30 DAYS OF ADVOCACY AGAINST WITCH-HUNTS!

The "Burning Times" are not history -they are now.

"Since the 1980's thousands of innocent men and women have been accused of being witches or of using witchcraft. Many have been murdered by their communities without trial. Many more have been banished from their villages, their homes destroyed and members of their families murdered or forced to flee in fear of their lives." (From the 30 Days of Advocacy Website)

From Monday 29 March through Tuesday 27 April people around the world will join together for 30 days of advocacy against the scourge of Witch-hunts plaguing Africa. Please join this campaign!

Arthurian Legends Camelot Part C

Who is the real Arthur

Possibly the earliest reference about come from Y Gododdin written by the Welsh poet, Aneirin, c. 6th century. Here, the poem only mentioned his name, once, referring to a warrior in the poem as being brave "bBut he was no Arthur".

He charged before three hundred of the finest,
He cut down both centre and wing,
He excelled in the forefront of the noblest host,
He gave gifts of horses from the herd in winter.
He fed black ravens on the rampart of a fortress
Though he was no Arthur.

Y Gododdin

by Aneirin (c. 6th century)

Translated by A.O.H. Jarman

This extract is not actually talking about Arthur, but another warrior who couldn't match Arthur in prowess in battle. There is no detail of who this Arthur was. Though, the poem was attributed to have existed in the 6th century, Gododdin was actually preserved as extant work, in the manuscript called Book of Aneirin, in c. 1250.

The earliest tale where Arthur had more active role in early Welsh literature come from Culhwch and Olwen (before AD 1100), one of eleven tales found in the Mabinogion.

Other tales found in the Mabinogion were composed of later date from Dream of Rhonabwy and the three Welsh romances: Geriant, Owein and Peredur. The last three mentioned parallel to those tales found in Chretien de Troyes' three Arthurian romances – Erec, Yvain and Perceval, which were may have been composed earlier than the Welsh versions.

So why did Geoffrey of Monmouth composed the warrior king of Britain? At the time, there was a change of order in Britain. Earlier, the Saxons and Angles had invaded Britain, driving the Britons (Romano-Celts) into Wales, Scotland and Brittany between the 5th and early 7th century. But in his time, the Normans from Normandy became the new masters of England, since the Battle of Hastings in 1066. Geoffrey was writing at the time of turmoil after the death of Henry I and in the reign of King Stephen (1135-1154), a period of anarchy and civil war.

It could have been that Geoffrey wanted to give them a British hero, an identity to their pasts, like that of Charlemagne (768-814) in France and Germany.

Charlemagne was the king of the Franks and the first Holy Roman Emperor, who had gained legendary status through a large collection of French epic poems or songs, known as the chanson de geste ("song of deeds"). But unlike Arthur, Charlemagne was a true historical figure.

These epic poems were written between 1100 and 1500, and dealing with barons who fought for or against Charlemagne and his son Louis the Pious. Charlemagne had formed a group of heroes, known as the Twelve Peers (Twelve Paladins), which were almost as famous as the Knights of the Round Table. They were formidable knights who excelled in combat. The best knight was Charlemagne's nephew, Roland. Roland and his sword Durendal were often mentioned in other texts. And even in Geoffrey's History, he had mentioned Gerin of Chartres as one of heroes of the Twelve Peers, who had fought in Arthur's army against Rome.

The earliest chanson was that of Le Chanson de Roland (Song of Roland), c. 1100, was also the masterpiece in the chanson de geste, recorded the Battle of Roncesvalles (Roncevaux) in 778. It was the Saracens, not the historical Basques, who ambushed the rearguard force, led by Roland. The force was annihilated from numerically superior forces, but Charlemagne avenged their death by defeating a Saracen army.

Though, Geoffrey was neither the earliest nor the best writer of the Arthurian legend, his contribution had at least sparked creativity among later writers so that the Arthurian legend had surpassed the legend of Charlemagne.

While there are still people seeking the mysterious light of the elusive Grail and with champions like Lancelot and the knights of the Round Table defending the kingdom and the damsels, Arthur appeared very much alive today as he did in the Middle Ages

THE OFFICIAL EARTH DAY 2010 CAMPAIGN

April 22, 2010

Forty years after the first Earth Day, the world is in greater peril than ever. While climate change is the greatest challenge of our time, it also presents the greatest opportunity – an unprecedented opportunity to build a healthy, prosperous, clean energy economy now and for the future.

