Lustration of the Ancestors
18 - 20 April, Year 8 Aquarius (2008 AD)
Carlton-Colville, Suffolk, UK

Although it has taken longer than I had hoped, I am very pleased to at last present this report on the Correllian Lustration of the Ancestors for Year 8 Aquarius! I hope you enjoy it!

The Lustration of the Ancestors was held the weekend of April 20th at Carlton Manor House in Carlton-Coleville, Suffolk, United Kingdom. This was the first ever Lustration ceremony to be held outside of the United States, and thus something of a historic marker for our Tradition.

When we decided to hold Lustration in the United Kingdom, no one knew what to expect. We knew that many people who regularly attend Lustration in the US would probably not be able to make the trip, but we felt it was important an important step in acknowledging our growing international membership, and the fact that we have become very much a global Tradition.

Rev. Anna Rowe and the Temple of Sedna hosted this Lustration, and we would like to thank Lady Anna and all the people of Sedna Temple for their hard work in making this Lustration a reality. The event was held at historic Carlton Manor in Suffolk, a lovely old Manor house now become a comfortable hotel.

The weekend began Friday with a workshop on Runes by Gothi Freyatrú.
[You can see an interview with Gothi Freyatrú at http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VVGb_9Sc8F8]

Saturday morning we held the Temple Deeming ceremony. I acted as Templar Grand Deemster with Rev. Debbe Tompkins and Rev. Mick Battley joining me on the Dais. Deeming is the process by which Correllian groups are evaluated and passed on to the next level of development in the Temple Making Process.

* Sekhmet Proto-Temple, [www.sekhmetravenwolf.ca] of Ontario, Canada, led by Rev. Mary Keller, HP
* Rainbow Serpent Witan Shrine, [www.wiccanweb.co.uk/rainbowserpent/news.php] of Cranbourne, Australia, led by Rev. Olivia Watts
* Lilith Witan Shrine, of Zoetermeer, Netherlands, led by Rev. Lilith
* Isis Witan Shrine, [www.starofthesea.bravehost.com] of Suffolk UK, led by Anna Rowe, HP
The Shrine of the Rainbow Serpent and the Shrine of Lilith were Deemed as Proto-Temples: The Proto-Temple of Sekhmet and Shrine of Isis, both led by seated High Priestesses, were Deemed as full Temples. Congratulations to all of these excellent groups!

Saturday afternoon we had initiations, as is customary. Most of these were Initiatory Confirmations: real-time Initiation ceremonies confirming previous Self-Initiations.

Because we fully recognize Self-Initiations, owing to the wide-ranging geographic dispersal of our membership, real-time Initiatory Confirmation is not necessary, but many people choose to do it for the sake of the experience.

Gothi Freyatru acted as Paladin for the occasion, guarding the initiates and escorting them to the Temple.

[You can see an interview with Rev. Karl Ben-Jedi at http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_tiq20nEnbA]

Rev. Mick Battley received his Second Degree initiation, while Rev. Karl Ben-Jedi, Rev. Nehal Shah (Rev. Nelly), and Rev. Lilith received their First Degree initiations. Congratulations to everyone!

[You can see an interview with Rev. Lilith at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DscjhDpw7Uk>]

After the initiations Rev. Anna and Rev. Karl led us all down to the shore of the North Sea to collect the local water for Lustration. Rev. Karl, wearing a formal black suit and open black robe, collected the Lustral Water.

After the water gathering ceremony, we returned to Carlton Manor where Lady Krystel conducted a Spirit Guide workshop and a Message Circle. The evening ended with a lovely dinner and social time. Rev. Mick Battley, who is Ritual Officer for Sedna Temple, organized preparations for the Lustration ritual, doing an outstanding job.

[You can see an interview with Rev. Mick Battely at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uL4wR0kh8PU>]

Sunday morning we began with the mixing of the North Sea water with the Vermilion River water collected by Rev. Jason of Enchanted Realm Temple, and the Seed Water saved from previous Lustrations. Lady Anna and I performed this ceremony in the Lustration chamber before the main rites began. Then we were ready for the Lustration itself.

Rev. Anna Rowe took the role of First Priestess' Herald Pro Tem, acting for the First Priestess. Freyatru took the role of Guardian and also Vocifer. Lady Debbe took the role of Elder's Herald Pro Tem acting for the First Elder. Rev. Karl Ben-Jedi, Rev. Mick Battley, and Rev. Lilith took the roles of Quarter Guardians. Seeing the need, Lady Krystel who had intended only to act as Grand Oracle, also filled in the role of the fourth Quarter Guardian. Rev. Lilith and Rev. Nelly acted as Offertory Priestesses.

The ceremony went very well and very smoothly. As you know the Spring Lustration honors the Ancestors and includes a place to acknowledge those who have newly joined the Ancestors. Usually there is no one recently crossed to honor in the ceremony, but this year we honored three of our Beloved Ones who have moved on to the Ancestors Court.

These are the Blv. Nimoy "Stormwalker" Pugh, the Blv. Alison "Cerridwen Moon" Snyder, and the Blv. Leona "Mo" Atkins.

May the Blessing Be upon these Beloved Ones now and always! Though you are parted from us in body we know that you are always with us in spirit!

Lady Krystel delivered the Oracle which said:

"This Lustration, the first "International Lustration", marks a new level and a new beginning in the work of the Tradition. From this point forward much that has been given in the past but not yet seen will now be made manifest. As we have been telling you in your weekly channelings there is much more to be done –we have given you some idea of this work but now your level of understanding will be increased.

"The Tradition will explode outward in many directions that you would not now believe if we told you. Keep your hearts uplifted: your intentions clear: and let your faith carry you forward in these new directions which are now to be come. Our love is with you and upon you at all times. Our gratitude to you: for doing this work in the physical, which is not always easily done but is so necessary for the commitments that have been made aeons ago.

"No one here is a stranger to this work. No one here is a beginner. All have pledged to this long, long ago. And now you are....so close...to achieving that which has but begun."

[You can see the Oracle on video at <http://www.youtube.com/v/puEIWeF6y4M>]

As is our custom at each Lustration, awards were given for service.

We do this to show the deep gratitude we feel to all those who give of themselves so unselfishly to help others and to make our Tradition the best that it can be.

I am pleased to congratulate Gothi Freyatra and Rev. Virginia Powell for winning the Golden Wand award for excellence in service to the community.

Rev. Mehitabel, Rev. Leona Dineen, Rev. Robert deMaille, and Rev. Ing Witch all received the Iron Pentacle award for excellence in teaching.

And Rev. Vernon Estes received the Thurible award for excellence in inspiring others. Congratulations to all of you!

If you know of people who are deserving of recognition for their good work, please do not hesitate to nominate them for a Service Award. We can never honor everyone who deserves it at once, because there are so many, but one-by-one we can express our thanks and gratitude to all of these wonderful people!

The toast was offered using Gothi Freyatra's homemade Bramble Rum. Then thanks were given. We then adjourned to a splendid feast which ended the official Lustration festivities.

We would like to thank everyone involved in making this first Lustration held outside the United States such a successful and positive event! Truly this underscores the fact that we are an international family! We are all looking forward to future ceremonies around the globe!

This was an experience that I am sure none of us will ever forget, and a tremendous joy for all. Thank you everyone, and I look forward to seeing every one of you again!

Northern Hemisphere Midsummer

Midsummer may simply refer to the period of time centred upon the summer solstice, but more often refers to specific European celebrations that accompany the actual solstice, or that take place 24 June and the preceding evening.

European midsummer-related holidays, traditions and celebrations, which are pre-Christian in origin and have been tried to be Christianised as celebrations of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist as "Saint John's Day" festivals, are particularly important in Northern Europe - Denmark, Estonia, Finland, Latvia, Lithuania, Norway and Sweden, but found also in Ireland, parts of Britain (Cornwall especially), France, Italy, Malta, Portugal, Spain, in other parts of Europe and elsewhere, such as Canada, the United States, and even in the Southern Hemisphere (Brazil), where this imported European celebration would be more appropriately called Midwinter.

Midsummer is also sometimes referred to by neo-pagans and some others as Litha, stemming from Bede's De temporum ratione in which he gave the Anglo-Saxon names for the months roughly corresponding to June and July as "se Ærra Liþa" and "se Æfterra Liþa" (the "early Litha month" and the "later Litha month") with an intercalary month of "Liþa" appearing after se Æfterra Liþa on leap years. The fire festival or Lith- Summer solstice is a tradition for many pagans.

Solstitial celebrations still centre upon 24 June, which is no longer the longest day of the year. The difference between the Julian calendar year (365.2500 days) and the tropical year (365.2422 days) moved the day associated with the actual astronomical solstice forward approximately three days every four centuries, until Pope Gregory XIII changed the calendar bringing the solstice to around 21 June. In the Gregorian calendar, the solstice moves around a bit but in the long term it moves only about one day in 3000 years.

June 21 -- Summer Solstice -- Litha

Also known as: Alban Heruin (Druidic)

Although the name Litha is not well attested, it may come from Saxon tradition -- the opposite of Yule. On this longest day of the year, light and life are abundant. At mid-summer, the Sun God has reached the moment of his greatest strength. Seated on his greenwood throne, he is also lord of the forests, and his face is seen in church architecture peering from countless foliate masks.

The Christian religion converted this day of Jack-in-the-Green to the Feast of St. John the Baptist, often portraying him in rustic attire, sometimes with horns and cloven feet (like the Greek Demi-God Pan)

Midsummer Night's Eve is also special for adherents of the Faerie faith. The alternative fixed calendar date of June 25 (Old Litha) is sometimes employed by Covens. The name Beltane is sometimes incorrectly assigned to this holiday by some modern traditions of Wicca, even though Beltane is the Gaelic word for May.

Traditional Foods:

Garden fresh fruits and vegetables are made into a variety of dishes and eaten by Pagan's who choose to celebrate this day.

Herbs and Flowers:

Mugwort, Vervain, Chamomile, Rose, Honeysuckle, Lily, Oak, Lavender, Ivy, Yarrow, Fern, Elder, Wild Thyme, Daisy, Carnation.

Incense:

Lemon, Myrrh, Pine, Rose, Wisteria.

Woods Burned:

Oak

Sacred Gemstone:

Emerald

Special Activities:

An Ideal time to reaffirm your vows to the Lord and Lady or your dedication to following the old traditions.

Southern Hemisphere Midwinter - Yule

The winter solstice occurs at the instant when the Sun's position in the sky is at its greatest angular distance on the other side of the equatorial plane from the observer. Depending on the shift of the calendar, the event of the winter solstice occurs some between June 20 and June 23 in the southern hemisphere, during either the shortest day or the longest night of the year, which is not to be confused with the darkest day or night or the day with the earliest sunset or latest sunrise.

Though the Winter Solstice lasts an instant, the term is also used to refer to the full 24-hour period. Worldwide, interpretation of the event has varied from culture to culture, but most cultures have held a recognition of rebirth, involving holidays, festivals, gatherings, rituals or other celebrations around that time.

The seasonal significance of the Winter Solstice is varied, since it is sometimes said to astronomically mark either the beginning or middle of a hemisphere's winter. Winter is a subjective term, so there is no scientifically established beginning or middle of winter but the Winter Solstice itself is clearly defined within a second.

The word solstice derives from Latin sol (sun) and sistere (to stand still), Winter Solstice meaning Sun standstill in winter.

In many Celtic-based traditions of neopaganism, there is the enduring legend of the battle between the Oak King and the Holly King. These two mighty rulers fight for supremacy as the Wheel of the Year turns each season. At the Winter Solstice, or Yule, the Oak King kills the Holly King, and then reigns until Midsummer, or Litha. Once the Summer Solstice arrives, the Holly King returns to do battle with the old king, and defeats him. The Holly King then rules until Yule.

In some Wiccan traditions, the Oak King and the Holly King are seen as dual aspects of the Horned God. Each of these twin aspects rules for half the year, battles for the favor of the Goddess, and then retires to nurse his wounds for the next six months, until it is time for him to reign once more.

Often, these two entities are portrayed in familiar ways - the Holly King frequently appears as a woody version of Santa Claus. He dresses in red, wears a sprig of holly in his tangled hair, and is sometimes depicted driving a team of eight stags. The Oak King is portrayed as a fertility god, and occasionally appears as the Green Man or other lord of the forest.

Ultimately, while these two beings do battle all year long, they are two essential parts of a whole. Despite being enemies, without one, the other would no longer exist.

Merry Meet fellow Wiccans to my Wiccan World.

My week hasn't been a good one, as I had to postpone my vacation until today. My female dog at home, went ill with diarrhea. I still haven't a clue on why she went ill, but she stopped eating and was just lying around. She didn't want to do anything, just sleep and short walks outside. Fortunately, so haven't my other dog getting the same thing as she has had. She is now eating anyway, but still has a stomach that isn't in real order. I can now travel away on my vacation, as this is on its way back now. Thank Goddess, for that it wasn't anything more badly than a summer-flu for dogs or something like that or so.

As my dog has become ill, I haven't had the time to prepare for my Midsummer ritual. I will have to do something on the Midsummer, even if I don't have all things to do it with. I can always go out in the Nature, and feel myself in tune with it. I will spend that day out in the bush, because my friend lives out on the country. Therefore I will be connected to Nature in that time, anyway. I know Goddess will forgive me for my simple ritual as it isn't how grand it is, rather that you actually do it.

I will travel down to my friend by bus, and will be during the night. My bus leave from Stockholm at 10.45 PM and I will arrive to Helsingborg at 6.45 AM tomorrow morning. Read travel from Thursday evening to Friday morning. I will as I am so early visit another friend of mine, as she has children she is up and running at time. Therefore I will not wake her up, and I can also relax for about 2 hours at her home. Then I will be going to another friend during the afternoon. She is working during that day, so I can't get to her earlier.

My hand fasted man will be at home with the dogs and the cats, and have a visit of his nephew. So the boys will have a splendid time, even though I am not available around Midsummer. We are actually celebrating Midsummer Eve tomorrow, Friday, and not on Saturday which should be the right day. Well, Sweden has its own way to see which day it shall be, and our Pagan Midsummer is actually Midsummer Day here in Sweden.

Our weather in Sweden has been a cloudy but not rainy week, and they tell on Weather forecast that it shall be clearing up during tomorrow evening. So it will be a great Midsummer here in Sweden for those that are celebrating in with sitting outside and barbeque.

Take care until Monday. Blessed be all of you.

Hugz and Blessings

A–Z of Religions: The Church of Scientology® A religion founded by L. Ron Hubbard

The Scientology religion is an expanding new religion, founded by American author and humanitarian L. Ron Hubbard. The word Scientology means the “study of knowledge or truth” and addresses the rehabilitation and salvation of the human spirit.

According to a Scientology website: "Today its more than 6,000 churches, missions, related organizations, groups and activities span the globe and minister the religion to more than eight million people in 159 countries in over 66 languages."

Additionally, Churches of Scientology support more than a thousand social betterment groups, which utilize L. Ron Hubbard's methods in the fields of education, drug and criminal rehabilitation, and moral rejuvenation.

The total number of Scientologists in the world is extremely difficult to estimate, for a variety of reasons. Estimates range from 100 thousand to 10 million.

The Church has expanded more in the last five years than in the preceding fifty. In the last year alone, new Scientology groups, missions and churches have opened at the rate of three per day.

The Scientology religion deals with the human spirit and its relationship to the universe and its Creator. It teaches that the fundamental laws of life, when applied, help people achieve a happier and more fulfilling existence, just as surely as an apple falls to the ground when dropped.

Scientology contains numerous workable methods :

To deal with life situations

To create strong interpersonal relationships, raise bright and able children and have happy and lasting marriages.

It also contains techniques to tackle the most serious social problems of our age — illiteracy, drugs, crime and immorality. Scientology is something one does: it is not just a system of beliefs one is asked to hold.

The keynote of the Scientology religion is the human spirit — its salvation and rehabilitation. It teaches that an individual is a spirit — not a body, a brain, or a fortuitous random conglomeration of genes and chemicals. It is this recognition of the nature of an individual that forms the foundation of the Scientology religion. Throughout the ages, man has traditionally viewed himself as a spiritual being. It is only in the last century that the materialistic idea that man is a mere animal similar to a monkey or rat has taken hold. Scientology teaches that this idea is patently false, unworkable, and acts as a barrier to personal understanding of life. One little suspects how much untapped potential one has to create his or her own life.

Scientology directly addresses an individual's spiritual nature with answers to the age-old questions — Who am I? What do I consist of? Where do I come from? Where am I going? This spiritual enlightenment leads to personal understanding of oneself, others and one's relationship to the Universe.

A-Z of Dragons

Submitted by Rev. Nehal

ILLUYANKAS

Origin: Hittite Legend

The weather god had already suffered defeat in a previous encounter with Illuyankas as it appealed to the other gods for help. The goddess Inaras volunteered a plan; she prepared a delicious banquet with barrels of every kind of drink. She asked a mortal, Hupasiyas, to assist her and he agrees on the condition she would make love to him. She does and the feast is finished. They then call the dragon to come out of his cave and enjoy himself.

Illuyankas came to the banquet with his children, they ate and drank until all the food was eaten and every barrel was emptied. They headed back to their cave but when they tried to go through the entrance they found they could not fit! They were too bloated from Inaras' feast. Hupasiyas came up and bound Illuyankas with a rope and the weather god came and slew the defenceless dragon.

ISA BERE

Origin: Africa

Isa Bere was an African dragon that lived in the mountains of Futa Jallon. He caused a major drought by drinking the Niger River dry.

King Samba, along with his bard, Tarafe, battled Isa Bere for eight years, mainly shooting the dragon with arrows. They eventually killed Isa Bere with a blow to the heart; the dying dragon released the waters of the Niger, ending the drought. It is said that the bones of Isa Bere still lie under the river Niger.

JIM PULK AND THE DRAGON

Origin: England

Jim Pulk was a farmer's son in Lyminster.

There was a local pool, known as the knucker hole, in which lived a dragon. It had been annoying the locals so much that Jim baked a huge sussex pie and put poison inside, he took it on a cart to leave outside the knucker hole and had behind a hedge to wait. The dragon could not resist and ate the pie, dropping down dead soon after. Jim Pulk then came out of his hiding place and cut off the dragon's head with his scythe.

To celebrate he went to the Six Bells inn, had a drink with his friends and then dropped down dead. He had accidentally got some of the poison, or possibly dragon venom, on his hand, which he drew across his mouth after downing his pint.

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
