Veterinary Notes

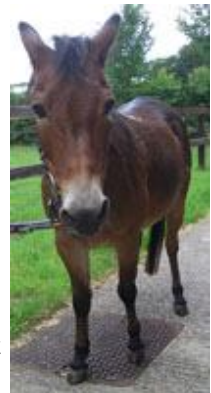

By Rev. Mehitabel

Continuing with the animal health trust and this week looking at one of their major areas of expertise which is oncology or the treatment of cancer.

<http://www.aht.org.uk/news.html#muffin>

Muffin the Mule is all wired up

Redwings adoption favourite Muffin the Mule has received ground-breaking specialist treatment at the internationally renowned Animal Health Trust in Newmarket [UK] for a sarcoid under his eye.

Muffin has been a resident of the Norfolk-based Redwings Horse Sanctuary for almost 20 years, since he was rescued from a horse sale with his mum at just a few days old. He is a popular member of the charity's adoption scheme and normally resides at Redwings' Caldecott Visitor Centre, near Great Yarmouth, where his fans can go and see him during the summer months. Sadly, over the past two years, Muffin has needed to spend much of his time in veterinary care at Redwings HQ while his sarcoid was being treated. Despite a variety of treatments the tumour became more advanced and so the Redwings' veterinary team approached specialists at the Animal Health Trust to ask if they could help.

Sarcoids are the most common form of tumour in horses, donkeys and mules worldwide. Some animals get just a single sarcoid, whereas others may have multiple tumours. The tumours remain within the skin, but can grow and become ulcerated. They can be painful and, if close to the eye, can have a significant effect on vision. At present, Muffin's sarcoid is below the eye and whilst it is relatively small, it is not affecting his sight. However, it is likely to be causing soreness and irritation, and now that it has become ulcerated, it is likely to attract flies.

Because treatment to date has not been successful for Muffin, the Animal Health Trust used a specialised technique known as brachytherapy, which is a form of radiotherapy. The AHT Equine Clinician responsible for Muffin's treatment is Meredith Smith who explained "I have inserted wires impregnated with a radioactive material (Iridium-192) into the affected area. This is a gold standard of treatment particularly suited to this type of tumour. I am very hopeful that it will improve Muffin's quality of life significantly. To date, we have had a 100% success rate using this therapy although, to the best of my knowledge, it has not previously been used on a mule”.

Sarcoids are notoriously difficult to treat and not only was Muffin’s in a very tricky position under his eye but it was also a very aggressive form, which is why the charity’s veterinary team decided more action needed to be taken. Redwings vet, Ruth Morgan said “Muffin is an iconic resident at the Sanctuary and has been with us for a long time. We tried all the standard treatments, including creams and a course of chemotherapy; but when we heard that the oncology team at the Animal Health Trust had started treating these sarcoids in horses with iridium, we knew that would be Muffin’s best chance.”

“We were very concerned to treat the condition effectively before it spread closer to his eye and became painful. This type of radiotherapy is a new and very exciting method that has been developed and fortunately Muffin didn’t need to travel too far to receive it. We are so grateful to the Animal Health Trust for taking such good care of our special little mule during his stay in Newmarket and for all their assistance with this case.”

Redwings and The Animal Health Trust, both based in East Anglia, have very similar aims in the field of equine welfare, and both are delighted to be working together to ensure the best outcome for Muffin.

The Trust has had a wide variety of unusual animals referred to them over the years, but Muffin is thought to be the first mule they have ever treated.

More about Redwings: Redwings Horse Sanctuary was established in 1984 and today has grown to become the largest horse charity in the UK, working to save horses, ponies, donkeys and mules whose future would otherwise be bleak. Its work has three themes: rescue & rehabilitation, specialist sanctuary care and prevention through education. Its horse care & welfare hotline receives typically 3,000 calls per year. As at March 2008, the sanctuary was providing more than 1,000 horses, ponies, donkeys and mules with specialist sanctuary care and currently has 500 horses out on loan in Guardian homes.

An invitation from the heavens.....

Rev. Silver-Moonblossom

beings who are full of love and light for each and every one of us and bring that connection into our lives on a stronger basis.

The word Angel, comes from the Latin word “angelos” meaning messenger, and it is a fitting name to give these beings for in part that is what they are, in true essence they are messengers, creat When I decided to begin writing for the Herald on the “topic” of the angels I thought I would find it so hard to put into words something that when you truly learn to accept and work with, can bring you the most heart warming feelings and just aid a little in your already magical life. What was surprising to discover however was that once the words start coming it is like I myself am no longer telling you what I think, but instead I am simply passing on a message that is coming to you from the heavens above directly. Yes I call them the heavens, this is by no means to be confused with the Summerlands, Otherworlds, or Sprit Realm that you make think of in a similar way, but by heavens I mean the upper planes where the angels reside, and yes due to their nature, the term heaven fits this realm just right. For that reason I do ask you to bear with me if I seem to get a little side tracked every now and then, for my own thoughts may start creeping back in!

I wish to begin, or should I say I feel compelled to begin by introducing you all to the angels, what they are, before moving on in further weeks to who they are, for it is better to understand a little about the what is meant by the term angel, and how no matter who you are and what you believe these transcendent beings are with us all, and by working together week by week, we should all be able to access these ed by Deity (and I use the term Deity, for no matter what your religious background is, I am sure the angels will feature one way or another for you too), to help carry for forth messages, information and well anything really. Now how these messages come to you, very much depends upon to whom the angels are visiting.

