Free Monthly Tarot Readings Offered

Profile of Reader

Rev. John (Ing) Snodgrass, HP:

Tarot Reader, 25 plus years experience I know that for many of you monthly readers of our magazine here may not always get the opportunity to physically sit down with someone who is skilled in the art of reading the cards, or perhaps afford to pay for expensive regular monthly readings, so what I would like to do is provide you with a free monthly reading...a little guidance as it were, and an easy and convenient access to much needed information for the coming month. What I am offering to you is a free basic3 Card - Tarot Card Reading which can help guide you through periods when your emotions have become troubled and clouded thoughts are all you have. I wish to be of service to you by offering this free reflection of your past, present and possible future and thus offer to you For this project, I am calling upon all Temples, Proto-Temples, Witan Shrines,a short fresh perspective on your life, and its many problems.

Announcements

For your free reading just email me at: rev.ing.hp@gmail.com with your 1 question for the upcoming month ... I will post both the cards and their answer for you... At no time will names be used or email addresses posted... I will require you to email me your zip code (or a 5 number code) and a 3 alphabetic letter combination of your choice...these I will use as the title for your printed reply so that you can find your personal reading in totally anonymity... as I will remove the email from my files as soon as your reading is done and thus no further emailed comments will be forth coming from me...

Crystal Web Mapping Project

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure our records are up to date and accurate. The information we need in order to best catalog your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Send to the following e-mail address:

Windy0716@aol.com

Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly cataloged we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Creating a Crystal Access Point

Dig the hole in which you will bury the crystal before you start to cast the circle.

Begin by casting a Circle. Since you will be out of doors and may not be burying your crystal in a private place, you may want it to be a very simple.

Circle: you can do it entirely in your head, imagining the Circle around you, then silently calling the Quarters and imagining Them as pillars of white light.

You may invoke Goddess and God silently.

Announcements

Of course if you are in a more private as place, or are comfortable being observed casting a Circle, you may do the Circle elaborately as you choose.

Hold your crystal. Above the crystal imagine a three dimensional triangle of white light. Imagine this fully.

Then imagine the triangle spinning clockwise.

Imagine a ball of white light in the Heart Chakra. When this is clear in your head, send a beam of green light from the Heart Chakra into the spinning triangle. As the green light enters the triangle, it will change its shape, becoming a cube (still spinning clockwise). Imagine this change fully.

Fill the cube with green light from your Heart Chakra.

Once the cube is full of green light the flow will reverse, and green light will flow back to your heart. Let the green light fill your heart, your chest, your whole body, as well as the crystal you hold. Let the crystal fill with this light.

Put the crystal in the hole and cover it with earth.

Place both hands directly over the now-covered hole and focus white light down into the earth and the buried crystal. Now charge the crystal to link into the Crystal Web.

Announcements

This may be spoken aloud or done silently.

"O crystal, I charge you to link into the Crystal Web, becoming one with its energies.

Through you I gain access to the Web, which links my Correllian family."

Imagine a beam of white light coming from the crystal and shooting off in one or another direction, underground – this is the crystal linking into the Web.

To use this crystal in the future, follow these steps:

Imagine the buried crystal within a cube of white light. Imagine the cube spinning clockwise.

Focus a beam of energy from your heart into the cube, and imagine it changing into a triangle, still spinning; the crystal will then be open and may be interacted with. When finished, allow the image to fade. This can be done from a distance; you do not need to actually be at the site where the crystal is buried.

You have now created a Crystal Access Point!

Divination Order: Numerology

Numerology is any of many systems, traditions or beliefs in a mystical or esoteric relationship between numbers and physical objects or living things.

Numerology and numerological divination were popular among early mathematicians, such as Pythagoras, but are no longer considered part of mathematics and are regarded as pseudomathematics by modern scientists.

This is similar to the historical development of astrology out of astronomy, and alchemy from chemistry.

Craft Project: Dyed Coffee Filter Spring Wreath

<http://www.thriftyfun.com/tf57027102.t>
ip.html

This colorful wreath is made from coffee filters that have been dyed with food coloring.

Approximate Time: 4 hours, depending on how large you make it

Supplies:

- coffee filters (at least a 100 ct. box)
- foam wreath
- glue gun
- glue
- ribbon for hanging
- food dye
- oven for drying (opt)
- strips of cloth to wrap wreath
- cookie sheet or something for them to dry on
- pencil with eraser

Craft Project: Dyed Coffee Filter Spring Wreath

Instructions:

1. First wrap your wreath with strips of cloth if you might want to reuse the wreath again for anything else. The cloth helps to make your filters stick better too. Attach a ribbon hanger to the wreath (it is easier to do this now than later).
2. Separate the coffee filters and make dye with food coloring. Start out with just a few drops and put about 1/2 cup water in a bowl. If it is too light, you can always add more. If you find it is too dark, add more water. You can make all kinds of combinations of color.

