Special Announcement from Rev. Don Lewis

Greetings!

As you know Rev. Ed Hubbard and I are leaving for Australia on Monday 30 November to attend the Parliament of World Religions, which is being held in Melbourne from 3 – 9 December.

This is an important step for Witch School because on Monday 7 December Ed will be presenting at the Parliament on the subject of "Global and Interreligious Education Through Peer-to-Peer and Online Learning."

Although Witch School students may not always realize it, Witch School is a revolutionary peer-to-peer education system which has used the power of the internet to build a global education system that runs for pennies a day per student – an important possible model for future education systems in lesser developing countries and countries with highly dispersed populations. Our pioneering efforts in building this system to serve the Pagan community may prove to benefit the global community as a whole!

This is also an important step for the Correllian Tradition in the world, as the Parliament is the place where serious, credible religious leaders from around the globe meet and work together to build peace and understanding in the world. If we as Wiccans wish to be accepted as a credible world religion, if we as Correllians wish to play a part in the building of a better world, then we need to have a presence at the Parliament and events like it.

This is also an important step for the Correllian Tradition in Australia, because it allows us to meet our local Australian Correllians and form relationships that will help both sides in building the Correllian future in Australia. On Sunday 6 December there will be a social event for Correllians and Witch School students who would like to come out and meet us. I will also be offering initiations and initiatory confirmations on the 6th to Australian Correllians who are eligible for initiation. This will be a wonderful event and I hope that many of our Australian people will come out and meet us!

In addition I will have time available throughout my stay in Australia to meet with Correllians and Witch School students who may not be able to come on the 6th.

If you are a Correllian or a Witch School student in Australia and it is possible for you to come to Melbourne I sincerely hope that you will come out and meet me, as I would love to meet you! There is no knowing when I may be able to return to Australia in the future, so I am hoping to meet as many Correllians and Witch School students as I can now. If you can come to the 6 December event, or if you would like to schedule a meeting at another time, please write me direct at DonLewisHP@aol.com.

If you would like to help support our trip to the Parliament –and we still have many costs yet to cover- please consider using the DONATE button at Correllian.com, or buy a membership at Witch School. Anything will help and I would greatly appreciate your support! With your help we are building a better future for Pagans and a better global future today!

Blessings to all,
Rev. Don Lewis
First Priest and Chancellor

Pagan Days for Monday, November 30th 2009

C.H. Scarlett

Monday (moon day) is the day of the Moon Goddess, Selene, Luna, & Mani.

Mondays are an awesome day to take care of matters or magical rituals and spells concerning:

Traveling, memory, one's instinct, sharpening or increasing Psychic abilities, dreams, healing, home, ancestors and of course, family.

Monday belongs to the Moon and the Element of Water

The Moon Phase:

Waxing Gibbous

96% of Full

These moons are usually anywhere from 8-14 days old. They symbolize and represent patience. And they are wonderful for drawing up the energy you will need to perform whatever spells or rituals for the Full Moon coming.

November 30th

Pagan Days:

Skadhi, & Night of the Dead

Never piss off a Norse woman and if ever there was proof of that, it is Skadhi. Today is the Observance for her and according to her tale, I would say she deserves it.

Skadhi was simply a mortal Norse woman living day to day like any other until the Gods killed her father Thjazi.

Madder than a bunch of war mongering Vikings, Skadhi grabs her weapons and marches off to Asgard with nothing on her mind but blood vengeance.

Somehow or another, the Gods convinced her to let it go (obviously she was tearing some stuff up if the Gods wanted to bargain.) In return for laying her vengeance to rest, they offered her the chance to choose any God of her choice and marry him. And Odin claimed that he would made stars out of her father's eyes...now who could resist that?

But there was a catch...

Skadhi could not see the Gods' faces...only their feet. So, by their feet, she chose the most beautiful...Njord.

Skadhi lived for however long with Njord but her tale did not end as his loving wife, for she longed and loved something much greater than him, and that was the mountains of her birth. So eventually, she left her God to return to the place she so loved...

But the Gods were not done with her yet. Obviously there was something very special about this woman warrior because soon after she came home, Odin came to her doorstep. She became a wife of his and gave him many sons.