Earth Day 2010 can be a turning point to advance climate policy, energy efficiency, renewable energy and green jobs. Earth Day Network is galvanizing millions who make personal commitments to sustainability. Earth Day 2010 is a pivotal opportunity for individuals, corporations and governments to join together and create a global green economy. Join the more than one billion people in 190 countries that are taking action for Earth Day.

<http://www.earthday.org/>

Climate Change

While climate change is often used interchangeably with “global warming,” usage of the term climate change is becoming more common, because the term encompasses a variety of significant environmental changes, rather than just rising temperatures. According to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, climate change refers to “any significant change in measures of climate (such as temperature, precipitation or wind), lasting for an extended period (decades or longer). Climate change may result from:

- Natural factors, such as changes in the sun’s intensity or slow changes in the Earth’s orbit around the sun;
- Natural processes within the climate system (e.g. changes in ocean circulation);
- Human activities that change the atmosphere’s composition (e.g. through burning fossil fuels) and the land surface (e.g. deforestation, reforestation, urbanization, desertification, etc.).”

Global Warming

- Global warming is an average increase in the temperature of the atmosphere near the earth’s surface and in the oceans. Like climate change, global warming can be caused by a variety of factors, both natural and man-made.
- Global warming is also sometimes referred to as the greenhouse effect. The greenhouse effect is specifically the rise in the earth’s temperature because concentrations of gases in the atmosphere (e.g., carbon dioxide, nitrous oxide, methane) prevent heat from escaping back into space.

The Importance of Climate Change

Climate change has a significant impact on human activities, including where we can live (rising waters threaten low-lying areas such as New Orleans or much of the Netherlands); the food that can be grown (both drought and flood can wipe out food crops, threatening entire populations); and how and where food can be grown or harvested. In the past few years, science has made it clear that climate change is real and needs to be addressed now.

Beltane Crafts

Altar Maypole

For many people, a Maypole Dance is the best way ever to celebrate the fertility holiday of Beltane... but let's face it, you may not have the ability to do that. Not everyone can stick a 20-foot pole in their yard, or you may not even know enough other Pagans (or Pagan-friendly non-Pagans) to have a Maypole Dance in the first place. If that's the case, there's a much smaller alternative. You can easily make a Maypole to put on your Beltane altar.

For this simple craft project, you'll need the following:

- A 1" thick dowel rod, about a foot long
- A wooden circle, about 4" in diameter
- Pieces of ribbon in various colors, about 2 feet long each
- A hot glue gun

Use the hot glue gun to attach the dowel rod to the center of the wooden circle. Once the glue has dried, you can stain or paint the wood if you choose. Attach the center of each ribbon to the top of the dowel rod, as shown in Figure 1.

Use the Maypole as a centerpiece on your altar. You can braid the ribbons as a meditation tool, or include it in ritual. Optional: add a small floral crown around the bottom to represent the feminine fertility of the Sabbat, as shown in the photo.

Solitary Beltane Ritual

Preparation and Setup:

This Ritual shall be performed at whatever time of day or night you prefer. The corresponding time would be midmorning, as dawn represents Springtime, and noon does Summertime.

Sweep area, starting in the North and moving deosil, with your magickal broom to cleanse the Circle area and "sweep away" any lingering negative energies.

Set up the Quarter candles (North-Green, East-Yellow, South-Red, West-Blue) and/or other items symbolizing the elements at the Four Quarters.

Set up your altar as desired, and face it to the North, covering it with a white or dark green altar cloth.#

For this ceremony, decorate the altar with seasonal flowers of any color of the rainbow spectrum (silk are acceptable), along with whatever else feels right.

In addition to your usual tools and props, upon the altar should be:

White or Dark Green Altar Cloth

Symbol or Statue to represent your Household Guardian

Small Cauldron with a Dark Green Candle inside

A Bell

Wood Chips from Birch, Oak, Rowan (Ash), Willow, Hawthorne, Hazel, Apple, Vine and Fir (to burn in the cauldron)

(Note: it is not absolutely necessary to get all of these different woods, but do the best you can.)

