Kitten development

Week 1

Kittens are born blind & deaf with eyes closed and ears folded down. They do little more than eat or sleep in the first week. They are unable to regulate their own temperature and so need to be kept at an even temperature. The remains of the umbilical cord will disappear in a few days. At this age, and through till about 5 weeks, the mother takes care of all toileting needs. Kittens should gain between 5 and 10% of body weight daily. It is essential to keep a daily record as some kittens may need supplementary bottle feeding if not receiving enough milk from the mother.

Week 2

The eyes open but sight, like that of a newborn human, is poor. The kitten's eyes are always blue at this age. Hearing and the sense of smell are also developing, and the kitten is now active, moving around the bed but staying close to mother.

Week 3

Awareness is developing and the kitten takes its first few tentative steps. The ears now stand erect and the milk teeth are beginning to break through the gums. The kittens can now purr softly.

Week 4

Activity is increasing and play with the littermates begins. Eyesight is improving but they are not yet able to follow a dangling toy. The mother now begins to leave the kittens for short periods (be warned – she can get pregnant again at this stage).

Week 5

The kittens are becoming more agile and may start to take some solid food. At this stage they may begin to use a litter tray so provide a small one with kitten-safe litter in easy reach of the bed. Like young children, once they decide they “need to go” they need to be close to the facilities or there may be an accident. Kittens naturally house-train themselves – all they need are clean and suitable facilities. Remember to change the tray very frequently.

Weeks 6 - 8

The mother is taking longer periods away from the kittens who have now reached the very active and playful stage. They should have been receiving human contact from birth but need even more now. It is important to get them fully used to handling to avoid problems when they are older. They will be eating mostly solids now but will return to Mum for the odd drink. At this age they need around 6 meals a day.

Thereafter.

Vaccinations can begin at 8 weeks and the kittens should be wormed.

Adult teeth begin to come through at 16 weeks and the kittens will usually need 5 meals a day at this stage.

Neutering is possible from 20 weeks depending on the size of the kitten

Slowly switch the kittens to the ad-lib feeding that will be the pattern for their adult lives.

Only allow the kitten outside when accompanied and remember they are highly accident prone.

Astrology

Rev. Leona

Last week completed our initial look at the Zodiac. Before going more in depth with this subject I would like to go over the other elements involved in Astrology. Once the Zodiac has been learned then there remains the planets and the house of the Astrological chart. Different fields of Astrology use different planets. We will begin with the more known and accepted planets. We will begin with the most influential of all the planets and that is the Sun. the Sun rules your external personality and your physical features.

The Sun is one of the most important and influential planets in your life. This is the planet which rules over your physical make up as well as your own personal energy levels and output. The Sun functions as a battery for your own drives and functions. Working with this planet will give you the knowledge and tools to tap into never ending energy sources. The Sun is a force that allows you to function and to strive towards your dreams. By lighting up the path the Sun will help you to overcome any hidden obstacles with ease and confidence. When working with this planet you will investigate your own drives and desires. The Sun will help you to locate the source of any energy drainage that keeps you feeling lethargic and uninspired. You will be able to find out what it is that makes you strive for success. The Sun will give you the courage and the determination to move forward and to make the most out of your talents. This process will allow you to see different aspects of your life. A thorough examination of these aspects will show you where you need to infuse more Solar energy. In doing so you will acquire the tools and understanding required to tap into your full solar potential.

The Sun is the key to understanding your own destiny. When you work with the Sun you will be able to illuminate more of your journey and this will reveal more clues to what you are working towards. Knowing the final destination of this journey will allow you to plan for the future with confidence. This knowledge will allow you to take advantage of all of the possible resources that will help to manifest your goals. Only through focus and determination will you be able to locate the key inside yourself. This key is the last element required to unlocking the power of the Sun. Once you have located the key you will be able to harness the full power of the Sun. When you are harnessing the energy of the Sun you will need to rebuild or create a new circuit on which this energy can flow between you and the Sun. Once this circuit is established you will be able to use your solar connection to modify your self-image and increase your will-power. The Sun will give you the motivation and courage to express your own individuality in ways that will increase your shine. The Sun is the source of your greatest qualities. Within the Sun your leadership qualities, your ability to guide others and your ability to be true resides. These qualities are there for you to tap into yet how freely these qualities flow depends greatly on the strength of your own shine.

The Sun has the power to energize all areas of your life. When the Sun blazes down upon you is the time for renewal and regeneration of your own energy stores. When you take the time to absorb this power you will revitalize both mind and spirit. There will be times when you will experience a lack of energy and motivation. The Sun tells you that as long as you are willing to tune into your solar power then you will always have a pure source as which to recharge. During the process of recharging you will burn away all of the negative patterns and dark thoughts that have slowly begun to infiltrate your life. This process of purification will supply you with new clarity and focus. The Sun will illuminate what you are doing correctly and allow you to re-affirm your own identity and individuality. You will discover that walking in the sunlight gives you the strength and courage to be yourself. The Sun encourages you to be proud of yourself and tells you that you should not be afraid to be different. While working with the Sun you will encounter many different people walking in the Sun and as you examine them you will discover that each one is walking in a way that best suits their own personality.

The Sun asks you to take the time to examine your life so that you will be able to successfully locate the areas where you are exerting your energy. This process will help you to identify and burn away any blockages that have built up. Locating the source of great energy depletions will be a sure sign of blockages. Being able to clear away these blockages will free up your energy and give you a chance to find and act upon future possibilities. When you are able to harness the power of your Sun in such a way as to clear away these blockages then you will find that wisdom and experience is all that is left. The Sun is all about finding the answers that have eluded. When you locate these answers you will be that much closer to finding the best of who you are. When you are in tune with the Sun you will feel a sense of happiness and peace around you. You will feel that there is nothing you cannot accomplish. Keeping yourself in the full light of the Sun will allow you to wash away all the darkness and doubts that keep you from accomplishing your goals.

The Sun is the source of the self. This is the home of your passions, desires and drives. Working with the Sun will draw you inside yourself where you will examine both your accomplishments and failures. Through this process you will come face-to-face with your ego. The ego is the part of you that wants to be the best and wants to brag to others about being the best. The ego is the part of you that wants and wants. The examination of your ego will illuminate the source of your true desires and drives. The Sun will show your many attempts to fulfill even your most basic desires. When you take on this challenge you will be able to see how much free will you actually have and how much you let society dictate to you. The Sun wants you to learn how to live a free and exciting life without the trappings of society. Through this process you will be able to undo some of the conditioning that has been programmed into you.

One of the ways in which you will be able to achieve your goals is through your behavior in daily life. When you are working with the Sun you will want to find the key to merging your spiritual and mundane life. When you are able to find a true balance between material and spiritual you will have opened a gate to new freedom and knowledge. Having these tools available to you will make the journey much easier. Knowing what you are meant to be means identifying the goal of this lifetime, as well as, those set in motion during other lifetimes. Do not be intimidated by the spiritual side of the Sun for here you will find a great source of integration and motivation. Being firm in your convictions will allow you to use your charisma to help accomplish your goals.

The Sun is the one planet that has the ability to shed light into all areas of your world. Exploring all of these different aspects of your world will help you to identify your likes and dislikes. Understanding these likes and dislikes will give you a chance to understand yourself better. With this understanding you will be able to see patterns in your life. If you find that you dislike confrontation you will see how many opportunities were missed due to this. Every dislike has the possibility of becoming a handicap that will effect the realization of your goal. By eliminating understanding the role of these dislikes you will have that ability to overcome or adapt before they become pitfalls.

The Sun deals with your maneuverability in everyday life. The face you put on for others and all of the decisions and risks you take during the day. This planet has the power to motivate and inspire you to fulfill all of your dreams and aspirations. The Sun encourages you to examine your physical well being. Expanding your energy on blockages instead of clearing them away will lead to illness. The Sun is an area where health and healing will be strongest. The energy of the Sun works to motivate you and encourages you to succeed. When you are working with the Sun you must make sure that you take the time to care for your physical self. The power of the Sun can be overwhelming and draining when not harnessed properly. For this reason you will need to make sure that you take time to stop and rest. Even the Sun does not shine in your life forever.

Throughout these lessons you will come to identify the very core of your being. Here you will see all of the aspects that combine to make you a wonderful and unique person. Each person has a destiny and a life to live. Each being is unique and special. Through all of this the Sun will shine differently for different people. You need to look at your own life and see what you were meant to do in this lifetime. With this realization you will be able to make order out of the chaos that is life. When you have the answers you will be able to integrate all your skills to fulfill your destiny and truly evolve into the being you were meant to become.

The Sun is the planet that will light up your life path. When you take up the challenges of the Sun you will grow to understand your actions and how they will affect all future possibilities. The Sun houses the core of your being. This is the planet that dictates your physical characteristics and motivation. When you work with the Sun you will need to make sure to be protected as the Sun is the one planet that burns with intense heat and power. Remember that it is through this intense burning that you will find the path to success and to your own unique spirit.

Enquire Within for Everything (Well Almost!)

Rev. Moonleaf

Merry Meet Everyone,

It is difficult to write when my heart is full of sorrow and compassion for those families whose loved ones who passed into Summerland over the weekend in the worst bush fires in Australia's history.

We here in Australia know the price we may be required to pay for living here, but that does not make the cost easier to bear when it becomes due.

In every State of this great country we have suffered the dangers of fire and drought and flood over the centuries. Even before the Caucasian came to these shores, fire and flood were regular occurrences, in fact the majority of the Australian Native trees and bushes require fire to germinate and regenerate. Flood has been the only way some parts of the country has had water enough to encourage the native grasses to flower and reseed.

But, the terrible destruction we have seen this last weekend in Victoria and the floods in Northern Queensland are not just the result of natural weather patterns and native regrowth.

It would seem to be more the result of human intervention and the overall weather pattern changes we are seeing on a world wide scale. The blizzards in North America and the United Kingdom and across Northern Europe are all part of these patterns of worsening weather. When combined with lack of awareness and deliberate ignorance on the part of councils and higher government, and developers, these exacerbated natural occurrences become time bombs, waiting to go off.

The government bows to the green lobbyist by calling a halt to burn off and Bush fire brigades see the build up of undergrowth in good years which then becomes tinder dry in drought.

The hot weather in Victoria and South Australia over the past few weeks has been the worst on record... Temperatures of over 50°C have been recorded in areas where heavy rains and flooding during the winter/spring months created thick grass crops in paddocks and massive undergrowth in the forests. In our lower States the forest are mainly Eucalypt and Pine, perfect fodder for firestorms etc. The sudden extreme hot weather and winds has acted like a kiln firing the water out of a clay pot. A disaster waiting to happen.

And it has, at this point of writing, 131 souls have been lost, men, women and children, caught in Fire Storms and walls of Fire moving at phenomenal speed (some 25kms in 4 mins), with no where to go. One whole town of 560 houses is no more and some 140 more across the fire front, and the worst news that could ever be heard, it is suspected that arson was involved in some of the 29 fires burning in Victoria still tonight (Monday night, Australian Time).

My plea across the world is that we, as the keepers of this planet, begin to take heed of the warnings she is giving us.

I know that all the major continents also suffer from these Fires and Floods as we do, and that the Northern Hemisphere has the added burden of Blizzards. We all suffer through Hurricanes, Cyclones, Tidal Waves, Volcanic Eruptions and Earthquakes, all normal to a certain extent but getting more violent and destructive as time passes.

Surely human life is worth more than a bigger profit. Let us beg, implore, demand that our governments learn to minimize the risk by learning to support the planet, to use commonsense, instead of the sticking their heads in the sand attitude, that has killed more humans over history than all the conquerors and would be conquerors put together.

To be in ignorance of the risks, is no longer an excuse, and to take an active part in reducing those risks is mandatory for all humans!

It would seem that my soap box is out again, and I am guilty of having my say... Why don't you all join me!

I remember the souls newly departed
May they come to Summerland in peace.

May all who love this Earth
Give back to her with Joy
Play in the sea and sand
Dig in the soil and nurture growth
But let us all do it consciously!

Merry Part

Poets Retreat

Legend of the Goddess

In ancient times our Lord, the Horned One, was, as he still is, the Consoler, the Comforter; but men knew him as the Dread Lord of Shadows- lonely, stern and hard.

Now our Lady the Goddess had never loved, but she would solve all mysteries, even the mystery of Death - and so she journeyed to the Nether Lands.

The Guardian of the Portals challenged her, "Strip off thy garments, lay aside thy jewels for nought may ye bring with thee into this our land."

So she laid down her garments and her jewels and was bound, as are all who enter the realms of Death the Mighty One.

Such was her beauty that Death himself knelt and laid his sword and crown at her feet and kissed them saying; "Blessed be thy feet that have brought thee in these ways. Abide with me, but let me place my cold hand on thy heart." and she replied,

"I love thee not. Why dost thou cause all things that I love and take delight in to fade and die?"

"Lady" replied Death, "tis Age and Fate, against which I am helpless. Age causes all things to wither; but when men die at the end of time, I give them rest and peace and strength, so that they may return. But you - you are lovely; return not - abide with me."

But she replied, "I love thee not."

Then said Death,

"An you receive not my hand on your heart, you must receive Death's scourge."

"It is fate, better so," she said, and she knelt.

And Death scourged her tenderly, and she cried, "I feel the pangs of love."

And Death raised her, and said, "Blessed be." and gave her the Fivefold Kiss, saying the Mysteries and gave her the necklace, which is the Circle of Rebirth.

And they loved and were one; and he taught her all the Magics.

For there are three great events in the life of mortals - love, death and resurrection in a new body - and Magic controls them all.

To fulfill love you must return at the same time and place as the loved one, and you must remember and love them again.

But to be reborn you must die and be ready for a new body; to die you must be born; without love you may not be born - and these be all the Magics.

Jokes:

Why Did the Chicken Cross the Road? (Neo-Pagan-style)

Part 1 of 3

Alexandrian/Gardnerian: To reveal this would be to break my oath of secrecy. I can say, though, that it - really - is an ancient rite, dating far back in time, back even before 1951, and I have learned it from an unbroken lineage. As Gerald said, it takes a chicken to make an egg.

Asatru: First, we don't believe in a - One Chicken - or a - Hen and Rooster. We believe in many chickens. Second, crossing the road is part of the three levels, or worlds, and the chicken simply crossed from one level to another. Hail to the Chickens

British Traditional: The word chicken comes from a very specific Old English word (gechekken), and it only properly applies to certain fowl of East Anglia or those descended there from. As for the rest, I suppose they are doing something remotely similar to crossing the road, but you must remember that traditional roads are not to be confused with the modern roads....

Celtic: In County Feabhagh on Midsummer's day, there is still practised St. Henny's Dance, which is a survival of the old pagan Chicken Crossing fertility rite. Today, modern pagans are reviving the practice, dedicated to the Hen and the Green Rooster.

Ceremonial: Crossing the road is a phrase that summarizes many magical structures erected and timed by the chicken to produce the energy necessary for the intention of the travel across the road. For example, the astrological correspondences had to be correct, the moon had to be waxing (if the chicken intended to come to the other side of the road) or waning (if the chicken intended to flee to the other side of the road), and the chicken had to prepare herself through fasting and proper incantations. Note: certain forms of invocation (summoning an egg inside your chicken self) can produce abnormal or even dangerous eggs and should only be conducted inside a properly erected barnyard.

Chaos: Thinking in terms of roads and crossings is simply looking at the formal, typically perceived structure of chicken crossing space-time. We, instead, focus on the possibility of chicken crossing itself what appears to be a random act is thus actually the norm - it is the road which is the freak of chance. Indeed, quantum mechanics now demonstrates what we knew all along: two roads can simultaneously exist in the same place at the same time. Thus, by attuning ourselves to the dynamic energy (called crossing), we can manifest the road. Of course, to the unknowledgeable, this appears as a chicken crossing the road.

Dianic: The chykyn (chicken is a term of patriarchal oppression) sought to reclaim for herself the right to be on the other side of the road, after it had been denied to her for centuries. By doing so, she reawakened the power of the Hen within herself.

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystal High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be Krystal

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers
