Greetings and Update from Rev. Don

Greetings all

I hope that everyone has celebrated a happy Thanksgiving. At this time of year we reflect upon those things that we are thankful for in our lives. Very often the things that we are most thankful for are the people in our lives, and I know that this is certainly true for me. I am grateful for my immediate family and friends who have seen me through so many adventures over the years –and I am also very thankful for my larger family at Witch School and in the Correllian Tradition. We have all been through so much together in these last few years, and no matter how great the challenge we have always come through together!

As you know I have been facing some difficulties here in Salem lately, and have had to ask for help in order to stabilize my situation. I received a generous response to this and I am very grateful for your support! Although I am still struggling to keep things going, your generosity has greatly helped my situation and allowed me to move forward here at the World of Witches.

Thanks to your help we have been able to expand our online features in several important ways. We have created a new World of Witches social site which we plan to use as the hub for interactive online features that will allow people all over the world to enjoy the World of Witches Museum. We are also asking for ideas of what people would like to see at this site, and would love to know what features you would like to see. If you haven't already joined the WOWM social site I invite you to do so now. You can see the new site at www.worldofwitchesmuseum.com.

We have also continued the Witch City Soap, which we started in October, and plan to bring you frequent video features from Salem, which you can see at MagickTV. For example we have uploaded Gede Parma's recent trance working workshop to MagickTV. In the future we will be bringing you many new and interesting pieces.

Perhaps best of all we have been working to rebuild the Witch School Store, which will now be run from Salem. We have several pages of books, videos, jewelry, and stones already up at www.WitchSchoolStore.com with many more pages to come. All of our Witch School video and audio programs are now available again and new ones are being created. There are also a number of publications in .pdf format available from us that can be found nowhere else. So far we only have a few pages up at WitchSchoolStore.com so there are many more things in stock that are not yet online, so if there is something you are looking for and do not see in the online store, give us a call at 978-594-1569 or send us an email at worldofwitchesmuseum@gmail.com and chances are we will have it for you!

In addition we are also offering a Personal Shopping service. Here in Salem we are surrounded by some of the countries best metaphysical stores, and in our many years of experience we have forged connections with all of the best metaphysical suppliers. What this means is that whatever you may be looking for we can find for you, even if it isn't already in stock. So if you are looking for hard-to-find items remember us –we either already have them or can get them for you!

And remember –I am also available for personal readings, either here in Salem or by phone. Our other great psychics are also available –Terry Milton the Stone Lady, Salem’s Very Own Danielle Young, and many more! Gift certificates are also available in case you want to have your reading in the future or give it as a gift!

I am very grateful to everyone who has supported me in my recent difficulty and I thank you all very much! I hope that you will continue to support me as I go forward! Your purchases at www.WitchSchoolStore.com will support us here in Salem and help us move forward with all of these and many more features!

Thank you all and many blessings to you!

Pagan Calendar November 29 – December 5

November 29. Each year on this night (according to ancient legend), vampires in Rumania are believed to rise up from their graves after a year-long sleep and walk the Earth in search of human blood. Garlic and crucifixes are hung on doors and windows for protection. In ancient Egypt, the Feast of Hathor as Sekhmet was held each year on this day. It honored the lion-headed goddess of battle, who was also the consort of the moon-god Ptah.

November 30 Saint Andrew's Night. In many rural villages in Germany, young women still perform traditional love-divinations on this night. Using various methods of fortune-telling, they read omens and dreams to find out about their future husbands and marriages. On this date in the year 1942, Otter Zell (Pagan priest and the founder of The Church of All Worlds) was born in Saint Louis, Missouri.

December 1. In some parts of the world, the first day of December is the traditional time for young girls to perform the ancient art of cromniomancy (divination by onion sprouts) to find out the name of their future husband. To find out who your future husband will be, take some onions and upon each one carve or write a different man's name. Place the onions near a fire and the man whose name is on the onion that sprouts first will be the one.

December 2. In what is now known as Bodh Gaya, India, the world's oldest and most sacred tree (planted in the year 282 B.C. and believed to be an offshoot of the Bodhi or Bo-tree that the Buddha sat under when he achieved enlightenment) is honored annually on this date by Tibetan Buddhist pilgrims with prayers, chants, and brightly colored flags. On this day, an annual women's festival called Hari Kugo (Broken Needles) takes place in the city of Tokyo. It commemorates women's crafts and is dedicated to all patron goddesses of Japanese craftswomen.

December 3. In ancient Rome, secret women's rites were performed annually on this date in honor of Bona Dea, the Good Goddess. All males were barred from the ceremonies, which were conducted by vestal virgins.

In ancient Greece, this day was sacred to the goddess Cybele and also to Rhea, the Great Mother of the Earth.

December 4. On this date in ancient Rome, the goddess Minerva was honored with an annual festival. Minerva (the Roman counterpart of the Greek Athena) is a goddess of battle and also a patroness of the arts and wisdom.

In West Africa, this day is sacred to the Yoruban god Chango. He is a god of lightning bolts, and the son of the deities Yemaya and Orungan.

December 5. In ancient Greece, an annual seaside festival (the Poseidea) was celebrated annually on this date to honor the sea-god Poseidon, consort of the Mother Goddess. In Italy, the First Feast of Saint Lucia is held on this date each year. Before being Christianized into a Saint, she was originally worshiped as Lucina, a Pagan goddess of light who also presided over childbirth.

Magical Correspondences for December

December's Zodiac signs include Sagittarius (November 23 - December 22) and Capricorn (December 23 - January 20). It's birthstone is turquoise and it's birthflower is poinsettia or narcissus. The lucky number for the month is 3.

When working with color in December, consider using green, bright red or turquoise

If you are looking for stones to work with this month, consider aquamarine, bloodstone, lapis lazuli, peridot, ruby, blue topaz or turquoise. Carry one or more on your person, use them in a monthly magic mojo bag, or set them out this month on a window sill to charge throughout the month. Choose one or more to research and add to your book of shadows.

November's animals bear, goat, snowy owl, wolf and groundhog. To incorporate these animals, add a statue or photo of your choice of animal to your altar or read about how they can be used as totem animals. Mythical creatures for the month are sylvan spirits (spirits of the woods).

The best plants to work with during December consist of Christmas cactus, evergreen trees, holly, ivy, mistletoe, oak and poinsettia. Keep a small pot of one on your altar, add one or more to your monthly mojo bag, research them, plan recipes around them or make an infusion of them to add to your cleaning water. Decorate with evergreen boughs, decorate an outdoor tree with food for the birds, hang mistletoe in your doorway.

Facts about December

December is the twelfth and last month of the year according to the Gregorian calendar. This is used in almost all the world today. It was the tenth month in the early Roman calendar. It became the twelfth month in a later Roman calendar. Until 46 B.C., December only had 29 days. But the Roman statesman Julius Caesar added two days to December, which made it 31 days.

In the northern half of the world, Winter begins in December. Winter does not begin until December 21 or 22, and most of December is usually warmer than other winter months. The latter part of December has long been a holiday season. Christians celebrate Christmas Day, as the birthday of Jesus Christ.

In the Northern Hemisphere, most birds have gone to warmer climates. But many animals are active. Mink, ermine, beavers, and foxes grow beautiful coats of fur. Nature finishes preparing for the long winter ahead. Many people make feeding places for birds and squirrels.

New England observe December 21 as Forefathers' Day in honor of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth on Dec. 21, 1620.

People in several European countries celebrate December 6 as the Feast of Saint Nicholas.

Christmas Day is celebrated on December 25 in many places, including the United States.

Spell of the Week

JUSTICE SPELL

The color orange represents business and fairness. Do this:

Sit in a quiet place.

Ground and Center.

Light an orange candle.

Concentrate on the facts of the case (issue) try to see the situation as an outsider.

Take a deep breath and play out in your mind different scenarios that may happen while in front of the judge (board). Keep the scenario's realistic. Picture yourself as calm and factual as possible.

Once you are satisfied that you have played through all of the options then focus back on the candle Request (from whomever you believe in) that they open the eyes of the participants to see through the emotion of the situation and see the facts. Run through any new scenarios that come to mind.

Then extinguish the candle. The key here is to see the situation from all angles.

If you only see your own point of view than you may be more vulnerable to surprise questions.

Winter Solstice

by Terry Roethlein

The traditional term for the Winter Solstice, "Yule," comes from the Norse word "iul," for wheel, the universal symbol for the cycle of life as well as the Sun, the source of all warmth and organic growth on the Earth. December 21 marks the longest night of the year, as well as the beginning of winter, the coldest and most barren season of the agricultural calendar. Paradoxically, immediately following the Solstice the days grow longer and the sun's light more intense. This theme of forbidding darkness and death pre-empted by light and rebirth runs consistently throughout the traditions and history surrounding the holiday, and the Goddess plays a crucial part in all this.

