The Correllian Council of Elders sends greetings to our clergy, members, and friends throughout the world.

As we approach the end of 2011, we are struck by the idea of "new beginnings" attached to the Season. The spiral of the year has brought us to the center and the fullest depths of introspection. We are now poised to begin the outward spiral and express into the world in 2012 all we have learned in the past year.

This has been a year of changes for our Correllian Tradition. As we look outward in the spiral, we are excited about the coming year and the new beginnings in the Correllian Tradition and the world.

With that said, get ready to become involved. Our Tradition needs your skills and talents. In the next few months, we will be highlighting many ways to get involved as well as designing forums to further develop the Tradition. The Council of Elders is presently working on effective means to develop and oversee projects to their completion; while enabling members and clergy to fully engage with the Correllian Tradition. Keep an eye open for new and exciting ways to become involved in this most amazing work!

The world will be dealing with the 2012 phenomenon and will also be dealing with a new awakening of spirituality along with it. Never before have we been presented with such an opportunity for education and growth in the world. The world will be asking questions and we are called by Spirit to be ready with answers. This is going to be an excellent year; not only is it a leap year but also it will be a year of education, both teaching and learning.

There will be a lot of buzz and chatter about the Mayan calendar ending this year. And while there are a lot of different opinions on what this means; we feel that this year will be a time when people from all walks of life will come closer together.

As we move into 2012, we look forward to the continued growth of the Correllian Tradition membership throughout the world. The year ahead will be full of opportunities for everyone to become more involved in our Tradition, to expand their spiritual learning, to connect with like minded people from across the globe, to make new friends, and to prepare for the changes associated with the 2012 predictions. But most of all, we should give thanks for the blessings we already have.

We are facing an exciting year. We know that our clergy is prepared for the questions we will face and will be led by Spirit with the needed answers. We are proud and honored to be surrounded by such dedicated and educated leaders. This is our year and our tradition is ready.

This Council of Elders looks forward to 2012 with immense anticipation. We come from diverse backgrounds and bring a wide range of knowledge and experience. We are committed to serve with a single-minded focus and loyalty to the First Priesthood and our Tradition. With the growth of the Tradition, necessitating the expansion of the Elder's Council, we are honored to serve and send forth blessings to the Correllian Nativist Community.

May the Ancestors and the Holy Ones Bless this Tradition, it's leaders and it's membership in the coming year.

Pagan Calendar January 2 - 8

January 2 The birth of the Pagan goddess Inanna has been celebrated annually on this day since ancient times. Inanna is the Sumerian queen of heaven and earth, and a deity who presides over both love and war.

Every year on this date, the Perihelion of the Earth takes place. When this occurs, the planet Earth reaches the point in its orbit closest to the Sun. Many astrologers consider this to be a highly significant event. In ancient Egypt, a religious ceremony known as the Advent of Isis from Phoenecia was performed yearly on this date in honor of the goddess Isis.

January 3 On this day, an annual fertility ceremony known as the Deer Dances is performed by the Native American tribe of the Pueblo in the south-western United States. The ceremony, which includes sacred ritual dances performed by shamans wearing deer headdresses, is centuries-old and dedicated to the great female spirit-goddess known as the Deer Maiden.

In ancient Greece, a Pagan religious festival called the Lenaia was celebrated each year on this date in honor of Dionysus, the god of wine and fertility.

January 4 In Korea, the annual Sacrifice to the Seven Stars (Chilseong-je) is performed on this date at midnight. To receive good fortune and divine blessings, water and white rice are offered to the god who rules the constellation Ursa Major.

January 5 Twelfth Night and Wassail Eve (in England) heralds the end of Christmastide. In ancient Egypt times, it was believed that the waters of the mystical and sacred River Nile possessed special magical powers on this date.

On this date in the year 1918, renowned astrologer and author Jeane Dixon was born in Medford, Wisconsin.

January 6 Day of the Triple Goddess On this date in the year 1988, Circle Sanctuary of Mount Horeb, Wisconsin, became legally recognized as a Wiccan Church by its local Township and County levels of government. Circle Sanctuary's attainment of church zoning was a significant victory for Wiccans around the world, for it was the first time a Witchcraft group had been publicly sanctioned as a church by local government officials.

January 7 In the seventeenth century, it was customary on this day for a special Epiphany Cake to be baked with a coin in it. Whoever was lucky enough to receive the portion containing the coin was saluted by the family as a "king" or "queen" for the day. As part of the tradition, the "king" or "queen" would draw cross symbols on the ceiling with white chalk to drive out evil spirits and ward off misfortune.

January 8 Old Druid's New Year In ancient Greece, Midwife's Day (dedicated to the goddess Babo) was celebrated annually on this date, while an annual festival called Justica's Day was celebrated by the early Romans.

In ancient times, this day was dedicated to the Norse goddess Ferya (or Freyja), who presided over both love and fertility.

Merry Meet fellow Wiccans to my Wiccan World.

