Multi-faith Calendar

Coming up:

Monday 28th September – Dussera

The tenth day of the festival, Navratri is called Dasera, and marks the triumph of good over evil, and also the motherhood of God.

Durga Puja is particularly important for Hindus in Bengal. After having worshipped her for nine days, her image is taken to the streets in a procession and there is much celebration and dancing.

To mark Durga leaving her mother after the nine day visit, her image is cast into water.

In northern parts of India, Hindus also celebrate Rama's victory over Ravana during this time. This festival is called Dussera. The ten days represent the ten heads of Ravana, and each day is used by Hindus to get rid of bad characteristics, such as lust and jealousy. The tenth day is known as the Day of Victory.

Quote& Thought of the Day

Quote of the Day:

The more you have, the more you are occupied, the less you give.

Mother Teresa

Source: <http://enlightenyourday.com/2009/04/22/61-spirituality-quotes-for-the-soul-to-ponder/>

Thought of the day:

Well prepared

When you're well prepared for the challenges, you can actually enjoy working through them. When you enjoy the challenges, you'll be able to create great value.

What can you do today that will make your work tomorrow go more smoothly? Though you may not know exactly what the challenges will be, there is still much you can do to prepare.

Preparation boosts your confidence. Good, solid, thoughtful preparation makes your efforts more effective.

Be well prepared, and your time will be spent moving forward instead of struggling to catch up. Be prepared, and you can effectively deal with small issues before they become big obstacles.

Imagine the possibilities and then prepare yourself for them. That puts you in position to make the best of whatever may happen.

Good preparation magnifies the positive influence of your efforts. Be prepared and everything becomes an opportunity

Feline Fun

This week in Feline Fun – A scaredy cat tiger ☺

A "scaredy-cat" Bengal tiger has damaged his species' fearless reputation after getting stuck at the top of a 15ft activity tower.

Two-year-old Tanvir was affectionately branded a "wimp" by keepers at Noah's Ark Zoo Farm in Wraxall, Bristol, after spending more than 24 hours at the summit.

The playful animal took just minutes to scale the tower, which has branch-like platforms to test the tigers' ingenuity. But after shinning up the structure on Monday morning, he was too frightened to come down.

The zoo said Tanvir was likely to gingerly descend the "enrichment tower" when his hunger became unbearable - although tigers can go for five days without eating.

Spokeswoman Samantha Cordrey said: "He's quite a mischievous little tiger and yesterday he went up his enrichment tower for the first time. There's a smaller tower, of about 5ft, and even that took him half an hour to get down from, so he's a bit of a scaredy cat.

"He's still stuck at the top today. Every time he gets to the edge, he looks out, puts a paw over, and thinks 'No, I'm not doing it!' He will make his way down when he gets too cold or hungry. He got up there within seconds but he can't get back down. It was made to challenge him but he's a bit of a wimp.

"He's on a big platform, just lying down. He will call to you but won't climb down. He stands up, looks around, stretches out his paw to see how far he thinks it is, then decides against it.

"People think tigers are ferocious animals without fear but they can get scared quite easily. They are not as full-on as people think."

Going up and giving food to timid Tanvir, who has been with the zoo since the summer, would only prolong his stay in the tower, she added.

On the ground he lives with two other tigers - Kushkja, aged six, and eight-year-old Khan.

Acts of Kindness

Aleesha Stephenson

"The one who dies with the most toys wins."

I saw this on a bumper sticker the other day and it got me to thinking about how many people strive for financial abundance in this life rather than spiritual abundance.

They believe, (and doesn't society teach us), that our success is measured in "haves."

Do you "have" your own home? Do you "have" lots of money in your bank account? Do you "have" investments?

Success is also measured in "degrees." How many "degrees" you have from a university? Or even, do you have your grade 12 diploma?

I measure success in kindness. How kind was I to others this week? Did I perform a random act of kindness? Did I let another driver into my lane, rather than making sure the @$%#&! wouldn't get in front of me? If I die tomorrow, I want to make sure I've done as many loving, kind actions as possible in the time I have. I want people to remember me for the smiles I brought to their face, rather than how many cars I owned!

I raise my children with the same philosophy. It doesn't matter to me if they go to university or college. I want them to focus on how they can assist the Earth and how they can bring joy to the lives of people and animals. If they decide to become a veterinarian I'll be thrilled for them. If they decide to volunteer for Greenpeace or the Red Cross, I'll be equally pleased. I don't care what they choose to do with their lives as long as they find joy in it and they can assist others to find joy as well.

