Pagan Calendar May 30 – 5 June

May 30 On this date in the year 1431, French heroine and military leader Joan of Arc was burned alive at the stake as punishment for committing the crimes of Witchcraft, heresy, and "being given to the forbidden arts of magic and divination."

May 31 On this day, the annual Triple Blessing of the God Buddha is observed by Theravada Buddhists. To celebrate the god's birth, enlightenment, and passage into nirvana, shrines and houses are decorated with flowers and special prayer flags. Offerings of flowers, incense, and rice are also made. The Triple Blessing often lasts for three consecutive days.

June 1 Festival of the Oak Nymph. This Pagan celebration honors all hamadryads (female nature spirits who are believed to inhabit oak trees). Decorate a Pagan altar with acorns and wear some oak leaves in your hair. Kiss an oak tree or place a small offering of some kind before it, and the tree nymphs who dwell within it will surely bestow a blessing upon you.

June 2 Shapatu of Ishtar. A Pagan festival dedicated to the goddess Ishtar is celebrated every year on this date. She is the ancient Assyrian and Babylonian deity who presides over love and fertility as well as war. The birth of the god Apollo is also celebrated on this date.

June 3 The Festival of Cataclysmos is celebrated annually on this date on the Mediterranean island of Cyprus. The seaside ritual consists of prayers for the souls of the departed, traditional water games, and a sacred dance.

In Japan, a Buddhist ritual for young girls is performed annually on this date, and is dedicated to the goddesses Befana, Bona Dea, Kuan Yin, Rumina, and Surabhi.

June 4 Whitsunday, an annual Christian festival marking the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the disciples, is celebrated on the seventh Sunday after Easter (which normally falls on or near this date). However, like most Christian holidays, Whitsunday was at one time a Pagan fertility festival. It was celebrated in Europe with a "heathen feast" that marked the death of the spirit of Winter and the birth of the spirit of Summer.

According to English folklore, if a baby comes into the world on Whitsunday, he or she is destined to commit an act of murder or to be murdered.

June 5 On this date in the year 8498 B.C., the legendary island-continent of Atlantis sank beneath the waves of the Atlantic Ocean in a cataclysm believed to have been brought on by the anger of the great god Zeus.

To ensure an abundant harvest, a sacred Corn Dance is held each year at this time at San Ildefonso pueblo in the southwestern United States. It is dedicated to the Earth Mothers and the nature spirits known as the Rain People.

Legends and Lore for June

The name of the month 'June' is said to derive from 'Juno', 'Junios' known as the sixth month and the 'Great Mother' to the Romans. As part of the seasonal calendar June is the time of the 'Mead Moon' according to Pagan beliefs and the period described as the 'Moon of Making Fat, of Fatness' by Black Elk (Black Elk Speaks, Neihardt). June has also been known as:

'Zomermaand' (Summer month)....Old Dutch
'Sere-monath' (Dry month) 'Lida oerra' (Joy time).....Old Saxon

According to the Celtic calendar this is the second month of 'Beltaine', (also Beltane) a time associated with healing, within nature, of the body and of the spirit. Herbs were an extremely vital part of the seasonal calendar used in a range of remedies and preventative medicines.

The Rowan or Mountain Ash was amongst the most central to pagan beliefs in the ability to ward off negative energies. Here, in June, plants feature strongly in the spiritual and emotional needs of man as well as solving more pressing physical ones. The healing powers indicate a direct link to the deities, and the benefits were thought, in pagan and Celtic beliefs to be a sign of a higher intervention.

Water too has purified the spirit and body, and here Man's association with nature again returns to the awareness of Creation and his stewardship of the earth.

The results of holistic medicine do exist in today's society, although often scientifically disputed, and are held to have worked throughout many belief systems. The folklore of the animal, tree and plant kingdom are readily employed in what has recently been labeled as alternative medicine. Perhaps as publicity increases man will once more return in greater numbers to the daily and seasonal practices of our ancestors, and superstition will finally be accepted as fact and not guesswork.

'I will cull my plantlet,
As a prayer to my King,
To quiet the wrath of men of blood,
To check the wiles of wanton women.'

Alexander Carmichael, The Sun Dances, Prayers and Blessings from the Gaelic

As part of the astrological calendar, June has many associations. This is the month of the house of Gemini (May 22 - June 21) and the house of Cancer (22 June - July 22).

Magical ingredient of the week: Bayberry

Rev. Electra

The ruler of this herb is Saturn and in magic we use its oil, its bark and its root. Burn candles scented with bayberry oil for prosperity and protection. You can also sprinkle powdered root on your money to attract more money or you can rub some into your wallet to protect it.

A-Z of Divination

Alectryomancy is a form of divination using birds. Often a black hen or a gamecock. The diviner will sprinkle grain and the ground and allow the birds to peck. When the birds have finished, the diviner will then interpret the patterns left by the birds on the ground.

Aleuromancy was a divination method that was popular with the ancient Greeks. Sentences were composed that were written on very small pieces of paper and rolled up into balls of flour.

The balls were then mixed up nine times and given to those seeking information on their future.

This form of divination was presided over by Apollo.

Alphitomancy is a form of divination using a barley leaf. It is used to identify a thief or criminal.

Pieces of the leaf were given to a group of suspects. If you were innocent you would feel no effects, but if you were guilty you would become sick.

Amniomancy is a form of divination that uses the membrane which sometimes covers the head of a new born child. Divination of this sort is only done by a woman. The woman will inspect the membrane and predict the future of the baby.

