Chancellor's New Year's Address

Greetings everyone,

Well, here we are again –a New Year- and it is time once again for my annual New Year's Address. And what an interesting year it's been! Year 11 Aquarius has been a tumultuous year that saw a lot of growth and a lot of upheaval both around the world and for many of us personally. It was a year of breaking up old patterns to allow for new growth, and indeed as we come to the start of Year 12 Aquarius much of that growth is only now coming into full flower –and my goodness the months ahead are full of promise.

That promise is of course due to the hard work of many people, and it is only appropriate that I take this occasion to thank as many of those people as possible –though in my experience it is never possible to mention everyone who deserves our thanks, nor ever possible to thank enough those people who give so much of themselves for the good of others and in so doing make possible the many blessings we enjoy as a Tradition.

To begin, I would like to thank Witch School, which has been our educational partner for many years. Witch School and its brilliant and indefatigable visionary Ed Hubbard have been instrumental in both the growth of the Correllian Tradition and in its transformation from a small familial Tradition into a worldwide movement. Few of you would be reading this letter if it were not for Witch School. As for Ed, his constant focus on growth and development, and on the cultivation of our community and its youth, has done much to build a better, more connected, and more accessible world.

And of course I cannot properly thank Witch School without also thanking the amazing MaryAnn Kay who has constantly and consistently given of herself to help others and for whom I hope this year brings every blessing. MaryAnn has spent many years helping Witch School students and seekers of all sorts, even taking to radio as part of the Pagans Tonight family, and is always a voice for spiritual tolerance and understanding of diverse viewpoints.

I must also thank Rt. Rev. Anna Rowe, the President of Witch School, and also an Arch Priestess and Witan Herald for the Correllian Tradition, for all of her hard work in helping to lead this global network forward.

And I must thank Rev. Sherry Cooper who has been so important in advancing the Witch School mission –Thank you Sherry!

This year will bring many changes to the relationship between the Tradition and Witch School as Witch School has now made it possible to create individually tailored schools that will be able make the same technology available at the Temple and Study Group level. Individual Correllian groups can now potentially run their own schools geared to their particular needs and specialties. This is a huge step forward and a very exciting development –more exciting than anyone seems to have yet grasped. Truly, this is the beginning of the fulfillment of the vision that Witch School and the Correllian Tradition have shared all along –central support and resources for our globally dispersed community.

Among other things these developments make possible the long anticipated Correllian College, which will focus on higher and more specialized studies, including the Sixteen Modules.

I would also like to thank my beloved sister Arch Priestess Traci Logan Wood, for accepting the role of Acting First Priestess. Lady Traci is a sister of choice who has for been at my side for two decades now and long acted as Joint Head with me for Chicago's Holy City Temple. Lady Traci brings a fresh and community-focused perspective to the role of First Priestess which is vitally important to the future progress of our Tradition.

I must also thank all of the new Elders we have seated in Year 11: Rt. Rev. Jason Mycroft-Highcorrell, Rt. Rev. Anna Rowe, Rt. Rev. Stephanie Neal, Rt. Rev. Terry Power, Rt. Rev. Raene Packery, Rt. Rev. Windy Lajoie, and Rt. Rev. Green Owl. All of the new Elders are hardworking and dedicated people who have been with us for many years. The acclamation of these Elders has also led to a number of first-ever events: This is the first time in Correllian history that we have had Elders from outside the United States, with Lady Anna being in the UK and Lady Raene in South Africa. This is a wonderful advancement that truly represents the global nature of the Correllian people, and we rejoice for it. We look forward in coming years to seeing Elders from Central and South America, from India, and from Australia –all places where we have highly accomplished and industrious Correllian leadership.

Another first is the impending birth of a son to ArchPriestess Raene, due to deliver any day now. This is the first time in my memory that a Correllian Elder has given birth in office, and is a wonderful omen of renewed life and growth! I am sure you will all join me in wishing every happiness and Blessing to Lady Raene and her new baby when he arrives!

It would be impossible for me to thank everyone whose work has been significant in the past year, there are simply too many -but I want to mention as many as possible. Claudia Blanton is one who must not be overlooked, and whose efforts are tremendously appreciated. Others whose hard work I want to recognize include (in alphabetical order) Rev. Katharina Ghazzoul HP, Rev. Liz Hamilton, Rev. Richard Keen HP, Rev. Diane Lavendowski HP, Rev. Angela Munn, Rev. Janice Nalis HP, Rev. Bruce Richards HP, Rev. Sande Smith and Rev. Millie Toupes, Rev. Charlynn Walls.