Just look on the outside of your dye box and it will tell you how much to use of what.

3. Pinch the filters at the bottom, dip each into food dye. Lay on cookie sheet. You can overlap them somewhat and it doesn't matter if the dye runs into each other. It looks kind of pretty that way.

Craft Project: Dyed Coffee Filter Spring Wreath

4. If you care to dry them faster you can put them in the oven at the lowest heat possible (mine is 170 degrees) to let them dry. They get a little brown at the tips, but it makes it look more interesting, I think. Otherwise, it takes a long time for them to dry.

5. When completely dry, you are ready to assemble your wreath.

6. Take a filter and with a pencil put it inside the filter as shown in photo, use your glue gun and put a dot of glue on the tip.

Craft Project: Dyed Coffee Filter Spring Wreath

7. Starting from the outside of the wreath, begin gluing. This takes quite awhile, but then I put them pretty close, too, so if you want a sparser wreath, it won't take so long.

You can make it look more springy by not adding so much dye to the water. Here is the second one I made using less dye.

Justice XIX

Cosmology: Cosmologically Justice means that we must deal not only with the things we desire to create and do, but with the effects created by them. Thus when Goddess and God became separate, Goddess could not simply take God back into herself, but had to enter into him as the many souls. Similarly we cannot simply undo a thing we have done because we do not like its effect, but must enter into that effect and learn the lessons it offers in order to release the attachment. These attachments are the mechanism that the Soul uses to learn the lessons it requires of life, by making sure that they cannot be avoided. It is often thought that this means a given Karmic situation must be repeated physically one or more times in order to release it, and granted it usually is, but every level of the being is equally important and Karmic attachments can in fact be healed and released from other levels of the being than physical if the person is sufficiently spiritually advanced to do it.

Beyond Weird

Mary the Prophetess

The practise of Mary the Prophetess in the Alchymicall Art.

Aros the Philosopher had a meeting with Mary the Prophetess the Sister of Moyses, and approaching to her, he paid Prophetess, I have truly heard many say of you that you whiten the Stone in one day.

And Mary said, Yea, Aros, even in a part of one day.

Beyond Weird

Aros said: O Lady Mary, when will the Work be which you affirm? How shall we whiten and afterwards add blackness? Mary said; O Aros, oftentimes Nations have dyd about this part. Know you not, O Aros; that there is a water or a thing which whitens Hendragem?

Then Aros answering said to her. O Lady it is so as you say, but in a long time.

Mary answered, Hermes in all his Books has said that the Philosophers whiten the Stone in one hour of the day.

Aros said to her, Oh how excellent is that?

Mary said, it is most excellent to him that is ignorant of it.

Aros said, if men have all the four Elements, he [Hermes] said that their fumes might be compleated, and complexioned, and coagulated, and retained in one day, untill they doe fullfill the consequence (i.e. attain the end).

Mary said, O Aros, by God, if thy senses or understanding were not solid, you should not hear these words from me, untill the Lord should fill my Heart with the grace of his divine Will. Nevertheless take the Allum of Spain, the white gumm and the red gumm, which is the Kibric of the Philosophers, and their Sol and the greater Tincture, and marry Gumm with Gumm togeather with a true Matrimony.

Beyond Weird

Mary said, make them like a running Water, and vitrify this water which has been laboured or wrought upon for one day, out of the two Lubechs, upon the fixed body, and liquefy them by the secret of Nature in the Vessel of Philosophy. Did you understand us? Yes Lady.

Mary said, Keep the fume and take care that none of it fly away. And let your measure be with a gentle fire such as is the Measure of the heat of the Sun in the Month of June or July, and stay by your Vessel and behold it with care how it grows black, grows red, and grows white in less than three hours of the day, and the fume will penetrate the body, and the Spirit will be bound up, and they will be like milk, incerating, and liquefying and penetrating: and that is the secret.

Aros said I do not say that this will be allways.

Mary said unto him: Aros, and this is more wonderfull concerning this, that it was not among the Ancients, nor did it come to him by curing, or by the on the Hillocks, and pound it fresh as it is in its Hour, and that is the true Body not flying from the Fire.

And Aros said it is the Stone of Truth?

And Mary said yes. But yet men know not this regimen (rule or way of working) with the speediness thereof.

Beyond Weird

Aros said, and what afterwards.

