Pagan Calendar March 7 - 13

March 7

On this day in the year 1890, the poet William Butler Yeats was initiated into the Isis-Urania Temple of the Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn. There, he studied the magickal arts and took the magickal name Daemon est Deus Inversus (which translates into "The Devil is God Reversed").

March 8

Mother Earth Day, a festival which honors the birthday of the Earth as a Mother Goddess, is celebrated annually on this day throughout China. The festival consists of street parades, the lighting of firecrackers, feasting and partying. "Birthday presents" (coins, flowers, incense, paper dolls, etc.) are placed in small holes in the ground, blessed, and then covered with soil.

March 9

On this date, the annual Butter Lamp Festival is held by Buddhist monks in Tibet to render demons powerless and to secure the favor of the gods. Yak-butter sculptures of Buddhist heroes are paraded through the streets as sacred chants are recited. After the procession, the sculptures are then cast into the waters of a river.

March 10

On this day in the year 1909, the famous Dutch clairvoyant and psychic healer Gerard Croiset was born in the Netherlands. Using his clairvoyant abilities, which manifested early in his childhood, Croiset healed hundreds of patients daily at this clinic. He also worked with various police departments as a psychic criminologist and solved crimes in more than half a dozen countries. His death occurred on July 20, 1980.

March 11

Jacques de Molay, the last Grand Master of the Order of the Knights Templars, was burned alive at the stake on this date in the year 1314. Shortly before he died, he accurately predicted the death of King Philip IV of France within the year and the death of Pope Clement within forty days.

March 12

Babylonian Feast of Marduk. On this day in the year 1873, psychic researcher and occultists Stewart Edward White was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan. He authored several books containing material obtained through his wife's spirit-channeling sessions, and he served as president of the American Society for Psychical Research in San Francisco, California.

March 13

The thirteenth day of the third month is considered to be the luckiest day of the year for all Witches (especially if it should happen to fall on a Friday), as thirteen is the number associated with the traditional Witches' coven and three is a powerful magickal number. In Luxemborg, a Pagan fire festival known as Burgsonndeg is celebrated annually on this day with the lighting of great bonfires to welcome Spring and the rebirth of the Sun.

The Witch's Call

Rev. Electra

Everyone dealing with the art of Witchcraft and not only, has heard about a call to get into magic and learn the magical ways. What is a call? A call is the way the Goddess shows us that we should start studying magic and apply it in our lives in order to evolve and to make our quality of life better.

The call can have many forms and other witches describe it as a clear epiphany, while others say that magic just happened and they saw that it was time to start dedicating time to what most people fear. Because let us be honest ,people are afraid of magic and most of all afraid of witches , since they regard them as creatures who commit the ultimate sin by practicing what is totally forbidden by the Church and Christianity.

The call is also valid for those witches who grow up in an environment where almost every member of the family practices witchcraft. It is a common thing for a child who has grown up in such an environment either to love magic or to hate it and never want to deal with it again in their entire life. It depends on the personality and the character of the individual, as well on the parents ,since they are the responsible for the image of witchcraft their child will acquire. When children do accept magic as a part of their lives, because their family showed them the way to accomplish that ,they are called hereditary witches. There is the belief that this kind of witches are powerful and that their spells are more effective.

I cannot say that this belief applies to the truth or not. I can only say that the Goddess is very generous with Her gifts and by saying gifts I do not mean the practice of Witchcraft as an epiphany ,but mostly as the clear mind and the need of spiritual evolution . I grew up in a family where witchcraft was practiced by the female members of the family. But they practiced a kind of magic I did not want to learn about and did not ever show interest in doing so. So my magical interest was lost in time and as the years went by ,I felt that something was missing. Something really important that could help me find myself and show me a new path, which would give me happiness, joy and most of all spiritual development.

The Goddess knew the way to reach to me. My consort, involved in magic ,found me and showed me that it was ok to look deep into my soul and start coming closer to what I had left behind, my own spiritual journey. A long ,difficult journey filled sometimes with great happiness and sometimes with great sorrow. But from this sorrow I learnt, I took my lessons and I became a better person . I was lost and I was found and I also found my soul mate ,the person who made me open my eyes and face the truth : I could become a witch ,I could evolve and advance, leaving my miserable life behind me.

And I realized that everything was part of the divine plan, that the Goddess had found me and that I could study and learn, hereditary or not. If you ask me ,you have to study hard and try even harder to become a witch. As has been stated many times before ,witchcraft is a great responsibility and a great power at the same time. It can be trusted to people with the eagerness to learn and be able to control themselves . Knowledge is a great power also but has to be used properly and with enough maturity in order to help others and yourself.

To bring things into a closure, the call can be made in many ways and whether you are hereditary or not has nothing to do with the fact that you have a choice. The choice to gain spiritual gifts and use them righteously or the choice to gain knowledge in order to get drunk by power. One thing is for sure ,the Goddess will let us make the choice ,because She loves Her children but we will be responsible at the end for this choice.