Athame (for Great Rite Ceremony)

Chalice (for Great Rite Ceremony)

Incense - Any of the following either alone or mixed together:

Lilac, Jasmine, Frankincense, Myrrh, Dragon's Blood, Cinnamon, Nutmeg, Sage, Strawberry, Orange Peel, and Rose Petals (and charcoal if using powdered or granulated incense)

When all is set up, take a shower or bath for purification and don your Ritual Robe or other Ritual attire. Be sure to wear your Magickal jewelry, if you have any.

Sit quietly and meditate for a little while - to ground and center.

When you feel ready to begin, play some quiet peaceful music for the Ritual.

Cast the Circle... begin the Beltane Sabbat Ceremony by sitting quietly for a few moments, then say these words aloud:

"Blessed be this day of Beltane, Wedding day of the Goddess and the God.

Holy day of Sacred Marriage, Holy night of Sacred Union.

The fertile Goddess of Summer walks through the land With the Great Horned God of the Forest, And the dark time of Winter is behind me.

Ring the bell seven times, then continue, saying:

"The animals breed and the plants pollinate, As the May Queen and Green Man bestow Their blessings upon the Earth and Earth's creatures.

I, (magickal name) who am Their child, rejoice with Them and ask that Their happy union become the example for all humanity to live in love and harmony.

Light the candle in the cauldron and say:

"The dark days are cleared away so that the May Day can now begin!"

As you drop the wood chips one by one into the flame in the cauldron, state the properties of each, as follows... (be careful, and use a small cauldron that can be covered with a snuffer or lid in case things get out of hand --- you don't need to use a lot of chips, just a little for the symbology).

Say:

"I burn thee Birch to honor the Goddess; and now add thee Oak to honor the God.
Thou Rowan I add for a magickal life; and add thee Willow to celebrate death.
Thou Hawthorne I burn for fairies near me; thou Hazel I burn for wisdom you bring.
I add thee good Apple to bring me love; and thou Vine whose fruit is the symbol of joy.
Fir you are added as the symbol of rebirth; your sweet scent reminds me of my immortality.
My blessings I give to all of thee, and thy blessings I call from thee upon me.

So as I will, So Mote It Be!"

At this point, you will perform the Great Rite (symbolically).

Some Wiccan Traditions insist that a Pagan working solitary cannot properly perform this act. Since the act is a symbolic one, there is no reason you cannot make it a part of your ceremony alone.

Take your athame in your right hand, and your chalice in your left, and hold them in front of you. See them as the Earthly vessels of deity.

Now say these words:

"I greet the time of unions and give honor to the Lord and the Lady for Their fruitfulness!
Tonight (today) I witness the marriage of my Goddess and God.
May Their union be fertile and productive!"

Slowly lower the athame blade into the chalice and feel the union of the deities.

Say:

"As They are one, They become one.
As They become one, They are one.
And I am also one with Them."

Raise the athame and chalice, still united, to your forehead to honor this union of the three of you. Place them back upon the altar.

Now dance or at least march around the altar, beginning in the North, and moving deosil.

Pause to greet each Elemental quarter with outstretched arms.

Move back in front of the altar when you are finished.

Now pick up the symbol of your house Guardian, concentrate on these words, as you say aloud:

"Lovely Lady and Great Horned Lord, I present to You the Guardian of this house which is my home.

I have invited this Special Spirit into my home as my protector and helper in all things.

I honor this Spirit in this symbol of its being. Great Ones, bless this Guardian of this Home. And to Your blessings, I add my thanks.

Blessed be!"

You should now lightly anoint the Guardian symbol or statue with some appropriate oil.

If the symbol is such that it cannot be oiled, at least swing the smoking incense burner around it.

When you have finished and you are ready, the time is now here to perform any works of magic or spells, follow then by the Cakes & Ale Ceremony, and finally, Releasing the Circle.

This Completes the Beltane Sabbat Ritual.

Poets Retreat

Bonfires

A circle gathered round a roaring pit
All joining hands to bask within it's glow
And under Moon crowned sky all starry lit
We sing and praise the Power's shadowed flow.

For some the flames form dancing Dragon's wing
And other smoke wrought visions climb the air
For all a caring closeness will this bring
And psychic current bonding hearts to share.

We charge this timeless place between the worlds
To call the Goddesses love within our hearts
And join with her our joyous souls unfurled
Our spirits dance with her by ancient arts.

This night forever captured in this glade
To see old souls re-met and friendships made.

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be
Krystel