I also want to thank the many people working to advance Correllianism around the globe! Again there are far too many to name everyone who deserves our gratitude, but among the most outstanding are Rev. Eblis HP in Mexico, Rev. Harwe Tuileva in Spain, Rev. LaMaduk Madelaine in Chile, Rt. Rev. Raene Packery and Rev. Susan Wheeler HP in Africa, and Rev. Yoko Galkan in Uruguay to name just a few of the many. Perhaps the most exciting international development in Year 11 was the advent of the Spanish language Pagans Tonight on Saturdays with Yoko and LaMaduk! I see this as a huge leap forward and am in awe of the great job they are doing with it! I would also like to thank Swati Prakash for all of the great work she is doing to advance the Wiccan religion in India – her dedication and tireless efforts are greatly inspiring.

And of course I would also like to thank Afterfauve, Beth LaQuay, DrakonumBlade, GreenGate, Insomniac4Ever, RedDragon, Sparrow, and all the many wonderful people who have stepped forward to play a significant role in various social media. Your support has really been a huge help!

Finally I want to thank Katrina, Alfred, and Melissa here in Salem, for all of their hard work, as well as Rev. Lexi Renee –you are doing so much good work –thank you so much!

These are only a few of the many people who should be thanked and honored for their work, but the New Years Address can only be so long. All these and many others are a great blessing to us in the Correllian Tradition, Witch School, and the Wiccan religion as a whole – Thank you everyone!

I also have a few announcements with which to end this address. First, Lady Krystel has asked me to announce that she has appointed ArchPriestess Stephanie Neal as Co-Head of the Order of World Walkers, and that the World Walkers will once again be taking applications for new members. For more information contact Lady Stephanie at saneal@earthlink.net

In addition I would like to announce that beginning now we will be asking for a criminal background check on all new Clergy applicants to ensure the safety of our members and their families. This will initially apply only to US Clergy applicants, but will eventually be policy throughout the Tradition. Also while it initially applies to new Clergy applicants, it will extend to all existing Clergy as soon as practicable. I realize that this is a bit of a revolutionary policy as Paganism goes, but the reason for it is that we take the safety and well being of our members seriously, and have come to feel that this is important to ensure that no one with criminal convictions for violent or sexual crimes can slip through our system. I realize that this is a bit of an inconvenience to new applicants, but I hope that you will all understand the importance of it. For more information on this policy contact me at DonLewisHP@aol.com

Finally I would like to announce that I will be appearing at Children of Gaia Temple in South Florida from February 16 through 28. I am hoping to meet with many of our local Correllians and will be offering several of the Sixteen Modules as in-person classes. For more information contact Lady Janice at childrenofgaiatemple@yahoo.com

Thank you everyone and may you be richly blessed in Year 12 Aquarius!

Pagan Calendar January 9 - 15

January 9 On this date in the year 1989, Jamie Dodge (a Wiccan who had been fired from her job at the Salvation Army because of her Wiccan beliefs) won a lawsuit against her former employer for violating her First Amendment right to freedom of religion and unnecessary entanglement of government with religion. On this date in the year 1880, "Old Dorothy" Clutterbuck was born in Bengal. She belonged to a hereditary Witch coven in the New Forest of England, and was the High Priestess who initiated Gerald B. Gardner into the Craft in 1939. She passed away in the year 1951.

January 10 The Feast of Dreams, a centuries-old ritual, is performed annually by the Native American Indian tribe of the Iroquois to celebrate their New Year, which occurs on this date. In rural England and Scotland, Plough Monday (the first Monday after Epiphany) occurs on or around this date. A plough is traditionally paraded through the streets and a ritual sweeping with brooms is performed to drive away evil spirits from the village.

