Veterinary Notes – M is for miscellaneous

For a change, some notes on diseases that I have been asked about recently

Hyperlipidaemia is one of the diseases to which several breeds appear to be predisposed. It is characterised by raised levels of lipids (fats) in the fasting animal. In this respect it bears similarity to raised cholesterol and triglyceride levels in humans! In minis the disease is correctly called idiopathic hyperchylomicronemia and is believed to be due to the deficiency of an enzyme involved in lipid metabolism

Hyperlipidaemia may be a primary disease or it may occur secondary to some other disease process such as liver disease. It is frequently asymptomatic (causing no symptoms) but may occasionally be associated with abdominal pain, epileptiform seizures and other neurological signs, and fatty deposits in the eye. Diagnosis is by a simple blood test – quite often the serum looks cloudy and milky instead of the normal straw-yellow colour.

In the absence of a definite cause, hyperlipidaemia is treated by controlling levels of fat in the diet alongside routine blood monitoring. There are prescription diets available with low levels of fat that make managing this condition much easier. Fish oil may be beneficial as may B vitamins. Symptoms resulting from primary hyperlipidaemia usually respond within 1 -3 months of starting treatment.

Complications: hyperlipidaemia may be associated with an increased risk of blood clot within the circulatory system or with pancreatitis. The latter usually presents as acute abdominal pain and must be treated as an emergency.

Canine Epileptoid Cramping Syndrome ( CECS or "Spike's Disease" ) is a hereditary disease in Border Terriers and may previously have been misdiagnosed as epilepsy. It is rare and the causes are uncertain but are suspected to be metabolic in origin since dietary changes may relieve the symptoms. Because of the vagueness of the symptoms there is also a risk of mislabelling a condition as Spike's disease in the absence of any other name.

Symptoms are neurological and include staggering, ataxia (wobbly gait), exaggerated stretching, slow and deliberate walking, tremors, falling over with difficulty rising, overloud stomach sounds (borborygmi), spontaneous contraction of abdominal muscles and apparent abdominal pain, but dogs appear lucid throughout. Age of onset is generally 2 – 6 years.

Treatment is with low protein diets suitable for kidney disease, and epilepsy –type drugs (anticonvulsants).

Merry Meet fellow Wiccans to my Wiccan World.

My weekend has been the best one that I wanted for, but there has been some good moments, though. Firstly, my Laptops mouse acted up on me. Which lead me to having re-installing my PC. My man helped me look for any trouble, and it wasn't the actual program. It was instead my touch-pad for my Laptop that has its flickers. When he un-installed that one, the PC has worked out just fine. It gave me grey hairs and a lot of tears, as I shouldn't have do it all that I actually did. Well, I guess it was a must and somehow it must have been a meaning for it. I can't see it now, though. In the future I will know for sure, and that I am believing in.

What about the Rune class then, you may ask? Well, we met up on Thursday as planned in the chatroom, and it was mostly talk about the outline about the course and also some basic things that we went through. Of course, we also get some homework. We should draw one Rune each day, and that is called The Odins Rune. I have been a good student, and made my lesson.

For Friday I draw "Berkana" which means birch, birth, for Saturday I draw "Pertho" which means fate, secrets, the unknown and for Sunday I draw "Ehwaz" which means horse, partnerships, love. It shall be interesting to get more into them as the class continues. I look forward until Thursday, again. I will defidently take the advanced class if I pass this one.

What else has happened during the weekend, then. It has been mostly re-installing my PC with the programs I think I need in order to work with my PC. I do feel like I have it as I want to have it now, except from one or two more programs, and then I am back to normal again. I have been out on walks with the dogs, and enjoying the outdoors. I can feel how the autumn is coming more and more close, and it wont be long until we get the red leafes and they fall off from the trees. Also will the autumn-storms come and the summer will be over for good this year. I will not complain though, as we have had a most wonderful and warm summer. I will look back to it during our winter, and remember it with much pleasure and joy.

Time to sign off, and look forward to what the week will give me. I am so excited to live and love every day that I wake up with the life I live now.

Take care until Thursday. Blessed be all of you.

Love and Light
Hugz and Blessings

Ganesh Chaturthi – 3rd September 2008

On this day Hindus all over the world will celebrate the birthday of Lord Ganesh (Ganesh Chaturthi).

Ganesh is also known by the names Ganapati, Ekadanta, Vinayaka and Heramba. Irrespective of what Hindu tradition, he is still one of the most popular deities for worship.

Ganesh is depicted with an elephant's head on a human body and in the Hindu tradition he is the son of Lord Siva and the Goddess Parvati. He is known as the Remover of Obstacles and is prayed to particularly when people are beginning a new enterprise or starting a new business. Ganesh is also known as the patron god of travelling.

In places such as Andhra Pradesh and Maharashtra (in India), the festival is celebrated for ten days and is a joyous event and regarded as a public occasion. In other places it is simply celebrated at home and hymns are sung and offerings made to Ganesh. Sweets are also distributed because in Hindu legend Ganesh liked them.

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be

Our challenge to you is this:

Write your own flash fiction before January 01, 2009. The prize for the top Flash Fiction submission will be a feature writer of the month. A picture of you, bio and your short story, also a gift certificate to the Witch School Store.

Please, only 1 entry per person.

Contest begins February 1, 2008 and ends January 01, 2009. Entries become the property of The Correllian Times. We assume no responsibility for illegible, lost, late, misdirected, incomplete, or stolen entries.

ENTRY: Submit an original, flash fiction story of exactly 250 words. Include your name and e-mail address and email to: windy at windy0716@aol.com or CNT_Correllian_Times-owner@yahoogroups.com Please include the words "FLASH FICTION CHALLENGE" in the subject detail. Entries must be original, unpublished and may not have won any prize or award.

LIMIT: Only one entry from an individual will be accepted - no group entries.

ELIGIBILITY: Everyone is eligible to enter! We do however reserve the right to withhold inappropriate materials from publication at our discretion.

Voting on flash fiction:

Each submission will be featured in The Correllian Times. A voting poll will be opened in January 2009 (details to follow). If you appreciate the storytelling in a flash fiction piece, please grant the writer the honor of your vote.

The great part for voters is that each entry shouldn't take much more than a minute. You can read dozens of them in a short period of time. Please support the writers in this challenge by reading as many as you can!

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: www@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers
