Summer Solstice

Solstice, Midsummer or Litha means a stopping or standing still of the sun. It is the longest day of the year and the time when the sun is at its maximum elevation.

This date has had spiritual significance for thousands of years as humans have been amazed by the great power of the sun. The Celts celebrated with bonfires that would add to the sun's energy, Christians placed the feast of St John the Baptist towards the end of June and it is also the festival of Li, the Chinese Goddess of light.

Like other religious groups, Pagans are in awe of the incredible strength of the sun and the divine powers that create life. For Pagans this spoke in the Wheel of the Year is a significant point. The Goddess took over the earth from the horned God at the beginning of spring and she is now at the height of her power and fertility. For some Pagans the Summer Solstice marks the marriage of the God and Goddess and see their union as the force that creates the harvest's fruits.

This is a time to celebrate growth and life but for Pagans, who see balance in the world and are deeply aware of the ongoing shifting of the seasons it is also time to acknowledge that the sun will now begin to decline once more towards winter.

When celebrating midsummer Pagans draw on diverse traditions. In England thousands of Pagans and non-Pagans go to places of ancient religious sites such as Stonehenge and Avebury to see the sun rising on the first morning of summer.

Local celebrations

In addition to the large events at major sites such as Stonehenge, many more Pagans hold small ceremonies in open spaces, everywhere from gardens to woodlands.

Wiccan Blessing for Summer

As the sun spirals its longest dance,
Cleanse us
As nature shows bounty and fertility
Bless us
Let all things live with loving intent
And to fulfill their truest destiny

How Does Reiki Work?

by Anja Heij

"Where are you searching for me, friend? Look! Here am I right within you. Not in temple, nor in mosque, not in Kaaba nor Kailas, but here right within you am I"

Kabir

How does Reiki work? The best answer is: we don't know.

This may be highly dissatisfying, but the great advantage is that if we don't understand this energy there's no way we can abuse it. Since we're dealing here with strong energy you may consider yourself lucky that mankind does not understand it. Sorry to say so.

Reiki works with intent, which is focused energy expressing a desire to bring more positive energy into your life, somebody else's life or the world. Once you have stated this intent the Reiki will flow and you don't need to remain concentrated on channelling this healing energy. (Which makes giving (distance) Reiki when you are travelling by bus or train a meaningful spending of your time.) The universal life-energy first enters the energy system of the healer who passes it on, usually with the hands, to the healee. In the physical body this energy travels through the brains and nervous system. In our energetical bodies it travels through the chakras, meridians and the central channel along the spine.

Important to know is that Reiki does not deplete the giver since the healer does not give from his own energy. One taps into the universal force and after a treatment both the healer and healee will feel better. Another important fact is that Reiki heals causes, not just the results (symptoms). This makes Reiki a deep acting healing method with from time to time unpredictable effects; you don't always consciously know which part of your life needs healing mostly, but the Reiki does and will first heal that area. Usui names Reiki 'intuitive' for it knows where it is needed; Reiki seems to have its own intelligence and it respects one's free will.

It is unknown what the origins, total quantity and ways of working of life-energy are. It can not be defined more clearly than stating that it comes from Source, God/Goddess, Spirit or The Force. It is an important connection with divinity. And it can be characterized as highly vibrational, completely positive, gentle, loving, encompassing, harmonizing and therefore healing. I'm not in for negative workings, but when I (by means of test) try to think of something negative in relation to using Reiki, my mind simply goes blank, nothing happens. As far as I know and have heard in twenty years of experience Reiki can only be used in positive ways.

A Fire Scrying Spell

Needed:

A candle or other type of flame, preferably within the circle.

Site before the fire.

Still your mind.

Gaze into the fire.

Once you are at peace, whisper:

"Blazing fire
As you dance
Give me now the
Secret glance
Call upon my
Second Sight
Make me psychic
With your light
Blazing fire
Shining bright
Give me now the
Second Sight.

Repeat till eyelids close/become heavy. Divine future within the flames.

NOTES: Can also be used for past-life exploration, best done near or on Samhain night.

Goddess Werethekau

Also known as Urthekau and Weret Hekau, was the ancient Egyptian personification of supernatural powers, weret hekau meaning "she who is rich in magic" or "she who is great in spells" or the like.

In myth

As a deity dedicated to protection, she often appeared on funerary objects, particularly weapons, to allow the deceased to protect him or herself against the dangers of the underworld. She also was placed on ivory knives as a charm to protect pregnant and nursing mothers.

Her power was one of the inherent qualities of the Crowns of Egypt. As goddess of the crowns she was a snake or a lion-headed woman and dwelt in the state sanctuary. As the wife of Ra-Horakhty she is depicted with his solar disk on her head. Werethekau was an epithet frequently conferred on Isis, Sekhmet, Mut, and others.

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Werethekau>

Weret-hekau (Urthekau) was a lion headed goddess who was also depicted as a snake with the head of a woman. She was the wife of Re-Horakhty and wore his symbol (the sun disc) on her head along with a cobra on her brow. She protected the sun god and acted as a wet nurse for the pharaohs. The pharaoh in part derived his right to rule from his mother, who would normally be the previous king's Great Wife. As a result it was sometimes suggested that the queen became the goddess when she bore the next pharaoh. This myth was referred to by Hatshepsut, a female Pharaoh, to help support the legitimacy of her rule.

Her name means "great magician" and she was known as "She Who is Rich in Magic Spells" prompting some to suggest that she was not actually a distinct goddess, but a form of Isis. As she took either the form of a lion or a snake and protected the sun god, she is also associated with Wadjet and Sekhmet and the story of the "eye of Ra".

Because she was a powerful symbol of protection, her name along with the symbol of a snake often appears on magical weapons buried with the dead to help them protect themselves in the underworld. Her name also appears on ivory knives which were supposed to protect pregnant and nursing women.

Poets Retreat

The Man in the Moon Cried Out Today

The man in the moon cried out today.
It seems his lover went away.
The stars wept sparkling tears for his pain.
Would he ever see her again?
She left as he slept and the sun brightly shone,
She left his beautiful lunar home.
Why did she go and to where?
His beautiful maiden so fair -
The stars gathered him into their light,
They tried to save him from his blight.
But sorrow his heart did fill,
And the lunar light ceased to spill,
To light our way in the night -
So we're cursed to the dark with no light.

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be
Krystel
