Pagan Calendar August 8 – 14

August 8 According to the Christian Church calendar, the Virgin Mary was born on this day. The Eve of the Festival of Venus was celebrated annually on this date by the ancient Romans. On this night, the goddess of love and beauty was honored and invoked with prayers, love songs, libations, and passionate lovemaking. It was also a time when sorceresses performed all forms of love magic and marriage-mate divinations.

August 9 On this date, many Wiccans from around the world celebrate the annual Feast of the Fire Spirits. Dried mandrake root or yarrow herb is cast into fires as offerings to the Salamanders.

August 10 A centuries-old festival called Ghanta Karna Day is celebrated annually around this time of August in the Himalayan kingdom of Nepal. The event celebrates the death of Ghanta Karna, a blood thirsty Hindu demon who haunts crossroads and is the sworn enemy of the god Vishnu.

August 11 On this day, an Irish fertility festival known as the Puck Fair begins. The medieval-style festival, which pays homage to the mischievous sprite Robin Goodfellow, continues for three consecutive days.

Oddudua, the "Mother of all Gods", is honored on this day by followers of the Santeria religion in Africa and South America.

August 12 The goddess Isis and her search for Osiris (her brother and consort) is commemorated on this day by the Lychnapsia (Festival of the Lights of Isis). Dried rose petals and vervain are burned in small cauldron pots or incense burners as offerings to Isis, and green candles are lit in her honor.

August 13 On this date, the major Pagan festival of Hecate is traditionally held at moonrise. Hecate, the mysterious goddess of darkness and protectress of all Witches, is a personification of the Moon and the dark side of the female principle.

August 14 Every year on this date, a "burryman" (a man wearing a costume of thistle burrs, and representing an ancient fertility god) walks through the streets in many of the fishing villages along the coast of Scotland, collecting donations from the villagers. The origin of the burryman remains a mystery.

Spell of the Week

TO MAKE ANOINTING OIL

Take a glazed pan half full of grease or olive oil.

Put in sweet mint leaves bruised (or whatever you like).

Place pan in hot water bath. Stir occasionally. After four or five hours pour into linen bag and squeeze grease through into pot again and fill with fresh leaves. Some people even use coffee filters or paper towels in a pasta strainer to filter.

Repeat until grease is strongly scented.

Do same with marjoram, thyme and pounded dried patchouli leaves.

When strongly scented, mix all the greases together and keep in a well sealed jar

ALL PURPOSE CANDLE ANOINTING OIL

1 cup rose petals

1 cup violets

1 cup water

1 cup olive oil

1 tbsp clove oil

2 teaspoons powdered cinnamon

1 tablespoon powdered myrrh

1/4 cup wild fennel seeds

Gather rose petals and violets at sunrise. Place them in a clean ceramic crock.

Cover with water (fresh rain water, preferably) and let crock sit in a sunny location for three days until an oily film (the essential oil of the flowers) is seen floating on top of the water.

Remove oil from water by carefully absorbing it into a small cotton ball.

Squeeze out oil into a clean, long-necked glass bottle. Add olive and clove oils, and swirl gently in a clockwise direction to slowly agitate oils. Next, add cinnamon, myrrh, and fennel seeds.

Seal bottle tightly and store it in a dark, cool place.

After four weeks, strain through cheesecloth and use to anoint candles.

Simply Totem Animals by Celia M Gunn

The tradition of spirit guides speaking to and assisting humans through animals, birds and other creatures can be found all over the world, and dates back to ancient times. Today, if we are open to watching and listening to our totem animals, we can develop beneficial relationships with them. We can also recognise that when a totem animal appears to us in a special way, it is offering insight into what is happening in our lives.

Celia learned about the tradition of totem animals directly from Native Americans, with whom she worked on cultural preservation for several years (see A Twist in Coyote's Tale). This inspiring and beautifully-illustrated book suggests ways to find, honour and work with your totems, and provides a rich list of creatures from all around the world and their unique meanings.

Stargazing Information

Teapot-shaped Sagittarius and hook-shaped Scorpius highlight August's evening skies. They skitter low across the south during the night. Saturn and Spica remain teamed, as they have been all year, although they are preparing to disappear in the Sun's glare. Mars climbs a little higher from the Sun in the morning sky, while Jupiter enters the evening sky by month's end.

This Week's Stargazing Tips

August 7 2011 The gibbous Moon flirts with danger tonight: It passes between the head and heart of Scorpius, the celestial scorpion. Three stars to the right of the Moon form the wide head, while the heart is marked by bright orange Antares to the lower left of the Moon.

August 8 2011 One of the favorite constellations of summer is soaring high across the sky: Cygnus, the swan. It stretches across the east and northeast at nightfall. Its brightest stars form a pattern that really does look like a graceful swan, soaring through the misty glow of the Milky Way.

August 9 2011 Deneb, the brightest star of Cygnus, the swan, is high in the eastern sky at nightfall, at the northern point of the wide Summer Triangle. The body of the swan stretches to its right.

August 10 2011 M51, a system that consists of a large, bright galaxy and a smaller, fainter companion, is just below the star that marks the Big Dipper's handle. It's easily visible through modest telescopes. The dipper is high in the northwest this evening.

August 11 2011 The Moon rises before sunset and squats low in the southeast as darkness falls. Look below the Moon shortly after sunset to see Earth's shadow. It is a band of dark blue hugging the horizon, with pink above it.

August 12 2011 The Perseid meteor shower is at its best tonight. Unfortunately, that's not much to get excited about. The Moon is almost full, so its beautiful but pesky light will overpower the "shooting stars." Only a handful will shine through.

August 13 2011 The Moon is full today at 1:57 p.m. CDT, as it lines up opposite the Sun in Earth's sky. August's full Moon is known as the Grain Moon or Green Corn Moon.

Magic: paranormal or normal?

Eva Pilch Chicago Paranormal Examiner

Magic, as it is thought of in the traditional sense, is popular in Wicca which came from Paganism. There is black magic and there is white magic. In order to help the magic take effect one is suppose to call upon a god or goddess that is related to the topic in which you are dealing with. Some believe that the black magic is just as important as the white magic. For instance if you are to seek revenge for justice you would want to call upon a dark god or goddess for their help. However, revenge has shown to be an endless cycle and some prefer to just remain a conductor of good.

Believe it or not, this method has similarities to Christianity. Christians pray to certain deities to make their wishes come true. In fact all religions seem to practice a sort of magic. All religions have also experienced miracles. Perhaps this means that all of the different deities are real. Perhaps it means that when considering the rule of attraction, if you believe and feel something enough, it will become real. Quantum physics seems to provide proof of this. Perhaps it's all of the above.

It seems that whatever label you put on it, whether it be Jesus, Buddha, Confucius, Gandhi, Muhammad, God, saints, angels, ghosts, aliens, or even the universe, it can work sometimes. Try calling it love if you can't use any other label. After all, love is a powerful force. It is in all of us and everything. It is not a man or woman.

There have been studies done that when one looks at water with love and then freezes a drop, through a microscope it looks like a beautifully balanced snow flake. The opposite happens when this water is looked at with hate. There are many cultures on our planet that look to bodies of water, or even any water with special admiration and use it to receive healing. It is also now said that a positive thought is a hundred times more powerful than a negative one.

The pills and syrups you can get from the doctor or a pharmacy can be thought of as potions. This too sounds like magic. They also have side effects, however. It seems that the natural "potions" and "rituals" are becoming more popular.

A good book to check out on this topic is Natural Cures They Don't Want You to Know About by KevinTrudeau. ISBN-10: 0975599518 ISBN-13: 978-0975599518

Witch-Wife

Edna St Vincent Millay

She is neither pink nor pale,
And she never will be all mine;
She learned her hands in a fairy-tale,
And her mouth on a valentine.

She has more hair than she needs;
In the sun 'tis a woe to me!
And her voice is a string of coloured beads,
Or steps leading into the sea.

She loves me all that she can,
And her ways to my ways resign;
But she was not made for any man,
And she never will be all mine.

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Podcast

Wiccan blog and podcast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

The Order of World Walkers

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be
Krystel
