Multi-faith Calendar

Nehal

Coming up:

13th October – St. Edward's Day

Edward the confessor

Edward the Confessor was a man of great prayer - rather like a crowned monk. He was hailed throughout his life as a gentle, loyal and devoted king.

A confessor is a saint who suffers for his faith but is one step short of martyrdom. Edward suffered for his faith by resisting the temptations of the world. He lived off the income of his own lands and reached out to the poor.

Edward the Confessor was born in Islip, near Oxford, probably in 1005. He was the son of King Ethelred the Unready and his Norman queen, Emma.

The family spent several years in exile in Normandy after the Danish invasion of 1013. Ethelred was briefly reinstated as king but after his death in 1016, the Danes once again seized the crown.

England was ruled by Canute until his death in 1035 when Edward tried to capture the crown himself but failed.

Later, Edward vowed that he would make a pilgrimage to St Peter's in Rome if he managed to return safely to his kingdom.

In 1042, his dream became reality when he succeeded Canute's son on the throne. But Edward found it impossible to leave his subjects to make the pilgrimage to Rome.

The Pope released him from his vow on the condition he founded a monastery and dedicated it to St Peter. In accordance with the Pope's wishes, Edward built a new cathedral in Norman style to replace the Saxon church at Westminster. The cathedral became known as Westminster Abbey.

Healing the sick

Edward the Confessor was an enigmatic figure who was believed to have the power to heal. He began the royal custom of touching ill people to cure them. The tradition continued for nearly 700 years until the reign of Queen Anne.

Edward also made a promise of chastity. He continued to remain celibate even after his marriage to the daughter of one of his closest advisors. He had no children and the throne passed to his brother-in-law, Harold, who was quickly overthrown by William the Conqueror.

Edward's supporters insisted he was a deeply religious, patient and peaceful ruler who resisted war and revoked unjust taxes.

But his critics claimed the opposite. They maintained Edward was a weak and violent man and that his canonisation a century after his death was a political move.

Miracle of the ring

Many legends sprang up about Edward the Confessor both during his lifetime and after his death. One that has stood the test of time happened towards the end of his life.

Legend has it that Edward was riding to a ceremony at a chapel dedicated to St John the Evangelist in Essex when a beggar asked for alms. Edward had no money with him so he took off his ring and handed it to the poor man instead.

A few years later two English pilgrims were travelling through the Holy Land and became stranded. They were helped by an old man who told them he was St John the Evangelist.

He was carrying the ring Edward had given to the beggar some years previously. He asked the pilgrims to return it to the king telling him that in six months he would meet St John in heaven.

Edward the Confessor died on January 5 1066. He was made a saint in 1161 and his body was translated to a shrine at Westminster Abbey in 1163.

In the centuries that followed many sick people came to kneel at the shrine and ask to be healed. Richard II prayed there too, asking for strength before the Peasants' Revolt in 1381.

Today Edward the Confessor is the only major English saint whose body is still in its shrine.

Anniversary celebration

Westminster Abbey celebrated the anniversary of Edward's birth in 2005. Highlights of the celebrations included the reading of Saint Aelred's acclaimed sermon on St Edward from 1163, recently rediscovered and translated into modern English, and 12th-century hymns and sermons performed in Latin and Anglo-Saxon English.

The Chakra Song

Greg Gourdian

We may feel we are familiar with the practices of prayer or meditation and we may have tried these unsuccessfully and wondered why such time honored avenues to self empowerment have failed to work in our lives. We may hear many testimonies that describe the effective power to transform our lives which these practices can bestow upon us and we may have felt frustrated that we have not learned how to use these tools to make ourselves feel happier, healthier or more content. Now a new tool, the Chakra Song, is available which may help you to realize the goals you may have felt you might never be able to attain.

Many healing traditions all refer to an energetic body that is the template for our physical body and which is directly related to our health, happiness and wellbeing. This energetic body has nodes of energy called chakras which are directly related to different aspects of our health and how we manifest our lives in this world. When the energetic body is functioning poorly we may work to heal it; one of the most fundamental parts of the work we must do to heal our energetic bodies is to cleanse our chakras of stagnant energy.

Clearing our chakras has immense benefit. Our natural energy flow can be bogged down by so many different things. Anything which creates stress impedes the health of our energetic body, that part of us which is healed by practices like Reiki, yoga or acupuncture. When the energetic body is healthy our minds work better, our emotions are healthier, and our physical bodies become healthier as well.

Our energetic bodies respond to our thoughts. This is why when we are conflicted or angry or depressed our energetic bodies become damaged and then function poorly. This is also why simple meditation or prayer can be so effective at restoring us to a state of wellbeing in body mind and spirit. By focusing our thoughts on healing our energetic body we restore ourselves to happiness, health and wellbeing.

It can sometimes be very difficult to learn how to meditate or pray effectively. Our minds are often too bemired by inner turmoil or too easily distracted by external and irrelevant influences. It takes patience to learn to quiet our thoughts so that we may empty ourselves of all the beliefs and conditions which may get in the way of successful prayer or meditation.

We must learn to recognize that many of our thoughts are vicious circles that never arrive at any functional conclusion but simply run about and about in circles endlessly consuming our minds and our time. Once we see that this is true we may begin to recognize when thoughts of this nature arise in our minds and begin to interrupt them, to stop thinking them. The more we practice not thinking these consuming thoughts the more we free our minds to think in healthier ways and the closer we become to realizing true internal peace.

In that peaceful state we can focus our thoughts more clearly on those things which really matter most to us, like our health. We can take control of our wellbeing and direct ourselves to become healthier, happier and more content. This works because everything that is manifest in the physical plane of this world begins as a thought form in our energetic bodies. By cleansing and healing our energetic bodies we create an effective thought form or mental template for our state of being which is healthier, happier and more fulfilling.

This template then manifests in the physical world by making our bodies healthier and bringing us new opportunities to enhance our lives and the lives of those we love. In this manner, the simple quiet practices of prayer or meditation become transformational tools with which we can effectively change our lives and make the world around us a happier, healthier more abundant place for all of us to share.

To help with the visualization work related to cleansing my chakras I decided to write a song. Song is one of the most powerful tools in my life. The music is borrowed from the 'Popcorn' part of the soundtrack from the movie "A Clockwork Orange". I chose this music because it is so happy, light and energizing. I hope you will find the music for this song and will then enjoy it as much as I have. This song works! It has practically written itself. My chakra visualizations are much stronger and clearer. What's more, as I was composing this song during my drive home from work I had scarcely any pain, typically driving has been a very painful activity for me because of needing to grasp the steering wheel, even when I remember to use my open palm against the steering wheel rather than grasp it the pain while driving has been pretty bad. No more!

Please feel free to modify this song in any way that works best for you.

...Repeat until all your chakra's radiating cords mingle their energy in your energetic body then move to the YES line...

Yes, the lovely rainbow chakra powers open like a flower

Now the divine living chakra powers open like a flower

...Repeat until your crown chakra is connected to the heavens by a strong white cord then move to the YES line...

Yes, the divine living chakra powers open like a flower

Now all the divine living chakra powers open like a flower

Once you have experienced the connection from the heavens to the crown chakra open wide follow up by singing the Beach Boys' "Good Vibrations"; make up the lyrics as you go using any positive affirmations you like that describe yourself as a happy healthy human being whose good fortune brings you everything you may wish for.

Please note that your visualization of the chakras may take some time, many years for me, but I have now given you the key that turned the trick with me. Don't worry about where you visualize these at first, it can be easier to visualize them in front of your mind's eye and then later transfer them to their respective places within your energetic body.

Chakra Descriptions

Crown Chakra - located on the top of the head, it is connected to your divinity

Third Eye (Brow) Chakra - between the eyebrows, related to intuition & ESP

Throat (Voice) Chakra - near the larynx, related to speech & self-expression

Heart Chakra - below the sternum, related to healing, love & compassion

Solar Plexus (Mind) Chakra - behind the navel, related to power & mental functions

Sacrum (Loin) Chakra - behind the sex organs, related to sex, emotion & creativity

Root Chakra - below the base of the spine, related to security, instinct & survival

Your visualizations need not be complex at first and may begin with the individual chakra colors which you may then try to shape into balls of light.

