YES.....

Finally, at last, it has started
Mother Earth is awakening
Fully awakening, out of her deep winter sleep
The Sun's rays are tickling her
Time for both to bring nature to it fullest
Walking in the woods, you can feel it, smell it
Nature is pulsating stronger and stronger
Growing , growing like the Sun, stronger
Proof there is everywhere, buds on the trees,
Tiny still, growing fat and shiny, soon to burst.
Crocuses' popping their colourful heads up.
The rest will follow at their own pace
Year after year, they all come and go
Warmer the weather is getting again
Warmer and colder always, year after year
Turning it does

Arthurian Legends

Camelot part b

Rise and Fall of Arthur

According to Geoffrey of Monmouth, in the Historia regum Britanniae, Arthur was a great warrior king, unsurpassed in prowess and diplomacy. Arthur was seen as a world conqueror, whose empire comprised of Wales, Scotland, Ireland, Norway, Denmark, Germany, Brittany, Normandy and Gaul (France). His reign only ended when his nephew Mordred tried to depose him as king of Britain and forced his wife Guanhumara (Guinevere).

To Geoffrey of Monmouth, Arthur was brought up in Brittany, until he succeeded his father at age fifteen. In later legend, Arthur was brought up by his foster-father named Antor (Ector), who was the father of Kay(Kai).

Though he possessed the magic sword Caliburn (Excalibur) from Avalon according to the early tradition, it wasn't until Robert de Boron wrote Merlin (c. 1200) that the author introduced into the legend, on how young Arthur drew the sword Excalibur from a rock. The sword proved that Arthur was the true and rightful king of Britain. Arthur other weapons were also given name. The lance was called Ron, while his helmet was named Goosewhite and his shield was called Pridwen, which depicted the Virgin Mary. His horse was called Passelande. Normally, Arthur's symbol is that of the Red Dragon, like that of his father Uther, who had a nickname Pendragon attached to his name. (Though, in the Prophecies of Merlin, the Red Dragon also symbolised the Britons, while the White Dragon represents the invading Saxons.) However, Arthur's symbol was also that of Boar of Cornwall, mainly because Cornwall, particularly the castle Tintagel was his birth place. The warcry of Arthur and the Round Table was "Clarence!".

By the time of the 13th century, Arthur became more like a typical king and less of a hero. Medieval romances was about the actions of the hero in the story (a knight in this case). To the writers of that time, a king can't just leave his court to seek out adventure. A king had duties that tied him to the throne and to his kingly functions.

As early as the French author Chretien de Troyes in the second half of the 12th century, the legend began to focus away from the king himself and more on his knights from the Round Table. These heroes became the central characters of various tales, while Arthur began to take a less active role in the tales. His character became more weak and ignoble, rather than the great warrior king of the early tradition.

The Vulgate Cycle introduced a different ending for Arthur and his kingdom. The cause of the death of Arthur, was the adultery of Lancelot and Guinevere, the disappearance of the Grail from Britain and the betrayal and treason of Mordred, his son by his half-sister Morgawse. Sir Thomas Malory followed these similar patterns and structures of the French Vulgate Cycle, rather than those of Geoffrey and Wace.

Quote & Thought of the Day

Quote of the Day:

*It is important
from time to time
to slow down,
to go away by yourself,
and simply Be.*

Eileen Caddy

Thought of the day:

Attachment to desires

Explore, honor and get to intimately know all the details of your desires. But don't become overly attached to them.

Allow your desires to drive you forward. However, don't allow them to define you.

You have chosen those desires and you have what it takes to reach them. Yet after you achieve them, or even if you fail to achieve them, you are still you.

Even without those desires, you are still a unique and valuable person. Whatever you desire, as important as it can be, is only one expression of who you are.

If, for some reason or other, that expression is lost or is blocked, there remain many, many more ways to express your purpose. Remember that always, you are able to move positively forward in your own way.

Follow your dreams, fulfill your desires with all your passion and energy, while at the same time being willing to let them go. And you will know true fulfillment.

Moon over April

By Jaye Patrick

The practice of deciding when Easter falls is a tradition millennia old yet involves a pagan practice: that of the moon's cycle through the heavens.

Constantin the Great, a Roman Emperor, decreed in 325, that Easter be celebrated on the first Sunday after the full moon following the vernal equinox. (The vernal equinox occurs twice a year when night and day are the same length.) By using the Julian calendar, each year was 11 minutes and 14 secs longer than the solar year. Over the years, this caused distinct discrepancies in Western Church celebrations of Easter.

Given the conflict between the solar and lunar years, and between the calendic and true astronomical years, the church adopted a system of calculations proposed by astronomer, Victorinius in 465.

British and Celtic Christian churches refused to comply, leading to disagreements with Rome. At this time, the Julian calendar was in use, but in 1582, Pope Gregory XIII reformed the calendar into the Gregorian calendar which dissolved most of the controversy by dropping ten days off the calendar. Western Christian churches were then be able to celebrate Easter at the same time; Eastern Christian Churches however, chose not to adopt the new system and so celebrate Easter either a week before or after the dates of the West.

Because of the difference between the Lunar and Solar cycles, Easter has become 'a moveable feast'.

The word 'Easter' is thought to be pre-Christian in origin, from the Anglo-Saxon for the Teutonic goddess of spring and fertility, Eastre. According to St Bede – an 8th Century British scholar – the month of April was sacred to her. The vernal equinox is her day of celebration. Easter Eggs, too, are a part of the festival, representing fertility.