Mary said, vitrify upon it Kibric or Zibeic and there are the two fumes comprehending the two Lights, and project upon that the complement of the Tinctures of the Spirits, and the weights of Truth, and pound it all, and put it to the Fire, and you shall see wonderful things from them. The whole government consists in the temper of the Fire, O how strange it is, how it will be moved from one colour to another, in less than an hour of the Day, untill it arrive at the mark of redness and whiteness, and cast away the Fire and permit it to cool, and open it and you will find the clear pearly Body to be of the Colour of the Poppy of the Wood mixt with whiteness and that is it which is incerating, liquefying and penetrating, and one golden piece thereof, the weight of a small golden Coin, falleth upon a thousand thousand and two hundred thousand. That is the hidden secret.

Then Aros fell down upon his face.

And Mary said to him, Lift up your head

Aros: because I will shorten for you the thing, as that clear body which is thrown upon the Hillocks, and is not obtained by putrefaction or motion. Take and pound it with Gumm Elsaron, and with the two fumes because the Body comprehending or upon the Hillocks, and is not retaining them is Gumm Elsaron and grind it all. Therefore approach because it all melts. If you project its wife upon it, it will be as a distilling Water, and when the Aire shall strike it, it will be congealed and be one body, and make projection of it, and you will behold Wonders: O Aros that is the hidden secret of Scholia; and know that the said two fumes are the Root of this Art, and they are the white Kibric and the humid calx, but the fixed Body is of the Heart of Saturn comprehending the Tincture, and the Fields of Wisdom or of Scholia. And the Philosophers have named it by many and all names, and received or gathered from the Hillocks it is a clear white Body, and these are the medicine of this Art, part is procured and part is found upon the Hillocks; and know Aros that the wise men have not called it the Fields of Wisdom, or of Scholia, unless because Scholia will not be compleated but by it; and in the Scholia there are nothing but wonderful things. For there also enters into them the four Stones, and its true regimen is as I have said. And that is first Scoyare, Ade, and Zethet; by that make your Allegory as Hermes has done in his Books Scoyas, and the Philosophers have allways made the regimen longer, and have resembled the work to every thing which ought not to make the work, and they make the Magistry to be in one year, and this but onely for hiding it from the ignorant people, untill it be confirmed in their Hearts and their senses (till they believe the Art),: because the Art will not be compleated except only in Gold; because it is the great secret of God: and they who hear of our secrets doe not verify them (nor believe them to be true), by reason of their ignorance. Did you understand Aros?

Beyond Weird

Aros said yes. But tell me about that vessel, without which the Work will not be accomplisht.

Mary said that the Vessel of Hermes which the Stoicks have concealed, and it is not a Necromanticall Vessel, but it is the Measure of your Fire.

Aros said: O Lady you have obeyed (been a scholar) in the Society of Scoyari: O Prophetess, have you found among the Secrets of the Philosophers, which they have set down in their Books, that any one can make the Art out of one Body?

And Mary said: Yes: which Hermes has not taught, because the Root of Scholia is a body which cannot be made smooth or plain and incurable(unconquerable) and it is a poyson mortifying all bodies, and it pulverises them and coagulates Mercury with its odour. And shee said, I swear to you by the eternall God, that that poison when it is dissolved untill it is made a subtile Water, I care not by what dissolution it is done, does coagulate Mercury into Luna with the strength of Truth, and it falls into the Throne of Jupiter, and forms him into Luna. And the Science is in all Bodys, but the Stoicks, by reason of the shortness of their lives, and the Length of the Work, have concealed this; and they found out these tinging Elements, and they increased them, and all the Philosophers teach them, except the Vessel of Hermes, because it is divine, and of the Wisdom of the Lord hidden from Nations: and they who are ignorant of it, know not the Regimen of Truth, because of their Ignorance of the Vessel of Hermes.

Spell of the Month

By: Susan Wheeler

From : The book of spells by Michael

The Stream of Love Spell

Image: www.wikipedia.org

This spell is cast out of doors beside a stream or river. It is a spell to be woven for those looking for true, lasting love, not to attract a particular person to the magic-maker's side.

You will need:

Rose petals from a living rose, preferable wild.

Those who follow the Wiccan way will approach the rose with reverence and ask its permission before removing the petals. And when they have done so, they will thank it for its generosity.

As you pluck the petals, visualize someone having all the qualities you consider necessary for the ideal partner – humour, generosity, compassion, whatever. Take the petals to a stream or river, hold them in cupped hands and, again visualizing the qualities you are looking for, let them drizzle into the flowing water, saying:

Spell of the Month

*As this bloom is taken downstream
May I find love with the one of whom I dream.*

And it harm none, so be it.

Archangels-Raphael

By: Electra's

The name of this Archangel means 'God heals' and is the patron of healers all around the world and all those in need of healing. He is the Angel who offers healing to the planet, to Earth and her creatures, to the environment and the waters. His direction is East and his color is yellow. He is able to move into every area that needs healing and He can heal every kind of pain, since He is there to help us open our hearts and minds to the healing power of the Universe. Ask of this archangel's help either for physical or emotional pain, since He will give you guidance to come up with new ideas or thoughts which will give you exactly the piece of information you need for your healing. He can assist us in being a catalyst for healing while not taking on or empathizing what is happening with those we are serving. This allows us to be both clearer channels for the healing process as well as insuring we do not take on the problems or issues of another. Working with this Archangel offers protection both for the healer and the person seeking healing. When we are ill or in the midst of a serious issue or problem, this leaves us open and vulnerable to all sorts of psychic intrusions and thought forms that can blow the issues completely out of proportion and what started off as the sniffles can turn into something more serious. Raphael reminds us that it is not up to us to figure out how to heal ourselves and others, but it is our duty instead to call upon him and the Universe to guide us through the healing process, to allow the power of Spirit to flow through us . Likewise we are not responsible for anyone's healing except our own. When his help is required ,He surrounds us with the green colour of an emerald and offers the green healing energy. In cases of death or unavoidable illnesses which serve the divine plan ,he can offer great help both to the healer and the person in need of the healing. Archangel Raphael can show you which thoughts make you ill and hold you to the past and draw your attention upon them in order to get rid of them ,since they may be holding you back in your life. You can show him all your anger and let yourself accept the healing energy and peace of mind, he will bring you. After all, it is up to the individual to accept the healing. Raphael also helps us get in touch with the shadow side of ourselves so that we may bring it into the light. Raphael knows that the shadow exists and we reinforce our shadow side when we ignore it, pretend it doesn't exist and allow it to fester and grow. The shadow though is really nothing more than parts of ourselves that feel unlovable . No matter how hard or how long we try to ignore it, the shadow is always present until we muster the courage to send it love and compassion which brings it into the light. And nothing cannot be healed through the light of Spirit! Raphael seeks to encourage each and every one of us to spend some time simply getting to know our own shadows. Talking to it, asking why it feels the way it does, asking where it sprang from. Then we can go back and work to heal these bits of ourselves because we understand that it arose from a deep hurt or wound. We can strive to forgive anyone who has hurt us and thus contributed to the creation of our shadow. He is also a guardian of the young and a guardian of all travellers. You can ask of his help, when you are travelling in order to keep you safe and make all your trips comfortable. If you feel this Angels' presence, it means that you are need of healing or that you are called to heal someone in your own way ,either by words or by actions. Ask Raphael to begin by healing and opening your heart and embrace the energy that begins to flow to you through his love for you. And most important, do not forget to say thank you to Raphael.

Archangels-Raphael

By: Electra's

By: Electra's

Archangels-Raphael

From the Witch's Armchair

Compassion

I have been working with Quan Yin of late, and have been learning a lot about compassion and non-judgement. These are subtle concepts which I feel have many hidden depths.

To begin, I want to ask: what are sympathy, empathy, compassion and non-judgement? Others may have alternative definitions, but for me sympathy is the attempt to see things from another person's viewpoint, based on your own experiences. If you've ever broken your leg, then you'll know how another person may be feeling if they break theirs. Empathy on the other hand is the ability to feel how another is feeling regardless of whether you've had the same experience. Empaths literally feel another person's emotions, psychically or at least on a deep psychological level. For psychics, it can be a challenge to learn to control the waves of emotion that can come from other people, using shielding.

Compassion, on the other hand, is being able to listen to another person objectively, with love in your heart, without judging whether they are right or wrong. I've heard of buddhist masters being described as "radiating with the light of compassion and non-judgement". This is something that western society has lost touch with to some degree. We have become extremely interested in our own undertakings, and can find it difficult to listen to another without forming an opinion of them or the rightness of their actions. On the other hand, it's only to be expected that others will react differently to a situation than we would, and it is easy to fall into the trap of telling them they're wrong. Each of us is continually doing our best - what we think is the right thing to do. Sometimes we need our friends to tell us if we're getting on the wrong track, but generally only if we're asked for our opinion. Often telling someone they're wrong will only stop them from confiding in you in the future. Compassion requires that we view each person as a human being, just like us, and accept their faults as part of the package. And often, all someone needs is simply for someone else to listen.

