Runes

Waes Hael! This week has been an incredibly busy one for me. Sometimes things just get so hectic that I find it really hard to focus any of my time on the spiritual at all; as the pure physical aspects of life get in the way. This last week it has been to the extent of some days not even doing my daily single rune which I normally do. Times when what I really need is the advice of the runes. Even if it just a 'heads up' on what is going on.

This is the point at which Freya intervened.

I had a couple of my pagan friends round helping out with dog sitting while I was occupied with other things. One of them told me that I had Freya standing right behind me. Well this is not unusual for me, I often see Freya. She visits me while I am typing or chatting and has fits of laughter at some of my more spectacular typos. She has even danced round me while I am in the middle of an online ritual. A wonderful experience but somewhat distracting when you are trying to lead it!

What was unusual this time was that Freya told my friend to write down three runes she wanted to send me as a message. I am not going to share those runes with you as they were a message meant for me. However I will say that they were exactly what I needed to hear right then. But then you would expect that from a Goddess wouldn't you?

I think I must have been so involved in what was going on I had missed her trying to contact me like she normally does. So she was forced to act through someone else. When I did then focus in on her she was standing with her arms folded tapping her foot.

Thankfully since then she has relented somewhat and even gave me a hug. It's nice to know I have a Goddess in my corner.

A - Z of Religions

Christianity

Christianity is the most popular religion in the world with over 2 billion adherents. 42 million Britons see themselves as nominally Christian, and there are 6 million who are actively practising.

- * Christians believe that Jesus was the Messiah promised in the Old Testament.
- * Christians believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.
- * Christians believe that God sent his Son to earth to save humanity from the consequences of its sins.

* One of the most important concepts in Christianity is that of Jesus giving his life on the Cross (the Crucifixion) and rising from the dead after the third day (the Resurrection).

* Christians believe that there is only one God, but that there are three elements to this one God:

God the Father
God the Son
The Holy Spirit

- * Christians worship in churches.
- * Their spiritual leaders are called priests or ministers.
- * The Christian holy book is the Bible, and consists of the Old and New Testaments.
- * Christian holy days such as Easter and Christmas are important milestones in the Western secular calendar

History of Crufts

How it all started: the development of Crufts Dog Show

Crufts is named after its founder Charles Cruft. The young Charles leaving college in 1876 had no desire to join the family jewellery business. Instead he took employment with James Spratt who had set up a new venture in Holborn, London selling "dog cakes".

Charles Cruft was ambitious and a relatively short apprenticeship as an office boy led to promotion to travelling salesman. This brought him into contact with large estates and sporting kennels. His next career move with Spratts saw him travelling to Europe and here in 1878 French dog breeders, perhaps seeing entrepreneurial talents in Cruft, invited him to organise the promotion of the canine section of the Paris Exhibition. He was still just two years out of college.

Back in England in 1886 he took up the management of the Allied Terrier Club Show at the Royal Aquarium, Westminster.

The first Crufts show in that name was booked into the Royal Agricultural Hall, Islington in 1891. This was the first in a long series of shows there. During this era it was possible for individuals to run shows for personal profit, an aspect that appealed mightily to Charles Cruft, and he ran his shows with considerable profit to himself. Today there are no privately owned dog shows and permission to hold shows is granted by the Kennel Club which licenses only non-commercial organisations.

In 1938 Charles Cruft died and his widow ran the 1939 show. Three years later Mrs Cruft felt the responsibility for running the show too demanding and, in order to perpetuate the name of the show her husband had made world famous, she asked the Kennel Club to take it over and it was sold to them; 1948 was the first show under the Kennel Club auspices. Held at Olympia, it proved an immediate success with both exhibitors and the public. Since then Crufts has increased in stature year by year.

In 1979 it was decided to change the venue from Olympia to Earls Court as the increasing entries had the show bursting at the seams. In 1982 the show ran for three days and in 1987 for four days to accommodate the increasing numbers of dogs and spectators.

1991 saw the Crufts Centenary Show being held at the Birmingham National Exhibition Centre, this being the first time the show had moved from London.

This year was the eighteenth year that the show has been staged at the NEC.

Announcements

CORRELLIAN AWARDS

CLOSING DATE 31ST MARCH

We are pleased to announce that we are now accepting nominations for the Year 8 Spring Lustration. These awards were instituted to recognize the excellent work of the members of our Tradition.

The nominations will close out at Midnight on 31 March, Year 8. This allows the committee and the First Priesthood sufficient time to prepare for the awards during the Lustration ritual in April. We recognize the time is short this cycle, so don't delay in sending your nominations.

There are five awards in this program:

Order of the Copper Athame -- representing Air, the realm of ideas, recognizes achievement in the Sciences, including divination, astrology, herbology, enviro-technology, etc.

Order of the Golden Wand -- representing Fire, the realm of passion and action, recognizes acts of bravery or compassion in the service of others.

Order of the Silver Chalice -- representing Water, the realm of emotion and intuition, recognizes achievement in the Arts, including visual arts, dance, music, etc.

Order of the Iron Pentacle -- representing Earth, the realm of stability, integration, and wisdom, recognizes achievement in teaching, writing, etc.

Order of the Thurible -- representing Spirit, the smoke carrying our prayers to the Gods, recognizes achievement in ritual leadership and writing. This award can also be used to recognize those whose spirituality had inspired others to greater commitment and devotion.

The awards are open to every member of the Correllian Tradition, except for the Arch Priesthood.

The procedure for nominating is simple. Send an email to us at silthoron9@yahoo.com with the word "Nomination" in the subject. We will take it from there. Letters of nomination should be as complete as possible. If you have examples of the person's work, please include any supporting media you have.

Each cycle, the level of the nominations improves. We look forward to some excellent nominees this Spring.

May the Blessings of the Ancestors and the Holy Ones be with you,

Rev. Terry Power, HP

Flash Fiction Challenge

Greetings Dearest Readers!

Have you ever dreamed of being a writer? The Correllian Times wants to help make that dream come true with our flash fiction contest!

The flash fiction story must contain exactly 250 words, excluding the title. Not 249 - not 251. 250 words. There should be a beginning, middle, and an end. It should not just be 250 words of whatever comes to your mind. The goal here is to have some kind of twist at the end.

Our challenge to you is this:

Write your own flash fiction before January 01, 2009. The prize for the top Flash Fiction submission will be a free subscription to the Correllian Times for one year. Please, only 1 entry per person.

Contest begins March 1, 2008 and ends January 01, 2009. Entries become the property of The Correllian Times. We assume no responsibility for illegible, lost, late, misdirected, incomplete, or stolen entries.

ENTRY: Submit an original, flash fiction story of exactly 250 words. Include your name and e-mail address and send to either: Jessamina at Jessamina@OurLadyRhiannon.com or Azriel at azrielmoon@hotmail.com. Please include the words "FLASH FICTION CHALLENGE" in the subject detail. Entries must be original, unpublished and may not have won any prize or award.

LIMIT: Only one entry from an individual will be accepted - no group entries.

ELIGIBILITY: Everyone is eligible to enter!

Voting on flash fiction:

If you appreciate the storytelling in a flash fiction piece, please grant the writer the honor of your vote.

The great part for voters is that each entry shouldn't take much more than a minute. You can read dozens of them in a short period of time. Please support the writers in this challenge by reading as many as you can!

Now... get flashing!

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers
