Pagan Calendar December 2016

December 1 In some parts of the world, the first day of December is the traditional time for young girls to perform the ancient art of cromniomancy (divination by onion sprouts) to find out the name of their future husband.

To find out who your future husband will be, take some onions and upon each one carve or write a different man's name. Place the onions near a fire and the man whose name is on the onion that sprouts first will be the one.

December 2 In what is now known as Bodh Gaya, India, the world's oldest and most sacred tree (planted in the year 282 B.C. and believed to be an offshoot of the Bodhi or Bo-tree that the Buddha sat under when he achieved enlightenment) is honored annually on this date by Tibetan Buddhist pilgrims with prayers, chants, and brightly colored flags.

On this day, an annual women's festival called Hari Kugo (Broken Needles) takes place in the city of Tokyo. It commemorates women's crafts and is dedicated to all patron goddesses of Japanese craftswomen.

December 3 In ancient Rome, secret women's rites were performed annually on this date in honor of Bona Dea, the Good Goddess. All males were barred from the ceremonies, which were conducted by vestal virgins.

In ancient Greece, this day was sacred to the goddess Cybele and also to Rhea, the Great Mother of the Earth.

December 4 On this date in ancient Rome, the goddess Minerva was honored with an annual festival. Minerva (the Roman counterpart of the Greek Athena) is a goddess of battle and also a patroness of the arts and wisdom.

In West Africa, this day is sacred to the Yoruban god Chango. He is a god of lightning bolts, and the son of the deities Yemaya and Orungan.

December 5 In ancient Greece, an annual seaside festival (the Poseidea) was celebrated annually on this date to honor the sea-god Poseidon, consort of the Mother Goddess.

In Italy, the First Feast of Saint Lucia is held on this date each year. Before being Christianized into a Saint, she was originally worshiped as Lucina, a Pagan goddess of light who also presided over childbirth.

December 6 On this day in the year 1890, famous occultists and ritual magician Dion Fortune was born in Wales. Although Ms. Fortune never proclaimed herself to be a Witch, her numerous writings are popular among (and inspiring to) many modern Witches, Wiccans, and Neo-Pagans around the world. She died from leukemia on January 8, 1946.

December 7 On this date in ancient Greece, an annual rite called the Haloia of Demeter was performed. According to mythology, each year the goddess Demeter wanders the earth in search of her stolen daughter Persephone. The goddess' sorrow brings Winter to the world and all trees and flowers cease to bloom; however, Spring returns when Persephone is allowed to temporarily leave the darkness of the Underworld and Demeter once again rejoices.

December 8 On this day, the birth of the ancient and powerful goddess of the sun (Amaterasu) is celebrated annually at Shinto temples throughout Japan.

In Egypt, the Festival of Neith is celebrated annually on this date to honor the Earth-Goddess of the Delta.

December 9 The ninth day of the last month of the year (along with the sixth and seventh days) is considered to be an extremely unlucky time, according to Grafton in his Manuel (a sixteenth-century book of unlucky days as determined by professional star-gazers).

In Mexico, the healing virgin-goddess Tonantzin is honored on this day with an annual festival called the Fiesta of the Mother of Health.

December 10 On this night (approximately), Inuit hunters in the far north begin an annual five-day series of purification rites, followed by a propitiation ceremony under the full moon, for the souls of the animals they had hunted in the last year. The December Moon ceremony has been performed in the Arctic coastal regions of North America for hundreds of years.

December 11 Day of Bruma. On this date, the ancient Roman goddess of the winter season was honored by Pagans in Italy with an annual festival.

This day is also sacred to Arianrhod, the Snow Queen goddess, and Yuki Onne.

December 12 The victories of good over evil and light over darkness are celebrated annually at sunset on this date (approximately) with the Zoroastrian fire festival of Sada.

In Mexico, the annual Our Lady of Guadalupe religious festival takes place on this day. It is a sacred day to the goddesses Coatlique, Tonantzin, and the Black Madonna.

December 13 Saint Lucia's Day. On this day, a candlelight festival is celebrated throughout Sweden. The first-born daughter of each family wears a flowing white gown and a crown of candles around her head, obviously in reference to the ancient Pagan symbols of fire and lifegiving light. The daughter traditionally serves her mother and father breakfast in bed.

December 14 On this date in the year 1503, the famous French prophet and astrologer Michel de Nostradamus was born in Saint Remy de Provence. He experienced many psychic visions during his childhood, and he later studied the Holy Qabalah, astrology, astronomy, medicine, and mathematics. The first collection of his uncannily accurate visions, written in the form of rhymed quatrains, was published in the year 1555. Three years later, a second and larger collection of his prophecies--reaching into the year 3979--was published. Nostradamus died on July 1, 1566.

