Pagan Calendar August 16 - 22

August 16. Salem Heritage Day in Massachusetts

On this date in the year 1987, the first Harmonic Convergence as observed worldwide during the Grand Trine (the alignment of all nine planets in our solar system). The event, which lasted for two consecutive days, was believed to be the beginning of five years of peace and spiritual purification. Thousands of New Age enthusiasts gathered at various sacred sites to dance, chant, meditate, and tune into the positive energies of the Earth and the universe.

August 17. Festival of Diana. Every year on this date, the goddess of chastity, hunting, and the moon was honored by the ancient Romans.

This is a special day of feasting, mirth, and magic-making for many Dianic Wiccans, since Diana is the most sacred goddess of their tradition.

On this date in the year 1950, Oglala Sioux mystic and medicine man Nicholas Black Elk died in Manderson, South Dakota. He was known for his great powers of prophecy and healing, and was an adherent of the Ghost Dance, a short-lived Native American religious movement which ended in a tragic massacre at Wounded Knee, South Dakota, in 1890.

August 18. On this date, the annual Festival of Hungry Ghosts is celebrated throughout China with burnt offerings to the spirits of the dead.

On this date in the year 1634, a parish priest named Father Urbain Grandier was found guilty of bewitching a group of nuns at a convent in Loudun, France, and causing them to be possessed by demons. He was condemned to be tortured and then burned alive in the public square of Saint Croix.

August 19. In ancient Rome, a wine-harvest celebration known as the Vinalia Rustica was held each year on this date. It was dedicated to the goddess Venus of the Grape Vine and also to Minerva.

On this date in the year 1692, the Reverend George Burroughs and John Willard were put to death on Salem's infamous Gallows Hill as punishment for the crime of Witchcraft.

August 20. On this date in the year 1612, ten women and men known as the Lancashire Witches were executed on the gallows in one of England's most famous Witch trials of the seventeenth century. Ironically, the nine-year-old girl who had supplied the court with incriminating evidence against the Witches was herself found guilty of Witchcraft twenty-two years later and executed in the second great Witch trial of Lancashire.

August 21. The Consualia, a harvest festival celebrating the storing of the new crop, was held annually on this date by the ancient Romans. Also celebrated on this date was the muscular deity Hercules, who was honored with a sacrifice at one of his shrines in the city of Rome. His annual festival was called the Heraclia.

August 22. On this date in the year 1623, the Order of the Rosy Cross (a secret sect associated with alchemy and reincarnation) was established in Paris, France. The mysterious Rosicrucian brotherhood was condemned by officials of the Church as worshipers of Satan.

This day is sacred to Nu Kwa, an ancient Chinese goddess identified with the healing goddess Kuan Yin.

Creating Abundance

by Owen Waters

Nature is a constant reminder of the principle of abundance.

Nature routinely produces more than it needs, thousands of times over. Rather than producing one acorn to grow a replacement oak tree, a mature oak will produce up to 50,000 acorns in a good year, and the tree will keep producing for hundreds of years.

That is the natural way.

Plants produce thousands of seeds in order to guarantee the survival of their species.

That is the natural way.

When Infinite Being created the universe, did it stop there? Not at all, it created an infinite number of universes so that all possibilities of existence could be experienced.

That is the infinite way.

Limited thinking makes people believe that resources are limited, that there is only “so much” available. While this appears to be true at the time, it ignores the fact that you can create new abundance in many ways.

Did the number of horses in the 19th Century limit how easily people can travel today? Not at all. The car was invented, along with today’s 200-horsepower engines.

Did the cost of a large business computer in 1970 limit how much computing power we have today? Not at all. The personal computer changed all that. Today, home computers are more powerful than the largest business computers were in 1970.

Did the cost of flying into outer space in the 1960s limit people’s ability to go on tourist trips to Mars today? Well, okay... a little more work needs to be done on that one!

Since nature is so abundant, how can people tap into that abundance and create it in their own lives? It certainly doesn’t happen by making loud demands at a conscious level, or just by wishing, wanting, or hoping. It is human consciousness which creates lack, and it is also human consciousness which creates abundance.

The realization that abundance is a natural state actually allows abundance to flow into your life.

