Multi-faith Calendar

14th to 20th November

Leonid Meteor Shower, peak of shower November 17th, 2009

The Leonids are a prolific meteor shower associated with the comet Tempel-Tuttle. The Leonids get their name from the location of their radiant in the constellation Leo: the meteors appear to stream from that point in the sky. The 2009 display peaking on November 17 may produce more than 500 meteors an hour. This is not enough to rate it as a meteor storm which has over 1,000 meteors an hour.

16th November

New Moon It is unlikely that any sighting of the new crescent Moon will be possible on November 16th as the crescent will be beyond the Danjon limit. A sighting of the new crescent Moon with optical aid may be possible from western Australia on November 17th and a naked-eye sighting may also be possible from southern Africa on the same day. However, it is more likely that the first naked-eye sighting will be made from South America on November 17th. The crescent moon should be visible from most of the world on November 18th. However, possible exceptions may include Japan, northern Asia, northern Europe including the British Isles and northern Canada. These regions may have to wait until November 19th for a positive sighting of the crescent Moon. Consequently, we would like to encourage observers to try and observe the new crescent moon from November 16th to November 19th in particular.

Birthday of Orello Cone (1835), Universalist who believed that divine revelation comes from many sources.

Day the world's nations agreed to protect the oceans and their creatures from pollution and over-harvest (1994); day to mourn continuing pollution and over-harvest.

16th to 29th November:

Hopi & Zuni Shalako Festival--welcoming back to the pueblos the Kachinas/Kokos - Spirits of Nature and the ancestors that provide protection, health, fertility, and food.

17th November to 17th December:

Dhu al-Hijjah--Muslim month of pilgrimage to honor Allah, the one genderless universal Deity, at the Kaaba Stone in Mecca.

The Thinning Veil – Will It Completely Disappear?

Greg Gourdian

The veil is that which lies between incarnate and discarnate spirits. The veil is there to help our incarnate forms to remain focused on our worldly goals rather than be distracted by the plights of recently deceased beings.

Those who have recently died are often in a state of turmoil because they do not know how or have not yet remembered how to integrate with their infinite spirit. When a death has been particularly traumatic the discarnate form of the spirit can take a long time to heal and may be very distressed. Or, when a large number of incarnate beings suddenly become discarnate beings all at the same time then their sheer numbers can keep each other in distress much longer than if they were not reinforcing each others distress with their own distress.

All of these forms of distress that some recently discarnated beings may experience can be a burden for those incarnate souls who are sensitive to them, so we have the veil to shield us from all of this while we live as incarnate beings.

Is the veil thinning? That is the apparent perception. We see it that way because at this time more and more people are communicating with discarnate spirits and it is becoming easier for us to do so. But I think it is not the case that the veil is actually thinning. I think we have that mistaken perception because our abilities to communicate through the veil are getting stronger. We are evolving as spiritual beings and acquiring greater skills in all manner of psychic abilities, and our mediumship ability is working better now than it has in the past.

If the veil is not thinning then it will not disappear.

If the veil is thinning, it will still not disappear entirely because some incarnate beings must still be protected from the thoughts and feelings of recently discarnated beings.

So either way, the veil is here to stay.

One other reason the veil appears to be thinning is that in the not too distant future about 3 billion human beings pass away, all within a span of time of about ten or twelve years, these 3 billion will be immediately followed by about 4 billion more. About 3 billion survivors of this decline and cataclysm all die in the brief years that follow, so that in a span of less than twenty years we become extinct as a species on this planet.

Fortunately we have infinite lives in infinite worlds so there will always be worlds where we avoid this mass extinction. Unfortunately our world will not be lucky enough to avoid this mass extinction if we do not start working to prevent it ASAP.

With so many humans suddenly discarnated in such a brief time there are more spirits than ever in great distress and we sense them from our future as our abilities to communicate with these discarnated spirits grow.

My current understanding places this mass extinction around the year 2076. That may change over time depending on how we work to prevent that future from becoming our own future. It may draw closer if we accelerate the processes by which we will have doomed ourselves. It may grow more distant if we are partially successful in preventing it, and it may one day never threaten to be our fate again if we successfully avert our doom.

So the "thinning of the veil" is a good thing. More and more discarnated spirits from our future will be able to share their warnings with us in order to try to save themselves from the doom we have already begun to create for them.

Our anxiety about the thinning of the veil is our anxiety about two things. One thing is the content of the messages we are receiving from those who will have passed away in our extinction; those messages are very disturbing. The other thing is that many of those discarnated spirits from our future are exceptionally angry with us for allowing their world to be doomed; their expressions of anger may badly frighten us.

As the messages from our future become more clamorous and dramatic we may begin to realize our responsibility to save our descendants from this doom. We may still change this terrible future and attain a sustainable relationship with our world.

So, regardless of whether the veil is thinning, let us take heart in the messages we receive from the future and use those urgent messages to build a sustainable future for us all.

Common Cat Colours

Part A

From http://fanciers.com/other-faqs/colors.html#common_colors

Note: Cat fanciers use the term "red" for the color that is commonly called "orange," "marmalade," or "ginger". We also use the term "blue" for the color that is commonly called "gray" or "maltese."

1. Tabbies

If your cat has stripes, it is a "tabby." (Some people call these "tiger cats.") All tabbies have thin pencil lines on the face, expressive markings around the eyes, and a tabby "M" on the forehead. If you look up close at the light parts of a tabby's coat, you will see that the individual hairs are striped with alternating light and dark bands, like the fur of a rabbit or a squirrel. This banding is called "agouti." Tabby is thought to be the "wild type" (the original color) of domesticated cats.

There are four different tabby patterns:

- A "mackerel tabby" has narrow stripes that run in parallel down its sides. This is what some people refer to as a "tiger."
- A "classic tabby" cat has bold, swirling patterns on its sides like marble cake. This color is called "blotched tabby" in the UK.
- A "spotted tabby" has spots all over its sides. Sometimes these are large spots, sometimes small spots, and sometimes they appear to be broken mackerel stripes.
- A "ticked tabby" (sometimes called "Abyssinian tabby" or "agouti tabby") does not have stripes or spots on its body. However, like all tabbies, it has tabby markings on the face and agouti hairs on the body. This is the color of the Abyssinian cat, but it also appears in non-purebreds and does not mean the cat is Abyssinian.

Tabbies come in many different colors. You can tell what color a tabby is by looking at the color of its stripes and its tail tip. The color of the agouti hairs (the "ground color") may vary tremendously from cat to cat, some cats may have a washed out gray ground color and others will have rich orange tones.

- A "brown tabby" has black stripes on a brownish or grayish ground color. The black stripes may be coal black, or a little bit brownish.
- A "blue tabby" has gray stripes on a grayish or buff ground color. The gray stripes may be a dark slate gray, or a lighter blue-gray.
- A "red tabby" has orange stripes on a cream ground color. The orange stripes may be dark reddish orange, or light "marmalade" orange.
- A "cream tabby" has cream stripes on a pale cream ground color. These stripes look sand-colored or peach-colored rather than orange.
- A "silver tabby" has black stripes on a white ground color. The roots of the hairs are white. You can also have a blue silver, cream silver, or red silver tabby (red silver is also known as "cameo tabby") depending on the color of the stripes. In all cases, silver tabbies have a pale ground color and white roots. To make sure, part the hairs and look at the roots.

November Birthstone

Yellow topaz (or Citrine) – Captured sunlight to warm the heart

The Egyptians believed that they were droplets of sunlight fallen to Earth and considered them sacred to the god, Ra. The Romans, too, believed the brilliant yellow gems were sacred to their sun god, Jupiter. Yellow topaz and citrine, November's birthstones, sparkle with the brilliant flare of captured sunlight. The two stones are so alike that they are often mistaken for each other, and citrines and yellow topaz share many of the same qualities.

Famed for its ability to confer clarity of thought and sight to its wearer, yellow topaz is the natural stone associated with the birth sign Virgo, as well as with those born in the month of November – Scorpio and Sagittarius. Given its brightness by the sun, topaz was said to imbue its wearers with the ability to see through glimmers and magical spells, revealing the truth. In that capacity, yellow topaz also was said to reveal poison by changing color in its presence, and alert the person who wore it to dangerous intentions from those around him.

The ancient Greeks also believed that the topaz had the power to increase strength and endurance, making it a stone for the faithful and constant. Its association with the life-giving warmth of the sun also made the topaz popular as a healing stone. Among the ills that topaz was said to cure were asthma, insomnia, depressions and hemorrhages. Like the sun and fire for which the stone is named, topaz is said to alleviate worries and lighten hearts, brightening the day of any who see it.

Topaz was one of the 12 stones set into the Breastplate of Aaron, representing the tribe of Simeon. It is known as the 'sunset stone', named for its glorious range of colors from pale yellow to lemon to the deep russet orange and pink of the sunset sky. With the magic healing and illuminating energies of the sun, the topaz is the perfect stone to light a spark to November's days.

Like the topaz, citrine is found in all the shades of yellow from the palest cream to the deep, rich tones of orange and salmon. An expression of sunlight, citrine is said to energize those who wear it, brightening their lives with prosperity and creativity. Worn around the throat, the citrine brings the gift of clear vision, penetrating deception and bringing the truth to light. It stimulates clarity of thought, as well as inspiring generosity, strength and inner confidence. All earthly pleasures are said to come to those who wear the sunlight stone, for it brings the favor of the gods of the sun in nearly every ancient tradition.