January 11 In years gone by, an old ritual to ward off Witches was performed annually on this date in many fishing villages along the coast of Scotland. At sunset, a barrel of tar would be placed on top of a pole, set on fire, and allowed to burn throughout the night. Afterwards, charred pieces of it would then be used by the villagers and fisherman as protective charms. In ancient Rome, a festival called the Carmentalia was celebrated annually, beginning on this date and lasting until the fifteenth of January. The festival honored the Roman goddess Carmenta, a deity presiding over childbirth, whose priestesses cast the fortunes of children at the moment of their birth. Juturna, the ancient Italian goddess of pools and still waters, is honored each year on this day.

January 12 Saint Tatiana's Day, is venerated as a saint, and her feast day is on January 12 (for those churches which follow the traditional Julian Calendar, January 12 currently falls on January 25 of the modern Gregorian Calendar). The miracles performed by Saint Tatiana are said to have converted many people to the fledgling religion. Saint Tatiana is patron saint of students. In Belarus, Russia, and Ukraine, Tatiana Day, also known as "Students Day", is a public holiday.

January 13 Saint Silvester's Day. Evil spirits are traditionally driven away with clanging bells on this night by villagers in Urnasch, Switzerland, where the pre-Julian New Year's Eve continues to be celebrated on this date. In pre-Christian Ireland, the thirteenth day of January was celebrated each year as the Feast of Brewing by the ancient and mysterious priests known as the Druids.

January 14 On this date in the year 1967, a psychedelic spiritual "pow-wow" called the Human Be-In took place in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park. The event drew approximately 20,000 people (including Allen Ginsberg and Timothy Leary) and consisted of chanting, dancing, poetry readings, music, and celebrations of love and the unity of humankind. In Southern India, the three-day Pongal festival begins on this date each year to celebrate the January rice harvest, honor the great sun-god Surya, and give thanks to the spirits who bring the rainy season.

January 15 In ancient Rome, a sacred festival called the Feast of the Ass was celebrated each year on this date in honor of the goddess Vesta and the ass that saved her. Vesta presided over the hearth and her temple was lit by a sacred fire tended by six virgin priestesses known as the Vestal Virgins.

Makar Sankranti

Hindu Festival January 14

Makar Sankranti is considered to be one of the most auspicious festivals for the Hindus. It is celebrated in various parts of the country with extreme zeal and fervor. In Gujarat and Rajasthan, it is known Uttarayan while in Northern part of the country; it is known as Sankranti, in Tamil Nadu, it is known as Pongal. Apart from India, it is also celebrated in Nepal, Malaysia and Thailand. It is celebrated with great devotion, fervor and gaiety as the harvest festival of the state at many places in the Indian subcontinent. It is one of the few chosen Indian festivals which are celebrated on the same date every year i.e. on 14th January.

Sankranti means 'change' and 'Makar' means 'Capricorn', thus Makar Sankranti is the day when the glorious Sun-God begins its ascendancy and entry into the Northern Hemisphere. It is when Sun transits from Sagittarius and goes to Capricorn during the winter solstice in the northern hemisphere (Uttarayana). This event has socio-religious impact on the Indian society. At some places the festival is celebrated merely as a harvest festival, however in many parts of the country, it is considered as an occasion from when all the auspicious Hindu festivals can be solemnized.

For some people it signifies an event wherein the Sun-God seems to remind his devotees a popular saying that 'Tamaso Ma Jyotir Gamaya' which means 'may you go higher and higher, to more and more light and never to darkness. As Sun signifies knowledge, divine spiritual light and wisdom to Hindu community, this festival of Sun God gives a message that the real spirit of life is to get over from the darkness of delusion and begin the search of a more brighter and aware side of our persona. People often relate the festival to auspiciousness, wisdom, and knowledge.

Unlike most of the other Indian Hindu festivals, the date of Makar Sankranti is fixed. It is celebrated on 14th January every year. In 2012, the Makar Sankranti is falling on Saturday.

The festival is celebrated throughout the country with different names and different rituals. At some places, it is considered auspicious to fly kites, while at other places eating 'Khichdi' (instant rice-daal mix) is considered fortunate. Til and Rice are said to be the vital ingredients of this festival. In the rice-eating belt of Bihar and eastern Uttar Pradesh, most of the festive dishes are rice-centric.

A popular fair named Gangasagar Mela, is also organized on this occasion on banks of river Hooghly, near Calcutta. In Andhra Pradesh, Makar Sankranti occasion is considered 'Pedda Panduga' meaning big festival. The entire event lasts for four days, the first day called Bhogi, the second day Sankranti, the third day Kanuma and the fourth day, Mukkanuma.

Spell of the Week

Severing Ties /Repelling Psychic Attacks

This is a spell to help you repel a psychic attack, if someone sent it your way. The emotional state of the caster when approaching this spell is essential to its success. The caster must remain calm, with no anger, regrets or second thoughts. Any fear should be replaced with confidence in the Deities you asking for assistance from.

Begin by making a list of the objects you need to sever ties with.

For the meditation, start with the standard rhythmic breathing exercise. Focus your concentration on the words of power, instead of the person, entity or object that you feel have sent the attack or need to sever yourself from. Add specific details; feelings, etc, to the words of power.

Once relaxed, visualize the object or person you need to disconnect from. Visualize a silver cord between you and the item.

Visualize another silver cord between the item and the person that you suspect maybe psychically attacking you. Both cords are needed as the energy from both parties is infused into the item while leaving the cord between the attacker and item intact.

Continue until you have severed the connection between you and all items on your list.

Now bless each item before ending the meditation. Some words of power could be:

"Divine Mother Goddess and Father God, give my loved ones your divine light of protection and love, according to free will and the good of all.

Help me release anything that having to do with the psychic attack or objects that I need to sever myself from. In particular, dissolve all cause of effect, manifestations, form and essence of anything to do with its symptoms.

In all time and all space. Anything and everything negative said or unsaid, I hereby dissolve and release all negativity, turning it to positive, in my life and my loved ones. In the name of the Goddess and the God. All my psychic attack and ties to objects I want to sever from is gone. I am free. This is my will and as my will I send it out and it is with harm to none, So Mote It Be".

How Can Sacred Geometry Help You?

by Caroline Nettle

In times gone by, humans were more in tune with the environment they lived in. Today, we have little connection to nature and the planet. The ancient wisdom that was often passed down through story-telling and tradition seems to have been forgotten or lost.

The understanding of the importance of different geometric shapes and patterns found everywhere in nature seems to be amongst the wisdom that has been thrown away. With all the changes that are happening on earth at the moment, some of this information is being revived. Here is some information about how the ancient science of Sacred Geometry can have a positive influence on your life.

The earliest cultures including the Christians, Hindus, Greeks and Egyptians recognized that there were different patterns or geometric shapes that repeated throughout nature. They also worked out that there was a correlation or connection between the various elements found in the earth and the heavens. These connections or common patterns, known as Sacred Geometry, were mirrored- the same patterns appeared on the earth and the in sky -and were believed by these ancient cultures to exist in all parts of the universe. They also recognized that these small patterns were representative of the building blocks that were literally the blueprint for everything the universe. A seed, after all, contains all the material needed to become a mighty tree, regardless of the size of the tree.

A single cell contains all the elements of the whole body, and the earth and heavens are reflections of each other. This idea, represented by the saying "As above, so below", summarized this ancient belief. Modern science has proven that these patterns are, in fact, the very molecular shapes that form the basis of all life in this universe.

These shapes or patterns were universal and governed the way in which the world replicated itself. These universal laws or patterns were absolute and static, they did not change or alter over time or space. This is evidenced by the vast number of cultures from around the world that all recognized the sacredness of these specific patterns and geometric shapes. Patterns and natural laws could be broken down into a variety of different representations. These may include numbers, mathematical formulas and even specific geographic symbols. Since symbols are very visual they are easy to identify throughout historical architecture, art and design.

Using these symbols, all based on mathematics, allowed incredibly detailed and precise construction that still inspires wonder and awe today. Think of the pyramids of Egypt and the amazing archaeological buildings and temples found throughout South and Central America. Engineers and architects are still not sure how these were constructed thousands of years ago with only rudimentary tools and building methods.

The recurring patterns in nature became Sacred Geometric patterns in these early cultures. The endless and amazing power of the shapes symbolized the continuity of life from birth through to death and beyond. Repeating and using these patterns in building, art and design harnessed their power and gave the symbols meaning. Understanding more about the different shapes of Sacred Geometry and how they were used in these ancient cultures can teach you how to harness their power.

The Flower of Life

Literally appearing as a beautifully balanced and perfectly proportioned flower, this geometric shape is recognized in many cultures around the world. It is developed by 13 separate spheres that interconnect through the design to create a unique pattern. Within the different shapes formed by the 13 spheres are represented many geometric and mathematical laws that are still used today. As a symbol the Flower of Life is considered to demonstrate the whole of the universe as well as its diverse components working together in harmony. The Flower of Life is revered for its ability to allow you to connect to your higher spiritual self as well as promote healing.

Metatron's Cube

Connecting the centre of each of the circles formed in the Flower of Life forms another Sacred Geometric shape known as Metatron's Cube. It also contains the perfect solids, which are also sacred. Metatron's cube has a long history in art and architecture and can be spotted in some of the oldest cities and buildings in the world. It is believed that the Metatron's Cube shape holds all possible laws and patterns for creation and reality. Wearing the Metatron's Cube will provide you with inner peace and spirituality.

Perfect Solids

If you remember back to your geometry and chemistry classes you will recall the importance of the perfect or platonic solids. There are five different shapes including the cube, tetrahedron, icosahedrons, dodecahedron and octahedron, that form the perfect solids. They are the shapes of any and all possible molecules and molecular structures. They are all congruent polygons with the same number of faces meeting at all vertices. With this unique combination all sides, vertices and angles are identical, which is why these shapes are considered holy in many religions and cultures.

Nautilus Shell

The humble nautilus shell is actually remarkable in its mathematical proportions. It is the physical representation of the number PHI, also known as the Golden Mean. PHI, which equals 1.6180339... is a unique number in that it has no arithmetic solution and goes on to infinity without repeating itself. This proportion created by PHI is found in the human skeleton, sunflowers, and of course the nautilus shell. Famous artists such as Kandinsky and Leonardo Da Vinci used the Golden Mean in their artistic creations. Research has now shown that people prefer to look at visual images, physical objects or representations that have the Golden Mean proportions. The Nautilus shell, with its beauty and mathematical perfection, is thought to allow the wearer to focus in on the harmony and beauty found in the natural world.

Other Sacred Geometry Patterns

There are other shapes that are also considered sacred and powerful. These shapes include the Christ Consciousness and the Merkaba. The Christ Consciousness shape provides healing as well as giving power, balance and good health. The Merkaba also gives healing power but also acts to provide protection. Throughout the world there are many different Sacred Geometric patterns and shapes. Wearing jewellery that includes the Sacred Geometry patterns is an ideal way to increase harmony, healing, self-balance, love, unity, oneness and beauty. Learning more about Sacred Geometry and the ancient wisdom that is being rediscovered is one way to reconnect with the world around us. We are again looking at the basic building blocks and their perfection in our religion, art, spiritual practices and interactions with the world around us. It taps into the natural laws that have been and still are universal in this world. Sacred Geometry is also a way to heal, and to create beautiful and lasting art, architecture and design in our lives in a positive and balanced way.

Magical Ingredient of the Week:

Clover

The ruler of this plant is Jupiter and can be found with three, four or five leaves. It is a symbol of luck and wishes and the shamrock or cloverleaf is a powerful talisman to carry. The three leaf represents the trinity of Maiden, Mother and Crone. The four leaf clover represents hope, faith, love and luck. The five leaf clover is considered to be the symbol of the pentagram and multiplies the blessings of the shamrock by five.

Roman Goddess Juturna

In the religion of ancient Rome, Juturna was a goddess of fountains, wells and springs. She was a sister of Turnus and supported him against Aeneas by giving him his sword after he dropped it in battle, as well as taking him away from the battle when it seemed he would get killed. She was also the mother of Fontus by Janus.

Jupiter turned her into a water nymph and gave her a sacred well in Lavinium, Latium, as well as another one near the temple to Vesta in the Forum Romanum. The pool next to the second well was called Lacus Juturnae. Juturna had an affair with Jupiter but the secret was betrayed by another nymph, Larunda, whom Jupiter struck with muteness as punishment.

Festival of Juturnalia is held on January 11, water is taken from her well to be used in state offerings. Evidence of her worship can be found as long ago as 2500 years.

Her importance can be seen in that she was acknowledged as the wife of Janus, the god of beginnings, endings and doorways, who was one of the oldest and most venerated of Rome's original gods, and the only one who had no Greek counterpart.

Like her husband, who was worshipped in square temples, Juturna's wells were often built with the same design, such as the famous Lacus Juturnae (Spring of Juturna) adjacent to the Temple of Castor & Pollux in the Forum Romanum. However along with the square fountains, there are also round wells dedicated to her.

Stone of the Week

Green Obsidian

Gaia Stone or Green obsidian comes from the volcanic ash of the eruption of Mt. St. Helen's. It is associated with the heart chakra, but can also be used to balance all the chakras. It is associated with the Goddess connection, and is thought to attract earth and nature spirits. It is supposed to assist in bringing prosperity. Gaia Stone is given to people to assist in the self-healing of emotional wounds and traumas. It is said to carry the Earth's energy, and is sometimes referred to as the "Soul of the Earth."

Cosmic Weather

Your weekly astrology almanac by Jane Lyle

Week beginning Monday 9th January 2012

This week kicks off with a watery full Moon and moves towards Friday the 13th, one of the busiest days of the month - astrologically speaking. Yes, 2012 has begun in earnest.

Monday 9th January: Full Moon rises at 18 degrees of Cancer the Crab. Keep your hankies handy, there's a lot of emotion swirling around today.

Tuesday 10th January: Finding a practical answer to problems seems to be the way to go, but it's harder than you might think. We're still in a super-emotional mood.

Wednesday 11th January: A day to focus on all the women in your life, whether that's sisters, daughters, cousins, friends, partners, or your mother. Or all of them, why not?

Friday 13th January: A remarkably busy cosmic day that really could be lucky for some of us, memorable for others. Hmmn.

The Sun in sensible Capricorn meets Mars in hard-working Virgo - boosting down-to-earth energy for practical projects. Meanwhile, Venus and Saturn link up to favour serious relationships and financial plans. Venus also meets romantic, spiritual Neptune - beautiful dreams, art and music prevail, just check out anyone you don't know very well before you get too carried away. And, to top it all off, asteroid Eros, named for the god of falling in love, passes by a mere 17 million miles from Earth, travelling through the early degrees of Virgo. In one corner of the universe, love flows.

Mercury meets underworld Pluto and those who enjoy detective fiction or in-depth research should have a field day. Mercury and Pluto, representing deep thoughts and the desire to transform toxic situations, also square up to the primal forces of asteroid Typhon. Events transform, sometimes, by showing us things we cannot control, such as extreme weather, volcanoes, earthquakes, storms and so on. We may receive a powerful message from the Earth today or tomorrow. Or from our own subconscious minds. These dramatic energies are catalysts for Capricorns, Librans, Aries and Cancerians - or for people and places with 7 degrees of the Cardinal signs in their horoscopes - that includes the United Kingdom, the United Nations, and Australia.

Saturday 14th January: Venus enters Pisces, a sign where she is very happy, soppy, and romantic. Venus meets Jupiter, softening hearts and minds too, probably. However, yesterday's strong energies will take time to settle. A day to open your heart, and find some inner harmony and balance.

Poem for January

January
Now is here --
A fine new start
For a whole new year.
The snow comes down
In the dark of night.
When we awake
The world is white.
In January
When there's snow,
We get our sleds
And away we go.

Prison Ministry Formal Shrine

The Prison Ministry Formal Shrine is to function as a bridge to breach the gap between inmates that are still called by Deity and who want to learn and/or correspond with members of the Correllian Tradition. This is a dedicated group that will not judge others' past, but help them pave a way into their future growth.

If you are interested in or already assisting with any type of Prison Ministry, please consider joining. You are required to be a registered member of the Correllian Nativist Tradition and at least 21 years of age. I am looking for people to assist with correspondence, and possible mentoring of inmates. If interested, please sign up at the following group:

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Podcast

Wiccan blog and podcast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,

The Order of Web Weavers

Order of Peace Weavers

The Order of Peace Weavers was created to provide members of the Correllian Tradition with the means of gathering together to collectively promote the weaving of peace into the fabric of society through meditation, prayer, Reiki, visualization, spell working, ritual, creative writing, intentional art and music, and other positive energy work and light work, with harm to none, and for the highest good of all concerned.

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.

For more information, please find us at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/orderofpeaceweavers/> or contact moonraven3x3@yahoo.com.

The Order of World Walkers

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition-- advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it. I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be
Krystel