Tonight is the last night of Samhain—Night of the Dead— according to our Irish ancestors. The entire month of November, starting with Samhain, belongs to the spirits of the dead. According to the Irish, tonight, the last of those nights, is unlucky to be caught wondering about.

Why?

Because the spirits of the dead know that they will have to return to the Underworld for the next 11 months. Now what would you do on your last night to party?

Why, if you were the spirits of the dead, you would join up with a bunch of fairies, cause a ton of mischief and party it up until darkness ran out.

That's why Irish people didn't go mucking about after dark...they didn't want to fall into the trap of the Deads' mischief.

Except for me...I'd be the one person out there trying to get in on the party myself! *winks*

That's it for today folks...the last of November.

Common Cat Colours

Part c

4. Torties, patched tabbies, and calicos

If your cat is randomly patched with different colours, you probably have a tortie, patched tabby, or calico.

For cats without white markings:

- A "tortoiseshell" or "tortie" is randomly patched all over with red, black, and cream. The patches may be very mingled, or they may be more distinct.
- A "blue-cream" (also called "blue tortie" or "dilute tortie") is randomly patched all over with blue and cream. This is a soft, pastel color.
- A "brown patched tabby" looks almost like autumn leaves, with patches of brown tabby and patches of red tabby. This colour is also known as "torbie" because it is a tabby tortie.
- A "blue patched tabby" is a soft colour with patches of blue tabby and patches of cream tabby.

There is special terminology for tortoiseshells with white markings, depending on how much white they have:

- A "tortoiseshell and white" or "blue-cream and white" has only small white areas. The body has mingled colors.
- A "calico" has more white. As a rule, the more white there is on the cat, the larger and more distinct the red and black patches will be. You'll notice that the large black patches are solid black, and the large red patches are actually red tabby.
- A "dilute calico" has the same amount of white as a calico, but instead of red and black patches, it has blue and cream patches. The blue patches are solid blue, and the cream patches are cream tabby.
- A "patched tabby and white" or "torbie and white" may have any amount of white. A patched tabby with a lot of white, like a calico, has large distinct patches of color, and is sometimes called a "patterned calico," "calico tabby," or "caliby."

5. Pointed ("Siamese") pattern

If your cat has dark "points" (face, paws, and tail) shading to a much lighter color on the body, it is a "pointed" cat. This is the pattern of the Siamese cat, but many other breeds as well as non-purebreds also come in this pattern, so it does not mean that the cat is a Siamese. This pattern is also sometimes called the "colorpoint" pattern (not to be confused with the Colorpoint Shorthair breed) or the "himalayan" pattern (not to be confused with the Himalayan breed).

Pointed cats are born white and gradually darken with age. A young pointed cat will have a much lighter body color than an older pointed cat.

Pointed cats can come in many different colors:

- A "seal point" has dark brown points and a body color anywhere between light brown and ivory.
- A "blue point" has gray points and a light gray or beige body.
- A "lynx point" has tabby points! It might have any of the colors described in the tabby section. For example, you could have a "blue lynx point" or "red lynx point." The body color may show some shadow tabby markings, especially as the cat gets older.
- A "tortie point" has tortoiseshell points, and a "blue-cream point" has blue-cream points. Patched tabby points are also possible.

You can even have a pointed cat with white markings! If the cat has a lot of white, however, it can be hard to see the pointed pattern (especially on the feet). White markings will cover up any other colour where they appear.

A Matter of Attitude

Marc Sullivan

We exist in an unseen river of consciousness containing universal knowledge. In effect all the knowledge in the Universe; everything there is to know. In Physics terminology this is the Unified Field that underlies our reality, and it is comprised of pure knowledge and information. Why then aren't we able to continuously access that information?

Sometimes we do. We all have flashes of intuition and sometimes premonitions that, if we're receptive, can be of great guidance. Some have learned to cultivate their intuition through paying close attention to the "messages" they receive. Most of us have dismissed our intuition for so many years that it's gone under our "radar" and out of our day-to-day awareness. We listen only when the message comes through with great force and clarity — and even then we may not listen.

