round stone there, and that stone turned to our mother Earth. I am now pondering over what I shall write about for the next month's Gaia-ritual, as I haven't really got a clue on what I shall write about. Oh well, it will come to me in time, so I don't worry about it.

Take care until Monday. Blessed be all of you and love always to all my brothers and sisters in Correllian Tradition. Love and Light, Hugz and Blessings

Stone of the week: Amber

This golden gemstone is a favorite among witches and it can be carried for protection and success. A stone that contains a beetle or an insect trapped within its center brings fame and you can add the resin to prosperity formulas or wear the oil for protection or to empower your magical path. Many wear it to attract lovers.

Amber is excellent for inner child work and past life work. Amber is a soothing stone that is both calming, yet energizing. It is said to bring clarity of thought and wisdom. Often used to draw out negative energy to cleanse an environment. It is used to ease physical pain in the same manner. It has long been considered as a good luck charm for marriage. It is also good for psychic shielding and protection. Amber is associated with the solar plexus chakra, and sometimes the sacral chakra. In Crystal Healing, amber is a powerful tool! Amber is used to aid bone problems, heart problems, circulation, ears, hearing problems, endocrine imbalances, fibromyalgia, intestinal/digestive disorders, kidney, bladder, lungs, and general healing purposes.

The Principles of Reiki

Part Two – Reiki Principle 2

By David McDonald

Welcome to the second instalment of the reiki principles. This submission we will look at principle two.

Just for today, do not worry

Worry, like anger, is another emotion that we all feel and have to deal with. But what happens when we worry? When you think about it the answer is pretty simple. When we worry we have, temporarily, forgotten that there is a divine purpose in everything. Once we become aware that we have lived each day the best we can, we then know that the rest is up to the Universe/God/Goddess.

When we worry we begin to separate ourselves from the Universal wholeness; we are in fact not trusting that all is in divine order. Once we start to worry we start to create limitations. We need to surrender to our higher self, surrender to the higher plan. Once we surrender we will realize all is in divine order and is as it should be. We will realize that there is a lesson to learn. Surrender, Release and Trust.

Remember, “Don’t worry, be happy...”

Blessed be,

David McDonald

Craft of the Wise: A Practical Guide to Paganism and Witchcraft By Vikki Bramshaw

ISBN-10: 1846942322
ISBN-13: 978-1846942327

Bringing together both practical experience and innovative research, 'Craft of the Wise: A Practical Guide to Paganism & Witchcraft' communicates a balance of accepted Craft methods together with a wealth of information relating to the origins and beliefs of this particular esoteric path.

Vikki Bramshaw brings together factual evidence from the past and references it to modern practices, dispelling many common misconceptions of popular wicca and allowing the reader to grow in both wisdom and spirituality. Discover the early origins of the Craft, the nature of the elements, the true meanings of the magical tools and how to use talismanic symbols. Learn about the mechanics behind magic, cosmology, creation and manifestation, and the science of the Craft.

Based upon training methods used by the High Priestess of a British Initiatory Craft coven, this book explains the initial training practices of Initiatory Esoteric Witchcraft based on Traditional Wicca and ancient Mystery Traditions, and will appeal to both the beginner and the existing practitioner alike.

Reviews:

Definitely one of the best initial offerings I've seen for a long time. --Pentacle Magazine

This book is superb ... an ideal text book for the serious student and a must for any pagan's book shelf. --Maureen Wheeler, Elder of the Craft

This book is both powerful and quite fascinating; each coven and tradition has its own methods of working the sacred magic's, and 'Craft of the Wise' rather proves this. (Maxine Sanders, Author of Fire Child)

It contains everything someone new to the Craft needs to start them on their path. It well written and easy to understand. (Janet Farrar & Gavin Bone, Authors of A Witches Bible)

Poetry Place

THE DRUMS OF SAMHAIN

The drums of Samhain keeping time.
The gates of magic open wide.

A cauldron's blessings overflow.
The candle flames are dying low.

The witches dance the circle 'round
To chant and bring the power down.

Hecate will hear our call
To turn the summer into fall.

The magic veil is growing thin.
The Netherworld is near our own.

We'll see the sacred fire fed
While witches commune with the dead.

The winds of Autumn call our names.
The driving rhythm slowly calms.

The glowing embers we will tend
Until the drums of Samhain end.

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Podcast

Wiccan blog and podcast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

The Order of World Walkers

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be Krystel

Order of Peace Weavers

The Order of Peace Weavers was created to provide members of the Correllian Tradition with the means of gathering together to collectively promote the weaving of peace into the fabric of society through meditation, prayer, Reiki, visualization, spell working, ritual, creative writing, intentional art and music, and other positive energy work and light work, with harm to none, and for the highest good of all concerned.

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.
