Announcement from the CNT Fundraising Office

Greetings fellow Correllians, and Witch School Members

As the Wheel of the Year turns we find our semi-annual fundraising event to benefit the Correllian Tradition fast approaching

Once again, I am requesting your support in donating items to be offered in our Silent Auction that coincides with the Lustration of the Living Regional Lustrations

We had wonderful results back in April raising over $1200.00 from internet and in-person bids as well as from items that were sold during the Lustration Weekend in Texas.

Our supporters of this event love to get items that have been made by and / or donated by our family members and friends of the Tradition and Witch School. As our last auction was winding down, many offered items for this second auction for which we are grateful but we could still use additional items to try and match the success of last April.

So, if you are the creative type and want to share your talents, or if you have "Pagan / Wiccan " items in your home that you are ready to pass along to other's who share your path - now could be the time!!

With the tremendous help of Lady Anna Rowe who creates the auction web-page and both Lady Anna and Windy who do all of the announcement and update posts, this next Silent Auction is scheduled to go live on August 15th through August 31st. And then be on display for live in-person silent bidding over Labor Day Weekend Sept. 2 - 4th at the Sacred Sea Temple Regional Lustration, Powder Springs, GA

Therefore if you would like to have your artistic talents showcased in this auction, or have wanted to pass along that special item to another within our family, please contact me at: cntfundraisingoffice@earthlink.net to arrange for mailing.

Check out all the fantastic items from past auction by following this link:

<http://www.correllian.com/silentauctionspring2011.htm>

You will see all the diverse art / craft and personal items and how well they are received by the past bidders.
　

Peace and Light

Pagan Calendar July 25 - 31

July 25 In Osaka, Japan, a thousand-year-old festival of paper dolls is celebrated annually on this date. The handmade dolls are traditionally rubbed on the bodies of the faithful to absorb illnesses, negativity, and evil spirits. The dolls are then taken to a bridge and dropped into the waters of the river below.

July 26 The Kachina ceremony is celebrated annually on this date by the Native American tribe of the Hopi in Arizona. The kachinas (ancient spirits that are believed to guide and protect the Hopi people) are honored with religious ceremonies and a cycle of dances.

July 27 Day of Hatshepsut. On this day each year, the eighteenth dynasty Healer Queen of ancient Egypt is honored. Healing rituals are performed by many Wiccans, especially those of the wiccan traditions.

In Belgium, a centuries-old event known as The Procession of Witches takes place every year on this day.

July 28 In the olden days of Pagan Europe, the great thunder-god Thor was honored on this day with prayers for protection of the crops against destructive storms.

July 29 On this day in Tarascon, France, the annual festival of Tarasque takes place. The festival, celebrated since Pagan times, commemorates the capture of a mythical fire-breathing dragon. A decorated dragon float is paraded through the streets of the city and touched by spectators for good luck and to ward off evil.

July 30 In Nova Scotia, this day is sacred to the Micmac Indian tribe. It is believed that all those who are wed or christened at this time will be blessed with happiness and good health by the Great Spirits. Saint Ann (the Mother Goddess) and Gloosca (the Father God) are honored.

July 31 August Eve, Lammas Eve, The Eve of Lughnasadh.

In pre-Christian times, the Oidhche Lughnasa was celebrated by the Celts on this night in honor of their solar deity named Lugh. His annual sacrifice at the end of the harvest ensured the fertility of the corn and grain for the next growing season.

An old August Eve tradition in rural Scotland is predicting the following year's marriages and deaths by throwing sickles into the air and then drawing omens from the position in which they fall.

On this date in the year 1831, famous mystic and spiritualist medium Madame Helena Petrovna Blavatsky was born in the Ukraine.

A-Z of Divination

Water Scrying: You will need a large, deep bowl made from glass, brass or silver. It must have a smooth and even rim. You must set your base on some sort of tripod for best results. A tripod made of laurel boughs is the best.

You will need to do your own testing to find out which bowl works best for you and how much water you should use. Do not use water from a tap. Get clean, fresh water from a stream.

The ancient Greeks believed that nature spirits dwelled in fresh water. The water may be stored in a vessel and used again. However it is a good idea to replace your water once a month. Never collect the water of a day time. Water should only be collected at night preferably on a full moon.

To make your wand use a branch from a bay tree, hazel tree or the laurel. The end of the wand should be covered in dry tree sap or resin. Dip the end of the wand into the water until it becomes wet. Wet the rims of the bowl.

The best time to scry is at night when it is quite. By gently drawing the rim of the wand around the bowl it will cause it to resonate. The action of the resonating basin will cause circular ripples to form in the basin. The water seems to breathe with the sounds.

It is the harmonics that seem to whisper forth predictions of the future. These are interpreted with the help of a guardian angel. You may also receive visual impressions which Nostradamus likened to that of a "burning mirror".

Wind Scrying: Ancient Greeks practiced wind scrying in the sacred grove of Dodona, which was dedicated to Zues. Psellus referred to this technique writing "there is a mode of predicting by means of the air and the leaves of the trees.

The method seemed to involve the hanging of striking wands from branches of sacred oak trees in a way that they struck resounding brass basins when the wind blew. Interpretations were made of these sounds and that of the wind.

The wind gives itself naturally to scrying because it talks the same as you or me. Find a quiet place in the bush where there is no noise of cars, music, etc. A place among the trees is the best. Find a tree and sit under it.

Casually focus your attention on the wind, blocking out all other thoughts. In time the wind will talk to you. In order for you to scry the wind, you must, for a time, become the wind.

Xolomancy: A form of divination that is practiced by the Slavs. The divination is done by interpreting the shape and position of dry pieces of wood found in one's path. These are considered Omens.

Spell of the Week

SPELL TO COMMUNICATE WITH SOMEONE

Light a blue candle.

Write a personal, positive, and meaningful letter to someone you desire to contact. Burn the letter in the candle flame. As it burns, visualize the person's face and the goal or message you want to send.

Toss some thyme, yarrow, or cinnamon on the burned letter. Concentrate on what manner you hope to receive their response.

Pick up the remains and scatter the ashes and herbs to the wind.
(Also: Do not attempt to use this spell to communicate with the dead.)

SPELL TO FIND LOST OBJECTS

Tools:

Mirror Orange candle Black candle Small Magnet

Usual ritual requirements, such as incense, quarter candles, and athame.

Method:

First create the Circle and invoke the Elemental Guardians.

Raise a cone of power by chanting and drumming, or racing around the circle.

Then light a Black candle (for solving mysteries, and drawing away the negativity of the loss), an Orange candle (for luck and precious objects).

Visualize the lost objects in the mirror as already being found.

Place the magnet between the two candles and stroke it towards you as you recite this rhyme:

"By the wavering flame of this black light,

Grant to me of my jewellery a sight.

By the power of this orange flame,

Give me luck to find the same.

In this mirror the jewellery I see

Make the magnet draw them to me."

Substitute the name of the object for the word "jewellery". Say this three times.

Close the circle, but leave the candles burning with the magnet between them until the candles burn down.

How Herbs Are Used In Magic

http://www.magicspells.in/wiccan_herbal_correspondences

Grow your own, or find a good herb store, dried is best for magic. Herbal magic is earth magic. When using earth magic your spell will have long lasting and stable effects. For instance, if you do an herbal money spell, you are not likely to win the lottery tomorrow. You are more likely to land a better paying job or promotion.

Herbal magic is effective on its own, or combined with other types of magic for various results. You could combine, say, herbal and candle magic for an earth/ fire spell for money, and your outcome would be stable, but more immediate.

In herbal magic, quality counts more than quantity so choose or harvest your herbs carefully and in an appropriate manner. Many people who harvest their own herbs for magical purposes use a special cutting knife called a boleem.

Roots should be harvested during the waning moon, whereas foliage (when used for positive magic) should be cut during the waxing or full moon. Depending upon the complexity of the spell, you can cut your herbs upon the appropriate day of the week, (an herb ruled by the Sun would be cut on Sunday), and some people go so far as to cut their herbs at the appropriate HOUR, when the herb's planet is in the moon's house.

Why Herbs Are Used In Magic. Why use herbs at all? Why not just candles or by raising energy? Herbs are used in magic for their "vibrations" or "essences". What does this mean? Herbs, like people, have gender, are ruled by a planet, an element, and sometimes, are sacred to a certain deity. There are several texts out there that will provide you with this essential information.

Growing and nurturing herbs in a special garden provides you with the advantage of having your own energies already in the plant. Then, a plant such as laurel, ruled by the Sun will have all of the influence of the Sun and fire along with your personal energies. Another reason to use herbs in magic is diversity. You can burn them as incense and make special incense blends to compliment your needs.

You can use the essential oils in cleansing baths and anointing oils. You can even use them culinarily for special ritual foods or magickal dishes.

Stargazing Information

The nights of July may be short, but they are packed with sky watching treats. All five naked-eye planets are visible at some point during the month, with Venus packing up after its long run as the morning star. It is barely visible in early twilight at July's start, and then disappears by the middle of the month.

This Week's Stargazing Tips

July 24, 2011 M22, a cluster of a half-million stars, stands above the handle of teapot-shaped Sagittarius, which wheels low across the south tonight. Under dark skies, M22 looks like a faint, hazy star. It is about 10,000 light-years away.

July 25, 2011 The crescent Moon and the eye of Taurus, the bull, team up in the wee hours of tomorrow morning. They climb into view by around 3 or 3:30 a.m. and are high in the east at first light. Bright orange Aldebaran lines up to the lower right of the Moon.

July 26, 2011 The Moon has a bright orange companion in the hours before sunrise tomorrow: the planet Mars. They are well up in the east at first light, with Mars just to the lower left of the Moon.

July 27, 2011 The little planet Mars leads the Moon into the sky in the wee hours of tomorrow morning. Mars looks like a fairly bright orange star, and stands well to the upper right of the Moon.

July 28, 2011 The star Antares forms the bright heart of Scorpius, the scorpion. Scorpius is low in the southwest during the evening. Because this reddish-orange star looks like Mars, ancient skywatchers named it Antares, which means "rival of Mars."

July 29, 2011 A dolphin glides through the Milky Way on summer evenings. It is faint, so you need to get away from city lights to see it. The dolphin is the constellation Delphinus. It is well up in the east as darkness falls, and arcs high overhead during the night.

July 30, 2011 The Moon is new at 1:40 p.m. CDT today as it crosses the imaginary line between the Earth and Sun. It is the second new Moon this month. Unlike a second full Moon, which is known as a Blue Moon, a second new Moon has no special name.

Poetry Place

THE WITCH

Mary Elizabeth Coleridge

I have walked a great while over the snow,
And I am not tall nor strong.
My clothes are wet, and my teeth are set,
And the way was hard and long.
I have wandered over the fruitful earth,
But I never came here before.
Oh, lift me over the threshold, and let me in at the door!

The cutting wind is a cruel foe.
I dare not stand in the blast.
My hands are stone, and my voice a groan,
And the worst of death is past.
I am but a little maiden still,
My little white feet are sore.
Oh, lift me over the threshold, and let me in at the door!

Her voice was the voice that women have,
Who plead for their heart's desire.
She came--she came--and the quivering flame
Sunk and died in the fire.
It never was lit again on my hearth
Since I hurried across the floor,
To lift her over the threshold, and let her in at the door.

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Podcast

Wiccan blog and podcast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

The Order of World Walkers

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystal High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystalneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be
Krystal

Order of Peace Weavers

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.