Scanning the Future

by Owen Waters

One of the great advantages of regular meditation is that it enhances your sense of intuition. The more you practice meditation, the more you gain insight into every aspect of your life. Insights can relate to present or past events, leading to a greater understanding of your life's path, or they can relate to future events.

Insights into future events can be challenging in four ways:

1. The future is not fixed. Until you experience it, the future remains as an array of possibilities with a "most likely" scenario based on what holds the greatest energy.
2. Viewing the future can change the outcome. Even a 100% accurate view of the most likely scenario will trigger questions about whether you want that scenario to manifest, and that change can influence the outcome. This can give the illusion of inaccuracy in the original prediction.
3. Inner impressions come into your awareness through your imagination. However, a fertile imagination can create images on its own, almost for pure entertainment. True impressions of a future event arrive while you are in a meditative state, or sometimes while performing a monotonous task such as driving at a constant speed. They don't fire up with the great energy of a dramatic imagination. They slip in quietly and have to be examined and unraveled to see what each impression contains.
4. When you first start scanning the future, your predictions will be less accurate than they will become later, after constant practice.

Sometimes, lack of self-esteem can be a barrier to the development of your innate abilities. In that case you need to be aware that everyone is everything that Infinite Being is. The universe is holographic by design, meaning that while the many make up the One, the One is also mirrored within each of the many. So, each person, each spark of Infinite Being, contains all of the qualities of Infinite Being.

Lack of self-esteem, therefore, is only a personality trait and not reflective of your true self.

You have a perfect sense of intuition or insight, just waiting to be developed. One of the hallmarks of the global shift to higher consciousness is that, with each passing year, more and more people will develop more and more of their inner abilities.

While you are practicing your intuitive skills, it is a good idea to make written notes for later reference. Insights arrive in your consciousness while you are in an altered, meditative state, so their memory dissipates quickly just like the memory of your dreams. If you keep notes, then re-read them weeks or months later, you will be amazed at how accurate many of these insights were.

Sometimes, you will also see how insights into less than desirable scenarios caused you to make a decision to steer your life in a different direction. When faced with decisions about which direction to turn, the best barometer is always your highest joy. Ask yourself:

"What scenario would represent my highest joy?"

When you follow your highest joy, you are following the path through life which is most closely aligned with your true essence - your soul or inner self.

'Witch' killings described in book

A 350-year-old notebook which describes the execution of innocent women in East Anglia for consorting with the devil has been published online.

Puritan writer Nehemiah Wallington wrote passages on his attitudes to life, religion, the civil war as well as the witchcraft trials of the period.

By 1654 Wallington had catalogued 50 notebooks, of which only seven are known to have survived. Four are in the British Library, one in the Guildhall Library, one in the Folger Library in Washington DC, and one at Tatton Park in Cheshire.

The Tatton notebook describes battles and skirmishes of the English Civil War period and the disturbing violence of the 1640s in which dozens of East Anglian women were killed. Last year, a team of experts from The University of Manchester's John Rylands Centre for Heritage Imaging and Collection Care spent a week at Tatton Park to capture the document on camera.

Wallington tells how a supposed coven of witches was found in the Suffolk village of Manningtree. Manningtree is the home village of 'Witchfinder General' Matthew Hopkins, who was notorious for his brutality against women.

In 1645 Hopkins had been appointed to examine villager Elizabeth Clarke for 'devil's marks' - like warts or moles.

Under torture, she named other women, including her daughter Rebecca. When Rebecca was herself tortured, she implicated her own mother as a witch. A total of 19 women were eventually hanged, though Rebecca was saved thanks to her confession.

James Robinson, senior photographer at the John Rylands Library, said: "Our work at Tatton Park involved careful documentation of each and every page of this fragile and important notebook. We're delighted the public, free of charge, will now be able to read for themselves the horrors of that period."

Tatton Park mansion and collections manager, Caroline Schofield, said: "The Wallington manuscripts are hugely important primary sources for scholars of the period."

Spell of the Week

<http://www.magicspells.in/>

SPELL TO HONOR YOUR HOUSEHOLD SPIRITS

When presenting your house spirits with offerings of incense, candles or what not you can say this little chant:

"Wraith of the house, Take heart and live,
To every chamber This light I give,
To every corner This breath I send
Approve and favor my willing hand."

A SPELL TO SEE SPIRITS

To see spirits, old European Grimoires recommend mixing together aloe, pepper, musk, Vervain, and saffron and burning this in a cemetery. You can adapt this for other locations (like those in which the spirit lived) by adding a bit of sweet grass or tobacco to a specially prepared incense.

Create the incense on the anniversary of the death of the individual you wish to contact. This is then burned at 11 am, in the safety of a magic circle that also holds symbolic items to connect you to the entity. An incantation to encourage the spirit's presence is "Guardians of the Spirit realm, hear and guide my plea.

