Pagan Calendar February 20 -26

February 20 On this date in the year 1882, the Society for Psychical Research was founded in London, England, by a group of prominent philosophers and physicists. It became Britain's leading organization for research into the world of supernatural phenomena and the paranormal.

February 21 In ancient Rome, an All Soul's Day ceremony known as the Feralia was held annually on this date at the close of the Parentalia festival. Family reunions were held and Lares (ancestral guardian spirits) were honored with prayers and offerings.

February 22 On this day in the year 1917, Sybil Leek was born in Stoke-on-Trent, England. She achieved fame and success as a modern Witch, astrologer, and occult author. Her psychic predictions of the Kennedy assassinations and the election of Richard M. Nixon as president of the United States are documented. She passed away on October 26, 1982 in Melbourne, Florida.

February 23 On this date, the last festival of the ancient Roman year (the Terminalia) was celebrated annually in honor of the god Terminus, a deity who ruled over boundaries and frontiers. During the Terminalia, neighbors whose lands were divided and protected by Terminus would gather together and pour libations of wine, honey, and the blood of sacrificed pigs on their stone boundary-markers.

February 24 Shiva, the multifaceted Hindu god of destruction and renewal, is honored annually on this date (approximately) by a day of fasting, followed by an oil-lamp vigil known as the Shivaratri (Shiva's Night) which takes place at shrines dedicated to him.

February 25 In many parts of the Christian world, a joyous pre-Lenten celebration known as Carnival takes place annually on or around this date. In ancient days, orgiastic fertility rites and sacrifices of humans and animals to herald the arrival of Spring were common at this time of the year in many parts of the world.

February 26 Pentagram Night. As a symbolic gesture to reaffirm your dedication to the Craft of the Wise, dip your fingertip into a small cauldron pot filled with Yule-log ashes and then use it to draw the sacred symbol of the Witches' Pentagram (five pointed star within a circle) over your heart at the first stroke of midnight.

Feralia

Feralia was an ancient Roman public festival celebrating the Manes (Roman spirits of the dead, particularly the souls of deceased individuals) which fell on the 21st of February as recorded by Ovid in Book II of his Fasti.

This day marked the end of Parentalia, a nine day festival (13–21 February) honoring the dead ancestors. Roman citizens were instructed to bring offerings to the tombs of their dead ancestors which consisted of at least "an arrangement of wreathes, a sprinkling of grain and a bit of salt, bread soaked in wine and violets scattered about." Additional offerings were permitted, however the dead were appeased with just the aforementioned.

These simple offerings to the dead were perhaps introduced into the Latium by Aeneas, who poured wine and scattered violet flowers on Anchises' tomb.

Ovid tells of a time when Romans, in the midst of war, neglected Feralia, which prompted the spirits of the departed to rise from their graves in anger, howling and roaming the streets. After this event, tribute to the tombs were then made and the ghastly hauntings ceased. To indicate public mourning, marriages of any kind were prohibited on the Feralia, and Ovid urged mothers, brides, and widows to refrain from lighting their wedding torches. Magistrates stopped wearing their insignia and any worship of the Gods was prohibited as it "should be hidden behind closed temple doors; no incense on the altar, no fire on the hearth."

In ancient Rome, the Parentalia or dies parentales ("ancestral days") was a nine-day festival held in honor of family ancestors, beginning February 13.

Although the Parentalia was a holiday on the Roman religious calendar, its observances were mainly domestic and familial. The importance of the family to the Roman state, however, was expressed by public ceremonies on the opening day, the Ides of February, when a Vestal conducted a rite for the collective di parentes of Rome at the tomb of Tarpeia.

Ovid describes sacred offerings (sacrificia) of flower-garlands, wheat, salt, wine-soaked bread and violets to the "shades of the dead" (manes or in Festus, di manes - "the good ones") at the family tombs of the extramural necropolis, to strengthen the mutual obligations and protective ties between the living and the dead. This was a lawful duty of the paterfamilias (head of the family).

Parentalia terminated on February 21 in the midnight rites of Feralia, when the paterfamilias addressed the malevolent, destructive aspects of his manes. Feralia was a placation and exorcism: Ovid thought it a more rustic, primitive and ancient affair than the Parentalia itself. It appears to have functioned as a cleansing ritual for Caristia on the following day, when the family held an informal banquet to celebrate the amity between themselves and their benevolent ancestral dead (lares). The emphasis on collective cult for the manes and early di parentes implies their afterlife as vague and lacking individuation. In later cult they are vested with personal qualities, and in the Imperial cult, they acquire divinenumen and become the divi.

From Parentalia to Caristia all temples were closed, marriages were forbidden, and "magistrates appeared without their insignia" (implying that no official business was done).

Spell of the Week

Freedom from Stress Spell

If you have a lot going on in your life, a little magic spell might help take the edge off from all that stress. For this spell, you need the following supplies:

- 1 red candle
- 1 white candle
- Lavender oil
- Cinnamon oil
- Piece of red jasper
- Piece of clear quartz

Place the red candle in front of you , and anoint it with the cinnamon oil. Light it, and think of all the things that currently stress you out. Hold the red jasper in your hand, and let all the stressful things pour out of your mind and into the stone.

Move the lit candle farther away from you, and set the stone at the base. Then bring the white candle to you, and rub with lavender oil. Light the candle. Now think peaceful thoughts and focus on being relaxed and stress-free.

Leave both candles to burn down, and take the piece of clear quartz with you to remind you to leave the stress behind

Merry Meet fellow Wiccans to my Wiccan World

The week has passed by in rapid pace, and it has happen a lot during it. The snow is still on the ground and it has been some really cold, cold nights here in Sweden. I have continued with my two projects for my 3rd Degree Finals. I have actually had my class with Runes, and I had it today. Next week, I will have my Reiki Meeting and then I am finished with 3rd Degree as I have already taken the Final Test for it. We have had my brother's friend's dog here, and that was fun.

The dog that my brother took with him is a Border Collie/Nova Scotia Duck Tolling Retriever and a female. We have a male, and they have always very much fun together. This time though, she was in heat. I mean within the three days, when she is most fertile and stand up to boys. It is good then, that we have so much good obedience in ours and that she has the same. So even though they wanted to make puppies, they listened to us and could have super-fun together and we had a joyful time with them and they had a social play-time together.

I have as I said before in my article have a class in Runes and have worked hard during the week to get it all together. I got ready with it during the week, and had my class today. Although it was only my husband and my brother that attended. They enjoyed and my brother has been on my back for about 3 months, to get the class and Booklet together, so he can get to take the class. I believe that even my husband have become more interested in them than he was before. Both of them got to do a Rune on a piece of wood (I had some Juniper, which my husband actually had found outside in the woods about 4 years ago), that we used. They did however think that it was a hard material to work in, and the next time they would use another softer material to work in. I was like a nervous wreck before I started, and on top of it, my husband wanted to film me. Just, so I could use it as a reference point in the future, as I am planning to have this class up for offline classes in the future if interest arises. I will however put it up as an online class, of course, but later on.

Next week, I will have my Reiki Meeting, and that I will write about how it went in my article, next week. Then the week after that I will tell you about my 3rd Degree initiation as I have planned to hold that on Leap Day, and it marks also my 8 year since I did my 1st Degree initiation. So that one I am so much looking forward to do, and have a lot of butterflies and positive nervous energy.

Tomorrow, Tuesday, is the day for Gaia Ritual, which I will lead as usual, and that will be a nice break from all the energy that are swirling around me at the moment. It is the Ritual for Healing Mother Earth and all its habitants.

Take care until Monday. Blessed be all of you and love always to all my brothers and sisters in Correllian Tradition. Love and Light, Hugz and Blessings

Frank Pilkington's weekly horoscopes 20th - 26 February 2012

ARIES (March 21st-April 20th) Everyone seems to be rubbing you up the wrong way this week, but if you adapt an each to his own philosophy, it wont irk you so much. You'd be better trying to centre yourself and work on fixing your own personal problems, even although it'll be hard to connect to lovers and family.

TAURUS (April 21st-May 21st) Don't allow unexpected emotional shifts from others to unnerve you, and don't let anyone misuse your sympathy either. If someone is trying to catch you off guard or steer you down a wrong path all Hell will break loose. Chaos confusion and conflict will only be averted if you compromise.

GEMINI (May 22nd-June 21st) It's an edgy week across the board and others are less than co-operative, no doubt when you need their help the most. Maybe if you didn't leave things until the last minute as you usually do, they'd be more willing to give you a hand. You're turning a corner in career but watch your ego.

CANCER (June 22nd-July 23rd) You need to try to focus more on the basic realities of life. Basic finances, budgets, and shared resources. They all need your input and they all need your attention. Get them licked into shape and the rest will be a breeze. Your home life will improve and your love life will sparkle.

LEO (July 24th-August 23rd) Because there's so much unpredictability in the air over work, money, property and even love you'd be well advised to avoid making any commitments until you know exactly where you stand. Enjoy the good things in life at the weekend but be mindful of how much its costing.

VIRGO (August 24th-September 23rd) It's never a good idea to get involved in office politics, but for you especially, it's like waving a red rag to a bull. Stay away. Keep your opinions to yourself. The new moon plants seeds of sensitivity in your partnership world and your relationships and friendships will reach new heights.

LIBRA (September 24th-October 23rd) You'll have many distractions to conquer this week, so focus on what you want to achieve the most and ignore what's going on in the sidelines. Changes in career seem imminent and relationships seem tense, so maybe its best to move on before you're forced to. It's your call.

SCORPIO (October 24th-November 22nd) Awkward social relations or authoritative obstacles bring a dark cloud to your week, and it seems to get worse when feuding friends or loved ones ask you to referee their own sticky situations by being the voice of reason. Fade into the background and work out your own problems first.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23rd-December 21st) Stay grounded, practical and realistic when dealing with home and family matters and you'll have a better understanding of why a parental figure or older relative acts as they do at times. Ask questions and seek answers, but remember the fast answer may not be the right one.

CAPRICORN (December 22nd-January 20th) Edgy moods may manifest this week because finances are unstable and you hate nothing more than when your security is at risk. Forget logic and use your intuition to find a way out of this situation. Ask family and friends for their advice, but be ready to hear the honest truth.

AQUARIUS (January 21st-February 19th) If you don't slow down and start to take things easier, important details could slip your mind. You can't trust your memory these days, so write things down and avoid being cajoled into doing anything you don't want to do. Look to the past for lessons learned and put them to good use.

PISCES (February 20th-March 20th) The new moon in your sign on Tuesday signals a new start for you, so don't let bad moods or misplaced sympathy stop you from going after your goals with gusto. Put more energy into what you want to achieve and you'll reach the pot of gold quicker. In other words, don't be lazy.

Poetry Place

The Snapped Thread by Robert Graves

Desire, first, by a natural miracle
United bodies, united hearts, blazed beauty;
Transcended bodies, transcended hearts.

Two souls, now unalterably one
In whole love always and for ever,
Soar out of twilight, through upper air,
Let fall their sensuous burden.

Is it kind, though, is it honest even,
To consort with none but spirits-
Leaving true-wedded hearts like ours
In enforced night-long separation,
Each to its random bodily inclination,
The thread of miracle snapped?

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Podcast

Wiccan blog and podcast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,

The Order of Web Weavers

Order of Peace Weavers

The Order of Peace Weavers was created to provide members of the Correllian Tradition with the means of gathering together to collectively promote the weaving of peace into the fabric of society through meditation, prayer, Reiki, visualization, spell working, ritual, creative writing, intentional art and music, and other positive energy work and light work, with harm to none, and for the highest good of all concerned.

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.

For more information, please find us at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/orderofpeaceweavers/> or contact moonraven3x3@yahoo.com.

The Order of World Walkers

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition-- advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it. I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be
Krystel