Anthropomancy was a barbaric form of divination that involved using human entrails. These were usually those of a young virgin child. The magician Julian the Apostate sacrificed young children during his rituals in order to evaluate their entrails. Anthropomancy was also practiced in ancient Egypt.

Ariolists were ancient diviners who divined by means of the alter. The Ariolists consulted demons on their alters. They divined by the movement of the alter, which may tremble or do something else.

Arithmancy is a Chaldean and Greek method of divination by numbers. The Chaldeans divided their alphabet into three sections of seven letters and linked these to the seven planets. The Greeks would analyze the names of opponents and predict the outcome of a contest. Arithmancy is a precursor to numerology.

Aximancy is a form of divination using an axe. It was this form of divination that was used to predict the ruin of Jerusalem. There are two methods of Axinomancy. One method involves use of an Agate. A round Agate must be produced. The head of the axe is heated red hot and placed so its edge is standing perpendicularly in the air. The Agate is placed on the edge. If it remains there, it is a negative sign. If it rolls away and does this three times it is a positive sign.

Spell of the Week

CRYSTAL AND COLOR VISUALIZATION SPELL FOR HEALING

Invoke the Goddess and God.

Light some candles and herbs of the correct healing property.

Place the crystal in between the Goddess and God candle and say:

O great goddess

Shine your lunar ray of light upon this crystal

Great Goddess

Charge this stone with healing power

O great God

Shine you solar ray of light upon this crystal

Great God empower this stone with your magic light

Blessed be

Now touch the crystal with your left hand and visualize a Luna and solar ray of light shining down on the crystal. Feel the energies flowing through the stone.

Now hold the crystal with its point toward your body with your right hand and visualize a light of the correct healing color radiating from the crystal to the area of you body where you are sick.

Imagine the light healing your body.

Now point the crystal away from your body and visualize the negative energies moving out of your body through the crystal. This rite is over.

Stargazing Information

There's a planet pile-up in the east shortly before dawn this month. Venus — the brightest object in the night sky after the Moon — is the dominant player as the month begins, but Jupiter, which ranks right behind Venus, takes over by month's end. Mercury briefly joins them, but it's much fainter. Mars is also nearby, but it is closer to the Sun and almost impossible to find in the dawn glare.

This Week's Stargazing Tips

May 30, 2011

The brilliant planet Venus stands just to the right of the crescent Moon as dawn twilight paints the sky tomorrow. They are quite low in the sky, but with a clear horizon you should be able to pick them out. Mars is to the upper right of Venus, and binoculars will help you find it.

May 31, 2011

A partial eclipse will streak across the Arctic tomorrow as the new Moon partially covers the Sun. It will be visible from Alaska, but not the Lower 48 states. The Moon will return to view as a crescent low in the west on Thursday evening.

June 1, 2011

Asteroid 2009 BD will pass about 200,000 miles from Earth today, which is less than the distance to the Moon. The truck-sized boulder is too small to see without a good-sized telescope.

June 2, 2011

Look toward the east and northeast late this evening for the Summer Triangle. Its brightest point, Vega, rises first. Look to its lower left for Deneb, the "tail" of Cygnus, the swan. And to its lower right is Altair, in Aquila, the eagle.

June 3, 2011

The Sun, Moon, and planets move in front of the zodiac, the "pathway of animals." The only inanimate member of the zodiac is Libra, the scales of justice. Libra arcs across the southern sky this evening. Its four main stars form a lopsided square.

June 4, 2011

Procyon, the brightest star of Canis Minor, the little dog, is well to the lower left of the Moon as darkness falls. Pollux and Castor, the "twins" of Gemini, are about the same distance to the upper right of the Moon.

June 5, 2011

Cygnus, the swan, is beginning its climb to prominence in the summer sky. It is low in the east and northeast a couple of hours after sunset. Its long, graceful body runs parallel to the horizon, with its wings stretched to either side.

Poetry Place

The White Goddess By Robert Graves

All saints revile her, and all sober men
Ruled by the God Apollo's golden mean -
In scorn of which we sailed to find her
In distant regions likeliest to hold her
Whom we desired above all things to know,
Sister of the mirage and echo.

It was a virtue not to stay,
To go our headstrong and heroic way
Seeking her out at the volcano's head,
Among pack ice, or where the track had faded
Beyond the cavern of the seven sleepers:
Whose broad high brow was white as any leper's,
Whose eyes were blue, with rowan-berry lips,
With hair curled honey-coloured to white hips.

The sap of Spring in the young wood a-stir
Will celebrate with green the Mother,
And every song-bird shout awhile for her;
But we are gifted, even in November
Rawest of seasons, with so huge a sense
Of her nakedly worn magnificence
We forget cruelty and past betrayal,
Heedless of where the next bright bolt may fall.

Prison Ministry Formal Shrine

The Prison Ministry Formal Shrine is to function as a bridge to breach the gap between inmates that are still called by Deity and who want to learn and/or correspond with members of the Correllian Tradition. This is a dedicated group that will not judge others' past, but help them pave a way into their future growth.

If you are interested in or already assisting with any type of Prison Ministry, please consider joining. You are required to be a registered member of the Correllian Nativist Tradition and at least 21 years of age. I am looking for people to assist with correspondence, and possible mentoring of inmates. If interested, please sign up at the following group:

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Podcast

Wiccan blog and podcast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

The Order of World Walkers

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystal High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be
Krystal

Order of Peace Weavers

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.
