Veterinary Notes V is for Volvulus

By Rev. Mehitabel

Dogs, as any dog owner knows, are prone to eating anything and everything that they find. There are a few breeds that tend to be picky eaters, but most fall on anything edible as if they haven't been fed for a month. Most times, apart from an enlarging waist-line, this doesn't cause any major problems. However sometimes the stomach may become so engorged that it presses upwards against the diaphragm interfering with breathing, and it may even become twisted. This is an emergency situation as the dog will die without rapid treatment.

Causes are variable. The large deep-chested dog breeds such as blood-hound, red setter, Labrador, boxer, are more prone to developing this condition, particularly if they go racing around soon after gorging on illicit foodstuffs. Consuming a vast amount of food in one go is a trigger, particularly if the food then absorbs water and swells to several times its previous size. The situation may be further complicated if the contents of the stomach begin to produce gases, further enlarging the organ. At this point, the sheer size and weight of the stomach may cause it to turn over, rotating along its longitudinal axis, creating a torsion (twist). This blocks the outflow from the stomach, but more dangerously, interferes with the blood supply to the organ and this can lead to death of the stomach tissue and thus the animal.

If you are aware that your dog has been scavenging and has eaten an unusually large amount it is advisable to keep them quiet and under observation for the next 6 – 12 hours.

Presenting signs are variable. Usually the dog begins to show signs of distress and the abdomen appears unusually distended and is drum-tight when felt. This is followed by difficulty in breathing as the stomach pushes up against the diaphragm, interfering with its action and reducing the size of the chest cavity. As the condition progresses the dog enters clinical shock and collapses. The sooner

A–Z of Religions – Zoroastrianism

Zoroastrianism is one of the world's oldest monotheistic religions. It was founded by the prophet Zoroaster (or Zarathustra) in ancient Iran approximately 3500 years ago.

For 1000 years Zoroastrianism was one of the most powerful religions in the world. It was the official religion of Persia (Iran) from 600 BCE to 650 CE.

It is now one of the world's smallest religions with around a quarter of a million followers worldwide. There are 4000 Zoroastrians living in Britain.

1. Zoroastrians believe there is one God called Ahura Mazda (Wise Lord) and He created the world.
2. Zoroastrians are not fire-worshippers, as some Westerners wrongly believe. Zoroastrians believe that the elements are pure and that fire represents God's light or wisdom.
3. Ahura Mazda revealed the truth through the prophet, Zoroaster.
4. Zoroastrians traditionally pray several times a day.
5. Zoroastrians worship communally in a Fire Temple or Agiary.
6. The Zoroastrian book of Holy Scriptures is called The Avesta.
 - The Avesta can be roughly split into two main sections:
 - The Avesta is the oldest and core part of the scriptures, which contains the Gathas. The Gathas are seventeen hymns thought to be composed by Zoroaster himself.
 - The Younger Avesta - commentaries to the older Avestan written in later years. It also contains myths, stories and details of ritual observances.
1. Zoroastrians are roughly split into two groups:
 - The Iranians
 - The Parsis

Zoroastrian worship is not prescriptive. Its followers can choose whether they wish to pray and how. Zoroaster was born in Northeast Iran or Southwest Afghanistan. He was born into a Bronze Age culture with a polytheistic religion (the worship of many gods), which included animal sacrifice and the ritual use of intoxicants. This religion was quite similar to the early forms of Hinduism of the Indus Valley.

The name Zoroaster is a Greek rendering of the name Zarathustra. He is known as Zarathusti in Persian and Zaratosht in Gujarati.

Zoroaster's birth and early life are little documented. What is known is recorded in the Gathas - the core of the Avesta, which contains hymns thought to be composed by Zoroaster himself. Born into the Spitama clan, he worked as a priest. He was a family man, with a wife, three sons and three daughters.

Zoroaster rejected the religion of the Bronze Age Iranians with their many gods and oppressive class structure, in which the Karvis and Karapans (princes and priests) controlled the ordinary people. He also opposed animal sacrifices and the use of the hallucinogenic Haoma plant (possibly a species of ephedra) in rituals.

Merry Meet fellow Wiccans to my Wiccan World.

The Beltane came and went. Me and my hand fasted man had a relaxed, and nice one. The sun was shining during the day, and at evening it started raining. We had a small, private little ceremony at our house. Not any fancy, just being there and think about our life in general. Our goals for the future with good things, and those things that went bad the past year. In other words; just a simple ceremony with lighted candles, and talks about things that came to our mind. It doesn't have to be so big, because the small ones can be as powerful as any other.

I am going to visit my soul sister, during next week. She is also into Wiccan, and a Dedicant of my temple. It's so nice to be able to travel around, and be with those you feel are your family (regardless they are by blood or by choice). I only wish that I have had saved up enough money, so that I could have been able to go to the Lustration in England. The Goddess must have thought that, I didn't need it. There will come another time for that, though. It would however been fun to meet all those from USA, and those that you only have spoken with on the internet.

My weekend has been a good one. We have had such weather here in Sweden, as we normally would have in beginning of June. It came, almost a month earlier. It's nice, but it makes you wonder about global warming and its effect that we are creating for it. This winter, if you can call it winter at all. We have had snow lying on the ground for 2 weeks, only. Usually we have snow about 2 months during winter season, and it stays snowy for at least 1 month outside. Now we had two periods of snow, with 1 week each. So instead of winter, you could say that we had a prolonged autumn.

My step-daughter came and visits her dad and me, this weekend. It's always so much fun, when she is coming. Even if we aren't doing anything special, it's always nice to have her here. She is a 15 years young teenager, and has a lot of attitude. Not at all in a bad way, rather it's in a good way. She has no trouble to speak her mind, but she is never insubordinate against us or her mother and step-father.

My step-daughter is also into Wicca, and I guess with age she will ask more questions about mine and her father's faith. Already she is interested, but hasn't made up her mind yet about how she shall do. My guess is that, she will at least read a little bit more about our faith. Then see, if it's anything for her or not. She has asked me some questions, about our faith. I have also tried to explain, as much and thorough as I am able to. As her dad, also is in the beginning of his journey in to Correllian Wicca. He can't answer her, as much as I can do. My dearest, has also become an Outer Court Member of the Correllian Nativist Tradition. He is also a Dedicant, and is planning to at least become a 1st Degree Clergy. Hopefully they will both take on the journey, and help me with the Temple. I sure would like to make it a “family business”, and have it to be prosperous and flourish.

In my vision for the future, I see how my man and I run the Temple together. We are making it a stepping stone for Wicca in general, here in Sweden. I also hope that my step-daughter will walk in our footprints, and want to take over it when we are too old to run it anymore. But as for now, it’s just a vision I have. It is a really great and lovely thought, and I do hope is realized for me.

It’s time to sign of for this time. I shall out in the real world, and take walks with my dogs and the rest of the family out in the nature. I can sense and feel the trees and plants talking to me, and also how the wind is enjoying my time spent out in the wilderness. Of course, are the dogs also really pleased to accompany us on our escapades, and show their love towards us in their own way.

Take care until next time. Blessed be all of you.

Love and Light
Hugz and Blessings

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

Flash Fiction Challenge

Greetings Dearest Readers!

Have you ever dreamed of being a writer? The Correllian Times wants to help make that dream come true with our flash fiction contest!

The flash fiction story must contain exactly 250 words, excluding the title. Not 249 - not 251. 250 words. There should be a beginning, middle, and an end. It should not just be 250 words of whatever comes to your mind. The goal here is to have some kind of twist at the end.

Our challenge to you is this:

Write your own flash fiction before January 01, 2009. The prize for the top Flash Fiction submission will be a free subscription to the Correllian Times for one year. Please, only 1 entry per person.

Contest begins March 1, 2008 and ends January 01, 2009. Entries become the property of The Correllian Times. We assume no responsibility for illegible, lost, late, misdirected, incomplete, or stolen entries.

ENTRY: Submit an original, flash fiction story of exactly 250 words. Include your name and e-mail address and send to either: Jessamina at Jessamina@OurLadyRhiannon.com or Azriel at azrielmoon@hotmail.com. Please include the words "FLASH FICTION CHALLENGE" in the subject detail. Entries must be original, unpublished and may not have won any prize or award.

LIMIT: Only one entry from an individual will be accepted - no group entries.

ELIGIBILITY: Everyone is eligible to enter!

Voting on flash fiction:

If you appreciate the storytelling in a flash fiction piece, please grant the writer the honor of your vote.

The great part for voters is that each entry shouldn't take much more than a minute. You can read dozens of them in a short period of time. Please support the writers in this challenge by reading as many as you can!

Now... get flashing!

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers
