Pagan Calendar September 6 – September 12

September 6. An ancient Inca blood festival called the Situa was held annually on this date to ward off the evil spirits of illness and disease. As part of the ceremony, parents would eat a special cake consecrated with the blood of their offspring.

September 7. Healer's Day. This is a special day dedicated to all women and men who possess the Goddess-given gift of healing and who use it unselfishly to help others. Daena, the Maiden Goddess of the Parsees, is honored on this date each year with a religious festival in India.

September 8. On this date in the year 1875, the Theosophical Society (an organization dedicated to spreading occult lore and ancient wisdom) was founded by Madame Helena Petrova Blavatsky, Henry Steel Olcott, William Judge, and other occultists.

September 9. In China, chrysanthemum wine is traditionally drunk on this day each year to ensure long life and to honor Tao Yuan-Ming, a Chinese poet who was deified as the god of the chrysanthemum.

September 10. The Ceremony of the Deermen is held every year at dawn on the first Monday after Wakes Sunday (which normally falls on or near this date). As part of the ceremony, held at Abbots Bromley in Staffordshire, England, the Deerman, wearing antlers and carrying clubs surmounted with deers' heads, escort two young men dressed as Robin Hood and Maid Marian across the village.

On this date in the year 1930, Carl Llewellyn Weschcke (former Wiccan high priest and owner of Llewellyn Publications) was born in Saint Paul, Minnesota. In 1972 he was initiated by Lady Sheba into the American Celtic tradition of Witchcraft, and in 1973 he helped to organize the Council of American Witches.

September 11 In Egypt, a centuries old festival called the Day of Queens is celebrated annually on this date in honor of Hatshepsut, Nefertiti, and Cleopatra, who were also regarded as goddesses.

September 12. On this date in the year 1902, actress Margaret Hamilton was born in Cleveland, Ohio. She is best known for her memorable role as the Wicked Witch of the West in the 1939 film The Wizard of Oz. She died on May 16, 1985, in Salisbury, Connecticut.

Peace and Happiness

by Owen Waters

Peace resides in the human heart. Inner peace creates outer peace in your relationships and in the effect that you have upon the global consciousness.

Peace is a choice. It respects your boundaries and it respects the boundaries of others. When you set your boundaries and stop others from intruding into your space, when you respect other people's boundaries and do not intrude into their personal space, then it is possible to move on to the next step, a state of mutual cooperation.

Mutual cooperation means that you support each other in ways that come from your heart. You help people because you love the spirit within them. Their outer personality is not the important focus here; it is their inner light, their inner spirit that you can always love, regardless of their outward actions. This, then, is the foundation for unconditional love.

The best model for unconditional love is right above you in the daytime sky. The Sun shines on everyone alike, without any judgment.

Love and support are the key requisites for lasting peace. The more people embrace peace in their own lives, the more they affect the global consciousness that we all share on this planet.

Happiness is the fruit of the tree of life. It is the needle in the compass that tells you that you are on track, that you are 'on purpose' in your journey through life.

True happiness is inner joy, that deep and genuine joy which lasts forever. It comes from being in resonance with your inner purpose, with your inner self.

Your inner self is your soul, the part of you which lives forever, the part of you that is always there to help, guide and protect you.

Within this inner soul burns the flame which connects you to the entire cosmos of Creation. It is your connection to Infinite Being, to the All That Is.

In this heart of your spiritual connection lies a wonderful essence. This is the essence of spirituality and joyful living. As your conscious connection with this essence grows, so does your level of happiness.

A connected life is a purposeful and rewarding life. It is one where you apply your efforts exploring the exact situations that you came here on Earth to experience. With love and wisdom, you transform these situations into lasting success.

Through life, you experience the endless variety of Creation. Through life, you journey back to that source from which you came. Through life, you find the inner flame which is the key to eternal joy and happiness.

The Legend of the Dream Catcher

Long ago when the world was young, an old Lakota spiritual leader was on a high mountain and had a vision. In his vision, Iktomi, the great trickster and teacher of wisdom, appeared in the form of a spider.

Iktomi spoke to him in a sacred language. As he spoke, Iktomi the spider picked up the elder's willow hoop which had feathers, horse hair, beads and offerings on it, and began to spin a web.