Quan Yin's gifts of compassion and non-judgement are symbolized by the pure waters she holds in her bottle, and the willow branch. In magic, these tools symbolize the waters of wisdom and healing, for which we use a cup. And for us, a branch refers to the wand, a symbol of learning, knowledge and growth. In Buddhism, the fact that Quan Yin carries a branch of willow is extremely important. The willow tree lives on the banks of rivers and lakes. It collects rain and dew, which trickle down its drooping branches into the river beneath. Symbolically these drops are the tears of Quan Yin, who witnesses our suffering and sheds tears for our pain, and her years are carried away and flow back to the source as we are healed. The willow is also a very flexible wood, and in the greatest of storms it will bend and bow, but will not be torn down.

From the Witch's Armchair

Thus, even when we don't think we can face a challenge, or listen compassionately without judging, we can remember the willow which bends and adapts, but does not change its essential nature.

Blessed be,
White Sophia

Monthly Tarot Reading

For

MAY 2011

By: Rev. John (Ing) Snodgrass, HP

You should take note that May has been divided into 5 increments –the first 4 are 7 days long and the last increment is 3 days long.

The deck of Tarot Cards I am using for this month is “The Norse Tarot” by Clive Barrett...a very beautifully illustrated deck steeped in imagery based on Norse Mythology.

Note: Although I will show all the Tarot Cards in their Upright view - their true position is noted under the individual card.

The First 7 Days: 05 - 1 to 05 - 7

Monthly Tarot Reading

The Hanged Man (Reversed)

Illustration: Odin hung upon the branches of the sacred Tree. For nine days and nine nights he suffered. Self wounded by his spear, sacrificed by his hand, an offering unto himself.

In agony and torment he stared into the bottomless depths of Niflheim, searching the dark pool in silence. Finally, with great effort, he reached down before him. His hand was chilled to the bone in the ice cold waters. With a cry of triumph he grasped the knowledge he sought - the Sacred Runes, their magic and their power.

He took the Runes and he used them well. He carved them upon the shaft of his spear; he carved runes upon all things. By this means he obtained power over all.

The First 7 Days of May finds The Hanged Man card in his Reversed position ... The Hanged Man upright is about new perspectives, sacrifices, vulnerability, and selflessness.

Monthly Tarot Reading

Reversed.... it would be a refusal to sacrifice what needs to be sacrificed, a refusal to see things from a new perspective.

This week many of us might feel like we are dead in the water momentum wise, seemingly apart from the rest of the world, unable to bring the week's energies into perspective with the world around us.

The Second 7 Days: 05 - 8 to 05 - 14

The King of Cups (Reversed)

Illustration: With his cloak blowing in the wind, the King holds a chalice high in offering to the sea.

The Second 7 Days of May finds The King of Cups card in his Reversed position ... Note: Although Kings usually stand for a male in a spread, they can be female if the situation or reading warrants it.

The King of Cups treats his followers like family, his kingdom like a neighborhood. He knows everyone within his kingdom by name and he knows their problems; he cares for and about everyone, and will make great sacrifices to help them. And everyone loves him back - he is the ultimate, loving father figure, eliciting fierce loyalty.

Monthly Tarot Reading

The negatives of the King of Cups are seen in the reverse, where we have a man, maudlin in his emotions, he loves to extreme, hates to extreme.

Something this week will block our ability to feel or express what should be done or said - external forces may block these, or worse, cause the misuse of our powers or authority. We may be asked to keep secrets, or to aid to get people to do and say things that are wrong or feel wrong.

The Third 7 Days: 05 - 15 to 05 - 21

The Princess of Cups (Upright)

Monthly Tarot Reading

Illustration: The Princess stands by the side of the lake, the mountains high above the pines in the background. She looks deeply into her carefully held chalice.

The Third 7 Days of May finds The Princess of Cups card in her Upright position ... The first court cards are the Pages or Princesses. It is always best to imagine them as young, and with a letter or scroll in hand or on their person. Deck-wise, the Princess can be male or female, but they always indicate that one is about to receive a message.

In the case of the Princess of Cups it is usually a message concerning love, romance, heart-break, or concerning a family member.

The Fourth 7 Days: 05 - 22 to 05 - 28

The Chariot (Upright)

Illustration: Thor, the Norse God of Thunder, was tall and strong, his hair and beard were red. In moments of anger sparks would fly like lightning from his beard. Mjolnir was the name of his hammer, which he hurled it at his enemies with great destructive power, yet no matter how hard or far he threw it, it would return safely to his hand.

Thor was the God of the Common Man, which explains his great popularity. When the storm clouds gathered, the rumble and roar of thunder was thought to be the sound of the wheels of his chariot, drawn by the two dark goats.