Sorry, for not have written my article for 3 weeks, but 2 weeks ago I had my BIIG shopping-day before Christmas, with food and such. So when I came home and was ready to write it, it had already been published. Last week, I had my step-daughter and her boyfriend over. She is usually visiting us from Saturday to Sunday. So, I was in the mind on a Sunday and when I then sat down at the PC and checked my e-mails. I noticed that it actually Monday, and that I had missed the deadline, again. Now, I am here and, hopefully, I will not be as forgetful as I have been during the holidays. Not that it has been crazy as such, but I have had a lot on my mind.

In my ordinary life, I have been to the doctor, and the Sodium-level is good as for now. And that is a true relief, as I was kind of worry about it. I have all things checked up now, and my next appointment is in 6 months. When new blood-tests will be taken, and we will see what it gives then.

During the weeks, I have got the last of my 5 attunements for the Rainforest Reiki, and also the Animal Path Healing Reiki during the week. It was two nice Attunements, and we met again in my little glade and had a nice time in the spiritual world. We had some things that were different, but we had the same experience of it all. I have done some healing afterwards and it has given me and my client some nice input to it all. Actually, I did some healing on my hubby (yes, he finally let me do some healing on him), and he saw a sea-turtle coming up to his island and lay eggs just beside him. He thought that it was a truly interesting experience, both with the turtle and the healing. He has had trouble receiving Reiki, as he has felt as it was too hot. When I changed the heat to coldness instead, then he could appreciate it as it is supposed to be received.

During the week I am planning to catch up on some translated papers I need to proof-read, as it will come up as a Swedish 1st Degree class later on. As the Tradition grows, it is a need for having it in language so everyone can study and read, in the language that is from one's own country. I have another Correllian here in Sweden, and we are translating and proof-reading each other's material. It is a fun, but tedious work. I do like it though, and it is also giving me a lot of insight and new views on the translated material.

No, I am off to do the proof-reading and also get some coffee for the morning.

Take care until Monday. Blessed be all of you and love always to all my brothers and sisters in Correllian Tradition. Love and Light, Hugz and Blessings

Spell of the Week

REVERSAL SPELL

This is an UNBELIEVABLY simple spell that will reverse your last spell. For example, if you made it rain, it will make it stop raining.

It also removes your last spell, like if you put a lust spell on somebody and want to get rid of it. All right, enough blabbing, here it is:

First off, think about the last spell you cast, because this only works for your most recent spell, hex, curse, whatever you did.

Just think about the actual magic you performed, then think about how it went wrong. This should take no more than 20 seconds AT THE MOST. Now say this in a clear voice in these EXACT words without stuttering, mumbling, getting your tongue twisted, etc.:

"My spell went wrong,

Please reverse it,

Don't mess it up,

And don't pervert it."

If you performed the reversing process correctly, it should work.

Superior Self

By George Lochore

There are two sides to a man, one side is inferior, the other side is far greater and far superior. The side with which we have physical visual witness is inferior, the inferior side is known as man and superior is known as god. We as mortals are inferior, being exposed to death, disease and negativity.

The superior self is perfect and absolute, the part of you which never dies. It is our best intention to shape our lives in the image of our superior self, when we do so we will have freedom, no pain or suffering.

How do we feel and see the superior self, but are we not it any way, how can we be blind to ourselves?

The only thing which causes our heart to beat in this very moment is the superior self, when our life is shaped in the image of god, we experience love, when it is not, we experience hurt, but that does not mean our superior self is absent. Do you not forget the ability your heart has to beat, your ability to breathe..

There is your connection, some people do not understand, that when pain is present, it is a result of unfulfilled action, it is not a result of being, your soul's presence. Some people try to eliminate pain through further action but pain and pleasure are both temporary results of action, not being.

Isvara, in Sanskrit is our higher self, or ascended master self and the meaning of OM. As consciousness comes before everything, it is the wake of our being, by creating simple shifts in our consciousness the outside world can be changed dramatically. By imbuing a thought or simple intention into our chanting of the word OM, the effects are considerably effective. It is true, that communication consists of not what is said but what is meant. The words draw upon a fragment of what is meant.

When there is effective communication between ascended beings, or telepathic communication, it is not like a verbal language but a sharing of knowledge with incredible quickness.

Truthfully you do know exactly who you are, but it is the part of you which is knowledge, The divine inheritance, Which you have forgotten, or not yet received. Do you not have instincts? Your conscience tells you it is wrong to harm others, that is your superior self connecting with you, if you abide within the heart, you will have the secrets of life shared with you. Some may have very powerful experiences with the divine self, who is strikingly familiar to the earth self or inferior self.

The three parts to our being are; the superior and inferior self, and the inner child. As we experience our all the parts in relationship, we recognize ourselves as the sole creator of our individual experience. The superior self in a unique expression of god which is infallible, unaffected by any human experience. The inferior self is a unique expression of god which is fallible with lower understanding and experience. As we experience life from the earth self, or inferior self, it is our duty to channel our divinely inherent qualities and at the same time, protect our inner child, when we experience our inner child's sufferings we recognize our self as the sole cause, there is no one to blame.

Whenever we experience hatred to all others, it is so there is not developed enough a capacity within to house love for self and ultimately shared onto all others. So developing love within reflects love to all others, as we are a fragmental part of the absolute, all that is intended is that we master our own conscious being.