As you get better at visualizing balls of color for the chakras start to visualize the petals of each chakra as they appear on the surface pointing inward.

Then visualize the petals unfolding outward from the center to form flower shapes. As the flower shapes appear visualize the petals stretching out into cords of energy that radiate outward like stars.

Later as you visualize all the chakras radiating watch as the rays of the brow chakra descend through all the chakras in a weaving pattern like a caduceus. The rays of the other chakras will mingle with one another filling out your energetic body.

Today my energetic body resembled a tree covered in vines with all the chakras within it glowing and radiating and merging their energies into all the subtle leaves (organs or nodes) of my energetic body.

The Beginning of Time

Lumari

Each moment is a new beginning. The universe is endlessly creating new moments and new aspects. Each "now" of the universe, of the Great Goddess Mind, is an infinite expression of new beginnings.

The expression of moments is sometimes held within the focus of time. This leads you to assume that there is a past and a present to your life. In your assumption of this, moments seem as though they are strung together in a chain of events that rely upon each other for continuity. The All is continuous. As beings of the All, you are also continuous.

Moments and experiences, when held in a focus, create your memories. This gives you the supreme opportunity to understand. It is this understanding which can guide you to live even an greater life. If you understand that your life on this world is comprised by a series of moments, then you can seize a "now" and declare it a new beginning. You can still hold your memory of all that has preceded this "now." This is not lost. Yet, you can craft a new beginning, by declaring this instant a new experience.

Your heart knows that every moment is new. Your heart knows that you can begin anew in every minute of your life. Therefore, you can follow your heart into a new beginning. If you could create a new beginning in your life, who would you be, now? If you could act in accord with who you know yourself to be, what would you do right now? If you could suspend your preconceived ideas and responsibilities, how would you proceed in life?

Think of all the decisions that you made because you held the present as though it was an offshoot of your past. Think of all the choices that were generated by your concepts of the past and its hold on your present. Do these thoughts provide you with a freedom and exuberance about your future? Because each person is seemingly locked in the idea that each moment is predicated on the one before it, it appears there is no chance for a new beginning because of all that has preceded this individual slice in time. This is so for individuals and for the world at large.

Now, think about this moment, as though you have endless opportunities to begin life. Think of this "now" as singular and boundless. Imagine that no matter what has preceded this instant, that you can begin everything, right now. Please, take the time to imagine this!

Enter into the possibility of your life as a new beginning. It takes courage and playfulness to explore the beginning of your life. It takes humor and generosity with yourself. In all that you have been and done, each moment was always a new beginning. It is in the understanding and recognition of this Divine state, that you can seize the beauty of your being and awaken to the joy of your life!

May beauty surround and fill you!

Achievement beyond achievement

What's the path to extraordinary achievement? When you're finished, keep going.

Don't settle for doing just enough. Get yourself excited by the opportunity to do more.

Fortune favors those who transform fleeting time into lasting value. Time is coming your way right now, so use it to do something wonderful and worthwhile that exceeds even your own expectations.

And what exactly would that be? Whatever you can dare to imagine.

Practice thinking with no limits and you'll find yourself living with no limits. See great value in the obstacles and challenges, and you'll find yourself joyfully thankful for the opportunities they bring.

Go beyond what you know you can do, and suddenly you'll know you can do much, much more. Life is truly great because you can make it even greater.

Samhain - End of Summer

Samhain: Pronounced SOW-in, SAH-vin, or SAM-hayne. Shadowfest (Strega), Martinmas (Celtic/Scottish)

October 31 Northern Hemisphere / May 1 Southern Hemisphere

Samhain means "End of Summer". Its historical origin is The Feast of the Dead in Celtic lands. Samhain, popularly known as Halloween, is the Witches' New Year.

It is said to be the time when the veil between the worlds is very thin, when souls that are leaving this physical plane can pass out and souls that are reincarnating can pass in. Darkness increases and the Goddess reigns as the Crone, part of the three-in-one that also includes the Maiden and Mother.