December 15 Halcyon Days. According to ancient legend, the seven days before the winter solstice and the seven days following it are a special time of tranquility and calm, due to the magical powers of the halcyon (a fabled bird who nested on the sea and calmed the wind and the waves during the winter solstice).

In Puerto Rico, the Yule Child is honored by a religious festival called Navidades, which begins annually on this day. It is celebrated until the sixth of January.

December 16 In Mexico, the Yule Child is honored by a religious festival called Posadas, which begins annually on this day. It is celebrated until the twenty-fourth of December.

This day is sacred to the Pagan wisdom-goddesses Athena, Kista, Maat, Minerva, the Shekinah, and Sophia.

The Soyal ceremony is celebrated annually on this date (approximately) by the Native American tribe of the Hopi in the southwestern United States. The rites of the Soyal celebrate the return of the sun (Life) and commemorate the creation and rebirth of the Spider Woman and Hawk Maiden.

December 17 Saturnalia. The Roman god Saturn was honored in ancient times during this annual midwinter festival, which began on this date and lasted until the twenty-fourth of December. This was a week of feasting, merriment, gift-giving, charades, and the lighting of torches and candles.

December 18 On this day in Latvia, the birth of the god Diev and the rebirth of the Sun is celebrated annually with a four-day winter festival. Houses are festively decorated and traditional feasts are prepared to welcome the four gift-bearing celestial beings who are the heralds of the winter solstice.

On the second day of the Saturnalia, the ancient Romans celebrated the Eponalia (a feast dedicated to Epona, the Celtic Mother-Goddess and a patroness of horses).

December 19 On the third day of the Saturnalia, the ancient Romans celebrated the Opalia, a feast dedicated to Ops (Abundance), the harvest goddess of fertility and success, and the consort of the god Saturn.

This day was also sacred to the Roman fertility goddess Sabine.

The Hindu goddess Sankranti is honored annually on this date (approximately) by a Hindu Solstice celebration called Pongol.

December 20 On this day in the year 1946, famous Israeli psychic Uri Geller was born in Tel Aviv. His metal-bending and mind-reading abilities developed at the age of five when he was accidentally shocked by his mother's electric sewing machine. He began his career as a fulltime professional stage performer in 1969.

December 21 On the first day of winter (which normally occurs on or near this date), the Winter Solstice sabbath is celebrated by Wiccans and Witches throughout the world. It is the festival of the Sun's rebirth, and a time to honor the Horned God. (The aspect of the God invoked at this sabbath by certain Wiccan traditions is Frey, the Scandinavian fertility god and a deity associated with peace and prosperity.) On this sabbath, Witches bid farewell to the Great Mother and welcome the reborn Horned God who rules the dark half of the year.

December 22 On this date (approximately), the Sun enters the astrological sign of Capricorn. Persons born under the sign of the Goat are said to be ambitious, practical, loyal, and often reclusive. Capricorn is an earth sign and is ruled by the planet Saturn.

On this date in the year 1970, famous Wiccan authors Stewart and Janet Farrar founded their own coven.

December 23 In early times, a Pagan religious ceremony called the Laurentina was held in Rome each year on this date. It celebrated the recovery of light from the darkness of the winter solstice, and was dedicated to the goddess Acca Laurentia or Lara (the mother of the Lares).

The demigod Balom is honored annually by the Kalash people with a weeklong festival called the Chaomos, which begins on this date.

December 24 Christmas Eve. According to Finnish folklore, the ghosts of departed loved ones return home each year on this night. It is a Christmas Eve tradition in Finland and in many other parts of Europe for families to light white candles on the graves of their ancestors.

According to superstition, if a man proposes to his beloved on Christmas Eve and she accepts, they will surely enjoy a happy and love-filled marriage.

December 25 Birthday of the Invincible Sun (Dies Natalis Invicti Solis).

Before being Christianized as the Mass of Christ (Christmas), a festival honoring the god of the sun was celebrated on this day in ancient Rome. It was made a public holiday by the Emperor Aurelian in the year A.D. 272 and consisted of the lighting of sacred bonfires.

On Christmas Day, according to German folklore, a Yuletide Witch known as the Lutzel Frau flies through the sky on her broom, bringing mischief to mortals who fail to honor her with small presents. Another Yuletide Witch of German folklore is Perchta. In the southern regions of the country, it was an old Yuletide custom for children wearing masks and carrying besoms (Witch brooms) to go door to door (in "trick or treat" fashion) begging for gifts in the name of Perchta.

December 26 On this day, the first day of Yuletide begins. It continues until the Twelfth-day (January 6).

The Junkanoo festival takes place annually on this day in the Bahama Islands. Old gods are honored and ancient magic is re-invoked as music, dancing, and costumed marchers fill the streets until the crack of dawn. This day is sacred to various deities from around the world. Among them are Frau Sonne, Igaehindvo, the Star Faery, Sunne, and Yemaya.