Natural abundance comes from “getting into the flow,” from either getting excited about what you are doing, or by doing something new that is exciting.

Follow Your Inner Joy

“Follow your inner joy” may sound like an overused cliché, but it is actually the key to abundance. Once you follow your excitement and find work that you love, then synchronicity starts to flow. Synchronicity is nature's way of telling you that you're on the right track, the natural track.

Synchronicity is a flow of events where everything clicks into place to support your efforts. It brings you opportunities, people, events and circumstances exactly when and where they need to be. This all happens because your efforts are harmonious. The universe is naturally harmonious. It has to be that way, in order to function successfully. Harmony is balance, while disharmony is a dysfunction that makes a system fall apart. The universe will naturally support your efforts when they are in harmony, or "in the flow."

What do you need to do to achieve this natural state of harmony, synchronicity and abundant flow? Here is the key question.

Ask yourself, "What is the most exciting thing that I could possibly be doing right now to enhance my long-term, inner joy?"

The state of regular, conscious thinking often contains self-limiting 'filters' like fear, scepticism or lack of self-esteem. So, for the most inspired and imaginative results, ask the above question near the end of a deep, 20-minute meditation session. That way, your inner possibilities can come forward into your consciousness without being filtered.

Then, find a way to do that most exciting possibility. And when you have finished doing that, ask yourself the same question again. Usually, the answer will be something in the same direction as your first act, although not always.

Inner joy is your barometer of natural flow. Use it to determine what action is the most important in developing your experience of life. Find ways to dissolve self-limiting barriers so that you can act upon that inner joy.

To follow your inner joy is to live holistically because you are acting with more of your complete self. It lightens up your spirit, allowing you to function at a higher frequency of consciousness.

If you are considering a career change, practical considerations do need to be considered. Will pursuing your inner joy earn you an adequate living? If you need to learn an entirely new skill, often the learning phase has to be a part-time endeavor while you earn a living using your existing skills.

The great thing about doing work you love is that everyone can sense the living joy within you. Employers want you to work for them. Customers seek you out, based upon word-of-mouth recommendations. Larger companies want to buy your prosperous business for an amount that's large enough for you to retire. But then, why would you sell out when you're having so much fun?

Spell of the Week

SPELL BINDER

This is best used at the end of a spoken or written spell.

This adds a certain boost to the releasing of energy.

It also works best if you are wearing a Pentagram you have attuned to yourself.

Speak these word with all the fibres of your body while releasing the spell's energy:

By the Pentagram I wear,

Water, Fire, Earth, and Air,

Ruled by Spirit as All should be

As I speak

So Mote It Be!

A GENERAL CHARGE FOR SPELL WORK

The following chant is a good all purpose chant that can be used for just about any spell:

Witches power burning bright, tarot, rune and blade,

Charge the spell, enfilled with might, here and now the magic's made.

Wave and tree, hedge and flame, strength of the elements gather here, to bless this work and charge it well, to complete the spell now far or near.

Mystic Moon and Brilliant Sun, send your power here this way,

Gracious Lady, Mighty Lord, bless this charge that I lay.

Powers that are, powers that be, gather round this spell I cast, empower my working three times three, send it forth to see it last! So Shall it Be!

How to Meditate For Beginners

Straightforward Way to Begin Today

By popoty fatlossfo

Making the selection to learn a way to meditate is a superb decision! Bravo! Learning how to meditate for beginners is fairly simple once you get a basic technique underneath your belt. From there it's just apply, practice, practice.

Any type of meditation you'll be able to do each day is going to benefit you in ways you never thought possible. The emotional, mental, physical and spiritual balance you will expertise can function proof your efforts are improving your health.

There are tons of various ways to meditate. However to induce you started, lets keep it straightforward and begin out by specializing in breathing. It is necessary to understand there's no wrong or right manner to meditate. Some ways are more effective for a few and not for others. Explore and realize the proper technique for you with no worries and no stress.