The God, the Dark Lord, passes into the underworld to become the seed of his own rebirth (which will occur again at Yule). Many Pagans prepare a Feast for the Dead on Samhain night, where they leave offerings of food and drink for the spirits. The popular children's custom of trick-or-treat stems from an Old English practice in which children went door to door begging "soul cakes" to feed the wandering spirits.

Divination is heightened this night. This is the time of year for getting rid of weaknesses. A common Ritual practice calls for each Wiccan to write down his/her weaknesses on a piece of paper or parchment and toss it into the Cauldron fire. Jack-o-lanterns, gourds, cider, fall foliage can be used as altar decorations.

The Simple Facts Samhain: Shadow fest (Strega), Martinmas (Celtic/Scottish) Samhain, popularly known as Halloween, is the Witches' New Year. This is the last of the three harvest Sabbats marking the end of the growing seasons. Celtic custom decreed that all crops must be gathered by sundown on April 31st. It is a time when the veil between the living and the dead is at its thinnest. Deceased ancestors and other friendly spirits are invited to join in sabbath festivities and be reunited with loved ones.

In Ireland it is still the custom to leave candles in the windows and plates of food for the visiting spirits. Keep a fire lit or a candle burning all night to honour and welcome the dead.

If clothes are left outside overnight, they will take on bewitching powers for all who wear them. Darkness increases and the Goddess reigns as the Crone, part of the three-in-one that also includes the Maiden and Mother.

The God, the Dark Lord, passes into the underworld to become the seed of his own rebirth (which will occur again at Yule).

Many Pagans prepare a Feast for the Dead on Samhain night, where they leave offerings of food and drink for the spirits. Divination is heightened this night. Jack-o-lanterns, gourds, cider, fall foliage can be used as altar decorations.

Samhain (pronounced SOW-in, SAH-vin, or SAM-hayne) is one of the Greater Wiccan Sabbats and is generally celebrated on October 31st, although some Traditions prefer the date of November 1st. The various names for this sabbath are Samhain (Celtic), Shadow fest (Strega), Martinmas or Old Halloween (Scottish/Celtic), as well as Hallowe'en, Halloween, All Hallows Eve, Halloween, Day of the Dead, Feast of Spirits, Third Harvest, Samonios, All Saint's Eve, Celtic New Year, Samhuinn, Celtic Winter, Samana, Festival of Pomona, Vigil of Saman, Vigil of Todos, and Santos.

Though this Holiday is celebrated on October 31st, All Hallows Eve falls on November 7th, and Martinmas on November 11th. The symbolism of this sabbath is that of The Third (and final) Harvest, it marks the end of Summer, the beginning of Winter. It is a time marked by death when the Dead are honoured - a time to celebrate and "study" the Dark Mysteries. "Samhain" means "End of Summer". Its historical origin is The Feast of the Dead in Celtic lands. It is believed that on this night, the veil Between the Worlds is at its thinnest point, making this an excellent time to communicate with the Other Side.

Symbols for representing this sabbath may include Jack-O-Lanterns, Balefires, Masks, The Besom (Magickal Broom), The Cauldron, and the Waning Moon.

Altar decorations might include small jack-o-lanterns, foods from the harvest, and photographs of your loved ones who have departed from this world.

Appropriate Deities for Samhain include ALL Crone Goddesses, and the Dying God or the "Dead" God. Samhain Goddesses include Hecate, Hel, Inanna, Macha, Mari, Psyche, Ishtar, Lilith, The Morrighu/Morrigan, Rhiannon, and Cerridwen.

Key actions to keep in mind during this time in the Wheel of the Year include return, change, reflection, endings and beginnings, and honouring the Dead.

Other meanings behind this sabbath celebration include the Wisdom of the Crone, the Death of the God, and the Celebration of Reincarnation. Samhain is considered by many Pagans, Wiccans, and Witches (especially those of Celtic heritage) to be the date of the Witches' New Year, representing one full turn of the Wheel of the Year.

This is the time of year for getting rid of weaknesses. A common Ritual practice calls for each Wiccan to write down his/her weaknesses on a piece of paper or parchment and toss it into the Cauldron fire.

Other activities might include Divination, Past-Life Recall, Spirit Contact, Meditation, Astral Projection ("Flying"), and the drying of Winter herbs. It is considered "taboo" by some to travel after dark, or to eat grapes or berries.

Spellwork for protection and neutralizing harm are particularly warranted at this time of year, because Samhain is considered to be a good time to boost your confidence and security.

Many Witches use their own personal Besom or Magickal Broom as a part of their rituals. Some Besoms are structurally different in shape from the flat ones sold today, being round on the end and having a smaller sweeping surface. They can, however, be fashioned flat or however you personally desire. These Magickal Brooms are commonly used for cleansing and purifying Sacred Space, but can be used for many other things... such as using one in place of a Wand, Athame, or finger to project your personal energy when casting your Circle.

"Making a Besom" If you would like a Besom of your own, they are fairly easy to find in craft stores, country markets, or folk art fairs. You can also invest your energies into making one, a good idea if you wish to use it in place of a Wand or other ritual tool.

To make a Besom you will need a four-foot dowel one inch in diameter, a ball of twine, scissors, and straw or other long strands of pliable herbs.

Take the straw, or another herb you have chosen for the bristles, and allow them to soak overnight in warm, lightly salted water. The water softens the straws to make them pliable, and the salt soaks out former energies.

When you are ready to make your Besom, remove the straws from the water and allow them to dry a bit, but not so much that they lose the suppleness you will need to turn them into your Besom. Find a work area where you can lay out the length of your dowel, and begin lining the straws alongside the dowel.

Starting about three inches from the bottom lay the straws, moving backward, along the length of the dowel. Begin binding these to the dowel with the twine. You will need to tie them very securely. You can add as many layers of straw as you wish, depending on how full you would like your Besom to be. When the straw is secured, bend the top straws down over the twine ties. When they are all gently pulled over, tie off the straws again a few inches below the original tie. Leave the Besom overnight to allow the straw to dry. The dowel part of the Besom can be stained, painted, or decorated with Pagan symbols, your Craft name, or any other embellishments you choose. Dedicate your finished Besom in your Circle as you would any other ritual tool.

(The above "Making a Besom" is quoted directly from Edain McCoy's book "The Sabbats: A New Approach to Living the Old Ways", page 36, Llewellyn Publications, 1994.)

The most common colours associated with Samhain are Orange and Black. However, Red, Brown, and Golden Yellow are also appropriate colours for this sabbath.

Altar candles should be black, orange, white, silver and/or gold. Stones to use during the Samhain Celebration are Obsidian, Onyx, and Carnelian.

Animals associated with Samhain include bats, cats, and dogs. Mythical beasts associated with Samhain are the following: Phooka, Goblin, Medusa, Beansidhe, Fylgiar, Peryton, Erlikonig, and Harpies.

Plants and herbs associated with Samhain are Mugwort, Allspice, Sage, Gourds, Catnip, and Apple Trees. The traditional Pagan foods of Samhain include beets, turnips, squash, apples, corn, nuts, gingerbread, cider, pomegranates, mulled wines and pumpkin dishes. These are all appropriate as well as meat (especially pork) dishes (if you're not a vegetarian - if so, tofu seems ritually correct). Some Wiccans leave a plate of food outside the home for the souls of the dead. Placement of a candle in a window and burying apples in the hard-packed Earth is believed to guide them on their journey to the lands of Eternal Summer.

Feline Fun

Nehal

This week in Feline Fun – A stalking kitty...

My older brother loves animals and has always had them. He is rather a bit of a stand up comic in the family too. I had the whole family here for Christmas (seven siblings with spouses and Mom). Gary walked in the door and something clicked between him and FB. Now FB is my greeter cat. He loves to greet people and be right in the middle of a huge crowd and the center of attention. I found out that day that he also had a sense of humor.

Gary, my brother, said "hi" to FB and joked he was a big cat. FB sniffed the air and let out a HOWL. Not just your garden variety howl, but a HOWL. Gary must have jumped a foot in the air and said keep the wild cat away. FB had to have understood every word and all of us laughing, because he followed Gary through the house.