December 27 On this day in the year 1959, Gerina Dunwich (eclectic Witch, professional astrologer, and author of many Witchcraft books, including the one you are now reading) was born in Chicago, Illinois under the sign of Capricorn with a Taurus rising.

The birth of Freya (the Norse goddess of fertility, love, and beauty) is celebrated on this day. Annual Pagan festivals in her honor are celebrated throughout the world by many Wiccans of the Saxon tradition.

December 28 On this day, an annual festival of peace and spiritual renewal is celebrated in parts of China. Offerings are made to gods and spirits, and a paper horse containing the names of all the members of the temple is set on fire in the ancient Taoist belief that the rising smoke will take the names up to heaven.

December 29 During this period, the eight-day Jewish Festival of Lights (also known as Hanukkah or Chanukah) is observed by Jews throughout the world. On each night of the festival, one additional candle is lit on a ceremonial nine-branched candelabrum called a menorah.

In ancient Greece, a Pagan religious festival called the Day of Nymphs was celebrated on this day in honor of Andromeda, Ariadne, and Artemis (the Greek counterpart of the goddess Diana).

December 30 On this date in the year 1916, Rasputin (a famous Russian mystic monk, occultist, and court magician) was assassinated by his enemy Prince Feliks Yusupov. Rasputin, who was drowned in the frozen Neva River, presaged his own death.

December 31 New Year's Eve. The modern custom of ringing bells and blowing horns to usher in the new year at midnight is derived from the old Pagan custom of noisemaking to scare away the evils of the old year. In certain parts of Japan, young men put on grotesque demon masks and costumes made of straw and go door to door collecting donations of money, rice cakes, and sake. This traditional New Year's Eve custom serves to drive out the demons of misfortune and ensure an abundant harvest for the new year.

Are you a Correllian or Witch School author? M. Rev. Don Lewis

Are you a Correllian or Witch School author? I know that we have quite a few of members who have published books over the years, and I am hoping to celebrate our Correllian and Witch School authors at the new Correllian home site (about which more soon).

If you are a Correllian Tradition member or a Witch School member who has one or more published books, I would love to feature you on the Authors page when the new site premieres, and celebrate the wonderful talent we have among us!

If you would like to be included, please contact me at DonLewisHP@aol.com with information about your book or books! We would also like to celebrate singers and musicians who have CDs available. We look forward to sharing knowledge of your work with all our members and friends!

CNT 50/50 Auction

Here is how it will work:

The first week of each month you will have the opportunity to add something you wish to sell into the Facebook Group. You will need to post a photo or photos and include a description of the item, including approx. size and whatever best serves to describe the item, including a starting bid and the price to mail to the U.S. (also Canada, Mexico and International) similar to what is offered during the Silent Auctions, if you choose. Likewise, our non-U.S. members can quote prices to mail within their country and or to Canada, Mexico and the U.S. You will have access to the Facebook group prior to the first week of each month to allow you to set things up.

Bidders will contact me with their bid, either via email windy0716@aol.com or message me through Facebook and you will be assigned a bidder ID that can be used each month. To protect your identity, I will post bids on your behalf as requested for the duration of each month's auction.

At the conclusion of the auction, bidding ends and the winning bidder will then send the full amount of the winning bid, plus the full mailing fee to the email account of windy0716@aol.com Paypal. Upon verification that the bidder has received the item or service, I will then transfer the monies to the Correllian Nativist Traditions, Paypal account and the other half to the person who placed the item up for auction plus the mailing fee.

If you sell on Etsy or have their own websites, this will give you an opportunity to not only sell your product and help the Tradition, but also is an excellent marketing tool to include your website so bidders can also see your other products.

So take a look around your home for things you no longer want and consider selling them on the CNT 50/50 Auctions Facebook Group:

A SPIRITUAL WAR FOR PEACE

Please join the members of the Contemplation Temple each month for the global rolling peace Prayer.

Please say the Correllian Peace Prayer or one of your own on the 22nd day of each month at 9pm your time.

Join in on the 'Correllian Spiritual War for Peace' Prayer for Peace

Offer a brief prayer for peace, while imagining the sigil strongly. Meditate on thoughts of peace, love, and healing, focusing these energies into the sigil. As you do this, imagine the spiral circling inward, integrating the energy into the sigil. When you have sent all the energy that you comfortably can, give thanks and allow the image of the sigil to fade. Make sure to clear and release afterward.

The Correllian Peace Sigil is connected to the Crystal Web enabling peace energy to spread across the world.

Correllian Peace Prayer

I pray for Peace
I pray for Love
I pray for Stability
I pray that Love may overcome Fear
And I send energy of Love and Peace
For all people of the World
I create it, I accept it, and I receive it
By my will so mote it be!