Historically speaking, Rome, in an effort to suppress Pagan rituals, changed iconic Christian celebratory days to those of Pagan worship; it made the conversion from paganism to Christendom easier for the Church. And yet, the church also integrated paganism into the Christian doctrine and calls it their own.

The remains of ancient Roman temples and sites of Celtic significance have been found under a number of Christian churches across Europe, including the Notre Dame in Paris. It is a curious hypocrisy of the church that Christmas – the day the Church says Jesus Christ was born – is on a set date, immovable (though some astronomers believe the date is...erroneous due to the astronomical event at the time described in literature and the Bible which did not take place in December, but in April – other astronomical events were also recorded over a period of ten years, thus the true date is up for debate), but the day of his death changes due to the vagaries of the lunar cycle.

Poets Retreat

Ostara Song

I stepped outside this morning
The birds greeted me in song
My two crows gathered twigs and stuff
They've nested in the cedar across the road
My constant companions
I call heckle and jeckle.
Spring flowers are creeping through the earth
Welcoming the morning sun
I breathe in air and stretch my arms skyward
And bid the Sun good morning
Ostara's coming and I'm glad
A snowless winters passing
Making way for new things
For conception and rebirth
And I'm in awe of Mothers magick
With gratitude for my place
In this great explosion of life
The mountains are greener,
The rivers is so low
Across it the mill is steaming
Great puffs of white steam
It catches the morning's sun rays
Little rainbows appear and fade
What a great place I live in
I wouldn't change it for gold
Ostara's song tinkles
And I am a part of it all
We are one
Waking from a bitter cold sleep
Like Great Spirit Bear
I deliciously anticipate
Each note of Ostara's song...

Silent Auction

Greetings All,

As you may recall, we implemented the Silent Auction at last September's Lustration that turned out to be very successful for raising funds to support the Correllian Nativist Tradition. Last September's Auction raised over $700.00, all from items handmade and otherwise donated by our fellow Correllians.

Well it is time again to prepare for this April, so I am asking for donated items in support of this fundraising project. Please consider supporting this project with your handmade items - art, pottery, woodwork, fabric, jewelry, a whole wide spectrum of media that so many of our members create. Or, not so artistic! consider other special items that were once on your altar or in your home that you no longer need. This is a wonderful way to transfer energy amongst our members.

As we did previously, all donated items will be featured on the Correllian.com webpage with a brief description, along with the person, and / or Temple / Shrine / or Group who donated the item.

This is a wonderful way to share your talents and support of CNT. If you enjoy what you do and want to let others see - this is a great venue to do so.

The Silent Auction will be conducted starting April 1st.thru April 21st., therefore any items will need to be received by March 20th. All items will then be put on display at Lustration being held at Watertown WI, starting April 23rd.

If you wish to participate in this project, please contact me at cntfundraisingoffice@earthlink.net

Thank You in advance for your generosity to help raise money for CNT.

Blessings, Mike

Correllian Awards

It is time to open the nominations for the Correllian Service Awards. We are pleased to announce that we are now accepting nominations for the Year 10 April Lustration. These awards were instituted to recognize the excellent work of the members of our Tradition.

The nominations will close out at Midnight on 31 March, Year 10. This allows the committee and the First Priesthood sufficient time to prepare for the awards during the Lustration ritual in April.

There are five awards in this program:

Order of the Copper Athame -- representing Air, the realm of ideas, recognizes achievement in the Sciences, including divination, astrology, herbology, enviro-technology, etc.

Order of the Golden Wand -- representing Fire, the realm of passion and action, recognizes acts of bravery or compassion in the service of others.

Order of the Silver Chalice -- representing Water, the realm of emotion and intuition, recognizes achievement in the Arts, including visual arts, dance, music, etc.

The awards are open to every member of the Correllian Tradition, except for the Arch Priesthood.

The procedure for nominating is simple. Send an email to us at silthoron9@ yahoo.com with the word "Nomination" in the subject. We will take it from there. Letters of nomination should be as complete as possible. If you have examples of the person's work, please include any supporting media you have.

Each cycle, the level of the nominations improves. We look forward to another excellent round of nominees for this April.

May the Blessings of the Ancestors and the Holy Ones be with you,

Witchschool Referral Program

Witch School, our long-time educational partner, has made an offer to the Tradition and its member Temples and groups.

Witch School has created a new Referral Program. The Tradition itself has enrolled in this program – as you can see from the button in the left-hand menu on correllian.com. You are encouraged to consider enrolling your Temple or group as well, as a means of generating potential passive income.

The program works like this: members receive their own button which they can put on their website, in their email signature, etc... offering Witch School memberships. If anyone purchases a membership through your button, you will receive (approximately) 25% of the payment –that is $4 of a $19.99 yearly membership, or $25 of a $99.99 Lifetime Membership.

Each button has its own unique code which tracks payments made through it. If someone buys a membership through your button, then you get the abovementioned 25%.

If you are interested in finding out more about this program, or in signing up for it, go to www.witchschool.biz.

Witch School are offering a discount on supplies to Correllian Temples and groups in good standing: for example the Witch School books at 40% off cover price, and other discounts on the various items the school produces. If you would like to learn more about this, contact Lady Virginia at Virginia@witchschool.com and she will be happy to explain further.

These offers are being extended to all of our Correllian Temples, Proto-Temples, Witan Shrines, Formal Shrines, Personal Shrines, Orders, and Study Groups who might wish to sign up.

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be Krystel