Gary would ignore him and FB howled for his attention and Gary cowered before him. Gary sat in the big easy chair and FB sat on the coffee table and argued with him. Gary cowered in the chair and begged everyone to remove the cat so he could get up. No one could help him because we were laughing too hard. I showed Gary what a big putty tat FB really was by picking him up and loving on him, but FB never took his eyes off Gary. He purred in my arms which showed me he was putting on this act all for Gary because FB HATES to be held.

So Gary decided to show how brave he was and asked to hold FB. He stood up and made a big show of rolling down his long sleeve shirt and asking for leather gloves. Then he reached for FB. I was laughing hysterically by this time and the whole family gathered around for the blood shed. Gary reached out for FB and.....FB licked his hand.

Randy was in shock cause he knew what violence FB can do. I slowly handed FB to Gary and all heck broke loose. FB laid in his arms and screamed a banshee scream. Gary screamed like a girl. The whole family is laughing so hard we had tears running down our face. Never a claw or tooth came out...just screams from both of them. Gary was afraid to let FB down and FB had no desire to get down...he had his victim right where he wanted him. Finally, FB jumped down and Gary jokingly announced he need a change of underwear.

Gary sat on the couch to recover and FB sat beside him and fell asleep with one paw on Gary's leg. They were the best of friends for the rest of the visit. To this day, my whole family laughs over the day GARY WAS STALKED BY A CAT.

Poets Retreat

Star, My Unicorn Guide

Pure white skin, silky soft white mane,
A Star on your back that I always see,
Even though it's the same colour as your skin,
Which is why I always call you Star.

The first time I saw you,
Was in a little tunnel,
A tunnel made not of rocks and earth,
But one in a hospital during one of my many tests.

I don't often see you now,
But I wish I could,
Your presence comforting and loving,
And all the journeys you took me on.

I saw loads of things from on your back,
Some sad and some happy,
But whichever it was,
I loved you taking me around.

You showed me things that made me sad,
The starving children who knew they wouldn't get any food that day,
While others lay still while their bodies were ravaged,
Or the parents who knew, their children would never awake again.

Other things you showed me, happy wonderful things,
The faeries playing with each other,
And the little playground too,
Then there were all the stars, and all the different places too.

Whenever I needed to escape,
You would always appear in front of me,
Taking me away from whatever it was,
And helping me to cope.

Sometimes I wonder if I'll see you again,
It was wonderful seeing you again today,
I have missed you so much,
And I just wanted to say, I really love my Star.

Correllian Clergy Degree Program

A new membership has been created called the Correllian Clergy Degree Program. This is a 3-year program that can help you earn your Wiccan Degrees and Legal Clergy Status. Of course every lifetime and supporting member has access to this main program.

The purpose of this level is for those individuals who are interested in gaining their clergy status, and this offers an opportunity for members to do so affordably.

This program is only $49.99. To find out more:
<http://www.Witchschool.com/clergydegree.asp>

Witchschool Referral Program

Witch School, our long-time educational partner, has made an offer to the Tradition and its member Temples and groups.

Witch School has created a new Referral Program. The Tradition itself has enrolled in this program – as you can see from the button in the left-hand menu on correllian.com. You are encourage to consider enrolling your Temple or group as well, as a means of generating potential passive income.

The program works like this: members receive their own button which they can put on their website, in their email signature, etc... offering Witch School memberships. If anyone purchases a membership through your button, you will receive (approximately) 25% of the payment –that is $4 of a $19.99 yearly membership, or $25 of a $99.99 Lifetime Membership.

Each button has its own unique code which tracks payments made through it. If someone buys a membership through your button, then you get the abovementioned 25%.

If you are interested in finding out more about this program, or in signing up for it, go to www.witchschool.biz.

Witch School are offering a discount on supplies to Correllian Temples and groups in good standing: for example the Witch School books at 40% off cover price, and other discounts on the various items the school produces. If you would like to learn more about this, contact Lady Virginia at Virginia@witchschool.com and she will be happy to explain further.

These offers are being extended to all of our Correllian Temples, Proto-Temples, Witan Shrines, Formal Shrines, Personal Shrines, Orders, and Study Groups who might wish to sign up.

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: www@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be
Krystel