We are unique expressions of god. We are children of god whose heart is a map of heaven, that beats in the divine love of life's perfection and life's beauty.

There are lower animal instincts, which are intended to keep us alive, they are fear, greed, lust, they are imprinted within us all, and as these lower animal instincts belong to the body, we do not. Our higher spiritual instincts are love, intuition, compassion, creativity, truth..

Magical Ingredient of the Week

Clove

Internet sources:

en.wikipedia.org

The ruler of this spice is Jupiter and its magical form is powder, the entire herb and its oil.

Chew on whole cloves while trying to collect money owed to you. You can visualize the debt being paid and when you have managed to make the picture clear, spit out the clove.

Add the powder to success formulas for an extra kick or rub the oil on the thigh for sexual prowess.

What to Believe

By Mary Windsor

In the religious and spiritual world there are many ideas of what truth is. To some this can become confusing and the questing soul can be lead down many false trails, before they find a path with which they are comfortable.

What the inquiring mind needs to do, is stop in their tracks and decide exactly what they do or do not believe for themselves.

Remember we do not all have to believe in the same thing to do what is right for ourselves. All beliefs are right for the person who is comfortable with the course they have taken. Its good to investigate and widen our boundaries, taking in things we haven't thought about before. A mind that acts in this way is less intolerant of alternative beliefs, being able to see where the other person is coming from, while maybe not sharing a belief system.

For me, dumping the fetters of religion and breaking lose into a world of spirituality, was a beginning. Then I spent years sifting through everything of a spiritual nature that I came across, discarding some things as not for me and embracing others and taking them to my heart.

The biggest, thing that I watch out for and I urge others to be aware of, maybe I shouldn't, is anything that puts limitations on your souls quest for the freedom it craves. Therefore be very cautious of accepting anything that hints at having rules, no matter how sublimely those conditions are implied.

There are no rules to break, the only rules you need to follow are those you make for yourself, rules that can be changed without any feelings of guilt as you move on and grow away from them.

It is my maxim to say that we all should realise that we can have a spiritual life without having ANY RULES TO BREAK!

Stone of the Week

Fuchsite

Fuchsite is a light bluish -greenish stone, which may serve as a matrix for ruby crystals to grow in.

It is a stone of diplomats, said to promote constructive communication, diplomacy, discretion and a degree of finesse.

The stone is associated with the planet Venus and is considered an aid to imagination, creativity and an appreciation for beauty.

It is associated with the throat and sometimes the heart chakras.

When Light Meets Ice

Cosmic Weather:

Weekly astrology forecast by Jane Lyle

A brand-new year begins. Will 2012 be the year of the apocalypse? Some people are expecting the end of the world - but it might be more accurate to say that we're beginning a powerful transition and something new is being born. It will take time, effort, and struggle - as big changes always do.

The main planetary theme is a face-off between inventive, revolutionary impulses and established power - a theme we've already seen developing in recent years. Uranus squares Pluto this year at 7 to 8 degrees of Aries and Capricorn. If you have planets at those degrees in Aries, Cancer, Libra or Capricorn you'll be very much part of the action.

We will, as the Chinese curse says, be living in interesting times. There's no sugar-coating it, 2012 is going to be tough, but by now we have had plenty of practise. Cherish love and joy.

Monday 2nd January: Making dreams come true is what we want, but we're in the middle of a push-me-pull-you world right now, where past extravagance and expansive behaviour catches up with the forces of law and order (your credit card bill perhaps?). Gossip and scandal about sport and religion could capture our attention this January.

Wednesday 4th January: Idealistic romantics seek bliss and mental chemistry. Practical types challenge their visions. If you're an Aquarian, Capricorn or Taurean - find a way to compromise if possible. Better than burying your head in the sand anyway.

Thursday 5th January: Sudden news encourages action.

Friday 6th January: There's certainly a lot to talk about, but expect discussions at home or work to take days, not hours.

Saturday 7th January: And more talk is the order of the day. Love involves adjustments and empathy, especially if you're an Aquarian or Virgo person. Social networking is in the spotlight - just how much do you want the world to know about you exactly?

Sunday 8th January: Mercury enters Capricorn. It meets expansive Jupiter and eccentric Uranus today, there could be interesting twists to our ideas, and sudden changes of plan. Sporting fixtures promise some surprises too. An emotional full Moon is building up tonight.

Winter's Dark

Winter's dark leans toward the light;
As summer's sun yearns for the night.

Seasons fly in quick array,
Time races on, day follows day.

And yet to God, it's just one breath
From squalling birth to weary death.

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Podcast

Wiccan blog and podcast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure our records are up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,

The Order of Web Weavers

Order of Peace Weavers

The Order of Peace Weavers was created to provide members of the Correllian Tradition with the means of gathering together to collectively promote the weaving of peace into the fabric of society through meditation, prayer, Reiki, visualization, spell working, ritual, creative writing, intentional art and music, and other positive energy work and light work, with harm to none, and for the highest good of all concerned.

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.

For more information, please find us at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/orderofpeaceweavers/> or contact moonraven3x3@yahoo.com.

The Order of World Walkers

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it. I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be Krystel