The subsequent is a variation of a method I learned some years back. It is an effective meditation and additionally a grounding exercise:

- 1.) Realize a quiet comfortable place to sit down down where you are ready to position your feet on the ground.
- 2.) If your muscles are tense, wiggle around a little bit to slow down, shake it off.
- 3.) Visualize roots growing out of your feet, deep into the earth. Envision the earth's energy being immersed through your feet and revitalizing your body.
- 4.) Envision a string connected to the high of your head. This string is gently being pulled upward, lengthening and straightening your spine. Be aware to not become stiff or rigid.
- 5.) Begin by inhaling through your nose filling your lungs with recent, clean oxygen. Visualize "peace" filling your lungs and being distributed to any or all cells in the body.
- 6.) Exhale through your mouth. Visualize "love" being exhaled from within. Envision a pathway or walkway in front of you and this love filling the path.
- 7.) Permit your breath to fall into an identical pattern and permit it become natural and rhythmic.
- 8.) Take regarding 10 minutes to solely focus on your breath, continuing the rhythm of "peace" and "love". It becomes a mantra of sorts... "peace (inhale)... love (exhale)"... repeat.

It's all about respiration, energy flow and oxygen intake, this is your ultimate goal.

Take a little or as a lot of time as you would like to perform this meditation. Only you may grasp when you're prepared to conclude the exercise. Before you finish, build the decision to be gift and aware during your day. To measure within the moment.

The consequences sometimes are immediate and sometimes they take roughly 20 minutes or so. Create no mistake, if you are taking as very little as 10 minutes out of everyday to meditate, your life can improve in ways you did not understand were possible.

This can be a nice place to start and now that you've got started meditating it's up to you to develop the previous fashioned discipline to try and do it everyday. ;) A nice means to start your day is to add an further fifteen-thirty minutes of meditation time to your traditional morning routine. Just like physical exercise, the a lot of you constantly do it, the higher results you may see.

A Brief Guide on Vampires

by Rev. Karl Ben-Jedi

The Vampir or vampire originated from the Balkan regions of Europe, first being recorded by local clergy around 1100. Then more recently with reported sightings from 1700 to the present day. Historically in a very loose sense of the word "The Vampire" seems to evolve from a local person who has had his sacred space defiled between death and burial.

The early creation and development of a Vampire from the folklore point of view is highly valuable in understanding its movements and habits. Firstly some disturbance takes place in the passage from this life to the next and the individual is found in limbo so to speak. The craving for life is still present even if the astral body cannot reconnect fully with the physical one. At this early stage no life force is present in the individual physical body and to retain some form of life the person becomes a being of spirit needing to draw or feed on the life force of others to become a vampire.

In its infant stage for better use of a word it remains invisible to the naked eye and feeds on diseased or weak animals or cattle. That has no resistance to its early attempts of spiritual attack upon the life force energy that is a spiritual component of the blood. As it slowly gains strength its early physical form will become more visible and will have a roundish almost balloon type shape after feeding and can sometimes be seen to roll away from its victims. In minutes it will slowly become more translucent and then invisible again to then return at great speed to its physical shell, so that the life force and in time blood will diffuse through the body. This process will continue over many weeks or months and prevent the physical body from natural decay. Once this astral link is sufficiently strong and the physical body maintained, the vampire can then move on to fields a new so to speak and start feeding on any being that is sick or ill and unable to resist attack. Once it has been able to form an astral link between the unlucky live donor, the vampire's astral and physical body has achieved a true recycling process.

The vampire's astral body being connected to its own buried physical half, can now take the life force from the donor to store like a battery to strengthen and maintain its existence. The vampire would most likely only feed on one person at a time, until they feel slightly weakened and then locate another donor. Over many months or years it could make its own blood "life force" bank.

However, the vampire is restricted to feeding when the victim is in deep sleep so that the astral body of the victim is slightly out of phase with the physical, leaving the vampire to draw slight amounts of life force away between midnight and daybreak.

How to protect yourself from the Vampire

Spiritual Vampires.

This greatly depends on whether the Vampire is an infant or adult. The Vampire has to grow like any other being and start off life as a parasitic spiritual being that feeds through the astral matrix of the weak and ill.

Protection from these kinds of beings needs to be spiritual in nature. Having an object of Holiness to any belief system you choose will create a protected area, preventing the vampire being able to make an astral connection to you or a loved one. Any Holy symbol will do, however the historical connection of a Crucifix or Cross for both fighting and destroying a Vampire makes it the weapon of choice. The reason for this is the amount of combined psychic energy poured into this symbol over the centuries.