He spoke to the elder about the cycles of life; how we begin our lives as infants, move on through childhood and on to adulthood. Finally we go to old age where we must be taken care of as infants, completing the cycle.

"But", Iktomi said as he continued to spin his web, "in each time of life there are many forces; some good and some bad. If you listen to the good forces, they will steer you in the right direction. But, if you listen to the bad forces, they'll steer you in the wrong direction and may hurt you. So these forces can help, or can interfere with the harmony of Nature. While the spider spoke, he continued to weave his web.

When Iktomi finished speaking, he gave the elder the web and said, "The web is a perfect circle with a hole in the center. Use the web to help your people reach their goals, making good use of their ideas, dreams and visions. If you believe in the great spirit, the web will catch your good ideas and the bad ones will go through the hole."

The elder passed on his vision to the people and now many Indian people hang a dream catcher above their bed to sift their dreams and visions. The good is captured in the web of life and carried with the people, but the evil in their dreams drops through the hole in the center of the web and are no longer a part of their lives. It's said that the dream catcher holds the destiny of the future.

Mabon - Autumn Equinox

Mabon: (Celtic): Autumn Equinox, Winter Finding (Teutonic), Alban Elfed (Caledonii).
September 20 - 23 Northern Hemisphere / March 20 - 23 Southern Hemisphere.

During Autumn, we begin to see the waning of the Sun more obviously now as the days continue to grow shorter until the Wheel of the Year spins around again to Yule. At the Autumn Equinox, the days and nights are equal. It is a time of balance, but light gives way to increased darkness.

It is the second harvest, and the Goddess mourns her fallen consort, but the emphasis is on the message of rebirth that can be found in the harvest seeds. The Autumn Equinox is a wonderful time to stop and relax and be happy. While we may not have toiled the fields from sunrise to sunset every day since Lammas - as our ancestors did - most of us do work hard at what we do. At this time of year, we should stop and survey the harvest each of us has brought in over the season. For us, like our ancestors, this becomes a time of giving thanks for the success of what we have worked at.

Spellwork for protection, wealth and prosperity, security and spells to bring a feeling of self-confidence are appropriate for Mabon. Since this is a time for balance, you might include spells that will bring into balance and harmony the energies either in a room, home, or situation. Ritual actions might include the praising or honoring of fruit as proof of the love of the Goddess and God, and a ritual sprinkling of Autumn leaves. It is a good time to walk the forests, gathering dried plants for use as altar decorations or herbal magic. Symbols to represent the Mabon sabbath are such things as grapes, wine, vines, garland, gourds, pine cones, acorns, wheat, dried leaves, burial cairns, rattles, Indian corn, Sun wheels, and horns of plenty. Altar decorations might include autumn leaves, acorns, pine cones, a pomegranate to symbolize Persephone's descent into the Underworld, and a small statue or figure to represent the Triple Goddess in Her Mother aspect. Cornbread and cider are good additions to festivities.

The Simple Facts

Autumn Equinox: Mabon (Celtic), Winter Finding (Teutonic), Alban Elfed (Caledonii)

It is the second harvest, and the Goddess mourns her fallen consort, but the emphasis is on the message of rebirth that can be found in the harvest seeds.

Decorate the house with dried and colored ears of corn to remind yourself and your home of the end of the harvest season.

Again, the day and night are of equal length, and we give thanks for the last fruits of the harvest. Often referred to as the "witches thanksgiving". Mabon is also the Welsh God of Fertility. Mabon marks the end of the second harvest, a time when the majority of crops are gathered. The Goddess enters the "Crone" stage at this time.

At the Autumn Equinox, the days and nights are equal. It is a time of balance, but light gives way to increased darkness. It is a good time to walk the forests, gathering dried plants for use as altar decorations or herbal magic. Cornbread and cider are good additions to festivities and fall leaves make good altar decorations.

Spell of the Week

WHITE CANDLE SPELL FOR BLESSING

Get a white candle -- either a plain one (offertory, pillar, or taper) or a figural one in the gender of the person you want to bless. Carve the person's full name on the candle, then dress it with Blessing Oil or Holy Oil. For more power, you may place a name-paper of the person, or a photo, or some personal item of theirs (such as a bit of hair or a snippet of clothing) either under the candle or next to it. One easy way to do this is to place the paper or personal concerns under an overturned saucer and put the candle on top of the saucer. Burn a portion of the candle every day for seven days, pinching it out between burnings.