In the old religions, December 21 signaled the death and rebirth of the Sun God, brought to fruition by the Goddess. This is the Life-in-Death aspect of the Goddess, Queen of the cold void of creation, who not only slays the Holly King, but who also gives birth to a Child of Promise, personified by the Oak King, who "rules" the second, brighter half of the year.

The paradoxical death/birth aspect of the virgin goddess in the Winter Solstice goes all the way back to ancient Egypt. This vegetation God Osiris, torn to pieces by his evil brother Set, is mourned by Isis, his sister/wife, who circles his shrine seven times and chants a dirge. While a priestess would embody Isis, celebrants would burn oil lamps outside their homes all night, and at midnight priests would announce from the temple the joyous arrival of the child Horus, the reborn Sun God and son and lover to the virgin Isis.

Ancient Greeks observed the Winter Solstice by celebrating the Lenaea, in which Nine Wild Women, reenacting the death and rebirth of the harvest god Dionysus, would tear a god "stand-in" to pieces and then devour the morsels. Over time, only goat sacrifices were made and the Nine would evolve into mere mourners who witnessed the rebirth of the god.

With the dawn of the Christian era, the birth of the son of Yahweh, the "Son of Man," was strategically placed just a few days after the Solstice as a means of vampirizing the pagan holiday. Of course, by now the significance of the Mother Goddess, or the Queen of Heaven, was drastically altered by the introduction of Mary, the mortal, virgin mother of Jesus. In a remarkably successful attempt to replace the popular cult of Isis as well as the virgin/mother cults of Artemis, Demeter and Athena, Church elders in the 5th Century A.D. graduated Mary to semi-divine "sainthood," in the process stripping away vital traits such as her sexuality and the fiery potency that characterized her pagan predecessors. Nevertheless, although she was doomed to domination by a questionably more powerful deity, Mary evolved into a greatly cherished and abundantly nurturing benefactress with a formidable cult of her own. And in keeping with the rebirth motif, Mary participates, however passively, in the sacrifice of her miraculously conceived god-son, witnessing his degradation by the Romans and standing below him at his bloody crucifixion.

Just as the Christian divinities are bastardized reworkings of the old religions' deities, virtually all of the Winter Solstice traditions that we see today have their origins in an earth-based and goddess-informed rebirth cycle. The phenomenon of Saint Nicholas and the orgy of consumption he oversees as Santa Claus was borne out of the Nordic Holly King Woden, also known as Nik. The burning of the Yule log had its beginnings in the Yule bonfire, lit to feed the firepower of the Sun. The Christmas trees that now attest to our civilization's great disrespect for non-human life were originally symbolic Cosmic Trees of Life cut from the pine groves of the Mother Goddess with the greatest respect and hung with ornaments that were images of the sun, moon and stars. Gifts at the tree were offerings to slain Holly King deities such as Dionysus and Attis.

Finally, although the orgiastic rites that used to accompany the birth of the Oak King/Sun God are a far cry from the virtuous smooching that is now permitted under the mistletoe, perhaps those appetites still stir in the intoxicated gropings that go on at the annual office Xmas party. It's doubtful most people remember that the phallic mistletoe once carried healing powers and provided access to the Underworld or that its white berries symbolized the semen of the God while the red berries of the holly plant embodied the menstrual blood of the Goddess. Perhaps by remembering these ancient qualities we can once again invoke the magickal privileges they carry, and with them fulfill some of our sacred responsibilities toward the Earth Mother, which have been forgotten in the scramble to appease a Son of Man.

Poetry Place

Yule Blessings

Blessings to you from the Earth Mother.
She is the Moon.
She watches over all of us by.
The light that she casts over the blessed earth.
Walk her night lit path
And happiness you will find at every turn.
Blessed be!

Blessings to you from the Sky Father.
He is the Sun. He holds us up
And brings us strength. Carry his sword
To cleave the evil from your path
And you will be unmolested.
Blessed Be!

Blessings to you from the Great Spirit.
It binds us all together:
Man to womyn; beast to beast; all.
We are it and it is us.
Blessed Be!

May you have a wonderful Holiday.
The time has come for the sun to be reborn
He lies in his Mother's womb waiting...
Awaiting his reappearance on this plane.
Let us all rejoice in his rebirth and ours.
Blessed Be!

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Podcast

Wiccan blog and podcast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correlian priestess from Spain.

The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The blog can be found at <http://www.13-lunas.com>.

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystal High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be Krystal

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.
