Pagan Calendar August 30 – September 5

August 30 In Bengal, India, gruesome human sacrifices to the Indian earth-goddess Tari Pennu were made annually on this date as late as the mid-nineteenth century. After the sacrifice, a shaman would eat a bit of the victim's flesh, and then the rest of the remains would be dismembered, burned, and scattered over a plowed field to ensure the fertility of future crops.

August 31 To purify the family spirits, Eyos (masqueraders wearing demon costumes concealed by white robes) walk through the streets of Lagos every year on this date. The Ritual Walk of the Eyos is a religious custom that dates back to ancient times. On this date in the year 1934, Wiccan author Raymond Buckland was born in London, England. He founded the Seax-Wica tradition of Witchcraft, helped to introduce modern Wicca into the United States, and opened the first American Museum of Witchcraft and Magic. In India, a women's festival of purification is held each year on this day. It is called the Anant Chaturdasi, and is dedicated to the ancient serpent-goddess Ananta, who symbolizes the female life force.

Legends and Lore for September

September, the ninth month of the current Gregorian calendar and the first month of Autumn, derives its name from septem, the Latin word meaning "seven", as September was the seventh month of the old Roman calendar. The traditional birthstone of amulet of September is the blue sapphire; and the aster and the morning glory are the month's traditional flowers. September is shared by the astrological signs of Virgo the Virgin and Libra the Scales (or Balance), and is sacred to the following Pagan deities: Persephone, Thor, and the Wiccan Goddess in Her aspect of the Mother. During the month of September, the Great Solar Wheel of the Year is turned to the Autumnal Equinox, one of the four Lesser Sabbats celebrated each year by Wiccans and modern Witches throughout the world.

September 1 On this date in the sixth century B.C., the Persian prophet and mystic known as Zoroaster was born. He founded the religion of Zoroastrinism, which teaches that all of mankind is trapped in a perpetual battle between good spirits and bad spirits.

September 2 On this date in ancient Athens, an annual Grape Vine Festival was held in honor of the Greek deities Ariadne and Dionysus. In Crete, Ariadne was worshipped as a goddess of the Moon, and Dionysus as the son of Semele (who was also a goddess of the Moon).

September 3 On this day, the annual Path Clearing Festival (Akwambo) is held by the Akan people of Ghana to honor and receive blessings from the ancient god of the sacred well. The Maidens of the Four Directions are honored on this day each year by a Hopi Indian women's healing ceremony called Lakon.

September 4 At sunrise on this day, the Changing Woman Ceremony is held annually by the Native American tribe of the Apache in Arizona. The rite, which lasts for four consecutive days, marks the coming of age of a pubescent girl, who ritually transforms into the spirit-goddess known as Changing Woman and blesses all who are in attendance.

September 5 In ancient Rome, the Roman Games, in honor of the god Jupiter, began annually on this date and lasted until the thirteenth day of September. Ganesh, the elephant-headed Hindu god of good luck and prosperity, is honored on this day throughout India with a parade and a festival of rejoicing.

The Secret of Personal Magnetism

by Owen Waters

When people open their hearts to unselfish, unconditional love, a whole new world of possibilities opens. Rather than spending effort avoiding the selfishness of others, they focus on making sure that the way they choose to serve society is done in the best way possible. When people can trust others to treat each other with love and respect rather than as competitors, then everyone gains.

As heart-centered awareness grows and blooms within society, people's primary focus will shift away from service to self and towards service to others. When it does, the world will transform out of all recognition.

But you don't have to wait for all of society to catch up. In both your personal and professional dealings with people, you have a reputation, and it is fed by word-of-mouth recommendation. Build your reputation as someone who tends to give more than is expected of them, and you will find yourself becoming increasingly popular in both your business and personal lives. People respond to heartfelt action and, as they say, what goes around comes around.

Action and reaction are opposite and equal in all types of thought and action. Your heartfelt action, by automatic reaction, will create a heartfelt reality among you and the people who are attracted to your energy. When you operate mainly out of a heart-centered frequency, you will notice that people are attracted to you in all aspects of your life. Friends, lovers, professional associates; everyone will be attracted to your magnetic personality.

Personal magnetism has been one of the great mysteries of life simply because, in the past, so few people have operated from that heart-centered frequency of awareness on a routine basis. However, it's really no secret. It's just one of those common-sense facts of life.

The secret of personal magnetism is that the more you unconditionally love people, the more they love you.

You don't have to make a big deal out of it. You don't have to stand there like some transmitter beacon, radiating huge amounts of heart energy. Top stage performers do, but you don't. You can be very quiet about it and everyone will be quietly drawn to you. Everyone of a similar nature, that is. Everyone who appreciates kindness and a truly warm, genuine smile.

In other words, you'll attract the very best of friends.

There's nothing more attractive than a warm smile from a person who quietly radiates a sense of unconditional love for themselves and all others.

This was an excerpt from Owen Waters' book, Love, Light Laughter: The New Spirituality, which is available both as a paperback and a downloadable e-book, at:

MEANINGS OF THE LUNAR PHASES

Every time the Moon enters a new phase lasting for about 3-1/2 days each. There's a shift in the electro-magnetic field of Earth. Learn the characteristics of each phase and you'll be guided into taking appropriate action, whether in personal or business relationships. The power and consciousness behind each lunar phase is awesome. Let the Moon support you. It will show you how to stay emotionally and physically balanced and also put money in your pocket.

The Moon governs the general public, sales, and business in general. The overall cycle of the phases governs the acceleration or deceleration of growth and momentum. Ideally, start projects and build them when the Moon is increasing in light "waxing" from New Moon to Full Moon. From the Full Moon to the oncoming New Moon, the Moon is decreasing in light "waning" and this is when you want to bring whatever activities you can to a completion. Keep this ebb and flow of energy in mind and you'll have an invaluable tool to help you flow with the tide of events, rather than against them.

Each phase represents a segment of time within the monthly lunation cycle as a whole. With practice you will begin to see how each phase is not an isolated period within itself, but rather a consequence of the previous phase and a preparation for the following one. In other words "Space is Curved." Whatever you send out will come back to you at the appropriate time, and it's a good idea to know where you stand in the overall cycle. Understanding the lunar rhythms will also save on panic and worry, as you realize that everything in life unfolds in exactly the right moment.

New Moon - "Beginnings." Subjective-Inner awareness starts to open; new seed-ideas begins to unfold in the inner consciousness. Expand into the world of ideas, allow the outrageous wanderings of the mind, open to unlimited possibilities, watch the birthing of the idea into thought. Let it unfold in the quiet.

Crescent - "Growth." The research phase. Ask the big questions - the why? Shape, mold, dance with the newly realized seed-idea. Ask yourself: How can I bring my vision into the material world? Gathering knowledge prepares you to take future action.

First Quarter - "Action." Take action in the outer world. Pick up hammer and nails and build new structures. There's an urgency about facing the challenge of the moment. Move forward, or be buried in the past. Stand up or sit down, but don't wobble.

Gibbous - "Analysis." Make adjustments to clarify your sense of direction. Without expecting absolute perfection, continue to move toward self-improvement. Be comfortable with yourself. Assess and analyze projects. You have a better idea where you're headed.

Full Moon - "Illumination." The outer structure is complete and ready to be filled with content. The completion is the culmination of the seed-idea of the New Moon. Sense where you fit into the overall scheme of life. These 3-1/2 days represent the beginning of maximum fruitfulness. Favors public exposure and events.

Disseminating - "Networking." Give something back to the community. You are now ready to make a contribution. What you know has value even if you may have doubts about its worth. Find common ground through discussions. You can make a powerful mental impression on others because of your ideals and vision.

Last Quarter - "Results." Enjoy the harvest of your labors. This can be the most productive time for completions and gaining results. Success in business and personal affairs. The next question is: "Now that I've achieved what I want, what do I do with it?" Begin to let it go.

Balsamic - "Releasing the Past." Turn away from thought and drop into the quiet. Emptiness is the fertile ground that recognizes and encourages the presence of the new seed. Regeneration. A time of cleansing. Inner time and reflection bring you back into emotional, physical and spiritual balance.

LUNAR PHASES

The lunar phase is important in determining the best time for magic. There are basically two lunar phases: waxing moon (ideal time for positive magic) and waning moon (ideal time for banishing/negative magic, study, and meditation). In between you'll have the dark moon (the time of greatest power for banishing and negative magic) and the full moon (the time of greatest power for positive magic).

Most witches and pagans work around these lunar phases. However, others suggest a much more complicated subdivision of the moon phases.

New Moon Magic (from the day of the New Moon to 3 1/2 days after)

Timing: The magic should be performed between dawn and sunset for the best use of this magic.

Conjuring: beauty, health, and self-improvement; farms and gardens; job hunting; love and romance; networking

Crescent Moon Magic (from 3 1/2 days after the new moon through the 7th. day)

Timing: The moon rises at mid-morning and sets after sunset.

Conjuring: animals, business, change, emotions, matriarchal strength

First Quarter (Waxing Moon) Magic ( from 7 to 10 days after the new moon)

Timing: Sunset is the prime time for waxing moon magic.

Conjuring: courage, elemental magic, friends, luck, motivation

Gibbous Moon Magic (from 10 to 13 days after the new moon)

Timing: It's a wonderful time for working around 10:00 to 11:00 p.m.

Conjuring: patience

Full Moon Magic (14 days after the new moon)

Timing: Midnight is the best hour to work.

Conjuring: artistic endeavors; beauty, health, and fitness; change and decisions; children; competition; dreams; families; health and healing; knowledge; legal undertakings; love and romance; money; motivation; protection; psychism; self-improvement

Disseminating Moon Magic (3 to 7 days after the full moon)

Timing: The time of souls is at 3:00 a.m.

Conjuring: addictions, decisions, divorce, emotions, stress, protection

Last Quarter (Waning Moon) Magic (7 to 10 days after the full moon)

Timing: The moon rises at midnight and sets at noon.

Conjuring: addictions. divorce, health and healing (banishing disease), stress, protection

Dark Moon Magic (from 11 to 14 days after the full moon)

Timing: As odd as this may sound, the strongest pull of the dark moon is around 10:00 a.m.

Conjuring: addictions, change, divorce, enemies, justice, obstacles, quarrels, removal, separation, stopping stalkers and theft.

Lunar Eclipses

Eclipses represent the perfect union of sun and moon. Any type of magic is acceptable.

There are 2 types of lunar eclipse:

1. Partial eclipse 2. Penumbral eclipse of the moon Moon Void of Course

It's said that the moon is void of course before it enters a new moon sign (Cancer, Leo, Virgo...). There is a sort of dead space when this is happening. The rule here is to avoid doing any important magic work while the moon is void of course. Don't do any major magic work. Don't complete any magic work.

MOON WOBBLES

A Moon Wobble is generally an unsettling time of sudden ups and downs, increased accidents and violence, unusual or extreme weather, greater incidence of earth activity, e.g. earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, and intense, often volatile emotional behavior. People feel more restless and are more likely to over-react to problems. Anything begun during a Moon Wobble is usually short-lived because of the unstable energy--on average lasting 3 months to one year.

Moon Wobbles have benefits, too. They can be very stimulating times, bringing new contacts, innovative ideas, heightened creativity, and unexpected opportunities. Use them to gather information and consider different options, but wait until they are over to make final agreements and actually begin new ventures. This powerful cycle was first recognized, then researched and named by noted American mathematician and astrologer Carl Payne Tobey. He found that these cycles of intensified energies occur when the transiting Sun makes contact with the Lunar Nodes (the Lunar Nodes are where the orbit of the Moon intersects the orbit of the Earth around the Sun). There are usually 3.5 to 4 Moon Wobbles a year; however, occasionally there are 5, as in 1996. The focus for Moon Wobble phenomena varies according to the sign the Moon Wobble is occurring in; however, there are some general "rules of thumb" that apply to all Moon Wobbles.

Try to AVOID:

Buying a home or moving

Starting a new job or project

Having important medical work done

Having major car or home repairs done

Taking long-distance trips: If you do travel, BE FLEXIBLE!

Having arguments or confrontations with the closest people in your life. They can easily escalate out of proportion and be very difficult to resolve.

REMEMBER to:

Remind yourself it is a Moon Wobble when difficulties arise.

Try to ACT not REACT in dealing with problems.

Be flexible and roll with the punches.

Drive with extra care.

Expect the unexpected!

Symbols - Sun Cross

Also known as a Pagan Cross, Solar Cross, Wheel Cross, Odin's Cross or Woden's Cross

Sun Cross"

The Sun Cross features a circle around a cross. It is an ancient symbol; carvings of which were found in 1980 on the bases of Bronze-age burial urns at Southworth Hall Barrow, Croft, Cheshire, England and the urns date back to circa 1440 BC. This symbol has been used throughout history by different religions, groups and families (as a Japanese samurai family crest), eventually working its way into Christian iconography. Calling it a Solar Cross focuses on the four divisions within the circle representing the four seasons and marked by the solstices. It is also said by some neo-pagans to represent the four directions: North, South, East and West - although what that means in the context of an infinitely large cosmos is unclear. The symbol is just so old and so simple, it's unrealistic to believe that there's just one interpretation. It's a godsend to self-styled wizards to make up whatever they want to say about it.