Spiritual & Mental Vampires

Next is when the Vampire now can operate within both the Spiritual and Mental astral planes to start to stimulate a sense of fear in its victims. This causes the blood pressure to rise and enable more life force to be taken in a shorter period of time. It also allows the Vampire to have a wider selection of victims mainly being the weak, ill and now the stressed and depressed. This type of Vampire can lead one into dark and dangerous areas of ones mind, leading to possible mental illness or takings ones own life. Everything and anything from a Spiritual and Mental point of view should be done to break any astral connection and to strengthen ones own spirit and view of life in general. In the traditional sense one would use as many Holy items as possible to make yourself feel protected.

Examples: - Holy Water is always a good place to go and can be obtained online or as part of most Vampire Hunter Kits. It can be used for protection from any Vampire Spiritual or Mental attack by just being present in your home or physically used on items or yourself.

Holy Oil is mainly used to consecrate or dress a candle and any other items or self.

Holy Earth can be used to seal door ways or form a protective circle.

Holy Candles or tapers allow the holy light to shine its protective rays.

Holy Bible or Prayer book helps to strengthen ones resolve and spiritual protection.

Adult Vampires.

The adult Vampire takes a long time to form from two to three years. They have all the attributes of the above, but have now become able to condense and solidify there astral forms for short periods of time into our physical world. These are the more commonly written about Vampires in both Folklore and Fiction. Due to their ability to become solid they pose a much greater risk to their victim and death can occur quickly. It most likely will occur that the Vampire will have the same victim from its Spiritual beginnings and would have formed a kind of symbiotic relationship. If the Vampire is free to gain its life force from others the victim may well survive a repeated adult attack over a lengthy period.

However, if the Vampire is forced to do repeated attacks over a short period the victim will die. The vampire making contact with the departing spirit of its victim can lead it also to become a Vampire. Protection is vital and the Vampire must be located either in its solidified astral form or the burial site. If the astral form can be confronted then puncturing or staking can break the astral connection leading back to the buried body. This violent separation of its astral form causes a lasting disintegration of the Vampire. The grave of the Vampire should be located and a ritualised funeral carried out with Holy water, oil and wine mixed and poured over the grave site. This will allow the physical body to now decay normally and rest in peace. Any well made Vampire Hunter Kit should contain the above, plus any other items deemed appropriate.

THE CHALDEAN LEGEND

Of the dead sciences of the past, there is a fair minority of earnest students who are entitled to learn the few truths that may now be given to them. --H. P. BLAVATSKY

THE Chaldean religion is entirely lost to the world now, except in its disfigured Sabeanism as rendered by archeologists. It is the outcome of three great religions, the Indian, the Mazdean, and the Egyptian, and bears direct relationship to all of these. The Chaldean Book of Numbers was derived from the "Book of Dzyan" described in theosophical literature. And of the Chaldean works which are translated into Arabic and preserved by some Sufi initiates, it is asserted that the public knows nothing. The Sabeans were astrolaters, so called; those who worshipped the stars -- or rather their "regents." Sabeanism was thus the religion of the ancient Chaldees. They believed in one impersonal, universal deific Principle, although they never mentioned It, but offered worship to the solar, lunar, and planetary gods and rulers, regarding the stars and other celestial bodies as their respective symbols. The Chaldeans, or Kasdim, were at first a tribe, and then a caste of learned Kabbalists. They were the savants, the magians of Babylonia, astrologers and diviners. The famous Hillel, the precursor of Jesus in philosophy and ethics, was a Chaldean.

In every cosmogony, behind and higher than the creative Deity there is a superior Deity, a planner, an architect, of whom the Creator is but the executive agent. And still higher, over and around, within and without, there is the UNKNOWABLE and the unknown, the Source and Cause of all these Emanations. In Chaldea the great First Cause as the ONE, the primordial germ, the unrevealed and grand ALL, existing through himself -- was Ilu. This was the Kabbalistic En-Soph (No-thing). Whenever the Eternal awakes from its slumber and desires to manifest itself, it divides itself into male and female. It then becomes in every system the double-sexed Deity, the universal Father and Mother, the Anu-Anata (male-female) of the Chaldeans. From the union of the two a third, or creative Principle -- the SON, or the manifested Logos -- is the product of the Divine Mind. In Chaldea the Son was Bel. Moreover, every such system has a triple male trinity, each proceeding separately through itself from one female Deity. In Chaldea the trinity of Anu, Bel, and Hea, blend into One who is Anu (double-sexed) through the Virgin Mylitta.

To place it still clearer, the Babylonian system recognized first the ONE (Ad), who is never named but only acknowledged in thought, as the Hindu Swayambhuva. From this he becomes manifest as Anu, the one above all -- Monas. Next comes the Demiurge (the "Builder" or executive Architect of the Universe) called Bel, who is the active power of the Godhead. The third is the principle of wisdom, Hea, who also rules the sea and the underworld. Each of these -- Anu, Bel, and Hea -- has his divine consort, giving us Anata, Belta, and Davkina. These, however, are only like the Shaktis, the "forces" of Nature. But the female principle is denoted by Mylitta, the Great Mother, called also Ishtar. With the three male gods we have the Triad, or Trimurti. "The fact is, that all the three 'persons' of the Trimurti are simply three qualitative attributes of the universe of differentiated Spirit-Matter; the self-formative, the self-preserving, and the self-destroying, for purposes of regeneration and perfectibility." With Mylitta added to the Trimurti we have the Arba or Four (Tetraktys of Pythagoras), which perfects and potentializes all.

Bel was the oldest and mightiest of the gods of Babylonia, one of the earliest trinities. He was "Lord of the World," father of the gods and "Lord of the city of Nippur." Hea was the maker of fate, Lord of the Deep, God of Wisdom and esoteric Knowledge, and Lord of the city (i.e., Mysteries) of Eridu. Anu was the earliest god of the city of Erech. The "doctrine of the Trinity" is first met northeast of the Indus; and, tracing it to Asia Minor and Europe, one recognizes it among every people who had anything like an established religion. It was taught in the oldest Chaldean, Egyptian, and Mithraic schools. The Chaldean Sun-god, Mithra, was called "Triple" and the trinitarian idea of the Chaldeans was a doctrine of the Akkadians who, themselves, belonged to a race which was the first to conceive a metaphysical trinity.

According to the archeologist Rawlinson, the Chaldeans were a tribe of the Akkadians who lived in Babylonia from earliest times; but according to others they were Turanians who instructed the Babylonians into the first notions of religion. But these same Akkadians, who were they? The only tradition worthy of credence is that these Akkadians instructed the Babylonians in the Mysteries, and taught them the sacerdotal or Mystery language. These Akkadians were then simply a tribe of the Hindu-Brahmans -- now called Aryans -- and their vernacular language, the Sanskrit of the Vedas; and the sacred or Mystery language, that which, even in our own age, is used by the Hindu fakirs and initiated Brahmans in their magical evocations. They were emigrants on their way to Asia Minor from India, the cradle of humanity, and their sacerdotal adepts tarried to civilize and initiate a barbarian people.

The Babylonian civilization was neither born nor developed in that country. It was imported from India, and the importers were Brahmanical Hindus. Whether the latter were Brahmans from the Brahmanic planisphere proper (40° north latitude) or from India (Hindustan), or again from the India of Central Asia, we will leave to philologists of the future to decide. Science has discovered enough to inform us that Sanskrit originals of Nepal, were translated by Buddhist missionaries into nearly every Asiatic tongue. Likewise Pali manuscripts were translated in Siamese, and carried to Burma and Siam; it is easy therefore to account for the same religious myths circulating in so many countries. But Manetho tells us also of Pali shepherds who emigrated westward; and when we find some of the oldest Ceylonic traditions in the Chaldean Kabbala and Jewish Bible, we must think that either Chaldeans or Babylonians had been in Ceylon or India, or the ancient Pali had the same traditions as the Akkadians, whose origin is so uncertain. Suppose even Rawlinson to be right, that the Akkadians did come from Armenia, he did not trace them farther back. As the field is open to any kind of hypothesis, we submit that this tribe might as well have come to Armenia from beyond the Indus, following their way in the direction of the Caspian Sea -- a part of which was also India once upon a time -- and from thence to the Euxine. Or they might have come originally from Ceylon by the same way.

Genesis is purely a reminiscence of the Babylonian captivity. The names of places, men, and even objects can be traced from the original text to the Chaldeans and the Akkadians, the progenitors and Aryan instructors of the former. The garden of Eden as a locality is no myth at all; it belongs to those landmarks of history which occasionally disclose to the student that the Bible is not all mere allegory. In the Chaldean Book of Numbers the location of Eden is designated by numerals, and in the cipher Rosicrucian manuscript left by Count St. Germain it is fully disclosed. The Elohim may be accepted in one sense for gods or powers, and taken in another one for the Aleim, or priests; the Hierophants initiated into the good and evil of the world. For there was a college of priests called the Aleim, while the head of their caste, or the chief of the hierophants, was known as Java Aleim. In the Chaldean as well as in every exoteric scripture, Beings who refuse to create, i.e., who are said to oppose thereby the Demiurge, are denounced as the spirits of Darkness. The "Fallen Angels" and the legend of the "War in Heaven" is purely pagan in its origin and comes from India via Persia and Chaldea.

Poetry Place

I Don't Understand

I am so scared
I surely don't want to do this
Mother and Father said I must
If I want my place with Allah
I love Allah
why does he want me to do this?
I don't understand
where is Allah now?
I want to ask him why
I pray to Allah night and day
sometimes all day and all night
Mother says this is the way...his way to show others he's to be feared well, I'm afraid of him right now
I'll never see my friends again or my kitty cat or my fish
Mommy says I'm going to live with Allah forever
I wonder if there's an ocean where it is I'm going
I'm not so sure I'll get there in one piece anyway
Father's friends are here right now
they sound very angry, strapping a heavy cage to me
its full of grey blocks what are they? WHAT ARE THEY?
OMG
I'm supposed to wear this cage?
down to the public market
Mommy cries and says I'll meet Allah there
Now I'm ready they said off I go...I'm shaking all over its sooooooooooooo hot this things very uncomfortable
I'm wearing a jacket over it one of daddy's jackets
I cant take it off
there's like...like 6 locks on it
I hope Allah has the keys
Sheesh, if my friends could see me now surely they would laugh
and point at me
Allah? daddy says I'm ready for you
Mommy cried harder and said "be brave"
I don't understand
the markets really crowded
Mothers with their kids
Fathers selling their goods and crop
the sound of laughter's everywhere
I'm not laughing..
I don't understand..
I don't
I...

Correllian Clergy Degree Program

A new membership has been created called the Correllian Clergy Degree Program. This is a 3-year program that can help you earn your Wiccan Degrees and Legal Clergy Status. Of course every lifetime and supporting member has access to this main program.

The purpose of this level is for those individuals who are interested in gaining their clergy status, and this offers an opportunity for members to do so affordably.

This program is only $49.99. To find out more:
<http://www.Witchschool.com/clergydegree.asp>

Witchschool Referral Program

Witch School, our long-time educational partner, has made an offer to the Tradition and its member Temples and groups.

Witch School has created a new Referral Program. The Tradition itself has enrolled in this program – as you can see from the button in the left-hand menu on correllian.com. You are encourage to consider enrolling your Temple or group as well, as a means of generating potential passive income.

The program works like this: members receive their own button which they can put on their website, in their email signature, etc... offering Witch School memberships. If anyone purchases a membership through your button, you will receive (approximately) 25% of the payment –that is $4 of a $19.99 yearly membership, or $25 of a $99.99 Lifetime Membership.

Each button has its own unique code which tracks payments made through it. If someone buys a membership through your button, then you get the abovementioned 25%.

If you are interested in finding out more about this program, or in signing up for it, go to www.witchschool.biz.

Witch School are offering a discount on supplies to Correllian Temples and groups in good standing: for example the Witch School books at 40% off cover price, and other discounts on the various items the school produces. If you would like to learn more about this, contact Lady Virginia at Virginia@witchschool.com and she will be happy to explain further.

These offers are being extended to all of our Correllian Temples, Proto-Temples, Witan Shrines, Formal Shrines, Personal Shrines, Orders, and Study Groups who might wish to sign up.

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be
Krystel