Since we spend so many hours a week working, it's important that whatever we are choosing to do brings us a sense of accomplishment. After all, every job is important but if I'm a lawyer and I hate my job, I need to find something new to do or perhaps take my skills into another avenue, such as assisting single mothers/fathers, or non-profit societies.

What I'm trying to express is this: it doesn't matter what your job is, the question I would like you to ask yourself is: Does it bring you joy, and does it assist your fellow earth-mates?

Yes, I know what you're saying, "what about the bills, who's gonna pay the bills if I'm off saving the whales?" Firstly, if you are off saving the whales your expenses are quite a bit different than the usual cable and mortgage payments most of us share. But not everyone is ready to give that much of their lives to a "cause." That's where volunteer programs come into play. You can offer your time to many different organizations, which, quite honestly, would love to have you. Hospice Societies can always use another pair of ears. Big Brother and Big Sister organizations can always use more volunteers as well. There's an organization for everyone, from volunteer Grandparents to your local political party. Whatever aspect of yourself you would love to shine brighter (and if you aren't getting the chance to in your day-to-day job) - find your niche within the wonderful world of volunteering.

Another aspect I would like to briefly touch on is caring for our elderly. Rather than having our parents move in with us so we can care for them, many people nowadays choose to send them to an old age home. Some elderly people do need round-the-clock care from a nurse or need the restraints of a locked facility due to some degenerative disease of the mind, but many are just old.

I would love to see more people becoming actively connected to our elderly, and focusing on how their lives are celebrated at the end of their physical journey, rather than putting them into a sterile environment while waiting to die. Wouldn't it be great if people took elderly strangers into their home and allowed them to shine their light into the lives of their family? I'm speaking about the ones who don't need special care - they just don't have anywhere to go so they end up in a home for the elderly. The stories and knowledge these people have to share is enormous!

My grandmother, for instance, lived almost 100 years; she was witness to the advent of washing machines, TV and computers, and has even seen a man walk on the moon, all in her lifetime. What a rich store of knowledge and memories she was. Why, she is actually a living history book!

So rather than focusing on "who dies with the most toys," let's see how many acts of kindness we can gift others with in a week. It not only brings joy to the receiver; it brings great joy to the giver as well.

much light, Aleesha

Correllian Clergy Degree Program

A new membership has been created called the Correllian Clergy Degree Program. This is a 3-year program that can help you earn your Wiccan Degrees and Legal Clergy Status. Of course every lifetime and supporting member has access to this main program.

The purpose of this level is for those individuals who are interested in gaining their clergy status, and this offers an opportunity for members to do so affordably.

This program is only $49.99. To find out more:
<http://www.Witchschool.com/clergydegree.asp>

Witchschool Referral Program

Witch School, our long-time educational partner, has made an offer to the Tradition and its member Temples and groups.

Witch School has created a new Referral Program. The Tradition itself has enrolled in this program – as you can see from the button in the left-hand menu on correllian.com. You are encourage to consider enrolling your Temple or group as well, as a means of generating potential passive income.

The program works like this: members receive their own button which they can put on their website, in their email signature, etc... offering Witch School memberships. If anyone purchases a membership through your button, you will receive (approximately) 25% of the payment –that is $4 of a $19.99 yearly membership, or $25 of a $99.99 Lifetime Membership.

Each button has its own unique code which tracks payments made through it. If someone buys a membership through your button, then you get the abovementioned 25%.

If you are interested in finding out more about this program, or in signing up for it, go to www.witchschool.biz.

Witch School are offering a discount on supplies to Correllian Temples and groups in good standing: for example the Witch School books at 40% off cover price, and other discounts on the various items the school produces. If you would like to learn more about this, contact Lady Virginia at Virginia@witchschool.com and she will be happy to explain further.

These offers are being extended to all of our Correllian Temples, Proto-Temples, Witan Shrines, Formal Shrines, Personal Shrines, Orders, and Study Groups who might wish to sign up.

THE ORDER OF WEB WEAVERS CRYSTAL WEB MAPPING PROJECT

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

For more in-depth information, including the cost of the lessons, contact me at krystelneuman@yahoo.com

May You Blessed Be
Krystel