On a general basis the information we receive is limited by our receptiveness, or acceptance, which to a great degree regulates our personal frequency, or what we as individuals vibrate to at any given moment.

Our receptiveness is defined by what information we're willing to accept, and is limited by the information we would deny. Ultimately this comes down to attitude. If we don't consciously choose to accept that anything is possible — and most of us don't — then we will not be open to receiving knowledge that falls into the realm of what we accept, or decree, as impossible. Rejection of possibilities and insistence on impossibilities is an ego-driven limitation, whereas the acceptance that anything really is possible is a key step toward raising awareness and an important factor to spiritual growth. Acceptance has the effect of raising our vibration, and the higher our vibration the more receptive we'll be to receiving information that reaches beyond our intuition.

Have you noticed how hard it is to communicate with someone in a state of fear, or anger? If we're vibrating at a higher level than they are it's going to be very hard for them to understand us, unless we are somehow able to verbally bridge the awareness gulf between us. Even then it's impossible to convey concepts like unconditional love to someone in a state of fear or rage. They can't understand it because they will not accept it. The concept is outside the limitations of their consciousness while in that consciousness-limiting state.

If we're open and receptive, pathways of spontaneous knowledge will automatically open to us. I've personally observed how this works. As I become more accepting I receive more and more information, some of it on topics I hadn't even considered before. This information typically takes the form of sudden insights and revelations. A-ha moments, if you will. Other times I've received what I would categorize as "downloads" in the form of large amounts of information, sometimes enough to fill a book. One moment I haven't even considered the topic, and in the next moment it's like I've read an entire book on the subject. If I had dismissed the possibility of this even happening, would it have happened?

It's important to point out there is a difference between acceptance and belief. Beliefs are by nature self-limiting through being exclusionary: one can't believe in two conflicting ideas at once without conflict. Accepting that anything is possible doesn't impose such limitations or create any conflicts. It enables one to accept the possibility, for example, that things presented as truths may not, in fact, be true. Being completely open to all possibilities is a form of discernment and in the acceptance state it becomes easier to discern what's true and what's not because we can more easily tap into that higher knowledge base.

If we're to expand our awareness to a significant degree, we need to change our self-limiting attitudes. To be receptive to knowledge contained in the all-encompassing river of consciousness we have to vibrate at a level similar to the knowledge we seek. If we limit our thinking through a limited attitude then how can we be open to possibilities contained in that knowledge base? If we're not open to something then we can't vibrate with it, and if we can't vibrate with it, we won't receive information about it or in many cases even be aware of its existence.

If you're interested in further studies in consciousness, I highly recommend the landmark book "Power vs Force: The Hidden Determinants of Human Behavior" by David Hawkins MD, PhD.

The Eastern Vedic Astrology Culture Differs From The Western World

MIKE SELVON

Reading your daily horoscope is a regular part of western life, but in other parts of the world, astrology is a more encompassing way of existence. With Vedic astrology, you nourish your body as well as your mind and soul. In this article, we'll examine this eastern tradition and compare it to the practices that we've come to know in the western world.

Vedic astrology is very different from western one. In the west, it is more Freudian and focuses on basic thinking patterns and the essence of self. Based on this logic, Western astrology readings attempt to predict what you can expect in the future. It is very logical and leaves little space for the unknown. Contrarily, Vedic is more interested in the kind of karma you have brought into this life.

In addition to the planets commonly found in western one, Vedic has two additional imaginary planets; Rahu and Ketu. Rahu represents mystery and cruelty. Ketu represents Karmic collections (good & bad), spirituality and spiritual experiences. Where, in the house of these planets, they reside at the time of one's birth will determine one's destiny and is called a horoscope or "Kundli" in India.

Vedic astrologers try to help people understand the role and expression of karma in individual and collective life. Hindus believe that humans have fortune and misfortune because of karma. The core of Vedic is the Dasha system, a system based upon the position of the moon at birth.

At the time of one's birth, whichever planet is prominent in the Zodiac at the time, will determine the quality of life one will experience. Because of the Dasha system, it is believed that the timing and nature of events can be predicted years in advance with accuracy.