As you light it each day, say this [Name], may you be blessed
May all good things come to you
May nothing whatsoever harm you
May your heart be light
May your travels be safe
May your health be good
May your mind be sound
May your friendships sustain you
May you be blessed in every way

If you have a special request for this person (such as that they find a lover, get a good job, come home safely from a war, or whatever), just add it to the list. Some people use a large pillar-type candle and keep it going for longer than seven days. They may make a habit of burning such a candle every day -- or once a week, on Sundays -- for as long as their friend or relative needs help, even doing so for months at a time. If the candle is large and it is to be burned in this way, it should be re-dressed with Blessing Oil or Holy Oil once a week: after the initial dressing, you can drop a tiny bit of oil into the "well" or hole in such a large candle just before lighting it each time.

Atlantis

by Michael Lewis

There are fragments of the 'Atlantis' legend in almost every culture around the world. This suggests, but does not prove, that the legend is based on a very ancient truth that was known by the forebears of each of these cultures.

Our main source of information on the legendary Atlantis is the written account by the Greek philosopher Plato. Plato writes about Atlantis as an advanced civilisation that was destroyed in a huge volcanic cataclysm about 11,600 years ago. The evidence suggests that there was indeed a volcanic cataclysm 11,600 years ago, and that it was this event that triggered the ending of the Pleistocene Ice Age at that time.

From <http://www.atlan.org/faq/index.html>:

As many myths describe it, the Flood was caused by a giant submarine volcanic explosion that stirred up the seas, sending them over the continents. So, the waters reached up to the summit of the loftiest mountains, killing all life in their way. The colossal volcanic explosion also covered the skies with cinders and evaporated water, so that, it indeed, "rained for 40 days and 40 nights" and the skies were dark and gloomy for a long time. The event occurred some 11,600 years ago, and caused the end of the Pleistocene or, more exactly, of its last glacial episode.

So we can imagine Atlantis was first shaken by the nearby volcanic activity, causing many buildings to collapse, then it was hit by the surge of flood water, causing further destruction and drowning the inhabitants. The sky turned dark with the cinders thrown up into the air, and as the flood waters receded they revealed a ruin where once had stood the great city of Atlantis. Then, as the polar ice caps melted, warmed by the volcanic activity, the sea level rose some 100 to 150 meters, and the low-lying ruined Atlantis was lost beneath the waves. As far as the location of Atlantis is concerned, we must begin by marking out all the areas that are now beneath the sea level, but were then above the sea level.

Atlantis, though known as the 'sunken continent' could not literally have sunk. It is more realistic to presume that Atlantis was lost beneath the waves as the sea level rose, as has already been explained. This leaves a vast band of 'Atlantis' all around the globe, and explains why so many cultures remember this event. Either every culture truly retains an element of the one Atlantean legend, or else they have simply all recounted the ending of this last Ice Age.

Huge areas of land were lost beneath the sea all around the globe at this time, and any number of settlements may have been destroyed. It is hard to believe in 'Atlantis', knowing that so many civilisations must have been lost at the same time. The only way to know once and for all will be to find Atlantis.

There are two convincing theories concerning the location of Atlantis. One indicates the South China Sea (between Australia and Asia), and the other indicates Santorin (previously called Thera) in the Eastern Mediterranean. The former is furthered by the research of Prof. Arysio Nunes dos Santos at <http://www.atlan.org>, who holds that the South China Sea would be the most plausible location. However, the theory that Atlantis was located in the Eastern Mediterranean is much more likely, as this would allow Atlantis to be between Egypt (where the Africanus Australopithecus evolved) and Iraq/Iran (where the first Caucasians evolved). This would support the mythological references to Atlantis as a society where these two races learnt to live in harmony, seeing their differences as equal and opposite complimentary polarities.