The Fourth 7 Days of May finds The Chariot card in its Upright position ... The Chariot is one of the most complex cards to define. At its most basic level, it is about getting what you want. It can also imply a war - a struggle, and an eventual, a hard-won victory over enemies, obstacles, nature, even the uncertainties inside yourself.

This week many of us are likely going to be dealing with a lot of contradictions in our life. Like the driver of the chariot, we must decide on a goal, take control of all factors with clear knowledge of what we want or need and go where we can obtain all with speed and precision, being confident that we can overcome any doubts and uncertainties in our path and achieve the needed victory within the given situation.

The Last 3 Days: 05 - 29 to 05 - 31

Monthly Tarot Reading

Ace of Wands (Upright)

Illustration: A ceremonial scepter symbolizing the element of fire. It signifies the flame of the thunderbolt. The illustration shows the decorated whetstone scepter found during the excavation of the Sutton Hoo ship burial.

The Last 3 Days of May ... finds the Ace of Wands in its Upright position... The Aces are about root force...they are the spark...yet they have no set purpose at the beginning, but are filled only with raw potential. They are the active energy of their suit available for our use.

The end of May finds us with a new spark of energy, or maybe a new passion. There are new causes to be undertaken, and for some - a career choice to be made. All we need do is pickup the ball and run with it... the potential for success is here - if we believe in ourselves and others around us...

The Month in Summary:

Monthly Tarot Reading

The Star (Upright)

Illustration: The Goddess of Night is shown here clothed in golden robes with her silver night cloak around her. The night's sky of stars shines out as she lifts the edge of the cloak for all awake to see their patterns.

In Summary, Here we find The Star card in its Upright position... The Star is a card that looks to the future. It does not predict any immediate or powerful change, but it does predict the arrival of new hope and healing.

The month of May, for many, speaks to the arrival of "clarity of vision or spiritual insight" for many. And while it is true that unexpected help may be forth coming – no set day and time for its arrival is spoken of.

This "help" however is only the first step of many that must be taken, one step at a time - one day at a time, and it can be a long stairway, but we must climb it to the top...

To: The honored members of the Witan Council

As you may know the Council of Elders have resolved for several years to accept no new Council members who have served the Tradition for fewer than fifteen years. We feel that this rule has kept the Council of Elders stable, but it has also made it very difficult for the Council to expand, as only a small portion of our Priesthood meet this criteria. As the Council has grown older, and several members have entered into poor health, the issue of expanding the Council has become an increasingly important one.

On April 1st, Year 11 Aquarius, in order to better prepare the Correllian Nativist Tradition for the future, the Correllian Council of Elders unanimously agreed to create a new position of Provisional Elder. This position will confer all of the duties, rights, and privileges due to an Elder of our tradition, but may be removed by either the First Priest or First Priestess, or by a 2/3 vote of all Vested Elders, for any reason of their choosing. Upon their fifth year of service as a Provisional Elder or upon their 15th year of Service as an initiated Priest/ess of the Tradition, the Provisional Elder will be eligible to become a fully Vested Elder.

This position of Provisional Elder will be continued until we have a established a stronger and healthier council, and will remain in effect until March 31st, 2021. At that time the Elder Council will once again convene to consider continuing or ending this rule.

We, The Council of Elders, have chosen this course of action as the Tradition is in need of expanded leadership, to fulfill the duties and offices needed for a Tradition that has become truly global. We respect the membership and felt a need to at least temporarily ameliorate the fifteen year rule, until such time as we can suitably grow the Council of Elders to better handle the expanding requirements of the Tradition.

We now ask the Witan Council to accept and endorse this doctrine which the Council of Elder has seen fit to place into the Bylaws of the Correllian Tradition.

We further ask you to accept the expansion of the Council of Elders, and recognize those new Elders and Provisional Elders whom we have elevated to this Council and whose names follow.

Rev. Jason Mycroft, Lord of the Pure Sanctuary who now becomes a fully Vested Elder, having served as a Priest of the Tradition since 1996.

Rev. Green Owl, Lady of Trianna, who now becomes a Provisional Elder. Lady Green Owl will become a Vested Elder in 2015.

Rev. Anna Rowe, Lady of Sedna, who now becomes a Provisional Elder. Lady Anna will become a Vested Elder in 2015.

Rev. Windy Lajoie, Lady of the Hooded Crone, who now becomes a Provisional Elder. Lady Windy will become a Vested Elder in 2015.

Rev. Stephanie Neal, Lady of the Sacred Sea, who now becomes a Provisional Elder. Lady Stephanie will become a Vested Elder in 2016.

Rev. Terry Power, Lord of the Celtic Cross, who now becomes a Provisional Elder. Lord Terry will become a Vested Elder in 2016.