Despite their similarities, yellow topaz and citrine are two very different stones chemically. The topaz is aluminum silicate that gets its color from the inclusion of oxygen, fluorine, hydrogen, silicon or aluminum. It measures an 8 on the Mohs hardness scale, making it one of the harder gemstones, not far behind sapphires and rubies. Citrines, on the other hand, are quartz crystals whose color stems from iron impurities in the stone. With a Mohs hardness rating of only 6.5 to 7, the citrine is considerably softer than topaz. It also lacks the quality of cleavage – the ability for a stone to be split perfectly along one of its axes by a single blow. This makes it both more durable and more fragile than topaz.

If the sparkle of sun brings a smile to your face, and the warmth of fire inspires creativity in your heart, then you may be a true child of topaz or citrine, despite your birth date. Yellow and orange stones bring happiness, brightness and warmth to a cold month. Why not wear them, no matter your birthstone?

Feline Fun

This week in Feline Fun – I'm only a cat..

I'm only a cat,
and I stay in my place...
Up there on your chair,
on your bed or your face!

I'm only a cat,
and I don't finick much...
I'm happy with cream
and anchovies and such!

I'm only a cat,
and we'll get along fine...
As long as you know
I'm not yours... you're all mine!

Quote and Thought of the Day

Quote of the Day:

*The measure of love
is to love without measure.*

Saint Augustine

Source: <http://www.sapphyr.net/>

Thought of the day:

Fresh new day

Today, life begins anew. Today, you are blessed with fresh, new opportunity.

You can build on the best of what has been. You can look clearly and objectively at the limitations that have held you back, and find new ways to transcend them.

Today, you can make amazing progress. Today, you can reach higher than you've ever reached before.

All your mistakes are behind you, and you've learned much from each one. All your experience is still with you, and you can use it in innovative new ways.

This day has begun, and with it comes your chance to make a difference. In these moments you can bring your dreams to life.

From deep within your purpose, look out and see all the great possibilities. This is a day that's now here for you to live more richly than ever.

Poets Retreat

How Many Mountains

How many mountains
Are dragons, asleep?
Their shoulders snow-covered,
Their toes digging deep?
If mountains are dragons,
What would it take
To break through their slumber
And cause them to wake?
What manner of magick
Can break through the spell
When dragons are mountains?
My heart cannot tell.

Calling all Translators

If you have a second language to English that you are fluent in please consider joining the Witcheschool Translators and help translate material

We want to help Don stand tall and proud at his first presentation to the Interfaith World, and state that the Tradition deserves to be recognized by the most respected Interfaith Body “The Parliament of World’s Religions”

On December 3rd, 2009, Rev. Don Lewis will be at the Parliament of the World’s Religions and this will be a major chance to present the Correllian tradition to the world. Currently he is planning to bring copies of The Five Mystic Secrets (in 7 Languages), What is Wicca? (Three Languages) and The Comic “Come Join Us for a Wiccan Ritual” (Two Languages). We also plan to share those classes already translated.

We are looking for help getting What is Wicca? Translated at least into Spanish, and maybe more languages. We currently have French, German and English. It is my hope that we can have more languages represented. I know it’s a big favor to ask. We will need it by November 25th, 2009. The more languages the better, of course, and we do appreciate any help we can get.

Witchschool Referral Program

Witch School, our long-time educational partner, has made an offer to the Tradition and its member Temples and groups.

Witch School has created a new Referral Program. The Tradition itself has enrolled in this program – as you can see from the button in the left-hand menu on correllian.com. You are encouraged to consider enrolling your Temple or group as well, as a means of generating potential passive income.

The program works like this: members receive their own button which they can put on their website, in their email signature, etc... offering Witch School memberships. If anyone purchases a membership through your button, you will receive (approximately) 25% of the payment –that is $4 of a $19.99 yearly membership, or $25 of a $99.99 Lifetime Membership.

Each button has its own unique code which tracks payments made through it. If someone buys a membership through your button, then you get the abovementioned 25%.

If you are interested in finding out more about this program, or in signing up for it, go to www.witchschool.biz.

Witch School are offering a discount on supplies to Correllian Temples and groups in good standing: for example the Witch School books at 40% off cover price, and other discounts on the various items the school produces. If you would like to learn more about this, contact Lady Virginia at Virginia@witchschool.com and she will be happy to explain further.

These offers are being extended to all of our Correllian Temples, Proto-Temples, Witan Shrines, Formal Shrines, Personal Shrines, Orders, and Study Groups who might wish to sign up.

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: www@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be Krystel