Crop circle

As a pagan or mystical symbol, there was a small resurgence of interest after the proliferation of similarly patterned crop circles which confounded 'cerealogists' in the 1970s and 1980s. On 12th August 1989, this crop circle was sighted at Winterbourne Stoke, Wiltshire in southern England. No doubt there would have been a rush (!) on Brigid Crosses at that time. For most cerealogists, it was the final (wheat) straw when in 1991, local artists Doug Bower and Dave Chorley admitted their wheat graffiti was a hoax to fool UFOlogists.

The Sun is the preserver of life; unless you happen to be stuck in the desert of course. As controller of the actions of planets and their moons, no one doubts its power and has for a long time been considered by man to be generally a good thing. So good, in fact, that it's been worshipped as a god for thousands of years. It was named by the ancient Egyptians, Ra.

One of several Ra symbols

To some people the Sun was Ra, to others the Sun was just Ra's eye. Consequently Ra was symbolised as either a circle, or a circle with a central dot for the iris. The Sun has been symbolised in several other forms, some of which have included rays (just a coincidence that Ra is pronounced ray). And these rays sometimes give the appearance of spokes, making the symbol look like a wheel with its hub being the iris. (The symbol of a circle with a centre dot was also used to symbolise gold in alchemy; gold being the most precious metal and therefore associated with the greatest god, the Sun.) Ra was the main god in the ancient Egyptian city of Heliopolis, but from c. 2400 BC, he became a national deity. Around a thousand years later, Ra was combined with the god Amen. The reasons for this merger are unknown, but we can speculate that the Egyptians felt there could be only one supreme god, and combining Ra (the god of light) and Amen (the hidden god where there was no light) gave man the monotheism they sought.

Taranis Wheel

The Taranis symbol is neither a cross nor represents the Sun, but some people refer to this as a Sun Cross.

Wheels appear in crosses more often than we might think.

Woden's Cross

And here's another wheel that people mistake to be a cross. Like Taranis, Woden was not supposed to represent the Sun. Woden was a bit of a trouble-maker...

Kutsuwa-mon

In Japan ka means 'family', mon means 'crest' and this symbol is one such family crest. Like European heraldry, kamon were used especially in battle to identify individuals or members of a clan.

Cardinal Cross

Confusingly the Sun Cross, the cross within a circle, is also the Planetary Symbol for the Earth.

The same pattern (or any cross design) is sometimes referred to as a Cardinal Cross. Since the 16th century, 'north, south, east and west' have been called 'Cardinal Points' - cardinal meaning something that is fundamentally important. This description has evolved into a wider use in astrology (Aries, Cancer, Libra and Capricorn), taking people's thought into a different dimension than simply north, south, east and west. This Astrological Cross (or Aquarian Cross) divides life into four identities: self, emotional, intellectual and the actual manifestation of the identity.

'Cardinal' in this context describes its important responsibility in 'turning' the cosmos, just as a hinge is essential for a door to open. The Roman Catholic Church depends on a few specially elected principle people to direct the Church. Since the 12th century, these people have been called Cardinals, but this cross design is not usually called a Cardinal Cross for that reason.

Final days of August
Summer on its last feet
Growing older, fast
Older by the day, hour, minute
Tick, tock, tick, tock
Second by second
Its end is nearing, fast
To fast

Harvest are brought in
Bountiful, Plentiful, Abundantly
Feeding man and animals
Trough the coming Fall
Winter, Spring and Summer
Until the time of the
New harvests, one year
Far away

Soon Mabon will be announced
Leaves chancing colour
All nature preparing
For the Winters sleep
Animals gathering food
Their harvest
Winters sustenance

Hurry, hurry pick the fruits
Growing wild
Gift of Mother Nature
Elderberry, Blackberries
Brambles, Rose Hip
Sweet jam making
Reminiscent of the
Warm Summers Sun
Sun in a jar

Shortening days, fast
Lengthening nights, fast
Dark side of the year
Growing stronger, cold
Cosy nights at home
Fireplace crackling
Candles burning
The Sun in the homes
Warm and full of light

Dark, darker, darkest
Cold, colder, coldest
Slowly, outside
Mabon, Fall, night and day equal
Patience six months
Ostara, Spring, night and day equal
Light half of the year
Light, lighter, lightest
Warm, warmer, warmest

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

May You Blessed Be

Order of Peace Weavers

The Order of Peace Weavers was created to provide members of the Correllian Tradition with the means of gathering together to collectively promote the weaving of peace into the fabric of society through meditation, prayer, Reiki, visualization, spellworking, ritual, creative writing, intentional art and music, and other positive energy work and lightwork, with harm to none, and for the highest good of all concerned.

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.