Rev. Raene Packery, Lady of the Clan of Kheper, who now becomes a Provisional Elder. Lady Raene will become a Vested Elder in 2016.

We, the Council of Elders, hereby thank you for your recognition of these elevations, and we thank you for honoring and respecting the wishes of the Elders, and we pray that you will ratify our considerations at this Lustration of April 23rd, 2011.

In addition to this expansion of the Council of Elders, Correllian Chancellor M. Rev. Donald Lewis also announced some changes in the standing of the existing Vested Elders

The eldest member of the Council of Elders, Rt. Rev. Virginia Bitterwind Smith, who has served as First Elder of the Correllian Tradition for nearly a quarter century, has been experiencing a number of health issues during the last few years. Because of this ArchPriestess Bitterwind has decided that the time has come for her to retire from the post of First Elder, as she no longer feels that she can adequately carry out the duties of the office. Lady Bitterwind will now be known as First Elder Retired, and will continue to enjoy the same level of respect and dignity. To become the new First Elder the Council has chosen Rt. Rev. Edward Hubbard. May the blessing be upon the First Elder!

In addition M. Rev. Krystel High-Correll, First Priestess of the Correllian Tradition, has already been in retirement for several years now. As Retired First Priestess Lady Krystel does and always will enjoy the same level of respect and dignity that she has born for the last three decades of her imperium. Now, after much consideration, we are pleased to announce an Heir to the office of First Priestess: Lady Krystel and the entirety of the Council of Elders are pleased to name Rt. Rev. Traci Logan Wood as Heiress and Acting First Priestess, in accordance with the Rules of Succession of the Correllian Tradition as outlined in the Tradition bylaws. May the Blessing be upon the Acting First Priestess!

We are confident that these changes will help the Correllian Tradition to better meet the many challenges that face us as a global Tradition. We hope that you will join us in welcoming all of the new Elders and the new Officers of Tradition.

Blessings,

M.Rev. Donald Lewis-HighCorrell
Chancellor & First Priest

The Readers Question: I have been stuck without a job and not much luck with even scoring an interview. I apply and apply just wondering when I can expect a change.

Note: Although I will show all the Tarot Cards in their Upright view - their true position is noted under the individual card and card meaning.

6 of Wands
(Upright)

8 of Cups
(Reversed)

The Star
(Reversed)

CARD ONE: 6 of Wands (Upright):

Sixes are the restoration of balance and harmony. The 6 of Wands predicts an exchange, a give and take that results in a new equilibrium. It may not last, but for that moment, everything is stable.

CARD TWO: 8 of Cups (Reversed):

Unlike with the Sevens, there is no ambiguity with the Eights, no question of whether what you're doing or choosing is the right thing. Reversed the Eights are often about weakness, unwillingness or uncertainty, as compared to the upright meaning.

The Eight of Cups is the “follow your dream card,” and upright, the person leaves what is comfortable and established to follow their dreams - however remote or improbable. Reverse this and our dreamer walks away from his dreams to come home, but home isn't that comfortable any more.

CARD THREE: The Star (Reversed):

The Star is a card of “hope and healing,” it promises that there is a future, and offers a light to guide the person on their way to that future. It is a drink of cool water (knowledge) in the wasteland, a promise of tomorrow. Reverse it and any hope or promise offered is going to be false, but this does not mean there is no hope – but that we just can't see it from we are standing.

The SUMMARY: I read in your email question an intense pessimism; the sort of cynical or depressed outlook that insists that the world is coming to an end, there is no future, the glass is half-empty and will never be full again, your search will never end, and the cards at first glance say the same...

This, however, is not accurate. There is hope of a good end - but something is standing in the way of your finding what you seek - either your own refusal to see it, or some other dark cloud, not of your own making, is blinding you to it...

You have a new month ahead of you... today write down a list of all the places you have looked for employment in the past 3 months... see if there is a pattern in their denial of employment to you... remove that negative pattern from your future employment searches... and yes, go back to each of the non-negative places and try again...

Ing's Free Personal Readings

CARD ONE: 3 of Cups (Upright):

The 3 of Cups can signify parties, birthdays, or a holiday. What it signals most strongly, however, is being with those who are emotionally in tune with you and you with them.

CARD TWO: 3 of Wands (Upright):

The 3 of Wands is the "waiting for the ships to come in." The person has invested their passion in something - a new career, a big move to a new city (remember wands signify travel as well), it is a card of progress, of the first hint that the dream can be made real.

CARD THREE: King of Swords

(Reversed): Kings lead their armies into battle and sit in judgment on their throne, the Queens are the life-giving water of the kingdom, the Kings represent the power of civilization and authority, control and command. Reversed, this card signals abuse of power or his judgment is bad and control has either been blocked or surrendered. Thus the King uses his power to achieve his own selfish whims rather than do what is best for the kingdom.

