Pagan Calendar December 27 – January 2

December 27. On this day in the year 1959, Gerina Dunwich (eclectic Witch, professional astrologer, and author of many Witchcraft books, including the one you are now reading) was born in Chicago, Illinois under the sign of Capricorn with a Taurus rising. The birth of Freya (the Norse goddess of fertility, love, and beauty) is celebrated on this day. Annual Pagan festivals in her honor are celebrated throughout the world by many Wiccans of the Saxon tradition.

December 28. On this day, an annual festival of peace and spiritual renewal is celebrated in parts of China. Offerings are made to gods and spirits, and a paper horse containing the names of all the members of the temple is set on fire in the ancient Taoist belief that the rising smoke will take the names up to heaven.

December 29. During this period, the eight-day Jewish Festival of Lights (also known as Hanukkah or Chanukah) is observed by Jews throughout the world. On each night of the festival, one additional candle is lit on a ceremonial nine-branched candelabrum called a menorah. In ancient Greece, a Pagan religious festival called the Day of Nymphs was celebrated on this day in honor of Andromeda, Ariadne, and Artemis (the Greek counterpart of the goddess Diana).

December 30. On this date in the year 1916, Rasputin (a famous Russian mystic monk, occultist, and court magician) was assassinated by his enemy Prince Feliks Yusupov. Rasputin, who was drowned in the frozen Neva River, presaged his own death.

December 31. New Year's Eve. The modern custom of ringing bells and blowing horns to usher in the new year at midnight is actually derived from the old Pagan custom of noisemaking to scare away the evils of the old year.

In certain parts of Japan, young men put on grotesque demon masks and costumes made of straw and go door to door collecting donations of money, rice cakes, and sake. This traditional New Year's Eve custom serves to drive out the demons of misfortune and ensure an abundant harvest for the new year.

January 1 New Year's Day. This day is sacred to the goddesses known as the Three Fates, the German goddess Bertha, the Morrigan, the Parcae, and the Japanese household gods. Many modern Witches and Wiccans around the world traditionally start off the new year with a spell for good luck and a ritual to bless the new year with peace, love, health, and prosperity for all. This is a traditional time for ending bad habits and beginning New Year's resolutions. The first day of January was dedicated by the ancient Romans to the god Janus. Janus possesses two identical faces looking in opposite directions: one to the past, and the other to the future. He is a god of gates and doorways, and a deity associated with journeys and the beginnings of things.

January 2. The birth of the Pagan goddess Inanna has been celebrated annually on this day since ancient times. Inanna is the Sumerian queen of heaven and earth, and a deity who presides over both love and war. Every year on this date, the Perihelion of the Earth takes place. When this occurs, the planet Earth reaches the point in its orbit closest to the Sun. Many astrologers consider this to be a highly significant event. In ancient Egypt, a religious ceremony known as the Advent of Isis from Phoenecia was performed yearly on this date in honor of the goddess Isis.

Legends and Lore for January

Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring, happy bells, across the snow;
The year is going, let him go;
Ring out the false, ring in the true.
Lord Tennyson Alfred

It is named for Janus, a Roman god. Roman legend has it that the ruler Numa Pompilius added January and February to the end of the 10-month Roman calendar in about 700 B.C. Pompilius gave the month 30 days. Romans later made January the first month. In 46 B.C., the Roman statesman Julius Caesar added a day to January, making it 31 days long.

In the northern half of the world, January is the coldest month. Nature is quiet and the birds travel less. The woodchucks and bears sleep day and night, in hibernation. The plants are resting, waiting for the warmer temperatures of the Spring.

In the southern half of the world, January is the warmest month. Animals are very active, and plants are growing.

January in the Northern Hemisphere is the seasonal equivalent to July in the Southern Hemisphere and vice versa.

The Latin root word that January comes from is 'ianua' – which means door

Janus (Ianuarius) was the Roman God “of the doorway” or gatekeeper, many times represented as a 2 faced mask signifying beginnings and endings.

The Saxons called it “Wolfmonth” or “wolf-monath”, because in the cold deep snow nights during the month wolves would come out of the forests and into villages hunting for food. The Chinese floral emblem of January is the plum blossom

It is legend that Charlemagne called the month “Wintarmanuth”.

The Czech's call the month 'leden', which means ice month.

The Coptic branch of the Christian Church celebrates Christmas on January 7th.

The traditional birthstone amulet of January is the garnet; and the carnation and the snowdrop are the month's traditional flowers.

January is shared by the astrological signs of Capricorn, the Goat and Aquarius the Water Bearer, and is sacred to the following Pagan deities:
Antu, Felicitas, Inanna, Irene, Janus, Pax, and Venus

Thousands mark winter solstice At Stonehenge with snowball battle

Wednesday 22nd December 2010

Snow and ice failed to keep people away from Stonehenge today as they gathered to see the sun rise on the winter solstice.

More than 2,000 people came together at the stones, which were surrounded by a thick blanket of snow.

The winter morning mist obscured the actual sunrise - which took place at 8.09am - but an eclectic mix of people celebrated the ancient festival.

Among the Druids, hippies and sun worshippers were those just curious to experience the spiritual event at the site, on Salisbury Plain.

Serving soldier of 15 years Lance Corporal Paul Thomas, who fought in Iraq, was "knighted" with a sword by Druid protester King Arthur Pendragon.

Formerly known as John Rothwell, King Arthur changed his name by deed poll.

He also performed a handfasting, a Pagan marriage ceremony, inside the stones.

As well as the traditional Druid and Pagan ceremonies, a spontaneous snowball fight erupted as people enjoyed the cold weather.

The shortest day of the year often falls on December 21, but this year the Druid and Pagan community marked the first day of winter today because the modern calendar of 365 days a year - with an extra day every four years - does not correspond exactly to the solar year of 365.2422 days.

During the winter solstice the sun is closer to the horizon than at any other time in the year, meaning shorter days and longer nights.

The day after the winter solstice marks the beginning of lengthening days, leading up to the summer solstice in June.

Spell of the Week

CRYSTAL AND CANDLE SPELL

Items needed: Basic altar set-up including:

salt and bowl of water,
candle in color symbolic of need.

Shield, ground, and center. Cast circle.

Charge of the Goddess/God.

Cleanse crystal by sprinkling with water, then with salt. Say the following:

"This crystal is hereby cleansed and dedicated to the workings of the Goddess and God."
With tip of crystal, scratch image, symbolic of need, on candle (i.e., a heart for love, a dollar sign for money, a fist for strength).

As candle is scratched, visualize your need with crystal clarity as if it had already been manifested.

Chant to raise power. Place candle in candleholder, set crystal near it, and light candle. Watch the burning flame and again strongly visualize and chant and/or drum.

Allow the candle to burn down.

2012: The End is Nowhere Near

by Owen Waters

The closer we get to 2012, the more you will hear, “The End is Near!”

Throughout history, there have always been sects warning that the end of the world was imminent. 2012 seems to hold a special attraction to a wide segment of end-time believers. The main concern springs from Mayan cosmology, which indicated that a significant number of cosmic cycles are due to come to a close on December 21, 2012.

The last time I looked, when a cycle ends, a new one begins. It's not the end of anything other than the old cycle. So, 2012 is not about fanciful disasters or the end of the world.

2012 is about great change and a resetting of cosmic cycles in order to usher in a new and more positive era.

The actual day will no doubt pass by quietly, just like any other day. My prediction for disasters that could occur on the big day is this:

“Nothing out of the ordinary will occur on December 21, 2012.”

Remember Y2K? Big hype, no disasters.

2012 will be another anti-climactic non-event, just like Y2K.

Let's face it. The Sun is billions of years old. It has seen all these cosmic cycles come and go, many times over, and the Sun is still here. And, on December 22, 2012, so will we still be here!

The End of Time

Time was created so that change can be experienced.

Before time was time, there was only the eternal Now, existing in a state of perfect, unchanging beingness. One day – billions of years from now – when the chronicles of history are finally over, time will end. Time will be wrapped back up into that from which it came: The eternal, unchanging Now.

And, when it happens, you will be there to witness the grand event because life is immortal. The universe will ultimately fold back into itself because all life will have evolved back to the threshold of its original state as Infinite Being. You will be there, at the end of time, as will all life forms in existence today.

The Great News about 2012

When each cycle completes, it restarts again. After 2012, all the cycles will be in new, positive phases and constructive change will be the order of the day.

After 2012, positive change will come easily. Spiritual growth will become easier than ever before and society will be more prepared to move forward into the dawning New Reality. 2012 is not the end. It is the beginning of a wonderful new world of opportunity for positive transformation.

Auld Lang Syne

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,
We'll tak a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

And surely ye'll be your pint-stowp,
And surely I'll be mine!
And we'll tak a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,
We'll tak a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

We twa hae run about the braes,
And pu'd the gowans fine;
But we've wandered mony a weary fit
Sin' auld lang syne.

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,
We'll tak a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

We twa hae paidled i' the burn,
Frae morning sun till dine;
But seas between us braid hae roared
Sin' auld lang syne.

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,
We'll tak a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

And there's a hand, my trusty fiere,
And gie's a hand o' thine!
And we'll tak a right guid-willie waught
For auld lang syne.

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,
We'll tak a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Podcast

Wiccan blog and podcast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

For more information please contact Rev. Harwe Tuileva: harwe1982@hotmail.com

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be Krystel

Order of Peace Weavers

The Order of Peace Weavers was created to provide members of the Correllian Tradition with the means of gathering together to collectively promote the weaving of peace into the fabric of society through meditation, prayer, Reiki, visualization, spell working, ritual, creative writing, intentional art and music, and other positive energy work and light work, with harm to none, and for the highest good of all concerned.

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.

For more information, please find us at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/orderofpeaceweavers/> or contact moonraven3x3@yahoo.com.