If you have participated in the rolling peace prayer each month and would like to add your area to the rolling peace prayer map please email your country and area to:

Blessings Campaign

Join the 'Blessings Campaign!' All Traditions welcome.

This campaign is a great opportunity to work with many Traditions spreading blessings across the land!

Blessings Campaign Facebook Group:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/952892624826309/>

Purpose:

The main message we are presenting to the world is, Pagans are growing in number and spirit across the earth. There are individuals that have never heard there is yet another way among many ways to live and this is just one.

To give offerings to the earth - To imbue blessings to all who read the messages - To inform the world we are here.

Implementing Blessings to the Physical World

Leave a positive message behind where ever we go. Write a message on something organic, i.e. a stone, leaf, shell or rice paper are just a few examples.

Messages:

Our main message is "Pagan Blessings," because it says everything in just two words!

Other suggestions are:

A Pagan just past By

A gift for you from a caring Pagan

Pagans giving to the World

A Pagan gift for you!

A Pagan offering for you!

I offer you Blessings from the Goddess

A Pagan brings this message to you: "You are forever!"

Pagans are here to heal.

Regarding Proselytizing

If someone has a concern about proselytizing; reassure him we are not inviting anyone to be part of anything, if receivers are curious they know how to secure information regarding Paganism.

Who Can Join:

Everyone! This campaign is open to all except trolls or folks selling items or services.

How Do I Join?:

You join by leaving your messages behind where ever you go. Naturally be considerate by where you leave your messages. This is why rice paper is good because it dissolves quickly. Stones are excellent because they are not litter, if left in an appropriate location.

Though not mandatory, you are welcome to join the Blessings' Campaign Group. There you will find many great ideas, plus great people. There are recipes for seed paper, organic paint, and moss art.

Starting a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group

Personal Shrines: Personal Shrines are a personal expression of faith and are wholly the property and responsibility of the individual Correllian who runs them. Personal Shrines are not considered bodies of the Tradition as such, but are a demonstration of personal piety on the part of an individual member of the Tradition. A Personal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Formal Shrines: Formal Shrines are Chartered bodies of the Tradition which exist to fulfil a specific spiritual, educational, or charitable purpose.

A Formal Shrine is basically the same as a Personal Shrine: a private worship centre maintained by an individual Correllian Tradition member of Inner Court. The difference is that a Formal Shrine is dedicated to a specific project, event, or program of a social or charitable nature which the Tradition endorses. A Formal Shrine cannot be upgraded!

Witan Shrines: Witan Shrines are the first stage in the Temple-making process. Witan Shrines must fulfil a probationary period of a MINIMUM of one year before being reviewed for Proto-Temple status which is the next stage in the Temple making process.

Correllian Orders: An Order is an association dedicated to the study or practice of a particular subject, such as ecology, healing, music, etc.

Although regarded as an independent body, an Order is formed by a Charter from the Tradition, which may only be granted by the Heads of Tradition through the office of the Chancellor. An Order may be formed around any subject of interest.

Correllian Study Groups: Like Personal Shrines, Study Groups are not formal bodies of the Tradition, but are independent groups run by Correllian members.

Study Groups exist to help students of Correllian Wicca join together to help one another in their studies.

For information on how to start a Shrine Order or Correllian Study Group or for an application form contact the Witan Herald: witanherald@gmail.com

Spanish Wiccan Blog and Pod Cast

Wiccan blog and pod cast in Spanish, 13 lunas (13 moons), created and maintained by Rev. Clara Fuentes (aka Harwe Tuileva), a Correllian priestess from Spain. The blog seeks to keep Pagans and Wiccans from all the Spanish-speaking countries informed by means of an easy access format, and, of course, for free. Besides, the recent creation of a radio program in the form of a podcast completes this successful project that is currently receiving more than 400 visits per day at its website. The wonderful reception granted by the Spanish-speaking community reflects the need of more information of the Pagan and Wiccan community, which was looking forward to counting on this kind of initiatives in their own language.

The Order of the Web Weavers has been working diligently on mapping the Crystal Web. If any of you have a crystal that you have added or removed from the Crystal Web contact us to ensure are records up to date and accurate.

The information we need in order to best catalogue your crystal/s is the following. Your Craft Name and E-mail Address along with your City, State, Country, Latitude, and Longitude. Sent to the following e-mail address: wwcw@correllianorders.info Please include the above information, if you have removed your crystal from the Crystal Web along with 'Remove' in the subject line. If you have added several crystals then we would need a separate entry for each crystal, unless they are located together. If they are located together then please include how many crystals are at that location.

We are excited about this project and hope that you will be too. Once the crystals have been properly catalogued we can then begin placing them on the map program. This will give us a good visualization on the Crystal Web. Thank you in advance for your participation in this wonderful project.

Bright Blessings,

The Order of Web Weavers