The King of Swords is also about new philosophies, theories, about observations and facts that can alter and balance out a judgment. Reverse this card and there is a block to any or all new theories and facts.

Note: Although Kings usually stand for a male in a spread, they can be female if the situation or reading warrants it.

The SUMMARY: While it is true that we can see that there is a sense of positive results coming in, we should wait till the "ship" has in fact appeared and actually docked before celebrating... as their journey may have been a failure...

The Lovers
(Reversed)

Two of Wands
(Reversed)

The Empress
(Reversed)

CARD ONE: The Lovers (Reversed):

The Lovers card is about finding that other half of ourselves. It might be a person, but it can also be anything that completes us, that speaks to us - a career, a cause, a religion. It usually involves us making a choice to go for that something and so feel whole, unified.

Reversed, and the clearest opposite of coming together is being split apart, or it could be that a bad, or wrong, choice has been made. It can also indicate that there is something preventing the two halves from being united - an inability to choose to join together.

CARD TWO: Two of Wands

(Reversed): The Twos are about balance. Where there was one, now there are two: yin and yang, day and night - forces that may be found in all four suits.

Reverse the Twos and these forces start vying for dominance rather than co-existing. Likewise, there may be something that is keeping these two forces, ideas, from co-existing and the result is upset or imbalance.

Upright, this is a card about making an intuitive choice; reversed - something is preventing us from seeing any difference in the two, from being able to tell which one of the two is where our energy should best be invested.

CARD THREE: The Empress (Reversed): The Empress is all about creation, with the Empress as the ultimate mother - both the caring motherly kind, and the more distant, elegant kind, but in either case, she is watching over all her children.

Reversed, we get neglect instead of attention. There is no affection, no protection, no care is given. This can go for anything, not just children, neglecting a business or project has been abandoned.

The SUMMARY: It seems to me that a choice that is being presented to you is for the wrong reasons -- and therefore the wrong choice could be made as you are not using their head or intuition.

Ing's Free Personal Readings

Likewise with any other choices a to be person might make like the choice of a career, a cause, or a religion. You seem making them only for practical, earthly reasons, not because it makes you feel whole.

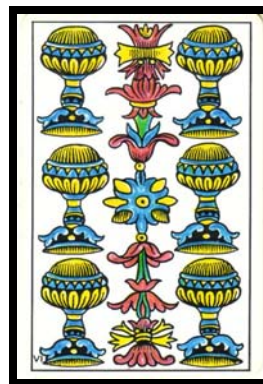

Time to stop and look to the real questions behind the motives of the offered choices and rethink the whole matter...start to finish...

6 of Cups

7 of Swords

Temperance

(Upright)

CARD ONE: 6 of Cups (Upright): The Sixes are the restoration of balance and harmony. These cards predict an exchange, a give and take that results in a new equilibrium. It may not last, but for that moment, everything is stable. As with all the sixes, this remarkable moment of happiness cannot last, no more than the children can stay innocent children.

CARD TWO: 7 of Swords (Upright):

The Sevens are a magic number, a number of creativity and individuality. Challenges are a part of life, and we often have to face them on our own.

The Seven of Swords is the "Thief" card, and literally (protect yourself against theft), it usually means a different type of stealing. Representing the intellect and communication, what might be stolen are ideas, something you've written, or a warning against those who are trying to extract information from them. Stand guard over what you value, and try to outwit the thief.

The Sevens require that you take control in a tough situation, manage your responsibilities, and find a way to succeed. The most common way to succeed is to remain steadfast within.

CARD THREE: Temperance (Upright):

While we often identify Temperance with abstinence. Temperance, however, really means moderation. Thus, you don't give up wine, but rather cut the wine with water. One thing to remember is that Temperance isn't about surrendering either the water or the wine. It is about mixing the two until you get exactly what you want, which is usually a perfect blend of the two.

With tempering, iron is transformed into steel with heating and cooling, fire and water. Temperance, at first glance, may be taken as a warning to "temper" your behavior, but it may also be a reminder that seemingly irreconcilable opposites may not be irreconcilable.

The SUMMARY: While it is true that "new customers" are not attracted by the same old same old ideas and routines... do not become too attached to the "known, standard approaches" as the only way or be afraid to experience anything new or unknown.

Ing's Free Personal Readings

Try something new, modern, advanced...this is what you need to do to attract new customers ... but do not give up on the proven... This is where the "moderation" message comes in... Try to make your ambitions more realistic and you will achieve it...