When the witching hour rings true, bring my friend (loved one, etc.) ____ to me.
Other souls who hear my call are not welcome in this place.
Only the one known as _____ may enter sacred space."

Repeat the request three times, twenty minutes apart, then wait quietly for indications of a presence.

Signs include the scent of flowers or a favored cologne, a cool wind, movement of curtains, and candles going out or twitching erratically.

Once you feel sure the spirit is with you, do not make it tarry overly long.
Take care of your business, say farewell, and thank the guardians for their assistance

Magical ingredient of the week

Allspice

Image source: <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Allspice>

The ruler of this plant, which is a spice and can be found as whole berries or as a powder, is Jupiter. It can be used for success or beating out the competition.

Whole berries can be carried in the pocket to improve the chance of interviews and winning clients.

The powder can be sprinkled across the business place when success is required.

It is especially effective when cooked in water in a double boiler to fill the room with its scent. In this way the brain centers can be opened to great achievements and a happy, efficient work environment can be created.

Stargazing Information

<http://stardate.org/nightsky>

Venus and Jupiter continue to bracket the sky as winter gives way to spring. Venus is the brilliant "morning star," low in the east before sunrise, while Jupiter is the "evening star," sliding lower in the west day by day. Little Mercury slides past Jupiter in mid-month. Leo, the lion, leaps proudly across the sky, and is in view all night. Some of the icons of winter remain in good view as well. Orion is in the southwest at nightfall, with Sirius, the brightest star in the night sky, twinkling in the south.

This Week's Stargazing Tips

March 7, 2011

The crescent Moon and the planet Jupiter line up low in the west at nightfall this evening. Jupiter looks like a brilliant star below the Moon. It is dropping lower in the sky each evening, and it will disappear in the Sun's glare by month's end.

March 8, 2011

Regulus, the "heart" of the lion, is high in the evening sky. To find it, line up the two stars that form the inner edge of the Big Dipper's bowl, then follow that line from right to left. The first bright star the line intersects is Regulus.

March 9, 2011

Queen Berenice spreads her golden tresses across the eastern sky this evening. They form a tight spray of faint stars known as Coma Berenices. The constellation is low in the east at nightfall and climbs high across the sky later on.

March 10, 2011

The Pleiades star cluster, which looks like a tiny dipper, stands just above the Moon this evening. The cluster represents the shoulder of Taurus, the bull. The bull's baleful eye, Aldebaran, is to the upper left of the Pleiades.

March 11, 2011

Aldebaran, the star that represents the "eye" of Taurus, the bull, is to the lower left of the Moon this evening. The star shines bright orange, indicating that its surface is thousands of degrees cooler than the surface of the Sun.

March 12, 2011

Cancer, the crab, is well up in the east at nightfall and passes high overhead later on. Although it is part of the zodiac, its stars are dim. The brightest, Beta Cancrī, is so faint you may not be able to see it from a suburb, let alone a city.

March 14, 2011

The largest and smallest planets in the solar system slide past each other this week. Jupiter is the larger and brighter of the two. Mercury, the smallest planet, creeps up toward Jupiter tonight, passes it tomorrow night, and pulls away later on.

Poetry Place

March

"The cock is crowing,
The stream is flowing,
The small birds twitter,
The lake doth glitter,
The green field sleeps in the sun;
The oldest and youngest
Are at work with the strongest;
The cattle are grazing,
Their heads never raising;
There are forty feeding like one!
Like an army defeated
The snow hath retreated,
And now doth fare ill
On the top of the bare hill;
The Plowboy is whooping-anon-anon:
There's joy in the mountains;
There's life in the fountains;
Small clouds are sailing,
The rain is over and gone!"

William Wordsworth

Prison Ministry Formal Shrine

The Prison Ministry Formal Shrine is to function as a bridge to breach the gap between inmates that are still called by Deity and who want to learn and/or correspond with members of the Correllian Tradition. This is a dedicated group that will not judge others' past, but help them pave a way into their future growth.

If you are interested in or already assisting with any type of Prison Ministry, please consider joining. You are required to be a registered member of the Correllian Nativist Tradition and at least 21 years of age. I am looking for people to assist with correspondence, and possible mentoring of inmates. If interested, please sign up at the following group:

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Podcast

Wiccan blog and podcast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,

The Order of Web Weavers

ORDER_HOUSE OF SURVIVORS

This is a closed Order members must belong to the Correllian Tradition either Inner or Outer Court. This group is for women 18 and over who have been victims of domestic or sexual abuse or both. A place to talk to others who have gone through this kind of assault.

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be Krystel

Order of Peace Weavers

The Order of Peace Weavers was created to provide members of the Correllian Tradition with the means of gathering together to collectively promote the weaving of peace into the fabric of society through meditation, prayer, Reiki, visualization, spell working, ritual, creative writing, intentional art and music, and other positive energy work and light work, with harm to none, and for the highest good of all concerned.

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.

For more information, please find us at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/orderofpeaceweavers/> or contact moonraven3x3@yahoo.com.