In all religions there is a creation story, telling how the Earth, and all life came about, now from religion to religion this may differ, but one thing that remains constant throughout all is the presence of angels.

When the Earth and all beings were created so too where the angels, however they remained a true essence of Deity itself, they are the spark of Deity within us all, they are a soul, but as they did not descend through each of the planes to reside among us on the Earth, they are in effect beings of true light, without real shape or form, a direct and constant link between Deity and humanity. Now this is a concept that we as humans do find very hard to understand, and so we have a tendency to humanise all things that to us may seem unfamiliar, these beings of true light are another thing that we give human form to, in order to allow us to interact more closely with.

For this reason, I have no intention of sitting here telling you what they look like for how they look to me, will most probably be by no means how they look to you. Instead I will tell you this, that it is very rare that I see the white feathery winged being that is often portrayed as an angel, instead when it comes down to “seeing” angels for myself this is very rare, for unless I am in a dreamlike state, I myself do not see them much, but instead I feel them, I feel their presence and most often I think their thoughts much in the sense as if they were in my head with me, but I know in my heart of hearts that these thoughts are not mine, but are instead a message from the heavens. When I do see them, it is always in colour, most often a coloured light, or orb, and then I find feathers lying in places where I simply would not expect to find them (and now I am being “nudged” to get back to the point in question!).

So when this world was created, Deity did not like to think of us alone and without that direct link, that direct line to them that we can call upon in time of need, or simply remains a steady guide throughout our life, from time of birth until the time comes for us once more to travel through the veil. Now you are all saying if that so then how come this happens, why was I not warned, you most probably were, in fact you most defiantly were, unfortunately as we grew older, our minds have been programmed for us so that now we no longer recognise the warning signs that are sent to us, and instead we walk along blinkered, our minds and eyes strictly focused upon the norm... Along with that the angels are like every other being in creation, and this means that they themselves do not have the power to overrule your own free will, and until you ask for them to come to your aid, they usually must remain forever on the sidelines, watching in and sending you signs, hoping you see and understand them, this being said they is one exception to the rule, this being that in times of extreme plight or danger, they can step in guiding us away from this or even physically helping, this giving you your unexplainable miracles!!

Now I have trained (mostly self-trained), and study the realm of the angels, and how we can incorporate their help into our everyday life and our already practised religious works, however there is no need for you to rush out and try to find the most accessible course to teach you how to do this, instead I have or should I say I am being asked to simply tell you all that this is already within you, all you have to do is simply ask the angels to come to you, and they shall, and for those of you who are finding this a little harder, I am here on a weekly basis to deliver to you another little message...

To leave you I am asked to ask you all this, begin to open yourselves up to these wonderful beings, for you have each been sent an invitation to get to know these creatures further, the decision as to whether or not you accept that invitation is yours and yours alone, if you do, and if you feel ready try calling out in your heart and in your mind that you do accept and wish to connect further to the angelic realm.

For now the time has come for our session to come to an end, and the angels must return to the heavens, but before they go, they wish you all to go forth in love and light, may you each in turn blessed be!

I was lying in bed tossing in pain
By Rev. Nehal

I was lying in bed tossing in pain
I asked the Goddess for healing
She came to me in the shadows
I could not see her but I could sense her
She asked "What shape do you want your healing in?"
A strange question but I answered "Stars"
I found myself in a world of stars
All kinds of stars, big and little
All the colours you could think of
Bright and twinkling, some were dull
I felt a sense of relief then as I looked around
I could feel the energy seeping in
Slowly, the pain flowed out
And as it did I started feeling joy
I started dancing amongst the stars
Twirling and swirling. Jumping and running.
Oh, such joy, amongst the stars.
Then I heard, "who else do you want here?"
And I thought of my 2 friends
Who also need healing
I called them to me, and they joined me amongst the stars
And there we danced, the Dance of Healing
Twirling
Swirling
Running
Jumping
While the stars shone and looked on in joy
Then it was time to go
And I thanked the Goddess
This Goddess I don't know.

THE ORDER OF WORLD WALKERS

This Correllian order is headed by the Rev. Krystel High Correll and she is offering training for those who wish to join the order. The training consists of twelve lessons, one a month, for a year, offered through e-mail.

The purpose of this order is to fulfill the deeper purposes of the Correllian Tradition--advanced psychic and spiritual work, primarily conducted on multi-dimensional levels. This work includes:

Learning to connect and work with your spirit guides. Conscious dying and conscious incarnation. Advanced dream work. Exploring the known boundaries of the multi-dimensional universe, then conducting independent work to go beyond those boundaries. The study of time and advanced work within it. Soul rescue (helping those who are not aware they have died, or are not willing to cross over). Mediumship (being a voice for the so-called dead, visiting the land of the dead and communicating with them, and building a pathway between the living and the dead). Healing, both personal and of our Earth.

These purposes are divided among five houses that consist of the members who are dedicated to the work of the House.

The Order of World Walkers is a working order. The training is only the beginning. Each of the houses offer work that can be done for the rest of your life, if you choose to do it.

I believe that everyone who chooses to become a member of the order chose this before coming into this life time to continue work begun in other lives.

The Order of Web Weavers Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,
The Order of Web Weavers