Before our society chose to follow science and medicine, astrology for the masses was a very common practice for every day occurrences. Vedic astrology is practiced the same way. The philosophy is used to choose mates, professions and other common decisions.

Vedic creates a synthesis between body and mind to expand consciousness and achieve a state of harmony. This theory also incorporates the dietary belief that meat pollutes the body, while vegetables nourish the mind and soul.

The devotees of Vedic astrology lead a very pure and holistic way of life. The philosophy is similar to western astrology, in that the readings are derived from the sun and planets. It diagnoses a person's nature according to the details of their birth and forecasts the future using that information.

However, Vedic is far more encompassing means of existence that requires utter faith and dedication to the belief. Regardless of which discipline you choose to follow, the purpose of astrology is to guide you toward a fuller, more harmonious life.

THE BOOK

Mother Kali

Place your seal on this book of mortal existence
Now emptied of words
From crying to you

I have given this book to you
To do with as you wish
As there is no one left
Who wants to write in it

Having tasted your Divine Love
What else can be of any importance?

I am your laughing schoolboy
Playing hooky from the ceaseless pounding
Of facts and names

And I am running headlong to swim in your river of immortal bliss
Carelessly flinging these clothes
Of concerns and considerations to the ground as I go

From the book Soft Moon Shining by Ethan Walker III

Announcement

Calling all Translators

If you have a second language to English that you are fluent in please consider joining the Witcheschool Translators and help translate material

We want to help Don stand tall and proud at his first presentation to the Interfaith World, and state that the Tradition deserves to be recognized by the most respected Interfaith Body “The Parliament of World’s Religions”

On December 3rd, 2009, Rev. Don Lewis will be at the Parliament of the World’s Religions and this will be a major chance to present the Correllian tradition to the world. Currently he is planning to bring copies of The Five Mystic Secrets (in 7 Languages), What is Wicca? (Three Languages) and The Comic “Come Join Us for a Wiccan Ritual” (Two Languages). We also plan to share those classes already translated.

We are looking for help getting What is Wicca? Translated at least into Spanish, and maybe more languages. We currently have French, German and English. It is my hope that we can have more languages represented. I know it’s a big favor to ask. We will need it by November 25th, 2009. The more languages the better, of course, and we do appreciate any help we can get.

Here is the link: <http://www.witcheschool.com/page/what-is-wicca-language>

Correllian Clergy Degree Program

A new membership has been created called the Correllian Clergy Degree Program. This is a 3-year program that can help you earn your Wiccan Degrees and Legal Clergy Status. Of course every lifetime and supporting member has access to this main program.

The purpose of this level is for those individuals who are interested in gaining their clergy status, and this offers an opportunity for members to do so affordably.

This program is only $49.99. To find out more:
<http://www.Witchschool.com/clergydegree.asp>

Witchschool Referral Program

Witch School, our long-time educational partner, has made an offer to the Tradition and its member Temples and groups.

Witch School has created a new Referral Program. The Tradition itself has enrolled in this program – as you can see from the button in the left-hand menu on correllian.com. You are encouraged to consider enrolling your Temple or group as well, as a means of generating potential passive income.

The program works like this: members receive their own button which they can put on their website, in their email signature, etc... offering Witch School memberships. If anyone purchases a membership through your button, you will receive (approximately) 25% of the payment –that is $4 of a $19.99 yearly membership, or $25 of a $99.99 Lifetime Membership.

Each button has its own unique code which tracks payments made through it. If someone buys a membership through your button, then you get the abovementioned 25%.

If you are interested in finding out more about this program, or in signing up for it, go to www.witchschool.biz.

Witch School are offering a discount on supplies to Correllian Temples and groups in good standing: for example the Witch School books at 40% off cover price, and other discounts on the various items the school produces. If you would like to learn more about this, contact Lady Virginia at Virginia@witchschool.com and she will be happy to explain further.

These offers are being extended to all of our Correllian Temples, Proto-Temples, Witan Shrines, Formal Shrines, Personal Shrines, Orders, and Study Groups who might wish to sign up.

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: www@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be
Krystel