Although the cataclysm is reported to have wiped out about 70% of all life on Earth, mankind prevailed, and before Atlantis was destroyed much of their knowledge and wisdom had begun to spread. It is also maintained in legend that the Atlantians foresaw their destruction, and sent messengers out to educate the fledgling civilisations of the world, so that 'Atlantis' would not be truly lost. It was, according to these legends, from the teachings of these messengers, as well as the spreading of the Atlantian knowledge by word of mouth in myth and legend, that all sciences and religions were first established.

Atlantis is a myth about a place which may or may not have once existed, many thousands of years ago, but Atlantis is more than a myth - it is a dream. It is a dream about a society that works, one where everyone has their place. Maybe Atlantis is a myth about a place that once existed, maybe it is a myth about a place that never existed, maybe it is a myth about a place that could exist in the future....

From Terry Pratchett "The Carpet People":

We must go to Ware. It's where we all began, in a way. It's where people first realized that there may be a better way of doing things than hitting one another on the head.

Ka

One of the three parts of the soul according to ancient Egyptian belief. A person must have all three parts to live, and if one part died they all died. The Ka is the astral double of a person, animal, or thing. It is physically and emotionally identical to the person and given to him or her at birth. In Egyptian symbolism it was depicted as a person with both arms raised or just two raised arms.

Egyptian Ka

The beliefs of the Ancient Egyptians concentrated not only on their daily life but also the prospect of life after death - the afterlife, and eternal life. The Ancient Egyptians believed that death occurred when a person's life-force (ka) left their body. Ceremonies conducted by priests after death, including the "opening of the mouth" ceremony was aimed not only to restore a man's physical abilities in death, but also to release the entities known as the Ka, Ba and Akhu which were united in the afterlife. The Ancient Egyptians regarded man as composed of various different entities, or elements, each having its separate life and functions.

*The Kha, Ha or Haw - The Body

*The Ka a person's life-force or double

*The Ba - the Soul

*Akhu (Akh, Khu, Ikhu) - the immortal part which emerged after the deceased passed judgement after death, and the Ka and Ba united

Definition of the Egyptian Ka

The Ancient Egyptians believed that the Ka or double was a less solid duplicate of the body, a coloured but ethereal projection of the individual, reproducing him feature for feature. The Ka of a child was therefore as a child; the Ka of a woman was therefore as a woman; the Ka of a man was therefore as a man. The Ka, or double, stayed in the tomb inhabiting the body (mummy) or even statues of the deceased. The Ka was believed to be independent of man and could move, eat and drink at will.

The Ancient Egyptians belief that, the ka was sustained through food and drink, resulted in offerings of such being presented to the dead. Their beliefs were that the 'kau' within the offerings was consumed - not the physical aspect

To Walk the Shaman's Path

To cross the Nagual's threshold,
To leap from here to there,
The warrior must be bold,
His strength is to care.
His soul is totally sold,
To his Lady who is fair,
Their story will be told,
As they fly through the air.
He dreams when he is old,
Dragons sleep in their lair,
He buys a precious ring of gold,
And His Lady is finally there.
But, if his dream was sold,
By his love so fair,
There'll be no ring of gold,
She will only have her ware.
So, let the truth be told,
It's in his heart so bare,
Can her heart be that cold,
And still cause him to pair?
Or, is she even as bold,
To keep the path of care,
Her lovers arms, longing to hold,
Into his eyes to stare.
Each one watches part of the fold,
To leave them they do not dare,
Though alone they tremble in the cold,
Their love is very rare.

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be Krystel

Order of Peace Weavers

The Order of Peace Weavers was created to provide members of the Correllian Tradition with the means of gathering together to collectively promote the weaving of peace into the fabric of society through meditation, prayer, Reiki, visualization, spellworking, ritual, creative writing, intentional art and music, and other positive energy work and lightwork, with harm to none, and for the highest good of all concerned.

The motto of the Order of Peace Weavers is: "Be Peace, Live Peace, Send Love, Weave Peace." We hold a monthly 15 minute group peace meditation on the first Wednesday of every month and would love to have more join us to promote peace.

The Order of Peace Weavers is a chartered order of the Correllian Tradition. Membership is by invitation or application and is open to Inner and Outer Court members.

For more information, please find us at <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/orderofpeaceweavers/> or contact moonraven3x3@yahoo.com.
